Supplementary Information: This is a summary of the Public Notice, DA 20–1120, CG Docket No. 02–278, released on September 23, 2020. The full text of this document is available online at https://docs.fcc.gov/public/attachments/DA-20-1120A1.pdf. To request this document in accessible formats for people with disabilities (e.g., Braille, large print, electronic files, audio format) or to request reasonable accommodations (e.g., accessible format documents, sign language interpreters, CART), send an email to fcc504@fcc.gov or call the FCC’s Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau at (202) 418–0530 (voice). This matter shall be treated as a “permit-but-disclose” proceeding in accordance with the Commission’s ex parte rules. 47 CFR 1.1200 et seq. Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentations must contain summaries of the substance of the presentations and not merely a listing of the subjects discussed. See 47 CFR 1.1206(b). Other rules pertaining to oral and written ex parte presentations in permit-but-disclose proceedings are set forth in § 1.1206(b) of the Commission’s rules, 47 CFR 1.1206(b).

Synopsis

1. The Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) has pending 10 petitions (Petitions) generally asking the Commission to preempt state protections against unwanted robocalls and faxes. The Petitions were filed between 2003 and 2005, with no advocacy for several years. In addition, the relief the Petitions request appears to be moot or otherwise no longer relevant in light of both federal and state regulatory changes that have occurred since the Petitions were filed.
2. As part of the Commission’s effort to efficiently manage its dockets and resources, and to reduce backlog, the Bureau seeks to assess the Petitioners’ continuing interests in these Petitions. The Bureau will dismiss the Petitions below with prejudice unless a Petitioner files a letter in the relevant docket on or before November 20, 2020, specifying that it objects to the dismissal of its Petition and the reasons for such objections. Upon release of document DA 20–1120, the Bureau will send copies to the Petitioners at the last available mailing address associated with the Petition.
3. These Petitions and related information are provided below:

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

[Docket No. OP–1716]

Temporary Actions To Support the Flow of Credit to Households and Businesses by Encouraging Use of Intraday Credit; Extension of Expiration Date

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

SUMMARY: Due to the extraordinary disruptions from the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID–19), the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (Board) is extending through March 31, 2021 the temporary actions, announced on April 23, 2020, that encourage healthy depository institutions to utilize intraday credit extended by Federal Reserve Banks (Reserve Banks). The temporary actions were previously scheduled to expire on September 30, 2020.

DATES: These temporary actions will expire on March 31, 2021.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The availability of intraday credit from the Reserve Banks supports the smooth functioning of payment systems and the settlement and clearing of transactions across a range of credit markets. The COVID–19 pandemic has disrupted economic activity and financial markets in the United States.

On April 23, 2020, as part of a series of actions to support the flow of credit to households and business aimed at mitigating the disruptions from the COVID–19 pandemic, the Board approved several temporary actions that encourage healthy depository institutions to utilize intraday credit from the Reserve Banks. Specifically, the temporary actions (1) suspend uncollateralized intraday credit limits (net debit caps) and waive daylight overdraft fees for institutions that are
