

the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

8. Labor Relations—To officials of labor organizations recognized under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 71 upon receipt of a formal request and in accord with the conditions of 5 U.S.C. 7114 when relevant and necessary to their duties of exclusive representation concerning personnel policies, practices, and matters affecting conditions of employment.

9. Breach Notification—To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when: (a) The Commission suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records; (b) the Commission has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, the Commission (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (c) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the Commission's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

10. Assistance to Federal Agencies and Entities—To another Federal agency or Federal entity, when the Commission determines that information from this system is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in: (a) Responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (b) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, program, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.

REPORTING TO A CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCY:

In addition to the routine uses listed above, the Commission may share information from this system of records with a consumer reporting agency regarding an individual who has not paid a valid and overdue debt owed to the Commission, following the procedures set out in the Debt Collection Act, 31 U.S.C. 3711(e).

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

The information in the MVMP system includes electronic data, records, and files that are stored in the FCC's computer network databases; and paper documents, records, and files that are stored in file cabinets in the ASC office suite and in the EB office suite and field offices.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

Information in the electronic MVMP databases and the paper documents and files can be retrieved by the driver's name.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS:

The FCC maintains and disposes of these records in accordance with the requirements of General Records Schedule (GRS) 5.4 issued by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), under the following Disposition Authorities:

Item 010: DAA-GRS-2016-0011-

0001: Facility, space, vehicle, equipment, stock, and supply administrative and operational records;

Item 030: DAA-GRS-2016-0011-0003: Vehicle and equipment ownership records and operation manual;

Item 040: DAA-GRS-2016-0011-0004: Excess personal property, equipment, and vehicle records;

Item 090: DAA-GRS-2016-0011-0011: Land vehicle and water vessel inspection, maintenance, and service records;

Item 110: DAA-GRS-2016-0011-0014: Vehicle and heavy equipment operator records;⁴ and Item 140: DAA-GRS-2016-0011-0017: Vehicle and vessel accident and incident records.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

The electronic records, files, and data are stored within FCC accreditation boundaries. Access to the electronic files is restricted to authorized ASC supervisors, employees, and contractors in the Office of Managing Director; the supervisors, employees, and contractors in EB and OGC; and the IT staff, contractors, and vendors who maintain the networks and services. Other FCC employees, contractors, vendors, and users may be granted access on a need-to-know basis. The records in the FCC's computer network are protected by the FCC and third-party privacy safeguards, a comprehensive and dynamic set of IT safety and security protocols and features that are designed to meet all Federal IT privacy standards, including those required by the Federal ⁴ The FCC collects and uses state drivers' licensing and certification information only on a temporary basis to verify that FCC headquarters contract drivers (i.e., chauffeur services) and FCC employees (authorized and/or required to use FCC owned or leased vehicles to perform their job duties) meet applicable state licensing and Federal operating requirements that authorize use of Federal government owned/leased vehicles, as required by 5 CFR Sections 930.109 and 930.110. This information is destroyed once each driver's information is validated.

Information Security Modernization Act of 2014 (FISMA), the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), and the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST).

The paper documents are maintained in file cabinets that are located in the ASC, EB, OGC, and OMD office suites. Access to the file cabinets in these office suites is through a card-coded main door. The file cabinets are locked at the end of the day, or when not in use. Access to these files is restricted to authorized ASC, EB, OGC, and OMD supervisors, employees, and contractors.

Information Collection Being Reviewed by the Federal Communications Commission

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Notice and request for comments.

SUMMARY: As part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork burdens, and as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA), the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on the following information collections. Comments are requested concerning: Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; the accuracy of the Commission's burden estimate; ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on the respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and ways to further reduce the information collection burden on small business concerns with fewer than 25 employees. The FCC may not conduct or sponsor a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. No person shall be subject to any penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information subject to the PRA that does not display a valid OMB control number.

DATES: Written comments should be submitted on or before July 17, 2020. If you anticipate that you will be submitting comments, but find it difficult to do so within the period of time allowed by this notice, you should advise the contacts below as soon as possible.

ADDRESSES: Direct all PRA comments to Cathy Williams, FCC, via email PRA@fcc.gov and to Cathy.Williams@fcc.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For additional information about the information collection, contact Cathy Williams at (202) 418-2918.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: As part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork burdens, and as required by the PRA of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520), the FCC invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on the following information collections. Comments are requested concerning: whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; the accuracy of the Commission's burden estimate; ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on the respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and ways to further reduce the information collection burden on small business concerns with fewer than 25 employees.
