SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background.—In July 2018, the Commission unanimously determined that an industry in the United States was neither materially injured nor threatened with material injury by reason of PTFE from India found by the U.S. Department of Commerce (“Commerce”) to be subsidized by the Government of India. PTFE from China and India, Investigation Nos. 701-TA-588 and 731-TA-1392-1393 (Final), USITC Pub. 4801 (Jul. 2018). Subsequently, in November 2018, in the antidumping investigations, the Commission likewise reached unanimous negative determinations with respect to imports of PTFE resin from China and India found by Commerce to be sold in the United States at less than fair value. PTFE from China and India, Investigation Nos. 731-TA-1392-1393 (Final), USITC Pub. 4841 (Nov. 2018). Petitioner, The Chemours Company FC, LLC, contested the Commission’s determinations before the U.S. Court of International Trade. The court affirmed in part and remanded in part the Commission’s determinations. The Chemours Company FC, LLC v. United States, Slip. Op. 20-61 (Ct. Int’l Trade, May 6, 2020). Specifically, the court remanded for the Commission “to explain further its decision not to discount post-petition data, taking into account the increase in subject import prices in the final quarter of 2017.” Slip Op. at 33.
