

other personal identifier contained in this system of records. The records can be retrieved by a small number of personnel in the Strategic Workforce Planning office by means of secure login to the application; individual Federal employees and supervisors can also retrieve the stored records by means of a secure login in order to view their own or their employees' records.

Records can be retrieved in aggregate form by other authorized OPM personnel or specially assigned administrators in participating Federal agencies by means of a secure login.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS:

The records in this system of records are subject to General Records Schedule 2.6, Item 010, and will be retained for three years unless a business use is identified that requires a longer retention.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

Records in this system are protected from unauthorized access and misuse through various administrative, technical and physical security measures. OPM security measures are in compliance with the Federal Information Security Modernization Act (Pub. L. 113–283), associated OMB policies, and applicable standards and guidance from the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST).

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Supervisors and employees who complete an assessment using the competency tool will have access to the information they submitted via their own secure login to the application.

In addition, individuals seeking notification of and access to their records in this system of records may submit a request in writing to the Office of Personnel Management, Freedom of Information Act Office, 1900 E Street NW, Washington, DC 20415. Individuals must furnish the following information for their records to be located:

1. Full name.
2. Employing agency.
3. Government email address used.
4. Supervisor's name.
5. Signature.
6. The reason why the individual believes this system contains information about him/her.
7. The address to which the information should be sent.

Individuals requesting access must also comply with OPM's Privacy Act regulations regarding verification of identity and access to records (5 CFR 297).

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

Users can contact the System Manager (listed above) to make changes.

Individuals may also request that records about them be amended by writing to the Office of Personnel Management, Freedom of Information Act Office, 1900 E Street NW, Washington, DC 20415 and furnish the following information for their records to be located:

1. Full name.
2. Employing agency.
3. Government email address used.
3. Supervisor's name.
4. Signature.
5. Precise identification of the information requested to be amended.

Individuals requesting amendment must also follow OPM's Privacy Act regulations regarding verification of identity and amendment to records (5 CFR 297).

OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

Request for Reinstatement With Change of a Previously Approved Collection: Certificate of Medical Examination, OF 178, 3206–0250

AGENCY: Office of Personnel Management.

ACTION: 60-day notice and request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) offers the general public and other Federal agencies the opportunity to comment on the reinstatement with change of a previously approved collection information request (ICR) 3206–0250, Certificate of Medical Examination. As required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, as amended by the Clinger-Cohen Act, OPM is soliciting comments for this collection.

DATES: Comments are encouraged and will be accepted until October 19, 2020. This process is conducted in accordance with 5 CFR 1320.1.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments, identified by docket number and/or Regulatory Information Number (RIN) and title, by any of the following methods:

• Federal Rulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the instructions for submitting comments;

All submissions received must include the agency name and docket number or RIN for this document. The general policy for comments and other submissions from members of the public is to make these submissions available for public viewing at <http://www.regulations.gov> as they are received without change, including any personal identifiers or contact information.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Monica Butler at (202) 606–0960; by fax at (202) 606–4430, TDD at (202) 418–3134, or by email at employ@opm.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Optional Form (OF) 178, Certificate of Medical Examination, is used to collect medical information about individuals who are incumbents of positions which require physical fitness/agility testing and/or medical examinations, or who have been selected for such a position contingent upon meeting physical fitness/agility testing and medical examinations as a condition of employment. This information is needed to ensure fair and consistent treatment of employees and job applicants, to adjudicate the medically based pass-over of a preference eligible, and to adjudicate claims of discrimination under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

The current approval of the OF 178 Certificate of Medical Examination expired in April 2015. This Federal Register notice opens a 60-day comment period giving the general public and other Federal agencies the opportunity to comment on the reinstatement of this previously approved information collection form. There were four minor changes to the form. The date of the form was updated to December 2014. The reference to Recruitment and Hiring in line 4 of the Public Burden Statement on page 1 was updated to Talent Acquisition and Workforce Shaping. A fillable text box was inserted under "Specific hearing requirements (specify)" on page 3. The data fields for "Name", "Last 4 digits of Social Security Number" and "Date" located at the bottom of pages 2–7 were updated to "Applicant/Employee" and added to pages 2–7.

The Office of Management and Budget is particularly interested in comments that:

1. Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

2. Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

3. Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

4. Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

I. Introduction and Overview

On August 14, 2020, the Postal Service filed notice with the Commission concerning time-limited changes in rates of general applicability for competitive products.¹ The Postal Service represents that, as required by 39 CFR 3035.102(b), the Notice includes an explanation and justification for the changes, the effective date, and a schedule of the changed rates. See Notice at 1. The changes are scheduled to take effect on October 18, 2020, and will roll back to current levels on December 27, 2020. Id.

Attached to the Notice is Governors' Decision No. 20-3, which states the new prices are in accordance with 39 U.S.C. 3632 and 3633 and 39 CFR 3035.102.² The Governors' Decision provides an analysis of the competitive products' price changes intended to demonstrate that the changes comply with 39 U.S.C. 3633 and 39 CFR part 3035. Governors' Decision No. 20-3 at 1. The attachment to the Governors' Decision sets forth both the new prices to be in effect from October 18, 2020, and the current prices that will be restored on December 27, 2020. See Notice at 1-2.

The Notice includes an attachment showing FY 2021 projected volumes, revenues, attributable costs, contribution, and cost coverage for each product, assuming implementation of the new prices from October 18, 2020, to December 27, 2020. See id. at 2.

The Notice also includes an application for non-public treatment of the attributable costs, contribution, and cost coverage data in the unredacted version of the annex to the Governors' Decision, as well as the supporting materials for the data. See id.

Planned price adjustments. The Governors' Decision includes an overview of the Postal Service's planned price changes, which is summarized in the table below.
