Board and the FOMC use the information obtained from the FR 2018 to fulfill these obligations, these statutory provisions provide the legal authorization for the collection of information on the FR 2018. In addition, section 11 of the FRA, which permits the Federal Reserve Board to examine at its discretion the accounts, books, and affairs of each Federal Reserve Bank and each member bank and to require such statements and reports as it may deem necessary, authorizes the collection of information from depository institutions and section 7 of the International Banking Act authorizes the collection of information from branches and agencies of foreign banks. Survey submissions under the FR 2018 are voluntary.

Although the specific questions to be asked on each survey have not yet been formulated, the questions are designed to obtain information that is customarily and actually treated as private by the institution. Thus, the individual survey responses from each respondent may be held confidential under exemption (4) of the Freedom of Information Act. However, certain data from the survey is publicly reported in aggregate form, and the information in aggregate form is considered confidential.

The Board invites public comment on the following information collection, which is being reviewed under authority delegated by the OMB under the PRA. Comments are invited on the following:

a. Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the Board’s functions, including whether the information has practical utility;

b. The accuracy of the Board’s estimate of the burden of the proposed information collection, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

c. Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;

d. Ways to minimize the burden of information collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and

e. Estimates of capital or startup costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.

At the end of the comment period, the comments and recommendations received will be analyzed to determine the extent to which the Board should modify the proposal.

Proposal Under OMB Delegated Authority To Extend for Three Years, Without Revision, the Following Information Collection

DATES: Comments must be submitted on or before December 14, 2020.
subsidiaries of BHCs, uninsured state agencies and branches of foreign banks, commercial lending companies owned or controlled by foreign banks, savings and loan holding companies, and Edge and agreement corporations.

Estimated number of respondents: Recordkeeping, 1; Reporting, 831; Disclosure, 831.

Estimated average hours per response: Recordkeeping, 24 hours; Reporting, 9 hours; Disclosure, 27 hours.

Estimated annual burden hours: Recordkeeping, 24 hours; Reporting, 7,479 hours; Disclosure, 22,437 hours.

General description of report: The FR 4100 is the Board’s information collection associated with the Interagency Guidance on Response Programs for Unauthorized Access to Customer Information and Customer Notice (“ID-Theft Guidance” or “Guidance”). The ID-Theft Guidance was published in the Federal Register in March 2005. The ID-Theft Guidance, which applies to financial institutions, was issued in response to developing trends in the theft and accompanying misuse of customer information. The Guidance includes certain voluntary reporting, recordkeeping, and disclosure provisions.

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The FR 4100 is authorized by section 501(b) of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, which requires the Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency to establish appropriate standards for financial institutions to develop and implement an information security program designed to protect their customers’ information and a response program that specifies actions to be taken when the institution suspects or detects that unauthorized individuals have gained access to customer information systems.

Because the provisions under the FR 4100 are contained in guidance, which is nonbinding, the provisions are voluntary.

The disclosure provisions of FR 4100 are not confidential. The records maintained under recordkeeping provisions of FR 4100 would be maintained at each banking organization, and the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”) would only be implicated if the Board obtained such records as part of the examination or supervision of a banking organization.

In the event the records are obtained by the Board as part of an examination or supervision of a financial institution, this information may be considered confidential pursuant to exemption 8 of the FOIA, which protects information contained in “examination, operating, or condition reports” obtained in the bank supervisory process. In addition, the information obtained by the Board under the FR 4100 may also be kept confidential under exemption 4 for the FOIA, which protects commercial or financial information obtained from a person that is privileged or confidential.

Consultation outside the agency: Representatives from the Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency responsible for the reporting, recordkeeping, and disclosure requirements associated with the ID-Theft Guidance have reviewed their respective information collections and agreed that no revisions to the collections are necessary at this time.

Michele Taylor Fennell, Assistant Secretary of the Board.
