SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Background

The Federal Home Loan Bank System (System) consists of eleven regional Federal Home Loan Banks (Banks) and the Office of Finance (a joint office of the Banks that issues and services their debt securities). The Banks are wholesale financial institutions, organized under authority of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act (Bank Act) to serve the public interest by enhancing the availability of residential housing finance and community lending credit through their member institutions and, to a limited extent, through eligible non-member “housing associates.” Each Bank is structured as a regional cooperative that is owned and controlled by member financial institutions located within its district, which are also its primary customers.

Section 10(g)(1) of the Bank Act requires the Director of FHFA to promulgate regulations establishing standards of community investment or service that Bank member institutions must meet in order to maintain access to long-term advances (i.e., loans made by a Bank to a member).¹ Section 10(g)(2) of the Bank Act requires that, in establishing these community support requirements for Bank members, FHFA take into account factors such as the member’s performance under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977 (CRA)² and record of lending to first-time homebuyers.³ FHFA’s community support regulation, which establishes standards and review criteria for determining compliance with section 10(g) of the Bank Act, is set forth at 12 CFR part 1290.

Part 1290 requires that each Bank member subject to community support review submit to FHFA biennially a completed Community Support Statement (Form 060), which contains several short questions the answers to which are used by FHFA to assess the responding member’s compliance with the community support standards.⁴

¹ See 12 U.S.C. 1430(g)(1). By regulation, FHFA has defined “long-term” advances to be those with an original term to maturity greater than five years. See 12 CFR 1266.1.

² 12 U.S.C. 2901 et seq.

³ See 12 U.S.C. 1430(g)(2).

⁴ See 12 CFR 1290.2. Non-depository community development financial institutions and institutions
