Overview of This Information Collection

(1) Type of Information Collection: Reinstatement, without change of a previously approved collection.

(2) The Title of the Form/Collection: Denial of Federal Benefits/Defense Procurement and Fraud Debarment Programs (DFB).

(3) The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the department sponsoring the collection: The applications process is managed electronically by a web based program which can be accessed at: <https://dfb.bja.ojp.gov>.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: All United States federal and state district court judges and prosecutors, the U.S. Department of Defense, defense contractors and subcontractors as well as federal agencies that issue federal benefits.

Abstract: The Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988, Public Law 100-690, Section 5301 (21 U.S.C. Section 862) provides federal, state, and local courts with a central clearinghouse vehicle to deny certain federal benefits to individuals convicted of any federal or state offense involving the distribution or possession of a controlled substance.

In response to the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988, the President directed the Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, to act as an Information Clearinghouse for the federal and state courts. Specifically, DOJ has been charged with collecting all incoming information generated by the courts regarding those individuals to whom benefits were to be denied pursuant to 21 U.S.C. Section 862. The names of the sanctioned individuals are then submitted to the General Service Administration for inclusion in the List of Parties Excluded from Federal Procurement or Non-procurement Programs, better known as the "Debarment List" at SAM.gov. The Defense Procurement Fraud Debarment Clearinghouse is also operated by the Bureau of Justice Assistance. It was established by Section 815, Subsection

10, of the National Defense Authorization Act for fiscal year (FY) 1993 [Public Law 102-484, 10 United States Code, Section 2408 (c)]. This provision requires the U.S. Attorney General to establish a single point of contact for contractors or subcontractors of the United States Department of Defense (DOD) to promptly confirm whether an individual has been convicted of fraud or any other felony arising out of a contract with the Department of Defense. Such individuals may be prohibited from engaging in certain activities including but not limited to receiving or working on any defense contracts, or any first tier subcontracts, for a period of 5 years. This list is also compiled and maintained in the Denial of Federal Benefits database and forwarded by BJA to GSA for inclusion in the Debarment List at SAM.gov.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: As of December, 2019 DOJ has received approximately 19,951 cases for debarment. In the last 3 years (2017 to 2019 inclusive) 1,490 cases were received. This is an average of 497 cases per year. Each application takes approximately 20 minutes to complete, scan and upload. This number includes cases received as a result of marketing and social media outreach directed to Courts which have a high personnel turn-over rate.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: Based upon the average number of submissions over the last 3 years, and the estimated time required to complete each submission, the estimated annual public burden would be 208 hours.

a. $497 \text{ cases} \times 25 \text{ minutes} = 12,425 \text{ minutes}/60 = 208 \text{ hours}$.
