

A Federal Register notice with a 60-day public comment period soliciting comments on this collection of information was published on March 10, 2020 (85 FR 13922). No comments were received.

As part of our continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burdens, we are again soliciting comments from the public and other Federal agencies on the proposed ICR that is described below. We are especially interested in public comment addressing the following:

(1) Whether or not the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether or not the information will have practical utility;

(2) The accuracy of our estimate of the burden for this collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) How might the agency minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of response.

Comments that you submit in response to this notice are a matter of public record. Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Abstract: This series of surveys is needed to ensure that technical assistance activities, technology transfer activities and technical forums are useful for those who participate or receive the assistance. Specifically, representatives from State and Tribal regulatory and reclamation authorities, representatives of industry, environmental or citizen groups, or the public, are the recipients of the assistance or participants in these forums. These surveys will be the primary means through which OSMRE evaluates its performance in meeting the performance goals outlined in its annual plans developed pursuant to the Government Performance and Results Act.

Title of Collection: Technical Evaluation Surveys.
OMB Control Number: 1029–0114.
Form Number: None.
Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Respondents/Affected Public: Individuals who request information or assistance, although generally States and Tribal employees.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Respondents: 222.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Responses: 222.

Estimated Completion Time per Response: 5 minutes.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Burden Hours: 19 hours.

Respondent's Obligation: Required to obtain or retain a benefit.

Frequency of Collection: Annually.

Total Estimated Annual Nonhour Burden Cost: None.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

The authority for this action is the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.).

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731–TA–991 (Third Review)]

Silicon Metal From Russia

Determination

On the basis of the record<sup>1</sup> developed in the subject five-year review, the United States International Trade Commission (“Commission”) determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 (“the Act”), that revocation of the antidumping duty order on silicon metal from Russia would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.

Background

The Commission instituted this review on June 3, 2019 (84 FR 25561) and determined on September 6, 2019 that it would conduct a full review (84

FR 49763, September 23, 2019). Notice of the scheduling of the Commission’s review and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register on December 10, 2019 (84 FR 67475). In light of the restrictions on access to the Commission building due to the COVID–19 pandemic, and in accordance with 19 U.S.C. 1677c(a)(1), the Commission did not cancel its hearing scheduled for March 31, 2020, but conducted its hearing through a series of written questions, submissions of written testimony, written responses to questions, posthearing briefs, and closing statements presented via video and teleconference; all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to participate.

The Commission made this determination pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)). It completed and filed its determination in this review on May 28, 2020. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 5058 (May 2020), entitled Silicon Metal from Russia: Investigation No. 731–TA–991 (Third Review).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: May 28, 2020.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.
