Abstract: Under section 1071 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, the Equal Credit Opportunity Act was amended to require financial institutions, subject to a regulation to be issued by the Bureau to compile, maintain, and report to the Bureau certain information about applications for credit made by women-owned, minority-owned, and small businesses. As part of the statutory requirements of our rulemaking process, the Office of Research has developed a cost of compliance survey in an effort to more accurately measure the costs associated with rule implementation. More specifically, the objective of this survey is to solicit, from institutions offering small business credit products that could potentially be covered by this rule, information about potential one-time costs to prepare to collect and report data. This survey will not cover potential on-going costs from actually collecting and reporting data.
