SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On May 13, 2019, the Commission published in the Federal Register an NPRM proposing amendments to certain regulations applicable to swap data repositories (SDRs), reporting counterparties, and other market participants.¹ The proposed amendments would, among other things, update requirements for SDRs to verify swap data with reporting counterparties, update requirements to correct swap data errors and omissions, and update and clarify certain SDR operational and governance requirements.

The comment period for the NPRM was scheduled to close on July 29, 2019. The Commission subsequently extended the comment period for the NPRM by an additional 90 days to October 28, 2019.² At the request of market participants,³ the Commission is again extending the comment period for this NPRM for an additional 90 days to January 27, 2020. This extension of the comment period will allow interested persons additional time to analyze the proposal and prepare their comments.

As stated in the NPRM,⁴ the Commission anticipates reopening or extending the comment period for this NPRM to coincide with the comment periods for the additional planned rulemakings under the Commission's Roadmap to Achieve High Quality Swaps Data ("Roadmap"),⁵ in order to provide market participants with the opportunity to comment collectively on all rulemakings proposed under the Roadmap. The Commission does not anticipate further extending the comment period for this NPRM in the absence of the additional Roadmap rulemakings. In the instance where the additional Roadmap rulemakings are not proposed before the expiration of the extended comment period for this NPRM, the Commission anticipates reopening this comment period when the remaining Roadmap rulemakings are proposed.

Issued in Washington, DC, on October 24, 2019, by the Commission.

Robert Sidman,
Deputy Secretary of the Commission.
