

Departmental system of records, your request must conform to the Privacy Act regulations set forth in 7 CFR part 1, subpart G. You must first verify your identity, meaning that you must provide your full name, current address, and date and place of birth. You must sign your request, and your signature must either be notarized or submitted under 28 U.S.C. 1746, a law that permits statements to be made under penalty of perjury as a substitute for notarization. While no specific form is required, you may obtain more information for this purpose from the AMS FOIA and Privacy Act Officer, Telephone: (202) 205-0288; Email: ams.foia@usda.gov. In addition, you should provide the following:

- An explanation of why you believe the Department would have information on you;
- Identify which component(s) of the Department you believe may have the information about you;
- Specify when you believe the record would have been created; and
- Provide any other information that will help the FOIA staff determine which AMS component agency may have responsive records.

If your request is seeking records pertaining to another living individual, you must include a statement from that individual certifying his or her agreement for you to access his or her records.

Without complete information, the component(s) may not be able to conduct an effective search, and your request may be denied due to lack of specificity or lack of compliance with applicable regulations.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

Individuals seeking to contest or amend information maintained in the system should direct their requests to the address indicated in the "Record Access" section, above. An individual who is the subject of a record in this system may seek to amend their records. A determination whether a record may be amended will be made at the time a request is received.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES:

Any individual may request general information regarding this system of records or information as to whether the system contains records pertaining to him/her from the System Manager. All inquiries pertaining to this system should be in writing and submitted to the address listed below in the Records Access Procedures section, must name the system of records as set forth in the system notice, and must contain the

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Codex was established in 1963 by two United Nations organizations, the Food and Agriculture Organization and the World Health Organization. Through adoption of food standards, codes of practice, and other guidelines developed by its committees, and by promoting their adoption and implementation by governments, Codex seeks to protect the health of consumers and ensure fair practices in the food trade.

The Terms of Reference of the Codex Committee on General Principles (CCGP) are to deal with such procedural and general matters as are referred to it by the Codex Alimentarius Commission, including:

(a) The review or endorsement of procedural provisions/texts forwarded by other subsidiary bodies for inclusion in the Procedural Manual of the Codex Alimentarius Commission; and

(b) The consideration and recommendation of other amendments to the Procedural Manual.

The CCGP is hosted by France. The United States attends the CCGP as a member country of Codex.

Issues To Be Discussed at the Public Meeting

The following items on the Agenda for the 32nd Session of the CCGP will be discussed during the public meeting:

- Matters referred to the committee

- Information on activities of FAO and WHO relevant to the work of CCGP
- Procedural guidance for committees working by correspondence
- Revisions/amendments to Codex texts
- Format and structure of the Codex Procedural Manual
- Discussion paper on monitoring the use of Codex Standards
- Discussion paper on monitoring Codex results in the Context of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
- Other business

Public Meeting

At the February 21, 2020 public meeting, draft U.S. positions on the agenda items will be described and discussed, and attendees will have the opportunity to pose questions and offer comments. Written comments may be offered at the meeting or sent to Ms. Mary Frances Lowe, U.S. Delegate for the 32nd Session of the CCGP (see ADDRESSES). Written comments should state that they relate to activities of the 32nd Session of the CCGP.
