I. Introduction

In accordance with 39 U.S.C. 3641 and 39 CFR part 3045, the Postal Service filed notice of its intent to conduct a market test of an experimental product called Extended Mail Forwarding.<sup>1</sup> The Postal Service states that currently, when residential and commercial postal customers move, they may file a permanent Change of Address (COA) request for the forwarding of mail addressed to their old address to the new address for one year. Notice at 1. After one year, mail bearing the customer's old address is returned to sender or wasted. Id. at 2. Extended Mail Forwarding will provide customers who submit a permanent COA request with the option of extending forwarding of all First-Class Mail, First-Class Package Service Commercial, and Priority Mail pieces beyond the one year period for a fee. Id. The Postal Service intends for the market test to run for two full years beginning on August 1, 2020. Id. at 3.

II. Background

On June 8, 2020, the Postal Service filed the Notice proposing the Extended Mail Forwarding market test. The Postal Service asserts that Extended Mail Forwarding will ensure customers receive mailpieces for which they are the intended recipient and which is more essential than ever before in light of the Coronavirus-19 pandemic. It states that customers will exercise greater control over their mail forwarding expiration dates with more time to update and communicate with their mailing contacts. Id. The Postal Service also asserts that Extended Mail Forwarding will provide cost savings for the Postal Service because the cost of forwarding is less than the cost of handling Undeliverable as Addressed mailpieces. Id. at 4.

The Postal Service states that Extended Mail Forwarding will be
