SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title of Collection: Debt Collection Validation Notice Qualitative Testing.

OMB Control Number: 3170–0022.

Type of Review: Request for approval of a generic information collection under an existing Generic Information Collection Plan.

Affected Public: Individuals and Households.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 400.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 78.

Abstract: The Bureau plans to conduct cognitive interviews to assess the effectiveness and validate the performance of the Bureau's model debt collection validation notices. The Bureau will collect information on how consumers locate and use information in the model notice, including:

(1) Whether the consumer can locate and use important information effectively, such as information about the debt, information about the consumer's rights, and information about how the consumer may respond if they so choose; and

(2) How consumers view and respond to paper and electronic versions of the model validation notice.

Request for Comments: The Bureau is publishing this notice and soliciting comments on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Bureau, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) The accuracy of the Bureau's estimate of the burden of the collection of information, including the validity of the methods and the assumptions used; (c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Comments submitted in response to this notice will be submitted to OMB as part of its review of this request. All comments will become a matter of public record.

Dated: June 24, 2020.

Darrin King,

Paperwork Reduction Act Officer, Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection.
