SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On March 22, 1984, Commerce issued an antidumping duty order on chloropicrin from China.<sup>1</sup> On September 22, 2015, Commerce published a notice of continuation of the Order.<sup>2</sup> There has been one administrative review since issuance of the Order.<sup>3</sup> Commerce conducted four previous sunset reviews of the Order. Commerce published the final results of those sunset reviews on March 9, 1999;<sup>4</sup> July 6, 2004;<sup>5</sup> November 6, 2009;<sup>6</sup> and August 7, 2015.<sup>7</sup> On August 4, 2020, Commerce initiated the fifth sunset review of this Order.<sup>8</sup>

On August 18, 2020, within the applicable deadline, Commerce received notice of intent to participate<sup>9</sup> from Ashta Chemicals, Inc.; Niklor Chemical Co., Inc.; and Trinity Manufacturing, Inc., the domestic interested parties in this proceeding.<sup>10</sup> However, the domestic interested parties failed to submit a substantive response to the notice of initiation by the applicable time limit of September 3, 2020, as required by 19 CFR 351.218(d)(3).<sup>11</sup>

<sup>11</sup> On September 18, 2020, the domestic interested parties attempted to file a late substantive response. See Domestic Interested Parties' Letter, "Substantive Response on Behalf of Ashta Chemicals Inc, Niklor Chemical Company, and

Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.218(e)(1)(i)(C)(2), on September 10, 2020, Commerce notified the International Trade Commission, in writing, that it intended to issue a final determination revoking this antidumping duty order.<sup>12</sup>

Scope of the Order

The merchandise subject to the antidumping duty order is chloropicrin, also known as trichloronitromethane. A major use of the product is as a pre-plant soil fumigant (pesticide). Such merchandise is classifiable under Harmonized Tariff Schedule (HTS) subheading 2904.90.50.05.<sup>13</sup> The HTS subheading is provided for convenience and customs purposes. The written description remains dispositive.

Determination To Revoke

19 CFR 351.218(e)(1)(i)(C) states that if no domestic party has filed a complete substantive response to the notice of initiation under paragraph (d)(3) of that section, then Commerce will issue a final determination revoking the order or terminating the suspended investigation not later than 90 days after the date of publication in the Federal Register of the Notice of Initiation. In turn, paragraph (d)(3) establishes a time limit for substantive responses to a notice of initiation, which is 30 days after the date of publication in the Federal Register of the notice of initiation. In this case, the notice of initiation was published in the Federal Register on August 4, 2020, and therefore the applicable time limit for substantive responses was September 3, 2020. As noted above, Commerce did not receive a substantive response from any domestic interested party by September 3.

Because no domestic interested party timely filed an adequate substantive Trinity Manufacturing, Inc.," dated September 18, 2020. At the same time, the domestic interested parties also filed an untimely request for an extension to file the substantive response in this sunset review. See Letter from Kalik Lewin, "Request for Leave for late Filing: Substantive Response in Five-Year ('Sunset') Review of Chloropicrin from China," dated September 18, 2020. Commerce rejected the late submission of the substantive response. See Commerce Letters, "Five-Year ('Sunset') Review of Chloropicrin from China: Rejection of Request for Leave for Late Filing and Rejection of Domestic Interested Parties' Substantive Response," dated September 28, 2020; and "Five-Year ('Sunset') Review of Chloropicrin from China: Response to Second Request to Extend the Deadline for Filing a Substantive Response," dated November 2, 2020.

<sup>12</sup> See Commerce's Letter, "Sunset Review Initiated on August 4, 2020," dated September 10, 2020.

<sup>13</sup> Since this scope was written, the HTS subheading has changed. Subject merchandise is currently classifiable under HTS subheading 2904.91.00.00.

response in this sunset review, Commerce finds that no domestic interested party has responded to the notice of initiation of this sunset review under 751(c)(3)(A) of the Act. Therefore, consistent with the section 751(c)(3)(A) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(1)(i), we are revoking the antidumping duty order on chloropicrin from China.<sup>14</sup>

Effective Date of Revocation

The effective date of revocation is September 22, 2020, the fifth anniversary of the date of publication in the Federal Register of the most recent notice of continuation of this antidumping duty order.<sup>15</sup>

Pursuant to section 751(c)(3)(A) of the Act, Commerce intends to issue instructions to U.S. Customs and Border Protection 15 days after the publication of this notice to terminate the suspension of liquidation of the merchandise subject to this order entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, on or after September 22, 2020. Entries of subject merchandise prior to the effective date of revocation will continue to be subject to suspension of liquidation and antidumping duty deposit requirements. Commerce will complete any pending administrative reviews of this order and will conduct administrative reviews of subject merchandise entered prior to the effective date of revocation in response to appropriately filed requests for review.

This notice of revocation is published in accordance with sections 751(c) and 777(i)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.218(e)(1)(i)(C)(3) and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(1)(i).

Certain Pasta From Italy: Initiation and Preliminary Results of Changed Circumstances Review

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (Commerce) is initiating a changed circumstances review (CCR) to determine if Newlat Food S.p.A. (Newlat) is the successor-in-interest to Delverde Industrie Alimentari S.p.A. (Delverde) in the context of the antidumping duty order on certain pasta from Italy. We preliminarily determine that Newlat is not the successor-in-interest to Delverde.

DATES: Applicable November 9, 2020.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John Hoffner, AD/CVD Operations, Office III, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230, telephone: (202) 482-3315.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On July 14, 1996, Commerce published in the Federal Register an antidumping duty (AD) order on certain pasta from Italy.<sup>1</sup> On July 30, 2020, Newlat requested that, pursuant to section 751(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), and 19 CFR 351.216(b), Commerce initiate and conduct a CCR of the Order to determine if Newlat is the successor-in-interest to Delverde. Newlat also requested that Commerce issue the preliminary results of this CCR in conjunction with the notice of initiation, as permitted under 19 CFR 315.221(c)(3)(ii).<sup>2</sup> The domestic industry has filed no comments in response to the request for a CCR.

Scope of the Order

Imports covered by this Order are shipments of certain non-egg dry pasta in packages of five pounds four ounces or less, whether or not enriched or fortified or containing milk or other optional ingredients such as chopped vegetables, vegetable purees, milk, gluten, diastasis, vitamins, coloring and flavorings, and up to two percent egg white. The pasta covered by the scope of the Order is typically sold in the retail market, in fiberboard or cardboard cartons, or polyethylene or polypropylene bags of varying dimensions.

Excluded from the scope of this Order are refrigerated, frozen, or canned pastas, as well as all forms of egg pasta, with the exception of non-egg dry pasta containing up to two percent egg white.

Multicolored pasta, imported in kitchen display bottles of decorative glass that are sealed with cork or paraffin and bound with raffia, is excluded from the scope of the Order.<sup>3</sup> Pursuant to Commerce's August 14, 2009, changed circumstances review, effective July 1, 2008, gluten free pasta is also excluded from the scope of the order.<sup>4</sup> Effective January 1, 2012, ravioli and tortellini filled with cheese and/or vegetables are also excluded from the scope of the Order.<sup>5</sup>

Also excluded are imports of organic pasta from Italy that are certified by an EU authorized body in accordance with the United States Department of Agriculture's National Organic Program for organic products. The organic pasta certification must be retained by exporters and importers and made available to U.S. Customs and Border Protection or the Department of Commerce upon request.

The merchandise subject to this Order is currently classifiable under items 1901.90.90.95 and 1902.19.20 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the merchandise subject to the Order is dispositive.

Initiation of CCR

Pursuant to section 751(b)(1)(A) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(d), Commerce will conduct a CCR upon receipt of a request from an interested party or receipt of information which shows changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review of the order. The information provided by Newlat demonstrates changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review to determine if Newlat is the successor-in-interest to Delverde, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.216(d). Therefore, in accordance with section 751(b)(1)(A) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(d), Commerce is initiating a CCR to determine whether Newlat is the successor-in-interest to Delverde for purposes of the Order.

Section 351.221(c)(3)(ii) of Commerce's regulations permits Commerce to combine the notice of initiation and the preliminary results if Commerce concludes that expedited action is warranted.<sup>6</sup> In this instance, because the record contains information necessary to make a preliminary finding, we find that expedited action is warranted and have combined the notice of initiation and the notice of preliminary results.<sup>7</sup>

Methodology

In this CCR, pursuant to section 751(b) of the Act, Commerce conducted a successor-in-interest analysis. In making a successor-in-interest determination, Commerce examines several factors, including, but not limited to, changes in the following: (1) Management; (2) production facilities; (3) supplier relationships; and (4) customer base.<sup>8</sup> While no single factor or combination of factors will necessarily provide a dispositive indication of succession, generally, Commerce will consider the company to be a successor to the previous company if the new company's operation is not materially dissimilar to that of its predecessor.<sup>9</sup> Thus, if the record evidence demonstrates that, with respect to the production and sale of the subject merchandise, the new company operates as the same business entity as the prior company, Commerce may assign the new company the cash deposit rate of its predecessor.<sup>10</sup>

Preliminary Results of Changed Circumstances Review

We preliminarily determine that Newlat is not the successor-in-interest to Delverde. Record evidence submitted by Newlat indicates that the post-merger entity (i.e., Newlat, which includes Delverde) does not operate as essentially the same business entity as the pre-merger Delverde with respect to the subject merchandise.<sup>11</sup> For the complete successor-in-interest analysis, refer to the accompanying successor-in-interest memorandum.<sup>12</sup>

Public Comment

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.309(c)(1)(ii), interested parties may submit case briefs not later than 30 days after the date of publication of this notice. Rebuttal briefs, limited to issues raised in the case briefs, may be filed no later than seven days after the case briefs, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.309(d). Interested parties who wish to request a hearing, limited to issues raised in the case and rebuttal briefs, must submit a written request to the Assistant Secretary for Enforcement and Compliance, U.S. Department of Commerce, within 30 days after the date of publication of this notice. Note that

Commerce has temporarily modified certain of its requirements for serving documents containing business proprietary information, until further notice.<sup>14</sup>

Consistent with 19 CFR 351.216(e), we will issue the final results of this CCR no later than 270 days after the date on which this review was initiated, or within 45 days of publication of these preliminary results if all parties agree to our preliminary finding.
