SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act (5 U.S.C. Appendix 2), we, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, announce a public meeting of the International Wildlife Conservation Council (council). The council provides advice and recommendations to the Secretary of the Interior regarding the benefits that result from U.S. citizens traveling to foreign nations to engage in hunting.

Background

Formed in December 2017, the council is an advisory body whose duties include, but are not limited to:

1. Developing a plan for public engagement and education on the benefits of international hunting.
2. Reviewing and making recommendations for changes, when needed, on all Federal programs and/or regulations, to ensure support of hunting as:

- a. An enhancement to foreign wildlife conservation and survival, and

- b. An effective tool to combat illegal trafficking and poaching.

3. Recommending strategies to benefit the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's permit office in receiving timely country data and information so as to remove barriers that impact consulting with range states.

4. Recommending removal of barriers to the importation into the United States of legally hunted wildlife.

5. Ongoing review of import suspension/bans and providing recommendations that seek to resume the legal trade of those items, where appropriate.

6. Reviewing seizure and forfeiture actions/practices, and providing recommendations for regulations that will lead to a reduction of unwarranted actions.

7. Reviewing the Endangered Species Act's foreign listed species and interaction with the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Flora and Fauna, with the goal of eliminating regulatory duplications.

8. Recommending methods for streamlining/expediting processing of import permits.

Meeting Agenda

The council will convene to hear and discuss the following:

1. Presentations made by conservation experts and officials;
2. Administrative topics; and
3. Public comment, response, and recommendations (if appropriate).
