An up-to-date copy of the HTS, which incorporates the Harmonized System in its overall structure, is available on the Commission’s website at https://www.usitc.gov/.

Proposed Recommendations, Opportunity to Comment: In preparing its recommended modifications, the Commission will prepare proposed recommendations and then provide an opportunity to interested Federal agencies and the public to present their views in writing and/or at a public hearing on those proposed recommendations. The Commission expects to post the proposed recommendations on its website in March 2020, and will publish a notice in the Federal Register at that time providing notice of their availability and the procedures for filing written views, including the date by which such written views must be filed. To assist the public in understanding the proposed changes and in developing comments, the Commission will include, with the proposed recommendations, a non-authoritative cross-reference table linking the proposed tariff codes to the corresponding current tariff codes. Persons using the cross-reference table should be aware that the cross-references shown are subject to change during the course of the investigation.

Recommendations to the President: The Commission will submit its recommended modifications to the President in the form of a report that will include a summary of the information on which the recommendations were based, together with a statement of the probable economic effect of each recommended change on any industry in the United States. The report also will include a copy of all written views submitted by interested Federal agencies and a copy or summary, prepared by the Commission, of the views of all other interested parties. The Commission expects to submit that report in September 2020.

By order of the Commission
Issued: October 1, 2019.

Lisa Barton,
Secretary to the Commission.

RECORDS DISPOSAL AND SAFEGUARDS OF RECORDS: Microsoft Way, Redmond, WA 98052.

SYSTEM UPDATING AND REORGANIZATION: Substantive changes to JUSTICE/OJP–012 including: Adding a routine use that allows OJP to disclose to one claimant minimal relevant information from the records pertaining to another claimant in situations where—(a) the claims are or could be adverse; and (b) disclosure of the records would (or could) assist—(i) any such claimant in establishing his claim, or (ii) OJP in adjudicating any such claim; (2) revising the routine use related to disclosure of information to researchers by requiring approval by the Director of the Bureau of Justice Assistance, while allowing a broader scope of research to be conducted; and (3) adding a routine use that allows OJP to disclose records to appropriate governmental and professional organizational bodies when there is good cause to question the legality or ethical propriety of the actions of a claimant representative during the pendency of a claim.

The entire notice incorporating the new modifications is being republished for the convenience of the public.

28 CFR pt. 32 and 83 FR 22367 provide the eligibility requirements and procedures for the submission and consideration of claims under the PSOB Program. More detailed information regarding the PSOB Program is available on the PSOB Program’s website at www.psob.gov.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552(a), the Department has provided a report to determined that it would be in the interests of the United States; or
iv. The United States (or any agency, department, or instrumentality thereof), where the OJP determines that it would be in the interests of the United States.

B. To Federal, state, local, territorial, or tribal governments, to agencies, departments, or instrumentalities of such governments, and to non-profit entities engaged in rescue activity or the provision of emergency medical services, as necessary to obtain information relevant to the adjudication of a claim for program benefits, including whether such benefits have been or are being paid improperly.

C. To appropriate government agencies, to coordinate, with such agencies, the timing or offsetting of benefits, under or in connection with programs they administer (including whether such benefits have been or are being paid improperly), as may be required or authorized by law (including whether offsetting benefits were paid under 34 U.S.C. 10281(f)).

D. To entities and persons that provide national peer support and counseling programs to families of public safety officers who have sustained a fatal or catastrophic injury in the line of duty.

E. To researchers or statisticians, with the approval of the BJA Director, for any research or statistical purposes consonant with the mission of the PSOB program.

F. To claimants, prospective claimants, or their authorized representatives, to the extent necessary to facilitate their pursuit of their claims for program benefits.

G. To an employer or school having information that is or may be relevant to a claim, in order to obtain information from the same to the extent necessary to adjudicate a claim for program benefits (including whether such benefits have been or are being paid improperly).

H. To labor unions, national public safety organizations, and other voluntary employee associations of which the claimant is, or the deceased employee’s former area of responsibility.

I. To the Executive Office of the President, for the purpose of responding to an individual pursuant to an inquiry received from that individual or from a third party on his behalf, but only when the individual has sought that Office’s assistance in a matter relating to a claim for program benefits and that Office makes an inquiry and indicates that it is acting on behalf of the individual whose record is requested.

J. To any or all of the following (on OJP’s initiative), where the OJP determines that there is or may be good cause to question the legality or ethical propriety of the conduct of a person or entity representing a person in a matter before the agency: (1) Applicable civil or criminal law enforcement authorities; (2) a person or entity responsible for the licensing, supervision, or professional discipline of the person or organization acting as a representative; and (3) the office in DOJ responsible for making referrals to licensing bodies or for supervisory or professional discipline.

K. Where OJP determines that a record, either alone or in conjunction with other information, does or may indicate a violation of law (criminal, civil, or regulatory in nature), to an appropriate Federal, state, local, territorial, tribal, or foreign law enforcement authority or other appropriate entity charged with the responsibility for investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing such law.

L. To any person or entity that OJP has reason to believe does or may possess information regarding a matter relevant to the adjudication of a claim for program benefits, including whether such benefits have been or are being paid improperly.

M. In an appropriate proceeding before a court, grand jury, or administrative or adjudicative body, when DOJ determines that the records are arguably relevant to the proceeding; or in an appropriate proceeding before an administrative or adjudicative body when the adjudicator determines the records to be relevant to the proceeding.

N. To the news media and the public, including disclosures pursuant to 28 CFR 50.2, unless it is determined that release of the specific information in the particular context would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

O. To contractors, grantees, experts, consultants, students, and others performing or working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other assignment for the Federal government, when necessary to accomplish a Federal function related to this system of records.

P. To a former DOJ employee, for purposes of: Responding to an official inquiry by a Federal, state, or local government entity or professional licensing organization in accordance with applicable DOJ regulations; or facilitating communications with such former DOJ employee, as may be necessary for personnel-related or other official purposes where DOJ requires information and/or consultation assistance from the former employee regarding a matter within that former employee’s former area of responsibility.

Q. To a Member of Congress (or staff acting on the Member’s behalf) when the same requests the information on behalf of, and at the request of, the individual who is the subject of the record.

R. To the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) or the General Services Administration for record management inspections and such other activities conducted under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

S. To appropriate agencies, entities, or persons, when (1) DOJ suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records; (2) DOJ has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, property, DOJ (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, or persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the DOJ’s efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

T. To a Federal agency or department (or an instrumentality of the Federal Government), when DOJ determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (1) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach; or (2) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, property, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.

U. To such recipients and under such circumstances and procedures as are mandated by Federal statute or treaty.
