Notice of Identification of Federal Land in Alaska Available for Allotment Selection Under the Alaska Native Veteran Program of 2019

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of identified lands.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the John D. Dingell, Jr., Conservation, Management, and Recreation Act of 2019 (Dingell Act), the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) has identified Federal lands that are available for allotment selection by eligible individuals. By this notice, the BLM is announcing the availability of maps of the lands available for selection by eligible individuals.

ADDRESSES: An interactive map of the land available for selection by eligible individuals can be accessed at <https://arcg.is/1HTrrO>.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Paul Krabacher, Alaska Native Veteran Program of 2019 Project Manager by telephone at 907-271-1310 or by mail at 222 West 7th Avenue #13, Anchorage, Alaska 99513. Persons who use a telecommunications device for the deaf (TDD) may call the Federal Relay Service (FRS) at 1-800-877-8339 to contact Mr. Krabacher during normal business hours. The FRS is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, to leave a message or question. You will receive a reply during normal business hours.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Dingell Act (Pub. L. 116-9, Sec. 1119) requires the BLM to identify Federal lands in the State of Alaska that are vacant, unappropriated, and unreserved, to make available for allotment selection by eligible individuals under the Dingell Act. In accordance with the Dingell Act, the BLM is providing an interactive map of the available Federal lands. An interactive map of available Federal lands can be found at the web address in the ADDRESSES section. Lands available for selection will change on this real-time map as more lands become available and as allotments are applied for over the course of the program.

(Authority: Public Law 116-9)

Ted A. Murphy,

Acting State Director, Alaska.

the ICR at <http://www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) and 5 CFR 1320.8(d)(1), we provide the general public and other Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on new, proposed, revised, and continuing collections of information. This helps us assess the impact of our information collection requirements and minimize the public's reporting burden. It also helps the public understand our information collection requirements and provide the requested data in the desired format.

A Federal Register notice with a 60-day public comment period soliciting comments on this collection of information was published on April 9, 2020 (85 FR 19954). No comments were received.

As part of our continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burdens, we are again soliciting comments from the public and other Federal agencies on the proposed ICR that is described below. We are especially interested in public comment addressing the following:

- (1) Whether or not the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether or not the information will have practical utility;
- (2) The accuracy of our estimate of the burden for this collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- (3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- (4) How might the agency minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of response.

Comments that you submit in response to this notice are a matter of public record. Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.
