FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Agency Information Collection Activities; Proposed Collection; Comment Request; Extension

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Federal Trade Commission ("FTC" or "Commission") is seeking public comment on its proposal to extend for an additional three years, the current PRA clearance for its shared enforcement authority with the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau ("CFPB") for information collection requirements contained in the CFPB's Regulation O. That clearance expires on February 29, 2020.

DATES: Comments must be filed by December 30, 2019.

ADDRESSES: Interested parties may file a comment online or on paper, by following the instructions in the Request for Comment part of the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section below. Write "MARS (Regulation O) PRA Comment, FTC File No. P134812" on your comment, and file your comment online at <https://www.regulations.gov> by following the instructions on the web-based form. If you prefer to file your comment on paper, mail your comment to the following address: Federal Trade Commission, Office of the Secretary, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Suite CC-5610 (Annex J), Washington, DC 20580, or deliver your comment to the following address: Federal Trade Commission, Office of the Secretary, Constitution Center, 400 7th Street SW, 5th Floor, Suite 5610 (Annex J), Washington, DC 20024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Requests for additional information should be addressed to Stephanie Rosenthal, Division of Financial Practices, Bureau of Consumer Protection, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20580, (202) 326-3332.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Title X of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act ("Dodd-Frank Act"), Public Law 111-203, 124 Stat. 1376 (2010), transferred the Commission's rulemaking authority under the mortgage provisions in section 626 of the 2009 Omnibus Appropriations Act, as amended,¹ to the CFPB.² On December 16, 2011, the CFPB republished the Mortgage Assistance Relief Services ("MARS") Rule as Regulation O (12 CFR 1015).³ As a result, the Commission subsequently rescinded its MARS Rule (16 CFR part 322).⁴ Nonetheless, under the Dodd-Frank Act, the FTC retains its authority to bring law enforcement actions to enforce Regulation O.⁵

Regulation O contains information collection requirements that have been approved by OMB under the PRA, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq. (OMB Control Number 3084-0157). The FTC, as a co-enforcer, seeks OMB clearance for its share of the estimated PRA burden for the information collection requirements of Regulation O. The Rule includes disclosure requirements to assist purchasers of mortgage assistance relief services in making well-informed decisions and avoiding unfair or deceptive acts and practices. The information that must be retained under Regulation O’s recordkeeping requirements is used by the CFPB and the FTC for enforcement purposes and to ensure compliance by MARS providers with Regulation O.

Burden Statement

Because the FTC and CFPB share enforcement authority for this rule, the FTC is seeking clearance for one-half of the following burden estimates. These estimates are based on the agencies’ law enforcement experience and the recent analysis conducted as part of the CFPB’s clearance renewal for the information collections associated with Regulation O.⁶ The FTC and CFPB estimate that there are approximately 120 for-profit, non-attorney entities offering MARS services and subject to Regulation O’s requirements.⁷

Estimated annual hours burden: 360 (FTC share).

FTC staff estimates that compliance with Regulation O’s disclosure requirements for MARS providers requires 6 hours of labor annually.⁸ Multiplying this figure by 120 entities yields a total burden for covered providers of 720 hours annually.⁹ For PRA purposes, the FTC and CFPB share enforcement authority and split the information collection burden associated with the Rule equally. As a result, the FTC assumes 360 hours of this total annual hours burden.

Estimated associated labor cost: $11,747 (FTC share).

In calculating the associated labor costs, FTC staff estimates that a compliance officer or equivalent will prepare the required disclosures at an hourly rate of $32.63/hr.¹⁰ Thus, the estimated annual labor cost is $23,494 (120 providers × 6 hours × $33.26) of which the FTC assumes half, or $11,747.

Information collection	Number of respondents	Annual burden hours per respondent	Total burden hours	Associated hourly labor cost	Total respondent costs
FTC 50% Share	120	6	720 360	$32.63	$23,494 11,747

Request for Comment

Pursuant to Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the PRA, the FTC invites comments on:

- (1) Whether the disclosure and recordkeeping requirements are necessary, including whether the information will be practically useful;
- (2) the accuracy of our burden estimates, including whether the methodology and assumptions used are valid;
- (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- (4) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information.

You can file a comment online or on paper. For the FTC to consider your comment, we must receive it on or before December 30, 2019. CMS-416 Annual Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnostic and Treatment (EPSDT) Participation Report

Under the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520), federal agencies must obtain approval from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for each collection of information they conduct or sponsor. The term "collection of information" is defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502(3) and 5 CFR 1320.3(c) and includes agency requests or requirements that members of the public submit reports, keep records, or provide information to a third party. Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the PRA requires federal agencies to publish a 60-day notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information, including each proposed extension or reinstatement of an existing collection of information, before submitting the collection to OMB for approval.
