Withholding of Tax and Information Reporting With Respect to Interests in Partnerships Engaged in a U.S. Trade or Business

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This document contains final regulations that provide guidance related to the withholding of tax and information reporting with respect to certain dispositions of interests in partnerships engaged in a trade or business within the United States. The final regulations affect certain foreign persons that recognize gain or loss from the sale or exchange of an interest in a partnership that is engaged in a trade or business within the United States, and persons that acquire those interests. The final regulations also affect partnerships that, directly or indirectly, have foreign persons as partners.

DATES: Effective date: These regulations are effective on November 30, 2020.

Applicability dates: For dates of applicability, see §§1.864(c)(8)–2(e), 1.1445–2(e), 1.1445–5(h), 1.1445–8(j), 1.1446–7, 1.1446(f)–1(e), 1.1446(f)–2(f), 1.1446(f)–3(f), 1.1446(f)–4(f), 1.1446(f)–5(d), 1.1461–1(l), 1.1461–2(d), 1.1461–3, 1.1463–1, 1.1464–1(c), 1.6505–1(h), and 1.6302–2(g).

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: In general, Chadwick Rowland or Ronald M. Gootzeit (202) 317–6937; concerning §1.1446(f)–4, Charles Rioux (202) 317–6933 (not toll-free numbers).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Section 1446(f), which was added to the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) by the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, Public Law 115–97 (2017) (the Act), provides rules for withholding on the transfer of a partnership interest described in section 864(c)(8). On December 29, 2017, the Department of the Treasury (the Treasury Department) and the IRS released Notice 2018–08, 2018–16 I.R.B. 495, which provided temporary guidance and announced an intent to issue proposed regulations under section 1446(f) with respect to the sale, exchange, or disposition of certain interests in non-publicly traded partnerships. On May 13, 2019, the Treasury Department and the IRS published proposed regulations (REG–105476–18) primarily under section 1446(f) relating to the withholding of tax and information reporting in the Federal Register (84 FR 21198) (the proposed regulations). The proposed regulations implemented section 1446(f) by providing guidance related to the withholding of tax and information reporting with respect to certain dispositions by a foreign person of an interest in a partnership that is engaged in a trade or business within the United States. In general, the proposed regulations provided rules that apply to transfers of interests in non-publicly traded partnerships (non-PTP interests) and transfers of PTP interests.

Section 864(c)(8) was also added to the Code by the Act. On December 27, 2018, the Treasury Department and the IRS published proposed regulations (REG–113604–18) under section 864(c)(8) in the Federal Register (83 FR 66647) (the proposed section 864(c)(8) regulations). The proposed regulations provided rules for determining the amount of gain or loss treated as effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States (effectively connected gain or effectively connected loss) under section 864(c)(8), including certain rules that coordinate section 864(c)(8) with other relevant sections of the Code. On November 6, 2020, the Treasury Department and the IRS published final regulations (TD 9919) under section 864(c)(8) in the Federal Register (85 FR 70958) (the final section 864(c)(8) regulations).

All written comments received in response to the proposed regulations are available at www.regulations.gov or upon request. Additionally, a public hearing was scheduled for August 26, 2019, but it was not held because there were no requests to speak.

Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions

I. Overview

The final regulations retain the basic approach and structure of the proposed regulations with certain revisions based on comments received. This Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions discusses the comments received with respect to the proposed regulations and any revisions made in response to those comments, as well as other revisions made that were not directly in response to those comments. Sections VI.A and VII.C of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions also describe certain requirements specific to entities acting as qualified intermediaries for section 1446 withholding purposes that are anticipated to be included in a revised qualified intermediary agreement and that are not included in these final regulations.1

II. Reporting Requirements for Foreign Transferors and Partnerships With Foreign Transferors

Proposed §1.864(c)(8)–2 provided rules that facilitate the transfer of information between a foreign partner and the partnership whose interest is transferred for purposes of determining the transferor’s tax liability under section 864(c)(8). These rules required a notifying transferor (generally, any foreign person and certain domestic partnerships that have a foreign person as a direct or indirect partner) that transfers (within the meaning of proposed §1.864(c)(8)–1(g)(5)) an interest in a partnership (other than certain PTP interests) in a transaction described in section 864(c)(8) to notify the partnership within 30 days of the transfer. Proposed §1.864(c)(6)–2(a).

After receiving the notification from a notifying transferor, a specified partnership (generally, a partnership that is engaged in a trade or business within the United States or a partnership that owns, directly or indirectly, an interest in a partnership so engaged) is required to furnish to a notifying transferor the information necessary for the transferor to comply with section 864(c)(8) by the due date of the Schedule K–1 (Form 1065), Partner’s Share of Income, Deductions, Credits, etc., for the tax year of the partnership in which the transfer occurred.

Proposed §1.864(c)(8)–2(b).

1 The final regulations also include certain conforming changes to regulations under sections 1445 and 1446 to reflect the rate changes made by section 13001(b)(3)(A)–(D) of the Act and the due date changes made by section 2006 of the Surface Transportation and Veterans Health Care Choice Improvement Act of 2015 (the Surface Transportation Act), Public Law 114–41 (2015). Although the changes to these regulations are applicable based on the date of publication of this document in the Federal Register, the same result applies before that date as of the relevant effective dates of the Act and the Surface Transportation Act.
While the final section 864(c)(8) regulations generally require a three-year lookback period for purposes of determining the foreign source portion of deemed sale gain or loss attributable to a partnership’s inventory property or intangibles, the regulations also allow, in certain cases, the relevant foreign source portion of deemed sale gain or loss to be determined by reference to the source of the partnership’s income occurring after the date, if any, on which a material change in circumstances occurs. § 1.864(c)(8)–1(c)(2)(ii)(E). The final regulations provide that a specified partnership must include in the statement provided to the notifying transferee information regarding whether the transferor’s deemed sale EC gain or loss (as described in § 1.864(c)(8)–1(c)(2)(ii)) was determined under the material change in circumstances rule provided in § 1.864(c)(8)–1(c)(2)(ii)(E). § 1.864(c)(8)–2(b)(2)(ii).

The final regulations also revise the definition of specified partnership to remove unnecessary language on publicly traded partnerships. See § 1.864(c)(8)–1(d)(2).

III. Scope of the Withholding Obligation Under Section 1446(f)

The general approach in the proposed regulations required withholding on the transfer of a partnership interest unless an exception or adjustment to withholding applied. See proposed §§ 1.1446(f)–2(a) and 1.1446(f)–4(a). Comments suggested that proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(a) was overly broad in that it could impose a withholding obligation on any transfer of a partnership interest, regardless of whether the partnership in question has any assets in, or any other connection to, the United States, or whether a transfer of an interest in the partnership would result in tax on gain under section 864(c)(8), and so required a transferee to withhold in a number of circumstances where section 1446(f)(1)’s statutory language does not. To address this issue, the comments suggested various exceptions to withholding.

One comment requested that the final regulations provide that even if a transferee does not obtain a certification allowing an exception to withholding, the transferee should not be considered to have failed to withhold if the transferee demonstrates that the transfer did not result in any gain under section 864(c)(8). The comment also suggested that in such a case, the transferee should be excused from any penalties that would otherwise apply. In addition, the comment suggested an exception to withholding when the transferee can demonstrate that no deemed sale EC gain would be allocated to the transferor. Another comment suggested adding an exception to withholding when the transferee can demonstrate that the partnership is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States.

One comment suggested limiting the scope of withholding by allowing a transferee to rely on a certification from the partnership providing that it has not been required to file a Form 1065, U.S. Return of Partnership Income, for some number of past years, and it does not expect to be required to file a Form 1065 for the taxable year in which the transfer occurs. The comment suggested, however, that the partnership should not be considered to qualify for such an exception or adjustment.

The final regulations retain the general rule in proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(a) that requires withholding on the transfer of a partnership interest unless an exception or adjustment to withholding applies. While the statutory language of section 1446(f)(1) imposes a withholding requirement when a portion of the gain from a transfer would be treated under section 864(c)(8) as effectively connected gain, a transferee will not know whether a transfer results in tax on gain under section 864(c)(8) without information from either the transferor or the partnership. These rules, therefore, require that the transferee presume that a transfer is subject to withholding unless it obtains a certification from the transferee establishing otherwise (or, if the partnership is the transferee because it makes a distribution, by relying on information in its books and records to make such determination). A transferee that obtains and properly relies on this certification (or, when the partnership is the transferee, its books and records) will generally not be subject to any withholding tax liability, even if the transfer results in tax on gain under section 864(c)(8). See, however, § 1.1446(f)–5(b) of this Summary of Comment and Explanation of Revisions regarding a partnership’s obligation to withhold on distributions made to a transferee for cases in which the partnership receives a certification from the transferee that it knows, or has reason to know, is incorrect or unreliable.

However, in response to comments, the final regulations add a rule in § 1.1446(f)–5(b) that provides that any person required to withhold under section 1446(f) is not liable for failure to withhold, or any interest, penalties, or additions to tax, if it establishes to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the transferee had no gain under section 864(c)(8) subject to tax on the transfer. Accordingly, while the general scope of the withholding obligation under § 1.1446(f)–2(a) is retained in these final regulations, the consequences for failing to comply with the obligation are modified when the transferee had no gain under section 864(c)(8) subject to tax on the transfer. As this rule applies for all purposes of section 1446(f), it also modifies the consequences for a partnership that fails to comply with its withholding obligation under § 1.1446(f)–3 or a broker that fails to comply with its withholding obligation under § 1.1446(f)–4 on the transfer of a PTP interest. The final regulations also add an exception to withholding if the partnership certifies to the transferee that it is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States. See section IV.A.3.ii of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions. The same exception is added for a publicly traded partnership that is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States. See section VI.B.2 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions.

IV. Withholding on the Transfer of a Non-PTP Interest

In general, section 1446(f)(1) provides that a transferee of a partnership interest must withhold a tax equal to 10 percent of the amount realized on any disposition that results in effectively connected gain under section 864(c)(8). Proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(a) implemented this rule by providing that a transferee is required to withhold under section 1446(f)(1) a tax equal to 10 percent of the amount realized on any transfer of a partnership interest (other than a PTP interest) unless an exception to withholding, or an adjustment to the amount to withhold, applies under proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b) or (c), respectively. Proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(d)(1) provided rules for reporting and paying the amount of any tax withheld under § 1.1446(f)–2(e) provided rules regarding the effect of withholding on a transferee. For a discussion of the rules that apply to a transfer of a PTP interest, see section VI of this Summary of Comments and Explanations of Revisions.

A. Exceptions to Withholding

Proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(2) through (7) provided six exceptions to withholding by a transferee under section 1446(f)(1). The applicability of these exceptions was determined in one of three ways: Self-certification by the transferee (that is, the transferee relies on a certification received from the transferor); certification by the partnership (for purposes of the exception to withholding provided in proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(4)(i)); or reliance on the books and records of the partnership (for cases in which a partnership is a transferee because it makes a distribution). These final regulations modify certain exceptions to withholding in response to comments received.

1. Non-Foreign Status Exception

Proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(2) provided for an exception to withholding if the transferor of an interest in a partnership provides a certification of non-foreign status to the transferee (the Non-foreign Status Exception). One comment requested that the final regulations expand the Non-foreign Status Exception to match similar rules provided in §§ 1.1445–2(b) and 1.1446–1(c)(3) that allow for reliance upon means other than a certification or statement to ascertain the non-foreign status of the transferor.

The final regulations do not adopt this recommendation. While the provisions cited in the comment generally allow for reliance on means other than a certification or statement to ascertain non-foreign status, those provisions provide that the transferee or partnership remains liable under section 1461 if the determination of non-foreign status is incorrect. See §§ 1.1445–2(b)(1) (last sentence) and 1.1446–1(c)(3). As described in section III of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions, § 1.1446(f)–5(b) provides similar flexibility in that it would allow a transferee that did not rely on a certification of non-foreign status to show that the transferor had no gain under section 864(c)(8) subject to tax on the transfer because the transferor is not a foreign person; in such a case, no interest, penalties, or additions to tax will apply under the rules of these final regulations.

The comment also made the same recommendation regarding the Non-Foreign Status Exception provided in proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(b)(2) as it applied to transfers of PTP interests. The final regulations do not adopt this recommendation for the reasons described in the preceding paragraph.

2. No Realized Gain Exception

i. In General

Proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(3) provided an exception to withholding if the transferee relies on a certification from the transferor that states that the transfer of the partnership interest would not result in any realized gain, including ordinary income arising from the application of section 751 and § 1.751–1 (the No Gain Exception). One comment suggested that a transferee realizing an overall loss on a transfer should be eligible for the No Gain Exception, even if the transferor realizes ordinary income under section 751 and § 1.751–1. The final regulations do not adopt this comment because the comment is inconsistent with the basic computation of outside gain and outside loss provided in § 1.864(c)(8)–1(b)(2). As explained in Section I.B of the Explanation of Provisions in the preamble to the proposed section 864(c)(8) regulations, the amount of gain or loss determined under section 741 (before application of section 751) is not a limitation on the amount of gain or loss characterized as effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States. Thus, a transferor can realize ordinary income under section 751 that is characterized as effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States under section 864(c)(8) even if the transferee realizes an overall gain with respect to the transferor to use the No Gain Exception. To address this issue, the comment requested certain regulatory safe harbors that would allow a transferee to use the No Gain Exception at the time of the deemed sale, including a rule that would allow a transferee to make reasonable assumptions regarding the presence and value of section 751 property based on information at hand (for example, information used by the partnership in preparing a recent Form 8308).

These final regulations modify the No Gain Exception to address the concerns raised in the comment, but do not adopt the solution suggested in the comment. Specifically, § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(3)(ii) provides that a transferee may rely on a certification from the partnership stating that, as of the determination date (as determined under the rules of § 1.1446(f)–1(c)(4)), the transferor of the partnership interest would not result in any ordinary income arising from the application of section 751 and § 1.751–1. This certification, in turn, is attached to, and forms part of, the general certification provided by the transferee to the transferee as part of the No Gain Exception. By adopting this approach, instead of the one suggested by the comment, the underlying issues raised in the comment are addressed in a manner consistent with the rest of the exceptions to withholding provided in § 1.1446(f)–2(b), which generally allow determinations regarding the applicability of an exception to be made as of the determination date. This approach allows a partnership that holds section 751 property to provide the same information to transferees that use the same determination date; therefore, this approach provides an administrable, clear solution that taxpayers can consistently apply, while also taking into account the unique nature of section 751 property.

3. 10-Percent EC Gain Exception

i. In General

Proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(4) provided an exception to withholding if the transferee relies on a certification from the partnership stating that if the partnership sold all of its assets at fair market value on the determination date, the amount of net effectively connected gain resulting from the deemed sale would be less than 10 percent of the total net gain from the deemed sale (the EC Gain Exception). The EC Gain Exception also applied to a partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution, in which case the partnership can rely on its books and records as of the determination date to determine if the EC Gain Exception applies. One comment suggested that the EC Gain Exception should refer to the transferor’s distributive share of net effectively connected gain and should take into account, when applicable, the transferor’s eligibility for benefits under an income tax treaty, rather than the aggregate amount of net effectively connected gain that would be realized by the partnership upon the deemed sale described in section 864(c)(8) and proposed § 1.864(c)(8)–1. With respect to treaty benefits, however, the comment acknowledged that the maximum tax liability certification provided in § 1.1446(f)–2(c)(4) could provide the same result.

The final regulations adopt this comment in part. Specifically, § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(4)(i)(A)(2) provides, in relevant part, that a transferee may rely on a certification from the partnership that states that if the partnership sold all of its assets at fair market value on the determination date in the manner described in § 1.864(c)(8)–1(c), the transferor’s distributive share of net effectively connected gain from the partnership would be either zero or less than 10 percent of the transferor’s distributive share of the total net gain from the partnership. Accordingly, this modification applies to situations in which the transferor would not have a distributive share of net effectively connected gain (including by reason of having a distributive share of net effectively connected loss). This modification, therefore, generally adopts the suggestion provided in the comment to account for the transferor’s distributive share of net effectively connected gain. Additionally, these final regulations retain the rules provided in proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(4)(i)(A) and (B) to allow partnerships to make the relevant determination at the partnership level as of the determination date, without regard to the transferor’s distributive share of net effectively connected gain. § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(4)(i)(A)(1). For this purpose, however, the final regulations simplify the partnership-level exception to withholding by combining proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(4)(i)(A) and (B) into a single rule; this simplification is intended to be non-substantive.

These final regulations do not adopt the suggestion in the comment regarding the transferor’s eligibility for benefits under an income tax treaty. With respect to treaty benefits, the Treasury Department and the IRS believe that existing exceptions and adjustments, including modifications provided in this rulemaking, adequately address that aspect of the comment. See, e.g., § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(7) (exception to withholding when a treaty claim covers all of the gain from the transfer); § 1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(iv) and section IV.B.3 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions (modified amount realized procedures for transferees that are foreign partnerships); and § 1.1446(f)–2(c)(4) (adjustments to the amount to withhold based on the transferor’s maximum tax liability).

ii. Partnership Not Engaged in a Trade or Business Within the United States

Section 864(c)(8), by its terms, applies only to a transfer of an interest in a partnership that is engaged in a trade or business within the United States (a USTB partnership). See section 864(c)(8)(A); see also § 1.864(c)(8)–1(b)(1). When a partnership holds U.S. real property interests and is also subject to section 864(c)(8) because it is engaged in a trade or business within the United States, the computations provided in § 1.864(c)(8)–1(c) take into account any U.S. real property interests held by the partnership. § 1.864(c)(8)–1(d). Alternatively, for a partnership that is not a USTB partnership (for example, the partnership’s only assets consist of foreign business assets and U.S. real property interests that are not used in a trade or business within the United States, such as shares of a United States real property holding corporation), § 1.864(c)(8)–1(d) provides that the rules of section 864(c)(8)–1(d) and § 1.864(c)(8)–1 do not apply to a transfer of an interest in that partnership. One comment requested that the final regulations coordinate section 1446(f)(1) withholding with the rule provided in § 1.864(c)(8)–1(d) by clarifying that, for a partnership that is not described in § 1.1445–11T(d)(1), the EC Gain Exception applies to situations in which the partnership would not have effectively connected gain as of the determination date without the application of section 897(a). The comment noted that under the proposed regulations, no exception to withholding is provided for a transfer that would not be subject to section 864(c)(8) because the partnership is not a USTB partnership.

The Treasury Department and the IRS agree that a transfer of an interest in a partnership that is not engaged in a trade or business in the United States is not subject to section 864(c)(8) and, therefore, should be excepted from withholding under section 1446(f).

Accordingly, § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(4)(i)(B) provides that the transferee may rely on a certification from the partnership stating that the partnership was not engaged in a trade or business within the United States at any time during the taxable year of the partnership through the date of transfer (that is, the partnership was not a USTB partnership at any time during the period beginning on the first day of the partnership’s taxable year in which the transfer occurs and ending on the close of the date of transfer). While this modification takes into account the general scenario described in the comment (that is, the partnership only holds foreign business assets and U.S. real property interests that are not part of a trade or business and thus is not a USTB partnership), this modification also applies to any situation in which a partnership whose interest is transferred is not a USTB partnership during the relevant period, regardless of whether that partnership holds U.S. real property interests. For USTB partnerships that hold U.S. real property interests, deemed sale gain attributable to U.S. real property interests continues to be treated as effectively connected gain for purposes of the 10-percent prong of the EC Gain Exception provided in § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(4)(i)(A). Finally, for partnerships that are described in § 1.1445–11T(d)(1), see § 1.1446(f)–1(d).

Similar changes are made to the EC Gain Exception as it applies to transfers of PTP interests. See section VI.B.2 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions and § 1.1446(f)–4(b)(3).

4. 10 Percent Exception

Proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(5) provided an exception to withholding if the transferee relies on a certification from the transferor providing, in relevant part, that the transferor was a partner in the partnership for the immediately prior taxable year and the two preceding taxable years and the transferor’s allocable share of effectively connected taxable income (determined under § 1.1446–2 (ECTI)) was less than 10 percent of the transferor’s total distributive share of net income received from the partnership and less than $1 million, in each of those years. For this purpose, proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(4)(i)(A) and (B) provides, in relevant part, that the transferee may rely on a certification from the partnership stating that the partnership was not engaged in a trade or business within the United States at any time during the taxable year of the partnership through the date of transfer (that is, the partnership was not a USTB partnership at any time during the period beginning on the first day of the partnership’s taxable year in which the transfer occurs and ending on the close of the date of transfer). While this modification takes into account the general scenario described in the comment (that is, the partnership only holds foreign business assets and U.S. real property interests that are not part of a trade or business and thus is not a USTB partnership), this modification also applies to any situation in which a partnership whose interest is transferred is not a USTB partnership during the relevant period, regardless of whether that partnership holds U.S. real property interests. For USTB partnerships that hold U.S. real property interests, deemed sale gain attributable to U.S. real property interests continues to be treated as effectively connected gain for purposes of the 10-percent prong of the EC Gain Exception provided in § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(4)(i)(A). Finally, for partnerships that are described in § 1.1445–11T(d)(1), see § 1.1446(f)–1(d).

Similar changes are made to the EC Gain Exception as it applies to transfers of PTP interests. See section VI.B.2 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions and § 1.1446(f)–4(b)(3).
proceed effectively connected income or gain. The comment explained that this change would serve as a more accurate proxy for the tax consequences that would occur under section 864(c)(8) by reason of the transfer. For example, a partnership may generate significant amounts of losses or deductions during the relevant period resulting in small amounts of net ECTI, but nevertheless hold assets with significant amounts of built-in gain that would be treated as effectively connected gain on a deemed sale. In that case, the transferor would be able to use the exception to withholding provided in proposed §1.1446(f)–2(b)(5) even though the transferor may realize a significant amount of gain under section 864(c)(8) by reason of the transfer. Finally, with respect to the period during which the transferor was required to be a partner in the partnership, the comment recommended changing the period provided in proposed §1.1446(f)–2(b)(5)(i)(A) to allow for an exception to withholding when the transferor was not a partner in the partnership for the transferor’s immediately prior taxable year and the two preceding taxable years (the look-back period), provided that the transferor was a partner in the partnership long enough to receive at least one Schedule K–1 (Form 1065).

In response to comments, these final regulations modify the exception to withholding under §1.1446(f)–2(b)(5). Under the exception in these final regulations (the ECI Exception), a transferor may qualify if its distributive share of gross effectively connected income from the partnership for each taxable year within the look-back period was less than $1 million and less than 10 percent of the transferor’s total distributive share of gross income from the partnership for that year, with both amounts reflected on a Schedule K–1 (Form 1065) (or other statement furnished to the transferor) received from the partnership for each year. Because the ECI Exception looks to the transferor’s share of effectively connected income (as reported on a Schedule K–1 or other statement furnished to the partner), rather than its allocable share of ECTI, a transferor that is not allocated any effectively connected income or loss in any relevant year can still use the exception even if it has not received a Form 8805 for that year. The ECI Exception also adopts the suggestion in the comment to look to gross amounts of income, rather than net amounts of income, for purposes of determining whether the transferor’s distributive share of effectively connected income was less than 10 percent of the transferor’s total distributive share of income from the partnership. As suggested by the comment, this change is intended to provide a more accurate proxy for the tax consequences that would arise under section 864(c)(8) by reason of the transfer. Consistent with this change, the rule provided in proposed §1.1446(f)–2(b)(5)(i)(A) is modified to state that a transferor cannot provide the certification required for the ECI Exception if the transferor did not have a distributive share of gross income from the partnership in each of the relevant years. §1.1446(f)–2(b)(5)(iii).

Therefore, a transferor will generally be able to use the ECI Exception even if it is allocated a distributive share of net loss from the partnership for the relevant taxable year.

These final regulations do not adopt the recommendation in the comment with respect to the relevant holding period because the Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that reducing a transferor’s required length of time to be a partner in a partnership for purposes of the ECI Exception would not provide an adequate indication of the amount of the transferor’s effectively connected gain realized in connection with the transfer.

5. Claims for Treaty Benefits

Under the proposed regulations, a transferor may claim an exception or adjustment to withholding when it qualifies for treaty benefits with respect to a transfer of a partnership interest (including a transfer of a PTP interest). See proposed §§1.1446(f)–2(b)(7) and 1.1446(f)–4(b)(6). These rules required that the certification to claim treaty benefits include an applicable withholding certificate that contains the information necessary to support the claim. Comments requested clarification of the information required to be provided on Form W–8BEN, Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting (Individuals), or Form W–8BEN–E, Certificate of Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting (Entities) in order to claim treaty benefits for purposes of section 1446(f).

To address the comments, the IRS intends to revise the instructions to Forms W–8BEN and W–8BEN–E to describe the information required to be provided for making a treaty claim for purposes of section 1446(f), including a treaty claim made with respect to a transfer of a PTP interest. To make the rules regarding claims for treaty benefits more administrable, these final regulations allow a transferor to use the applicable withholding certificate as the certification for making a claim for benefits under an income tax treaty.

6. Additional Comments Regarding Exceptions to Withholding

i. Disguised Sales

Proposed § 1.864(c)(8)–1(g)(5) defined a transfer for purposes of the section 864(c)(8) proposed regulations as including a transfer treated as a sale or exchange under section 707(a)(2)(B) (a disguised sale). One comment requested an exception from section 1446(f) withholding for certain transactions that occur in connection with the formation and initial funding of an investment partnership, as well as redemptions and admissions of new partners over time, that could be characterized as disguised sales of partnership interests. The comment acknowledged that addressing the substantive issue regarding what constitutes a disguised sale of a partnership interest is beyond the scope of this rulemaking. Nonetheless, the comment recommended an exception from section 1446(f) withholding for certain transactions involving the formation and funding of a partnership and redemptions and admissions of new partners over time. The final regulations do not adopt the recommendation provided in this comment. If a contributing partner is treated as acquiring a partnership interest from a foreign person for Federal income tax purposes, it is appropriate to impose a withholding obligation on the contributing partner to ensure the collection of tax on gain under section 864(c)(8). Further, as the comment noted, the issue of what constitutes a disguised sale of a partnership interest and the tax consequences flowing from that treatment are not unique to the application of these final regulations. After studying the issue, the Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that adding an exception to withholding to take certain cases into account would require a determination, at least in part, of what constitutes a disguised sale of a partnership interest in this context, and the issue is, therefore, outside the scope of this rulemaking.

ii. Withholding Foreign Partnerships and Withholding Foreign Trusts

Comments requested an exception to withholding for transfers that are foreign partnerships and trusts that enter into agreements with the IRS to assume primary withholding and reporting responsibilities on payments subject to withholding under chapters 3 and 4 with respect to their partners, owners, or beneficiaries (as applicable). One of the comments suggested that without such a rule, partners of a WP would be subject to duplicative withholding. The final regulations do not adopt the suggestions contained in these comments. First, a rule allowing WPs and WTs to assume withholding under section 1446(f) would create complexity and require extensive coordination with the IRS. The comments do not provide any suggestions on how to address the many issues that would arise if such a rule were adopted. Further, the comments do not indicate that such a rule would have a material impact on taxpayers that would justify the allocation of resources necessary to provide guidance to these taxpayers.

Second, any concerns regarding duplicative withholding were already addressed under the proposed regulations, which allow a foreign partnership to credit any withholding under section 1446(f) against its own section 1446(a) withholding liability. See §§ 1.1446(f)–2(e)(2)(ii) and 1.1446(f)–4(e)(2)(ii).

iii. Earnout Payments

A comment noted that a transfer of a partnership interest may be subject to an earnout provision that entitles the transferor to future payments based on the achievement of specific goals. The comment requested guidance clarifying that these future payments will be subject to an exception to withholding to the extent that the original transfer qualified for an exception to withholding. Under the proposed regulations, an exception to withholding in § 1.1446(f)–2 eliminates any requirement to withhold on the amount realized from the transfer of a partnership interest. Thus, if an exception to withholding applies at the time of the transfer of a partnership interest, it will also apply to any future payments made to the transferor that are treated as an amount realized from such transfer. As a result, no change is needed in response to this comment.

B. Determining the Amount To Withhold

If an exception to withholding under proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b) does not apply, proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(c)(1) provided that a transferee is required to withhold 10 percent of the amount realized on the transfer of the partnership interest. Proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(c) provided guidance for determining the amount to withhold and provided certain procedures that allow for adjustments to the amount to withhold that are intended to better reflect the transferor’s tax liability on gain under section 864(c)(8). A transferee may use these adjustment procedures when it relies on a certification from the transferor (or, if applicable, from the partnership). The procedures for determining the amount to withhold, therefore, employ the same self-certification procedure provided in proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(b). See generally section IV.A of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions.

1. Definition of Amount Realized

Proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(i) provided generally that the amount realized on a transfer of a partnership interest is determined, in part, under section 752 (including §§ 1.752–1 through 1.752–7); accordingly, the amount realized includes any reduction in the transferor’s share of partnership liabilities. One comment requested that the final regulations modify the amount realized definition to exclude any reduction to the transferor’s share of partnership liabilities. The comment pointed to the potential liquidity concerns that could occur when the amount of liabilities assumed exceeds the cash or other property exchanged in the transfer. The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that it is inappropriate to exclude a reduction in a transferor’s share of partnership liabilities from amount realized. Further, proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(c)(3), which is retained in these final regulations, addresses the liquidity concerns raised in this comment. That provision determines the amount to withhold without regard to any decrease in the transferor’s share of partnership liabilities, but only if the amount otherwise required to be withheld would exceed the amount realized (determined without regard to any decrease in the transferor’s share of partnership liabilities).

2. Modified Amount Realized for Transfers by Foreign Partnerships

Proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(iv) provided a procedure to determine the amount realized when the transferor of a partnership interest is a foreign partnership. Specifically, when a foreign partnership transfers an interest in a partnership, proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(iv) provided that the transferee of the interest may rely on a certification.
provided by the transferor partnership that provides a modified amount realized. The modified amount realized is determined by multiplying the amount realized on the transfer (as determined under proposed §1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)) by the percentage of the gain from the transfer that would be allocated to presumed foreign taxable persons, which include any direct or indirect partners of the transferor partnership that have not provided a certification of non-foreign status. Proposed §1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(iv)(B).

To make the certification, the transferor partnership must provide to the transferee a Form W–8IMY, Certificate of Foreign Intermediary, Foreign Flow-Through Entity, or Certain U.S. Branches for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting, a withholding statement allocating the gain to each partner, and a certification of non-foreign status for each partner that is treated as a U.S. person. See proposed §1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(iv)(C).

One comment recommended that the final regulations expand this approach for determining the modified amount realized on a transfer to take into account situations in which a foreign partner (direct or indirect) in the transferor partnership is eligible for treaty benefits. These final regulations adopt this recommendation. Accordingly, these final regulations modify proposed §1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(iv) to allow for a reduction of the amount realized when a transferor that is a foreign partnership has a direct or indirect partner that is not subject to tax on gain from a transfer pursuant to an applicable U.S. income tax treaty. Specifically, this modification provides that a treaty-eligible partner is not a presumed foreign taxable person for purposes of determining the modified amount realized under §1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(iv). A foreign partnership that provides a certification of modified amount realized must include, in addition to the Form W–8IMY and a withholding statement, the certification of treaty benefits (on a Form W–8BEN or Form W–8BEN–E) from each direct or indirect partner that is not a presumed foreign taxable person. §1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(iv)(C).

Similar changes are made to the modified amount realized procedure for transfers of PTP interests. See section VII.C.1 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions and §1.1446(f)–4(c)(2)(iii).

3. Certification of Maximum Tax Liability

Proposed §1.1446(f)–2(c)(4) provided a procedure to determine the amount to withhold under section 1446(f)(1) and proposed §1.1446(f)–2(a) that is intended to estimate the amount of tax that the transferor is required to pay on gain under section 864(c)(8).

Specifically, the procedure allows a transferee to withhold based on a certification received from the transferor containing certain information relating to the transferor and the transfer, including the transferor’s maximum tax liability (as determined under proposed §1.1446(f)–2(c)(4)(iii)) on the transfer. A transferee may rely on a certification received from a transferor that is a foreign corporation, a nonresident alien individual, or a foreign partnership regarding the transferor’s maximum tax liability. Proposed §1.1446(f)–2(c)(4)(i). A transferor that is a foreign partnership is treated as a nonresident alien individual for purposes of determining the transferor’s maximum tax liability. Id. A comment pointed out that this rule adopts an entity approach with respect to determining a foreign partnership’s maximum tax liability that presumes the partnership is liable for tax on its full distributive share of the effectively connected items from the transfer at individual tax rates, regardless of whether any partners in the partnership are United States persons. The comment suggested that the final regulations modify this rule for determining a foreign partnership’s maximum tax liability based on the look-through principles used in proposed §1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(iv); that is, this modification would allow a foreign partnership to be treated as a United States person to the extent that its partners provide certifications of non-foreign status or to the extent that its partners would be eligible for treaty benefits.

These final regulations do not adopt the suggestion contained in this comment. The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that adopting this suggestion could result in significant complexity and would increase the administrative burden on a transferee that receives a certification of maximum tax liability. The approach suggested in the comment also raises potentially broader issues, including computational issues, that are outside the scope of these final regulations.

Finally, the Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that the modifications to §1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(iv), which allows claims for treaty benefits to be taken into account for purposes of determining the modified amount realized, provide sufficient relief in many of the cases in which the concerns raised in this comment would arise. See section IV.B.2 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions.

In response to informal comments, these final regulations modify the proposed regulations to allow transferees that are foreign trusts to use the maximum tax liability procedure in §1.1446(f)–2(c)(4) to reduce the amount to withhold. Similar to the approach taken with respect to foreign partnerships, these rules treat the foreign trust as a nonresident alien individual for purposes of computing its maximum tax liability under §1.1446(f)–2(c)(4).

C. Other Comments and Changes to the Proposed Regulations

1. Determining Basis

A comment asserted that it is often difficult for the transferee of a partnership interest to know its basis in the transferred interest at the time of transfer: that is, regardless of the §1.706–4 method used, a transferee usually has to wait to receive its Schedule K–1 (Form 1065) for the taxable year of the transfer before determining its basis accurately. As a result, the comment recommended a rule that would allow transferees and transferees to calculate the basis of a transferred partnership interest (solely for purposes of section 1446(f)) by reference to reasonable assumptions that can be made with certainty at the time of the transfer.

The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that the concern raised by the comment was already sufficiently addressed in the proposed regulations. Specifically, the determination date rules of §1.1446(f)–1(c)(4), which appeared in the proposed regulations and are retained in the final regulations, provide substantial flexibility with respect to making certain determinations under section 1446(f)(1). For example, a transferee (other than a controlling partner) could determine its adjusted basis in the transferred partnership interest as of the first day of the partnership’s taxable year in which the transfer occurs. See §§1.1446(f)–1(c)(4)(i)(C)(1) and 1.1446(f)–2(c)(4)(iii)(B).

Additionally, the No Realized Gain exception provided in §1.1446(f)–2(b)(3) similarly allows the transferee to make the relevant determinations as of the determination date.
2. Qualified Foreign Pension Funds

Section 1446(f)(5) provides that any term used in both section 1446(f) and section 1445 will have the meaning provided in section 1445. Section 1445(f)(3) defines a foreign person as any person other than (i) a United States person and (ii) except as otherwise provided by the Secretary, an entity with respect to which section 897 does not apply due to section 897(i). Section 897(l), in turn, excludes qualified foreign pension funds (QFPFs) from the application of section 897. Accordingly, QFPFs are not treated as foreign persons under section 1445.

Section 1446(f)(6) provides the Secretary of the Treasury authority to prescribe regulations that are necessary to carry out the purposes of section 1446(f). Pursuant to this authority, the proposed regulations provided a definition of foreign person that applies for purposes of the regulations under section 1446(f). Specifically, proposed §1.1446(f)(1)(4) defined a foreign person as a person that is not a United States person. Proposed §1.1446(f)(1)(4) defined a United States person as a person described in section 7701(a)(30). Because QFPFs are not persons described in section 7701(a)(30), they are foreign persons for purposes of §§1.1446(f)(1) through 1.1446(f)(5).

One comment requested that these final regulations clarify that QFPFs are foreign persons for purposes of section 1446(f). The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that the proposed regulations provided sufficient clarity regarding the treatment of QFPFs by specifically defining the term foreign person for purposes of §§1.1446(f)(1) through 1.1446(f)(5). The final regulations, therefore, adopt the relevant definitions provided in the proposed regulations with respect to QFPFs.

3. Valuation of Partnership Property

One comment described a situation in which the transferor and transferee of a partnership interest value partnership assets differently than the partnership does. The comment recommended, where relevant, a clarification to the final regulations allowing for a valuation of partnership assets based on the transferor’s amount realized on a per transfer basis, provided that any valuation is supported by an arm’s length price on which the transferor and transferee have agreed to execute the transaction. The final regulations do not adopt this recommendation. Valuation issues are not unique to the application of these final regulations; therefore, providing an explicit valuation rule in these final regulations that would take into account the situation described in the comment goes beyond the scope of this rulemaking.

4. Credit for Amounts Withheld on Partnerships, Trusts, or Estates

The proposed regulations provided rules prescribing the manner in which a credit for an amount withheld under section 1446(f) may be claimed by a foreign individual, corporation, or partnership. The proposed regulations provided in §1.1446–3(c)(4) that a foreign partnership that was withheld upon under section 1446(f) could credit the amount withheld against its tax liability under section 1446(a) to the extent the amount is allocable to foreign partners. The Treasury Department and the IRS intend to amend the instructions to Forms 8804, 8805, and 8813 to provide that to obtain a credit against its section 1446(a) liability, a foreign partnership withheld upon under section 1446(f) on the sale of its non-PTP interest must attach to its Form 8804. Annual Return for Partnership Withholding Tax (Section 1446), a stamped copy of Form 8288–A, Statement of Withholding on Dispositions by Foreign Persons of U.S. Real Property Interests.

These final regulations provide guidance for foreign trusts or estates that are withheld upon under section 1446(f). Specifically, §1.1446(f)(2)(ii) provides that a foreign trust or estate may claim a credit for an amount withheld under section 1446(f) in accordance with §1.1446–1. Thus, the trust or estate may claim a credit to the extent it is ultimately liable for tax on the gain under section 864(c)(8). Similar guidance is provided for foreign trusts or estates claiming credit for amounts withheld on transfers of PTP interests. See §1.1446(f)(4)(e)(2)(i). 5. Certifications Provided by Grantor Trusts

Under proposed §1.1446(f)(1)(c)(2)(vii), a certification provided by a transferor that is a grantor or other owner of a grantor trust was required to identify the portion of the amount realized attributable to the grantor or owner. These final regulations retain this rule, but also include a mechanism for the grantor trust to provide the certification on behalf of the transferor to a transferee. Under this allowance, a foreign grantor trust may provide to the transferee a Form W–8IMY, a withholding statement that provides the percentage amount realized allocable to each grantor or owner of the trust, and any applicable certification for each grantor or owner. A domestic grantor trust that has a foreign grantor or other owner may provide a similar statement in lieu of Form W–8IMY. The allowance described in this paragraph may also be applied in the context of a grantor or other owner of a grantor trust transferring a PTP interest.

V. Partnership’s Requirement To Withhold Under Section 1446(f)(4) on Distributions to Transferee

Section 1446(f)(4) provides that if a transferee fails to withhold any amount required to be withheld under section 1446(f)(1), the partnership must deduct and withhold from distributions to the transferee a tax in an amount equal to the amount the transferee failed to withhold (plus interest). Proposed §1.1446(f)(3) provided rules that implement a partnership’s requirement to withhold under section 1446(f)(4), including rules for determining when a partnership is required to withhold and report under section 1446(f)(4), rules for determining if an exception to withholding applies, and rules for determining the amount required to be withheld (including the computation of interest). Proposed §1.1446(f)(3) also provided rules regarding the effect of section 1446(f)(4) withholding on the transferee and transferor, including procedures that require the partnership to make any claim (on behalf of the transferee) for credit or refund for amounts overwithheld under section 1446(f)(4).

A. Scope of Withholding Obligation Under §1.1446(f)(3)

Proposed §1.1446(f)(3)(a)(1) provided that if a transferee fails to withhold any amount required to be withheld under proposed §1.1446(f)(2), the partnership whose interest was transferred must withhold from any distributions made to the transferee in accordance with the rules provided in proposed §1.1446(f)(3). To determine its withholding obligation under proposed §1.1446(f)(3), if any, a partnership may rely on information provided in a certification received from the transferee described in proposed §1.1446(f)(2)(d)(2) (a certification of withholding) unless it knows, or has reason to know, that the certification is incorrect or unreliable. Proposed §1.1446(f)(3)(a)(1). The proposed regulations, therefore, required the partnership to review any certification of withholding received from the transferee, including any underlying certification from a transferee claiming an exception or adjustment to withholding, because the partnership could have information suggesting that the certification is incorrect or unreliable, and that information may not be available to the transferee (for example, if the information was contained in the partnership’s books and records). See generally section IV.B of the Explanation of Provisions section of the preamble to the proposed regulations. The transferee must provide the certification of withholding to the partnership within 10 days after the date of the transfer and deposit any tax due under section 1446(f)(1) within 20 days after the date of the transfer. Proposed § 1.1446(f)–2(d). If a partnership does not receive, or cannot rely on, a certification of withholding, it must withhold on the entire amount of each distribution made to the transferee until it may rely on a certification of withholding to determine that it has satisfied its section 1446(f)(4) liability. Proposed § 1.1446(f)–3(c).

1. Partnership’s Review of a Certification of Withholding

A comment stated that the rule in proposed § 1.1446(f)–3(a)(1) is problematic as it may require a partnership to withhold under section 1446(f)(4) on a transferee that has fully complied with its withholding obligations under section 1446(f)(1) by properly relying on a certification from the transferor to reduce or eliminate withholding. This situation could occur, for example, if the partnership receives an underlying certification that a transferee has properly relied on, and the partnership has information in its possession indicating that the information contained in the certification is incorrect or unreliable. The comment therefore asserted that this rule is inconsistent with the statute, which imposes section 1446(f)(4) withholding when a transferee fails to withhold any amount required to be withheld under section 1446(f)(1). The comment also stated that the rule in proposed § 1.1446(f)–3(a)(1) essentially holds the transferee strictly liable for any underwithholding, which is inconsistent with the approaches taken in other withholding regimes, such as those provided under sections 1441 through 1443 and section 1445. Therefore, the comment recommended that the final regulations eliminate a partnership’s requirement to withhold under section 1446(f)(4) when a transferee properly relies on a certification to reduce or eliminate the withholding tax.

The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that the approach provided in proposed § 1.1446(f)–3(a)(1) is consistent with the language and purpose of section 1446(f), and thus the approach is retained in the final regulations. Unlike the withholding regimes under sections 1441 through 1443 and 1445, section 1446(f) explicitly provides a withholding obligation on a secondary party to the transfer, the partnership. Section 1446(f)(4) states that if a transferee fails to withhold any amount required to be withheld under section 1446(f)(1), the partnership must withhold from distributions to the transferee in an amount equal to the amount the transferee failed to withhold (plus any interest). Under section 1446(f)(1), a transferee is generally required to withhold 10 percent of the amount realized on a transfer subject to section 864(c)(8). While the proposed regulations allow the amount required to be withheld under section 1446(f)(1) to be reduced when a transferee relies on a claim for an exception or adjustment to withholding, this allowance is conditioned on proper review and acceptance of the claim by the partnership. If the conditions of the proposed regulations are not met, a transferee is required to withhold at the statutory rate under section 1446(f)(1) or will be subject to withholding under section 1446(f)(4).

To limit when withholding under section 1446(f)(4) is imposed on a transferee that properly relied on a certification from a transferor, the proposed regulations provide sufficient time for a transferee to consult with the partnership regarding the accuracy of the certification. Specifically, the proposed regulations require the transferor to provide a certification of withholding to the partnership within 10 days after the transfer and to deposit any withheld tax with the IRS within 20 days of the transfer. Therefore, a transferee may choose to withhold 10 percent of the amount realized on the transfer, and depending on the outcome of its consultation with the partnership, either repay the withheld amount to the transferor or deposit it with the IRS.

The final regulations adopt these rules from the proposed regulations and add a rule to limit the instances of withholding under section 1446(f)(4) on certain transferees, and to reduce the compliance burden on such transferees. This rule allows a partnership to determine that it does not have a withholding obligation under § 1.1446(f)–3 if it already possesses a Form W–9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification, for the transferor that meets the requirements provided in § 1.1446(f)–2(b)(2) to establish non-foreign status, even if the transferee does not provide a certification of withholding to the partnership under § 1.1446(f)–2(d). See § 1.1446(f)–3(a)(1). Consistent with the general rules for partnerships that rely on information in their books and records, a partnership may not apply this rule when it knows, or has reason to know, that the Form W–9 that it possesses is incorrect or unreliable.

2. Partnership’s Discretion To Withhold

A comment also questioned the application of proposed § 1.1446(f)–3(a)(1) if the partnership receives a certification from the transferee and the partnership does not know or have reason to believe that the certification is incorrect or unreliable. Specifically, the comment noted that proposed § 1.1446(f)–3(a)(1) states that a partnership may rely on a certification of withholding, which suggests that reliance on the certification is permissive and not mandatory. The comment suggested that, as a result, a partnership may choose to disregard a certification received from a transferee, and thus withhold on distributions to the transferee, even if the partnership does not know, and has no reason to believe, that the information contained in the statement is incorrect or unreliable. The comment noted that the resulting burden on the transferee is exacerbated because only the partnership, rather than the transferee, can directly obtain a refund of amounts withheld on distributions to the transferee under section 1446(f)(4). The comment recommended, therefore, that the final regulations clarify that a partnership must (rather than may) rely on a certification received from a transferee if the partnership does not know or have reason to know that the information contained in the certification is incorrect or unreliable.

The final regulations do not adopt this comment. The approach taken in the proposed regulations is consistent with other withholding regimes, which allow a withholding agent discretion in determining whether to rely on documentation that supports a claim for a reduced amount of withholding or an exception to withholding. See, e.g., § 1.1441–1(b)(1). This discretion is afforded to the withholding agent because it is generally the party liable for any failure to withhold under section 1461. Further, because a withholding agent is liable under section 1461 only for underwithholding, it is unclear how a withholding agent that failed to reduce (or eliminate) the amount of withholding under such a rule should be held liable, because transferees are partners in the partnership, partnerships generally would have an incentive to review and accept valid certifications of withholding provided by transferees, rather than withhold unnecessarily on them. For these reasons, the final regulations allow the partnership to determine whether to rely on a certification of withholding for purposes of section 1446(f)(4).

These final regulations do, however, modify the proposed regulations to allow the transferee, rather than the partnership, to obtain a refund of overwithholding for amounts withheld under section 1446(f)(4). As suggested by the comment, this modification mitigates some of the effect of any overwithholding. See section V.C of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions.

B. Removal of Withholding Under Section 1446(f)(4) by Publicly Traded Partnerships

Under proposed §1.1446(f)–4(b)(3) and (4), a broker was not required to withhold on a transfer of a PTP interest when the publicly traded partnership claims on a qualified notice that an exception applies based on either of the following statements: (i) A statement that less than 10 percent of the total gain on a deemed sale of the publicly traded partnership’s assets would be effectively connected gain, or no gain would have been effectively connected gain (the 10-percent exception); or (ii) a statement that the entire amount of a distribution was from effectively connected sources, or no gain would have been treated as an effectively connected gain (the 100-percent exception). The comment noted that this rule could negatively affect market values of PTP interests because even the slightest hint of potential future distributions would be subject to the risk that future distributions may be reduced or even eliminated, even if the qualified notice has not yet been declared false.

A comment also noted concerns with the rule in proposed §1.1446(f)–3(c)(1)(ii)(C), which requires publicly traded partnerships to continue withholding on distributions under section 1446(f)(4) even when the transferee no longer owns an interest in the partnership. The comment noted that the rule could negatively affect market values of PTP interests because every person acquiring a PTP interest no longer has the right to receive distributions from the PTP. This would increase the likelihood that a PTP will be sold at a discount, which in turn would reduce the market value of the PTP.

In addition, a comment raised a practical concern about the timing of the withholding required under proposed §1.1446(f)–4(b)(3) and (4), which requires withholding to begin on the later of the date that is 30 days after the date of transfer, or 15 days after the date on which the partnership acquires actual knowledge that the transfer has occurred. The comment noted that a publicly traded partnership would be unable to withhold until it knows that it has issued a false qualified notice, and the comment therefore requested that any withholding obligation begin after the publicly traded partnership acquires knowledge that the qualified notice is incorrect.

The comments regarding the application of section 1446(f)(4) to publicly traded partnerships also included suggestions to address the concerns raised with respect to the withholding requirement. Several comments suggested removing the requirement for a publicly traded partnership to withhold under section 1446(f)(4) entirely. One comment suggested replacing the withholding requirement for a false qualified notice with an information reporting penalty (or other quantifiable penalty). Another comment suggested instead imposing a penalty on a preparer of a qualified notice if the preparer acts in bad faith or without a requisite standard of care.

The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that a publicly traded partnership should not be required to withhold under section 1446(f)(4). This withholding would have necessarily impacted the distributions made to a transferee (or subsequent transferee) who bears no responsibility for the underwithholding resulting from an erroneous qualified notice (unlike the case of a transfer of a non-PTP interest).

Rather, as is the partnership that determines the contents of its qualified notice, the partnership should bear the consequences resulting from its representations on the notice rather than any specific transferee. As a result, these final regulations remove the requirement in the proposed regulations that a publicly traded partnership withhold on a transferee under §1.1446(f)–3 and add instead provisions imposing liability for underwithholding under section 1461 on the partnership that issued the qualified notice. See §1.1446(f)–4(b)(3)(i) and (c)(2)(iii) and Sections VI.B and VI.C.2 of the Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions. By removing the requirement for the partnership to withhold under section 1446(f)(4) on any transferees, this modification also addresses the comments noting concerns that withholding on specific transferees could negatively affect the market values of PTP interests. This modification also alleviates the need to address those comments concerning when withholding under section 1446(f)(4) would begin to apply.

These final regulations do not apply information reporting penalties in lieu of imposing a section 1461 liability on a publicly traded partnership. The comment to impose an information reporting penalty in lieu of a withholding requirement was not adopted in these final regulations due to concerns that a qualified notice may not be treated as an information return or a payee statement under section 6724(d) for purposes of applying penalties under section 6721 or 6722.

With respect to the comments suggesting that a publicly traded partnership would be unable to obtain the information necessary to determine the underlying withholding resulting from a broker’s reliance on a qualified notice, for this determination, the Treasury Department and the IRS note that a publicly traded partnership should be able to obtain information on transfers of PTP interests from nominees holding interests in the partnership under §1.6031(c)–1T (generally requiring a nominee to provide certain information about persons for whom it holds interests in the partnership, including information on transfers of partnership interests).

C. Credits and Refunds for Amounts Withheld Under Section 1446(f)(4)

Proposed §1.1446(f)–3(e)(2) provides that a transferee may not obtain a refund if the amount of tax withheld under proposed §1.1446(f)–3 exceeds the transferee’s withholding tax liability under proposed §1.1446(f)–2; instead, only the partnership may claim a refund on behalf of the transferee for the excess amount withheld under proposed §1.1446(f)–3. The preamble to the proposed regulations provided that the purpose of this rule is to make the refund process more administrable and requested comments on this issue.

Comments requested that the transferee be allowed to directly claim a refund for the excess amount withheld under §1.1446(f)–3. The comments explained that it would be neither practical, nor reasonable, to expect the partnership to claim the refund on behalf of the transferee in most circumstances. Thus, if the partnership does not seek a refund on behalf of the transferee for the excess amount withheld, the transferee may have no way to obtain the overwithheld amounts from the IRS.

One comment requested clarification regarding the manner in which proposed §1.1446(f)–3(e)(2) measures the excess of the amount of tax withheld under §1.1446(f)–3 over the transferee’s withholding tax liability under §1.1446(f)–2. The comment suggested, for example, computing the excess amount as the difference between the sum of any withholding under §§1.1446(f)–2 and 1.1446(f)–3, plus any tax on gain paid by reason of §1.864(c)(8)–1, and the total tax liability of the foreign transferee (as defined in §1.864(c)(8)–1(g)(3)) for the year in which the transfer occurred.

Alternatively, the comment suggested computing the excess amount as the difference between the sum of any withholding under §§1.1446(f)–2 and 1.1446(f)–3 and the tax liability of the foreign transferee under §1.864(c)(8)–1 on the transfer.

The Treasury Department and the IRS agree with these comments and modify these final regulations to allow a transferee to directly claim and obtain a refund for the excess amount withheld under §1.1446(f)–3. Specifically, these final regulations modify §1.1446(f)–3, in relevant part, to provide that a transferee may obtain a refund of the excess amount if it has made payments in excess of the tax which is properly due by the transferee for the tax period. Accordingly, under these final regulations, the partnership is not permitted to claim a refund on behalf of the transferee for the excess amount withheld under §1.1446(f)–3.

The final regulations also clarify that the excess amount withheld under §1.1446(f)–3 is the amount of tax and interest withheld under §1.1446(f)–3 that exceeds the transferee’s withholding tax liability under §1.1446(f)–2 and any interest owed by the transferee with respect to such liability. §1.1446(f)–3(e)(2). This rule retains the general approach in the proposed regulations that computes the excess amount as the difference between the amount withheld under §1.1446(f)–3 and the transferee’s withholding tax liability under §1.1446(f)–2, but clarifies that both amounts are computed by including interest, and a refund may be claimed only to the extent that the excess amount produces an overpayment. While the final regulations do not explicitly adopt either of the specific suggestions made in the comment, this approach is generally consistent with the alternative suggestion described in the comment as the final regulations also allow a transferee to establish that it has a reduced withholding tax liability under §1.1446(f)–2 based on the amount of tax due by the foreign transferee on gain subject to §1.864(c)(8)–1, or that tax has already been paid by the foreign transferee. See §1.1446(f)–5(b) and section IV.A of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions. In order to coordinate a partnership’s obligation to withhold with the transferee’s withholding liability, these final regulations modify §1.1446(f)–2(d)(2) to provide that a transferee’s withholding tax liability under §1.1446(f)–2 is not satisfied if a partnership knows or has reason to know that a certification relied on by the transferee to reduce or eliminate withholding is incorrect or unreliable.

D. Liability of a Related Person to the Transferee

The proposed regulations generally did not require a partnership to continue withholding under section 1446(f)(4) on distributions made after the transferee disposed of its interest. However, if the interest were transferred to a person that is related to the transferee or the transferor from which the transferee acquired its interest (that is, a subsequent transferee that bears a relationship described in sections 267(b) or 707(b)(1) with respect to the relevant party), and if the partnership had actual knowledge of the subsequent transferee’s relationship to the relevant party, proposed §1.1446(f)–3(c)(1)(ii)(C) required the partnership to withhold on distributions made to the subsequent transferee. This rule was intended to prevent a transferee (or any subsequent transferee) from avoiding withholding under section 1446(f)(4) by transferring its interest to a related person.

Consistent with this intent, the final regulations clarify that a related person is treated as liable for tax under section 1461 to the same extent to which the transferee is liable under §1.1446(f)–2. This clarification is meant to prevent the related person that is withheld upon under section 1446(f)(4) from making a claim for a credit or refund of the withheld amount. These final regulations, therefore, ensure that a credit or refund is permitted only for an amount that exceeds the amount that the transferee failed to withhold.

VI. Withholding on the Transfer of a PTP Interest by a Foreign Person

Proposed §1.1446(f)–4(a) implemented the withholding requirement under section 1446(f) on transfers of PTP interests. Under this rule, any broker that effects a transfer of a PTP interest by a foreign person is treated as liable for tax under section 1446(f)(4) by transferring its interest to a related person. Proposed §1.1446(f)–4(b) provided certain exceptions to this requirement, and proposed §1.1446(f)–4(c) provided rules for determining the amount realized for purposes of withholding on a transfer of a PTP interest. Proposed revisions to §1.1461–1 provided rules for a broker to report the amount realized and tax withheld from a transfer of a PTP interest.

A. Scope of Withholding Obligation

1. Qualified Intermediary Agreement

The preamble to the proposed regulations stated that the Treasury Department and the IRS intend to modify the qualified intermediary agreement (QI agreement) set forth in Revenue Procedure 2017–15, 2017–3 I.R.B. 437, to allow qualified intermediaries (QIs) to assume primary withholding responsibilities on amounts realized under section 1446(f) and on distributions by publicly traded partnerships under section 1446(a). Comments requested that the revisions to the QI agreement be set forth in proposed form before the modified QI agreement is published. In response to those comments, this section VI of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions describes certain requirements specific to QIs to preview several intended revisions to the QI agreement that relate to § 1.1446(f)–4.

Additionally, section VII of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions describes certain requirements included in § 1.1446–4 of these final regulations that apply to QIs that receive distributions made by publicly traded partnerships. Since the QI agreement expires at the end of the 2022 calendar year, provisions related to these final regulations applicable to QIs will be incorporated into a revised QI agreement effective for the 2023 calendar year. As the provisions of these final regulations that relate to withholding with respect to transfers of PTP interests and distributions by publicly traded partnerships apply to QIs starting January 1, 2022, the requirements for QIs related to section 1446(a) and (f) for the 2022 calendar year will be set forth in a rider to the QI agreement. See section VIII of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions for a discussion of the applicability dates of these final regulations. A QI will not be required to include in a periodic review for the 2022 calendar year any review procedures with respect to the QI’s compliance with sections 1446(a) and (f); therefore, the rider will not include any review procedures related to those sections, nor will the rider include any new certifications or information for purposes of Appendix I of the QI agreement for QIs with a certification period ending December 31, 2022.

2. Transfers of PTP Interests That Are Cleared and Settled at a Clearing Organization

The proposed regulations generally defined a broker as any person that, in the ordinary course of business, stands ready to effect sales made by others, and that, in connection with a transfer of a PTP interest, receives all or a portion of the amount realized on behalf of the transferor. Proposed § 1.1446(f)–1(b)(1).

The proposed regulations provided that the term broker includes a clearing organization that effects the transfer of a PTP interest on behalf of the transferor. Id. In addition, the proposed regulations generally provided that a broker that pays the amount realized to a foreign broker is required to withhold unless the foreign broker is a QI that assumes primary withholding responsibility or is a U.S. branch treated as a U.S. person. Proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(a).

The Treasury Department and the IRS received comments requesting various exclusions and special rules for brokers effecting trades that are cleared and settled at a clearing organization. One comment requested that U.S. clearing organizations be excluded from the definition of broker in § 1.1446(f)–1(b)(1) in connection with their roles in the clearance and settlement of sales of PTP interests. The comment noted that U.S. clearing organizations perform a critical role in ensuring the functioning of the U.S. capital markets, and that imposing withholding requirements on U.S. clearing organizations may be disruptive to the market for trading PTP interests.

The comment also explained that within U.S. clearing organizations, trades of securities (including PTP interests) are frequently processed through a netting system, whereby each security and related money settlement obligation is netted to one net security and payment position per broker, with the clearing organization as the central counterparty. The netting system creates efficiencies that ensure the prompt clearance and settlement of securities transactions and increases liquidity in the market. The comment noted that this netting process is critical to orderly and efficient trading in the capital markets, and that withholding under section 1446(f) on a gross basis may cause netting to be impacted with respect to the clearance and settlement of PTP interests. The comment also noted that the Treasury Department and the IRS have historically recognized this issue by creating exceptions or special rules for clearing organizations in similar contexts. See §§ 1.1473–1(a)(3)(i)(C) and 1.6045–1(b), Example 2(vii).

The comment further explained that a U.S. clearing organization may also process bilateral transactions between members of the clearing organization for which the cash and securities exchanged are not netted by the clearing organization as described in the preceding paragraph. These transactions may include, among others, the transfer of cash and securities between a seller’s broker and custodian in order to settle a trade. For example, a member broker effecting a sale of a PTP interest for a seller may make a payment of the gross proceeds to the custodian for the seller when the seller engages a broker that is not its custodian to effect the sale of the PTP interest through a clearing organization. The comment requested that withholding on such transactions be the responsibility of the member making the gross payment and not the clearing organization. The comment stated that the members of a U.S. clearing organization are in the better position to withhold on such transactions because they possess the information about the transaction necessary to determine whether withholding is required, whereas the role of the clearing organization in such cases is generally limited to transferring securities and cash based on instructions provided by the members. The comment also noted that because brokers are not currently required to obtain documentation on custodians to which they make payments in connection with “delivery versus payment” transactions, a custodian may not be willing to provide documentation to the broker or accept less than the entire amount of gross proceeds from the sale, causing the trade to “fail” (in other words, the trade would not be settled with respect to the transferor holding the PTP interest through the
However, the comment acknowledged that if the withholding responsibility is only on the custodian, there is a risk that a custodian would be a nonqualified intermediary (NQI) and would not document or withhold on the transferor under section 1446(f). The comment suggested that this risk could be mitigated by requiring a clearing organization to withhold on these sales, and noted that U.S. clearing organizations already collect documentation on their members that are custodians for purposes of meeting other withholding requirements.

These final regulations retain the rule in the proposed regulations that a broker includes a clearing organization. However, the final regulations provide that a broker that is a U.S. clearing organization is not required to withhold on an amount realized on trades of PTP interests that are netted and that have a U.S. clearing organization as the central counterparty. The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined a U.S. clearing organization should not be required to withhold on such transactions under section 1446(f) at this time. The Treasury Department and the IRS understand that withholding by a U.S. clearing organization on a gross basis on such trades may be disruptive to the efficiency and liquidity of the trading of PTP interests in the capital markets. The Treasury Department and the IRS also understand that there are no NQI direct clearing members that participate directly in the net settlement system at a U.S. clearing organization at the present time. Therefore, there is no risk of underwithholding due to this exception based on current market practice. Further, the Treasury Department and the IRS understand that it is highly unlikely that a NQI would become such a member in the future because of restrictions in U.S. securities and banking laws on foreign banks and brokers, as well as the practical barriers to becoming a direct clearing member at a U.S. clearing organization. After carefully weighing the burdens and benefits of the possible approaches, the Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that the risk of any possible market disruption outweighs any benefit of imposing a withholding requirement on a U.S. clearing organization in these final regulations at the present time on trades settled through a net settlement system at the U.S. clearing organization.

However, in order to ensure that withholding on sales of PTP interests that have undergone a netting process at a U.S. clearing organization is satisfied by the member brokers and that there are no NQI direct clearing members participating in the net settlement system with respect to PTP interests, a U.S. clearing organization is required in these final regulations to report such sales (on a non-netted basis) for each direct clearing member on Form 1042–S, Foreign Person’s U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding (unless an exception applies). If this reporting on Form 1042–S indicates that an NQI is a direct clearing member of a U.S. clearing organization, the Treasury Department and the IRS will issue proposed guidance that would revise these final regulations to require withholding by the U.S. clearing organization on such NQIs.

With respect to transfers of cash and securities on a gross basis by a U.S. clearing organization at the instruction of its members in order to settle a trade of a PTP interest, these final regulations do not require withholding and reporting by the U.S. clearing organization. However, the Treasury Department and the IRS decline to adopt an exclusion from withholding and reporting with respect to brokers (other than U.S. clearing organizations) for “delivery versus payment” transactions. Therefore, under these final regulations, a broker paying an amount realized to a foreign custodian is required to withhold and report on the amount realized (unless an exception applies). This determination follows from concerns with cases in which brokers may pay amounts realized to custodians that are NQIs. To address the concerns raised in the comments about the difficulty of obtaining documentation on custodians in order to determine whether withholding or reporting applies, these final regulations permit a U.S. clearing organization to provide documentation on a member custodian to a member broker paying an amount realized to such custodian, subject to the notification and opt-out requirements described in the final regulations, and a broker may rely on such documentation. See §1.1446(f)–4(a)(4). The Treasury Department and the IRS understand that it is possible for brokers to create a mechanism for imposing withholding on amounts realized paid to custodians that are NQIs (and thus avoiding failed trades).

3. Documentation of Non-Foreign Status of Broker

The proposed regulations provided that a broker must treat another broker as a foreign person unless it obtains documentation (including a certification of non-foreign status) establishing that the other broker is a U.S. person. See proposed §1.1446(f)–4(a)(2)(iv).

One comment requested that the presumption rules under §1.1441–10(b)(3)(iii) that apply to a payment subject to withholding under sections 1441 and 1442 also apply for purposes of section 1446(f) when a broker does not obtain documentation on another broker. In certain cases, this change would allow a broker to treat another broker, including a custodian, to which it pays an amount realized as a non-foreign person even when it does not obtain the documentation of non-foreign status required under the proposed regulations. This suggestion is not adopted in these final regulations. The presumption rules in §1.1441–10(b)(3)(iii) are generally aimed at withholding agents that have an ongoing relationship with the payee and make periodic payments to the payee and, therefore, are likely to have some information on the payee in the withholding agent’s account files or in documentation associated with a payment. Furthermore, many withholding agents that are required to withhold under sections 1441 and 1442 are generally subject to anti-money laundering/know your customer (AML/KYC) obligations that require the collection of customer information on account opening and, therefore, in most instances where the presumption rules in §1.1441–10(b)(3)(iii) apply, the presumption would be foreign status. Those rules would not be appropriate in a transactional context where a broker may not have an ongoing relationship with another broker to which it pays an amount realized. The application of such rules to brokers required to withhold on sales of PTP interests under section 1446(f) in those cases would generally result in a presumption of U.S. status, which would disincentivize brokers from collecting tax documentation on another broker to which it pays an amount realized. Further, the Treasury Department and the IRS understand that there are a limited number of custodians for which a broker would need to obtain documentation. Accordingly, documenting a broker as a U.S. person would generally be a one-time event because a Form W–9 generally has indefinite validity (absent a change in circumstances).

However, in order to provide additional flexibility in cases in which a broker may have an existing relationship with another broker, these final regulations permit a broker to rely on documentation that it already possesses from the payee broker (rather than requiring new documentation for each transaction when the same payee broker is used). Additionally, these final regulations provide a further allowance for a broker to rely on documentation required for transfers of PTP interests that is collected by a clearing organization. See section VI.A.2 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions.

These final regulations also include a technical correction to the definition of foreign person to account for certain QIs that are not foreign entities. The term foreign person is defined in these final regulations to include QI branches of U.S. financial institutions. See § 1.1446(f)–1(b)(4). This definition is consistent with the definition of foreign person for purposes of sections 1441 through 1443, 1461, and the regulations under those sections. See § 1.1441–1(c)(2)(i).

4. QIs Assuming Section 1446(f) Withholding Responsibility

Under proposed § 1.1446(f)–4, a broker was not required to withhold on an amount realized paid to another broker that is a QI that represents on its withholding certificate (as described in § 1.1441–1(e)(3)(ii)) its assumption of primary withholding responsibility for chapter 3 withholding. With respect to a distribution made by a publicly traded partnership, the proposed regulations provided a similar allowance for a QI to assume primary withholding responsibility under section 1446(a) by acting as a nominee for the distribution. See proposed § 1.1446–4(b)(3).

The QI agreement generally permits a QI to assume primary withholding responsibilities on an account-by-account basis rather than on all payments made by a withholding agent to a QI. Comments requested generally similar flexibility for QIs assuming withholding responsibilities under sections 1446(a) and 1446(f), noting that the proposed regulations do not clearly state whether a QI would need to assume section 1446 withholding responsibilities as part of its overall withholding responsibilities. One comment noted the different system-related considerations in withholding on sales proceeds as opposed to withholding on payments of periodic income. To better match systems capabilities of withholding agents and QIs and provide for a more efficient withholding process, comments therefore requested that the regulations be clarified to permit a QI to assume primary withholding responsibilities under section 1446(a) and (f) regardless of whether the QI assumes primary withholding responsibilities for other payments subject to withholding under chapters 3 and 4. A comment requested that a QI be permitted to assume withholding responsibility under section 1446(a) but not section 1446(f), and vice versa. Another comment requested that a QI be permitted to assume withholding responsibility under section 1446(f) resulting from a sale of a PTP interest independent of whether the QI assumes primary withholding responsibility under section 1446(f) on distributions made by the publicly traded partnership.

The Treasury Department and the IRS agree that QIs should be permitted appropriate flexibility to make appropriate arrangements to assume, or not assume, certain withholding responsibilities. These final regulations allow a QI to assume primary withholding responsibility under section 1446(f) on a payment-by-payment basis. For example, a QI may assume primary withholding responsibility under section 1446(f) for a sale of a PTP interest but not a distribution, and vice versa. Further, a QI is permitted to assume (or not assume) primary withholding responsibility under section 1446(f) on a sale of a PTP interest regardless of whether the QIs assumes primary withholding responsibilities under sections 1441 and 1442. However, under these final regulations a QI that assumes withholding responsibilities on any portion of a distribution from a publicly traded partnership will be required to assume withholding responsibilities for the entire distribution (in other words, a QI must either assume withholding responsibilities on the distribution for purposes of chapter 3 (including section 1446(a) and (f)) and chapter 4, or not assume withholding responsibilities for any of those purposes). See §§ 1.1446(f)–4(a)(8) and 1.1446–4(b)(3). This requirement will make withholding and reporting on distributions with respect to PTP interests more efficient because one party will perform the withholding and reporting on a distribution. The Treasury Department and the IRS intend for the revised QI agreement to incorporate the requirements for a QI that assumes primary withholding responsibility under section 1446(a) or (f).

Similar changes to those described above for QIs are included in these final regulations with respect to payments of amounts realized made to U.S. branches that agree to act as U.S. persons under section 1446(a) or (f). Additionally, these final regulations clarify in § 1.1446(f)–4(a)(2)(i)(B) that the requirements for a U.S. branch withholding certificate under § 1.1441–1(e)(3)(v) apply without regard to the requirement that the certificate include a representation that the income is not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States.

5. QIs Not Assuming Section 1446 Withholding Responsibility

Under the current QI agreement, a QI is not required to assume primary withholding responsibilities under chapters 3 and 4. In such cases, a QI provides withholding rate pool information on its account holders that are foreign persons (rather than specific information about each such account holder) to the withholding agent sufficient for the withholding agent to determine the amounts to withhold. The proposed regulations permitted an exception to withholding on an amount realized paid to a QI only when the QI assumes primary withholding responsibility, but provided no special rules for when a QI does not assume withholding responsibility under section 1446(f). Comments requested that a QI be permitted to not assume primary withholding responsibility under section 1446(f) if it provides to the broker paying an amount realized a withholding statement that allocates the amount realized to account holders of the QI selling their PTP interests in withholding rate pools, similar to the allowance for a QI to pass up withholding rate pools for purposes of section 1441. See § 1.1441–1(b)(2)(vii)(C) and (e)(5)(v)(C). In addition, for accounts not designated by a QI as accounts for which it acts under the QI agreement, a comment requested that the final regulations also permit a QI not assuming primary withholding responsibility under section 1446(f) to represent its status as a QI and provide to the broker a withholding statement allocating the amount realized to each account holder of the QI selling its PTP interest in the same transaction, along with specific account holder documentation, sufficient for the broker to determine the amount to withhold. This allowance would avoid any additional withholding that might apply were the QI instead required to represent its status as an NQI in those cases, as described in section VI.A.6 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions, and would relieve a QI from filing a Form 1042–S in such a case. Comments also requested that a QI be permitted to report on Form 1042–S on a pooled basis (rather than to specific recipients) for section 1446(f) purposes to the same extent permitted for other payments covered by the QI agreement.

In response to these comments, the final regulations provide that a broker may determine the amount to withhold under section 1446(f) on an amount realized paid to a QI that does not assume primary withholding responsibility under section 1446(f) based on aggregate information (in other words, in withholding rate pools) about the account holders of the QI that are transferring PTP interests. See §1.1446(f)–4(a)(7). Under these final regulations, a broker may rely on a QI’s allocation of an amount realized to a pool of foreign transferors subject to 10-percent withholding, a pool of foreign transferors that are excepted from withholding under §1.1446(f)–4(b), and, to the extent permitted under chapter 4, U.S. transferors included in a chapter 4 withholding rate pool of U.S. payees. This allowance provides parity with sections 1441 and 1442 with respect to a QI’s requirements for its withholding statements (and associated documentation) and will provide QIs and brokers making payments of amounts realized to QIs greater flexibility in meeting their section 1446(f) requirements. Additionally, under these final regulations a broker may also rely on specific payee information provided by a QI with respect to foreign transferors (rather than pooled information), thereby permitting the broker to withhold based on this information rather than treating the QI as an NQI in such a case (as would generally be the case for other amounts subject to withholding under chapter 3). See §1.1446(f)–4(a)(7)(iii). A broker may also withhold as described in the preceding sentence for purposes of section 1446(a) under these final regulations in order to coordinate the rules applicable to QIs under both sections 1446(a) and (f). See §1.1446–4(e) and section VII.C of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions. These final regulations also provide that in cases where a QI passes up specific payee information for a partner receiving a distribution or an amount realized, the nominee or broker shall treat the partner (that is, the QI’s account holder) as the recipient for purposes of reporting on Form 1042–S. See §1.1461–1(c)(1)(ii)(A)(8).

The revised QI agreement incorporates the allowances described in the preceding paragraph, including an allowance relieving a QI from filing a Form 1042–S to the extent that it has provided specific payee information to a broker that has issued a Form 1042–S to one or more account holders of the QI (although such a case will be within the scope of a QI’s activities under the QI agreement). In addition, as requested by comments, the revised QI agreement will permit a QI to report on Form 1042–S on a pooled basis (rather than to specific recipients) for amounts subject to withholding under section 1446(a) or (f) to the same extent generally permitted for other payments to foreign account holders under the QI agreement. To ensure that account holders that are foreign partners will have the information necessary to satisfy their own U.S. income tax reporting requirements, the requirements of §1.6031(c)–1T will be incorporated into the QI agreement. See §§1.6012–1(b)(1), 1.6012–2(g)(1), and 1.6031(a)–1. Since foreign partners are required to file U.S. income tax returns to report their effectively connected income and may request Forms 1042–S from QIs to support amounts withheld that are reported on their returns, these partners are able to obtain refunds of taxes withheld under section 1446(f) when making their required filings. Therefore, the revised QI agreement will not allow a QI to use the collective refund procedures for amounts withheld under section 1446(a) or (f) with respect to its account holders that are foreign partners.

6. Withholding Under Section 1446(f) on Payments to NQIs

As discussed in section VI.A.5 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions, these final regulations permit a broker to determine its withholding obligation under section 1446(f) by relying on certain account holder information provided by a QI that does not assume primary withholding responsibility. One comment requested a similar allowance that would permit a broker to rely on a certification from an NQI for calculating the broker’s withholding under section 1446(f) in a case in which the NQI provides specific partner information to the broker (thus avoiding withholding on the full amount paid to the NQI in certain cases). The comment noted that requiring withholding on amounts realized allocable to U.S. partners that are NQI account holders would result in excessive withholding. Another comment noted that the requested allowance would relieve an NQI from reporting on Form 1042–S as its broker would have the information to report the amount realized that is allocated to each foreign partner in the publicly traded partnership. See §1.1461–1(c)(1)(ii)(A)(8) (requiring reporting of amounts realized paid to foreign partners of publicly traded partnerships). Even though overwithholding could occur in certain cases absent the requested change, the Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that a broker should not be relieved of withholding at the full amount under section 1446(f) on amounts realized that are paid to NQIs (except when the NQI maintains a U.S. branch that assumes the withholding). This determination reflects the view that in general NQIs are not required to account to the IRS with respect to their compliance with the withholding and reporting requirements of section 1446(f). As in the proposed regulations, therefore, a broker will be required to withhold at the full 10-percent rate on an amount realized paid to an NQI when no exception to withholding applies under these final regulations. However, a partner that is an account holder of an NQI that is subject to withholding under section 1446(f) will be entitled to claim a credit under section 33 for the amount withheld when the partner is provided a Form 1042–S supporting the claim from the NQI (or as otherwise provided in IRS forms or instructions). See §1.1446(f)–4(e)(2).

7. Broker’s Determination of Prior Broker Withholding Under Section 1446(f)

Under proposed §1.1446(f)–4(a)(2)(iii), a broker is not required to withhold on an amount realized from the sale of a PTP interest when it knows that the withholding obligation has been satisfied by another broker. A comment requested a specific documentation rule (such as a certification from the paying broker) to provide more certainty to the receiving broker that the withholding requirement has been satisfied with respect to the payment.

The regulations under section 1441 provide a standard different than that included in the proposed regulations for when a withholding agent may treat a payment as already subjected to withholding (thus avoiding duplicative withholding). That rule provides that an NQI receiving a payment from a withholding agent is not required to withhold when the NQI has provided a Form W–8NMY, withholding statement, and attached documentation to the withholding agent and does not know or have reason to know that another withholding agent failed to withhold the correct amount. See §1.1441–1(b)(6). In the case of a QI receiving the payment, however, §1.1441–1(b)(6) provides that a QI determines its withholding requirement in accordance with the QI agreement. To address the concern raised in the comment regarding the difficulty for a broker that withholding was applied by another broker, these final regulations amend that requirement by incorporating a standard generally similar to that in § 1.1441–1(b)(6). See § 1.1446(f)–4(a)(4). Therefore, a broker acting as an intermediary for an amount realized is not required to withhold when it receives the amount from another broker unless it knows, or has reason to know, that the paying broker did not withhold on the full amount required (or, in the case of a QI receiving the amount realized, as required in accordance with the QI agreement).

8. Withholding Date for Sales of PTP Interests

A comment requested that the date for withholding with respect to a sale of a PTP interest should be the settlement date (as opposed to the trade date), consistent with the rule in § 31.3406(a)–4(b)(1) for when backup withholding under section 3406 is required on certain payments of amounts reportable under section 6045. In response to this comment, these final regulations include a cross-reference to § 31.3406(a)–4(b)(1) to clarify the date of withholding under section 1446(f) for a transfer of a PTP interest other than a distribution.

B. Exceptions to Withholding

Proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(b) provided exceptions to the withholding requirement that applies to a broker paying an amount realized from the transfer of a PTP interest, including exceptions that apply to distributions by publicly traded partnerships and exceptions dependent on certifications obtained from transferors. These final regulations modify certain of these exceptions and add an exception for certain transferors (the ECI exception). These final regulations also remove the exception to withholding for a qualified current income distribution in proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(b)(4), and replace that exception with a provision for determining the amount realized in the case of a distribution by a publicly traded partnership such that withholding is required only to the extent a distribution is not attributable to net income. A QI will be permitted to apply these same exceptions to withholding under the revised QI agreement.

1. ECI Exception

Comments requested an exception to withholding if a valid Form W–8ECI, Certificate of Foreign Person’s Claim that Income is Effectively Connected with the Conduct of a Trade or Business in the United States, or its equivalent, is provided under certain new conditions. The comments explained that certain foreign persons not eligible for the section 864(b) trading safe harbor, such as dealers in securities, buy and sell PTP interests as part of their trade or business in the United States, such that gain or loss on the transfer of the PTP interests would be effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States without regard to section 864(c)(8). The comments requested a limited exception for non-U.S. persons that provide a Form W–8ECI and specify on the form that the gain from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of the PTP interest is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States without regard to the application of section 864(c)(8).

The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that it is appropriate to provide relief from withholding for transferors that certify on a Form W–8ECI that the transferor is a dealer in securities (as defined in section 475(c)(1)) and that any gain from the transfer of a PTP interest is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States without regard to section 864(c)(8). The final regulations add this exception in § 1.1446(f)–4(b)(6).

2. 10-Percent Exception

The proposed regulations provided that a broker may rely on a qualified notice stating that the exception to withholding described in proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(b)(3) (the 10-percent exception) applies. The proposed regulations required that this exception apply as of the PTP designated date for a transfer of a PTP interest. The PTP designated date was defined as the date for a deemed sale determination that is designated by a publicly traded partnership in a qualified notice, provided that the date is not earlier than 92 days before the date that the publicly traded partnership posts the qualified notice. In addition, the proposed regulations limited reliance on a qualified notice depending on the date of posting. Specifically, a broker may in general only rely on the most recent qualified notice that is posted by the publicly traded partnership within the 92-day period ending on the date of the transfer.

One comment requested that, for purposes of the exception, a broker be permitted to rely on the qualified notice for 163 days from the date of posting by the publicly traded partnership instead of the 92-day period provided in the proposed regulations. This comment noted that qualified notices issued with respect to distributions that are made late in the year complicate the withholding and reporting process. As noted in the preamble to the proposed regulations, the 92-day period was provided to limit the availability of the 10-percent exception to situations in which a publicly traded partnership has designated a deemed sale date occurring within the most recent calendar quarter given that publicly traded partnerships are in a position to determine the value of their assets quarterly. The proposed regulations limit reliance on a qualified notice to a notice posted within the 92-day period ending on the date of transfer in order to ensure that the broker is using the most recent information available. Therefore, these final regulations retain the 92-day period for purposes of the 10-percent exception.

A comment stated that the 10-percent exception should only account for the publicly traded partnership’s effectively connected gain under section 864(c)(8), without taking into account any effectively connected gain under section 897. According to the comment, this would ensure that the transfer of an interest in a partnership that is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States, but that holds U.S. real property interests, is not subject to withholding under section 1446(f). This comment is not adopted because it is appropriate to account for effectively connected gain under section 897 when applying the 10-percent exception.

However, to address the concern raised in the comment, these final regulations add an exception to withholding similar to the one described in section IV.A.3.i of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions that applies when a non-publicly traded partnership certifies that it is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States (including when the partnership is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States and only holds U.S. real property interests that are not part of a trade or business). A publicly traded partnership states that this exception applies by providing on a qualified notice that it is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States.

Finally, these final regulations add a provision for certain cases in which a publicly traded partnership is liable under section 1461 for underwithholding by a broker on a transfer when the partnership issues a qualified notice that incorrectly states the applicability of the 10-percent exception. However, this liability applies only when the publicly traded partnership fails to make a reasonable estimate of the amounts required for determining the applicability of the 10-percent exception. See § 1.1446(f)–4(b)(3)(i); see also section V.B of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions.

G. Determining the Amount To Withhold

If an exception to withholding under proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(b) does not apply, proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(c) provided rules for a broker to determine the amount realized for purposes of computing the amount to withhold on the transfer of a PTP interest. Proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(c) included a general rule for determining the amount realized based on the amount of gross proceeds paid on the transfer (as defined in § 1.6045–1(d)(5)) and a procedure for modifying the amount realized when the transferor is a foreign partnership that has domestic partners.

1. Modified Amount Realized for Transfers by Foreign Partnerships

Proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(c)(2) provided, in the event of a transfer of a PTP interest by a foreign partnership, a procedure that allows a broker to reduce the amount realized on the transfer to the extent the amount realized is allocable to partners that are U.S. persons. A foreign partnership may claim this modified amount realized by providing a Form W–8IMY, a withholding statement allocating the percentage of gain from the transfer allocable to each direct or indirect partner that is a U.S. person or a presumed foreign person, and a certification of non-foreign status for each partner that is a U.S. person. As described in section IV.B.2 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions, these final regulations expand the analogous procedure under § 1.1446(f)–2(c)(2)(iv) that applies to transfers of non-PTP interests to take into account situations in which a foreign partner (direct or indirect) in the transferor partnership is eligible for treaty benefits. In response to a comment, the same modification is made in these final regulations for transfers of PTP interests.

Another comment requested an allowance for the transferor partnership to provide to the broker the aggregate percentage of gain allocable to its partners that are U.S. persons as opposed to the requirement to include on the withholding statement the percentage of gain allocable to each partner that is a U.S. person. The comment reflects a concern that a broker using the procedures under the proposed regulations may be considered to have actual knowledge of the extent to which proceeds from the transfer are paid to each partner that is a U.S. person, thereby resulting in a requirement for the broker to report these gross proceeds under section 6045. See §§ 1.6045–1(g)(1)(i) and 1.6049–5(d)(3)(i).

The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that any additional reporting under section 6045 that results from this requirement is an appropriate consequence of the rule. Additionally, this rule provides information useful to the IRS. See, however, §§ 1.6049–4(c)(4) and 1.6045–1(g)(1)(iv) (providing coordination of chapter 61 reporting with reporting by certain foreign financial institutions under chapter 4).

Under the revised QI agreement, a QI will be permitted to adjust an amount realized in accordance with the procedures described in this section VI.C.1 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions with respect to any direct account holder of the QI that is a foreign partnership or a direct account holder of another QI that is a foreign partnership to which the first-mentioned QI pays the amount realized.

2. Determining Amount Realized With Respect to Distributions

Under the proposed regulations, in the event of a distribution by a publicly traded partnership that is treated as a transfer for purposes of section 1446(f), the entire amount of a distribution was treated as the amount realized. Proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(c)(2). In general, under section 731(a), a partner recognizes gain on a distribution from a partnership to the extent that any money distributed exceeds the partner’s basis in its interest in the partnership. Under section 705(a)(1), a partner’s basis in its interest is increased by its distributive share of income for the taxable year. Proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(b)(4) provided an exception to a broker’s requirement to withhold on a distribution by a publicly traded partnership if the entire amount of the distribution was treated as the amount realized. Proposed § 1.1446(f)–4(c)(2). In general, under section 731(a), a partner recognizes gain on a distribution from a partnership to the extent that any money distributed exceeds the partner’s basis in its interest in the partnership.

Withholding under section 1446(f) when the partner sells its PTP interest. Certain comments suggested modifying the requirements for the exception. One comment suggested that, for purposes of applying the exception, a broker should be permitted to treat a distribution as made out of current net income unless the qualified notice states otherwise. This comment noted that publicly traded partnerships may not publish qualified notices designating the distribution as a qualified current income distribution due to concerns about liability under proposed § 1.1446(f)–3(b)(2)(ii) if the qualified notice is false. Another comment suggested modifying the qualified current income distribution exception so that withholding under section 1446(f)(1) would not apply to the extent that cumulative distributions by a publicly traded partnership do not exceed its cumulative net income earned over time.

Other comments focused on alternatives for coordinating withholding under section 1446(f) on distributions by publicly traded partnerships with withholding under other sections of the Code, noting that a distribution by a publicly traded partnership would be subject to withholding under section 1446(f) as well as withholding under sections 1441, 1442, 1443, and 1446(a) (to the extent applicable) when the qualified current income distribution exception would not apply. For example, a comment suggested reducing the tax liability under section 1446(a) by amounts withheld under section 1446(f) dollar-for-dollar, or exempting distributions from withholding under section 1446(f) to the extent those distributions are subject to withholding under section 1446(a) (or vice versa). Another comment requested more broadly that withholding under section 1446(f) not apply to a distribution made by a publicly traded partnership when withholding under section 1441, 1442, 1443, or 1446(a) applies to the payment.
Section 1446(f)(1) requires withholding if any portion of the gain on a disposition of an interest in a partnership would be treated under section 864(c)(6) as effectively connected gain. Section 1446(f) ensures that tax is collected on gain under section 864(c)(6). The Treasury Department and IRS have determined that eliminating withholding entirely on distributions by publicly traded partnerships would undermine the purpose of section 1446(f) in certain cases. For example, there may not be a subsequent sale of the PTP interest subject to withholding under section 1446(f), particularly if the distribution is in redemption of the PTP interest. Alternatively, the value of a publicly traded partnership’s assets (or the amount of unrealized effectively connected gain) may change between the date of a distribution and either the date on which the partnership sells the assets or the date on which the partner sells its PTP interest.

The Treasury Department and the IRS do not agree with the comments requesting an offset against section 1446(f) withholding for amounts withheld under section 1446(a). Section 1446(a) withholding applies to effectively connected taxable income earned by the partnership that is allocated and distributed to its partners. In contrast, section 1446(f) withholding applies to ensure the collection of tax on the built-in gain of the partnership’s assets under section 864(c)(6). Thus, each withholding regime applies to a separate item of taxable income.

For these reasons, the final regulations continue to require withholding under section 1446(f) on a distribution made with respect to a PTP interest. However, because the exception for a qualified current income distribution provided relief only when a publicly traded partnership made a distribution entirely out of current net income, these final regulations replace this exception with a procedure in § 1.1446(f)-4(c)(2)(iii) for adjusting the amount of tax attributable to a distribution in excess of cumulative net income. Thus, if a portion of a distribution made by a publicly traded partnership is attributable to an amount in excess of cumulative net income, a broker is required to withhold only on this portion for purposes of section 1446(f), rather than on the entire amount of the distribution. Also, in response to a comment, this rule looks to the amount in excess of the cumulative net income, rather than the current net income (as was required under the proposed regulations). The cumulative net income is the net income earned by the partnership since the formation of the partnership that has not been previously distributed by the partnership. As a result of this change, these final regulations remove the general rule included in the proposed regulations that defined the amount realized from a PTP distribution as the amount of cash and the fair market value of property distributed or to be distributed.

Under the final regulations, the publicly traded partnership identifies the portion of a distribution attributable to an amount in excess of cumulative net income on a qualified notice. If a broker properly withholds based on the qualified notice (applying the rules of § 1.1446-4(d)(1) to the distribution), the broker is not liable for any underwithholding on any amount attributable to an amount in excess of cumulative net income. Instead, if a publicly traded partnership issues a qualified notice that causes a broker to underwithhold with respect to an amount in excess of cumulative net income, the partnership is liable under section 1461 for any underwithholding on such amount.

D. Form 1042-S Reporting Under Section 1446(f)

The proposed regulations included requirements for reporting with respect to transfers of PTP interests on Form 1042-S. As part of these requirements, a broker is generally required to report on Form 1042-S a payment of an amount realized from the transfer of a PTP interest made to a foreign transferee or broker.

One comment requested clarification that reporting on Form 1042-S is performed on an aggregate basis (that is, a broker reports on a single Form 1042-S all transfers of PTP interests with respect to a customer for a calendar year). The proposed regulations added to § 1.1461-1(c)(1)(i) the general requirement that a broker report on Form 1042-S amounts realized as determined under section 1446(f). Section 1.1461-1(c)(1)(i) generally provides that a Form 1042-S shall be prepared for each recipient of an amount subject to reporting and for each single type of income payment, in such manner as the form and accompanying instructions prescribe. The IRS intends to amend the instructions to Form 1042-S to indicate the reporting that applies in this case.

Finally, under § 1.1461-1(a)(1), a withholding agent that withholds tax pursuant to chapter 3 is required to deposit the tax as provided in § 1.6302-2(a). Consistent with the proposed regulations, these final regulations amend § 1.1461-1(a)(1) to incorporate the requirement to deposit tax withheld under section 1446(f). These final regulations include a conforming change to § 1.6302-2(a)(1)(i) to provide that the requirement to deposit tax under § 1.6302-2 applies to a broker or publicly traded partnership for purposes of section 1446(f), and to a nominee or publicly traded partnership for purposes of section 1446(a).
E. Synthetic Interests

A comment requested clarification that the proposed regulations apply only to physical interests in publicly traded partnerships and not synthetic interests. A subsequent comment submitted by the same commenter suggested that the final regulations clarify this point by explicitly defining the term “interest” as “an interest as a partner in the partnership.” The question of when a contract or other financial instrument denominated as a synthetic interest in a partnership interest may be treated as ownership of a partnership interest is beyond the scope of these regulations.

VII. Amendments to Existing Section 1446 Regulations Relating to Distributions by Publicly Traded Partnerships

A. Method of Providing a Qualified Notice

The proposed regulations contained changes to the existing qualified notice rules and rules for nominees that apply to distributions of effectively connected income, gain, or loss made by publicly traded partnerships to foreign partners. Proposed § 1.1446–4(b)(4) revised the method for a publicly traded partnership to provide a qualified notice to a nominee by requiring that the notice be posted in a readily accessible format in an area of the primary public website of the publicly traded partnership that is dedicated to this purpose. Two comments requested that a requirement be added to require the publicly traded partnership to furnish a copy of the qualified notice to the publicly traded partnership’s registered holders that are nominees. PTP interests are generally immobilized at a central depository and registered in the name of the depository’s nominee. The comments state that furnishing the qualified notice to the publicly traded partnership’s registered holders that are nominees would facilitate the dissemination of information provided on the qualified notice to relevant market participants. Another comment noted the burden on brokers to find qualified notices posted on publicly traded partnerships’ websites and suggested requiring all qualified notices to be posted on a central public website.

The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that the delivery requirements for qualified notices should be aimed at ensuring that all relevant market participants receive the information necessary to comply with their withholding and reporting obligations. Therefore, these final regulations include a requirement for a publicly traded partnership to provide a qualified notice to any registered holder that is a nominee for a distribution. Because the requirements provided will generally ensure that brokers receive the information necessary to meet their withholding obligations under § 1.1446(f)–4, these final regulations do not adopt the comment to require publicly traded partnerships to post their qualified notices to a central website.

B. Default Withholding Rule

The proposed regulations also added a default withholding rule (the default withholding rule) for cases in which a qualified notice fails to provide sufficient detail for a nominee to determine the amounts subject to withholding on a publicly traded partnership distribution (a deficient qualified notice). Under this rule, to the extent that a deficient qualified notice fails to specify the type of income from which a distribution is made, the nominee must withhold at the highest rate specified in section 11(b) or 881 for a partner that is a foreign corporation, or the highest rate specified in section 1 or 871 for a foreign partner that is not a corporation. See proposed § 1.1446–4(d). One comment requested that a broker be permitted to adjust the rate of withholding under the default withholding rule by considering the status of a partner for purposes of taking into account a lower treaty rate.

The Treasury Department and the IRS have concluded that a nominee applying the default withholding rule should withhold based on the statutory withholding rates determined under the proposed regulations, without regard to any lower rate that might apply under an applicable income tax treaty. Determinations by nominees of lower rates that might otherwise apply under a treaty would depend on information from publicly traded partnerships about the characterization of the income attributable to the distribution. Because this information would not be provided to the nominee on a qualified notice, these final regulations clarify that a lower treaty rate is not considered for purposes of determining the amount to withhold under the default withholding rule.

The comment also requested that the final regulations clarify that a nominee is required to apply the default withholding rule to a distribution for which no qualified notice is issued. Proposed § 1.1446–4(d) modified the existing rule to provide that a nominee is a withholding agent for the entire distribution from a publicly traded partnership (rather than only to the extent of the amount specified on a qualified notice). These final regulations add language to clarify that a nominee must apply the default withholding rule when a publicly traded partnership fails to issue a qualified notice for a distribution under § 1.1446–4(b)(4) of these final regulations.

The default withholding rule in the proposed regulations did not address a case in which a nominee has no information about the status of a partner, including whether the partner is a corporation for determining the withholding rate on effectively connected income paid to the partner. As a result, these final regulations add that if a nominee cannot determine the status of a partner as a corporation, for purposes of the default withholding rule the nominee is required to use the higher of the following rates: (1) The rate of withholding applicable to a foreign person that is a corporation, and (2) the rate of withholding applicable to a foreign person that is not a corporation.

C. Modifications Related to QIs

The proposed regulations expanded the definition of a nominee to include a QI that assumes primary withholding responsibility for a distribution and a U.S. branch of a foreign person that agrees to be treated as a U.S. person for withholding on a distribution from a publicly traded partnership. To address cases in which a distribution by a publicly traded partnership is paid through multiple nominees that might each be required to withhold under proposed § 1.1446–4(d), these final regulations add an exception to withholding for a nominee paying the distribution to a QI or U.S. branch that is also a nominee for the distribution.

Under the QI agreement, a QI may choose not to assume primary withholding responsibilities and in certain of those cases may provide withholding rate pools, rather than specific payee documentation, to the withholding agent that makes a payment to the QI. Because the QI agreement applies only to amounts subject to withholding under chapter 3 (defined as sections 1441 through 1443), chapter 4 (sections 1471 through 1474), or section 3406, the IRS intends to update the QI agreement to extend this treatment to amounts subject to withholding under section 1446(a) to the same extent generally permitted for payments received by QIs on behalf of their foreign account holders under the QI agreement. To coordinate with the intended updates to the QI agreement, these final regulations allow a publicly traded partnership or nominee paying a distribution under section 1446(a) to a QI that does not assume primary withholding responsibilities to rely on an allocation of the distribution to an applicable withholding rate pool provided by the QI by specifying the withholding rate pools permitted for withholding under section 1446(a).

In addition, these final regulations allow a broker to withhold under section 1446(a) based on specific payee documentation provided by a QI. See § 1.1446–4(e) and section VI.A.5 of this Summary of Comments and Explanations of Revisions. Additionally, as discussed in section VI.A.4 of this Summary of Comments and Explanations of Revisions, these final regulations require applicable withholding responsibilities with respect to the distribution. These provisions (as applicable to QIs) will be incorporated into the revised QI agreement.

VIII. Applicability Dates

The proposed regulations generally provided that the regulations would apply 60 days after final regulations are issued. Comments requested additional time before withholding on transfers of PTP interests is required, noting that the rules in the proposed regulations would require brokers to update systems, processes, and procedures. The comments generally requested an extension of the applicability date to 18 months following the finalization of all guidance with respect to this requirement. Another comment requested that the same extension apply to QIs, noting the time required for QIs to review the regulations and anticipated revisions to the QI agreement, and to implement the necessary updates to their systems and procedures.

The provisions in these final regulations relating to transfers of PTP interests apply to transfers that occur on or after January 1, 2022. See §§ 1.1446(f)–4(f), 1.1461–1(f), 1.1461–2(d), and 1.1464–1(c). Similarly, § 1.6302–2(g) applies to tax required to be withheld on or after January 1, 2022 with respect to section 1446(f). The provisions included in these final regulations that are applicable to QIs will apply beginning January 1, 2022. See section VI.A.1 of this Summary of Comments and Explanations of Revisions. The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that this applicability date should provide sufficient time for taxpayers to prepare to implement the regulations relating to transfers of PTP interests. Additionally, certain allowances in the final regulations, such as the allowances for brokers to rely on documentation from clearing organizations in certain cases and documentation already in the broker’s possession, should reduce the time needed for brokers to update their systems. See section VI.A.3 of this Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions.

Other provisions in the final regulations that require systems adjustments by publicly traded partnerships, such as the procedures for qualified notices, are similarly applicable on January 1, 2022. Specifically, the requirements with respect to publicly traded partnership distributions under § 1.1446–4 of these final regulations apply to distributions made on or after January 1, 2022. See § 1.1446–7. In addition, the requirements with respect to distributions that are attributable to dispositions of U.S. real property interests under § 1.1445–6(f) apply to distributions made on or after January 1, 2022. See § 1.1445–6(f).

Further, in order to provide partnerships with time to implement withholding under section 1446(f)(4), § 1.1446(f)–3 applies to transfers that occur on or after January 1, 2022. See § 1.1446(f)–3(f). As contemplated in the proposed regulations, § 1.864(c)(8)–2(a) applies to transfers that occur on or after November 30, 2020, §§ 1.864(c)(8)–2(b) and (c) and 1.6050K–1(c)(2) and (3) apply to returns filed on or after November 30, 2020, and § 1.864(c)(8)–2(d) applies beginning on November 30, 2020. See §§ 1.864(c)(8)–2(e) and 1.6050K–1(h). Sections 1.1445–2(b)(2)(v) and 1.1445–5(b)(3)(iv) apply to the use of Forms W–9 for certifications of non-foreign status provided on or after May 7, 2019, except that a taxpayer may choose to apply those provisions with respect to certifications provided before that date. See §§ 1.1445–2(e) and 1.1445–5(h).

The conforming changes in §§ 1.1445–5 and 1.1445–8 resulting from the rate changes made by the Act apply to distributions on or after November 30, 2020. The conforming changes in §§ 1.1446–3 and 1.1446–4 resulting from the rate changes made by the Act and the change to the due date of Form 8804 made by the Surface Transportation Act apply to partnership taxable years beginning on or after November 30, 2020. Although the applicability date of the changes to the regulations described in this paragraph is based on the date of publication of this document in the Federal Register, the same results apply before that date as of the relevant effective dates of the Act and the Surface Transportation Act.

The remaining provisions in these final regulations are generally applicable to transfers that occur on or after January 29, 2021, as contemplated in the proposed regulations. See §§ 1.1446(f)–1(e), 1.1446(f)–2(f), 1.1446(f)–5(d), 1.1461–3, and 1.1463–1(a).

Statement of Availability of IRS Documents

I. Regulatory Planning and Review

These regulations are not subject to review under section 6(b) of Executive Order 12866 pursuant to the Memorandum of Agreement (April 11, 2018) between the Treasury Department and the Office of Management and Budget regarding review of tax regulations.

II. Paperwork Reduction Act

The collections of information in these final regulations are in § 1.864(c)(8)–2 regarding reporting for transactions described in section 864(c)(8) and § 1.864(c)(8)–2; §§ 1.1446(f)–1 through 1.1446(f)–4 regarding the withholding, reporting, and paying of tax under section 1446(f) following the transfer of an interest described in section 864(c)(8) and § 1.864(c)(8)–2; § 1.864(c)(8)–2; and § 1.6050K–1(c) regarding reporting of section 751(a) exchanges. Section II.A of this Special Analyses describes the changes made in these final regulations to the collections of information in the proposed regulations that will be conducted using IRS forms. Section II.B of this Special Analyses describes the changes made in these final regulations to the collections of information in the proposed regulations that will not be conducted using IRS forms.

A. Collections of Information Conducted Using IRS Forms

These final regulations include an exception from withholding for amounts realized paid to certain foreign banks and securities dealers. § 1.1446(f)—4(b)(6). The collection of information in § 1.1446(f)—4(b)(6) is provided by the transferor by submitting a certification as part of Form W–8ECI, Certificate of Foreign Person’s Claim that Income is Effectively Connected with the Conduct of Trade or Business in the United States, to the broker and is optional. The information will be used by the broker to determine whether an exception to withholding applies if the gain from the transfer of a PTP interest is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States without regard to section 864(c)(8). The Treasury Department and the IRS intend that the information collection

B. Collections of Information Not Included on IRS Forms

These final regulations contain collections of information that are not on existing or new IRS forms, and include minor modifications to the collections of information in the proposed regulations relating to certain certifications that may be provided to obtain an exception to withholding or an adjustment to the amount to withhold. See § 1.1446(f)—2(b)(4) and (5) and (c)(2). See sections IV.A.3, VI.A.4, and IV.B.2 of the Summary of Comments and Explanation of Revisions for explanations of the changes to these certifications.

Section II.B of the Special Analyses of the proposed regulations provided estimates of the cost of certain collections of information contained in the proposed regulations. A comment suggested that the cost of collections of information for a broker was too high. However, the comment misinterpreted the data provided in section II.B of the Special Analyses of the proposed regulations. The estimated total annual monetized cost provided in section II.B of the Special Analyses of the proposed regulations was the estimated cost of all collections of information not on existing or new IRS forms for all respondents (generally transferors of partnership interests), not the estimated cost of compliance for a broker.

The collections of information contained in these final regulations have been reviewed and approved by the Office of Management and Budget in accordance with the PRA under control number 1545—2292. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid control number assigned by the Office of Management and Budget. Books or records relating to a collection of information must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. Generally, tax returns and tax return information are confidential, as required by 26 U.S.C. 6103.

III. Regulatory Flexibility Act

It is hereby certified that these final regulations will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities within the meaning of section 601(6) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6).

The final regulations affect (i) foreign persons that recognize gain or loss from the sale or exchange of an interest in a partnership that is engaged in a trade or business within the United States (who are not subject to the Regulatory Flexibility Act), (ii) U.S. persons that are transferors providing Forms W—9 to transferees to certify that they are not foreign persons, (iii) persons who acquire interests in partnerships engaged in a trade or business within the United States, (iv) partnerships that, directly or indirectly, have foreign persons as partners, and (v) brokers that effect transfers of interests in publicly traded partnerships.

The Treasury Department and the IRS do not have data readily available to assess the number of small entities potentially affected by the final regulations. However, entities potentially affected by these final regulations are generally not small entities, because of the resources and investment necessary to acquire a partnership interest from a foreign person or, in the case of a partnership, to, directly or indirectly, have foreign persons as partners. Therefore, the Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that there will not be a substantial number of domestic small entities affected by the final regulations. Consequently, the Treasury Department and the IRS certify that the final regulations will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Code, the proposed regulations preceding these final regulations were submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on their impact on small businesses, and no comments were received.

IV. Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

Section 202 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA) requires that agencies assess anticipated costs and benefits and take certain other actions before issuing a final rule that includes any Federal mandate that may result in expenditures in any one year by a state, local, or tribal government, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million in 1995 dollars, updated annually for inflation. This rule does not include any Federal mandate that may result in expenditures by state, local, or tribal governments, or by the private sector in excess of that threshold.

V. Executive Order 13132: Federalism

Executive Order 13132 (titled “Federalism”) prohibits an agency from publishing any rule that has federalism implications if the rule either imposes substantial, direct compliance costs on state and local governments, and is not required by statute, or preempts state law, unless the agency meets the consultation and funding requirements of section 6 of the Executive order. This final rule does not have federalism implications and does not impose substantial direct compliance costs on state and local governments or preempt state law within the meaning of the Executive order.

Drafting Information

The principal authors of these regulations are Chadwick Rowland, Subin Seth, Ronald M. Gotzeit, and Charles Rioux, Office of the Associate Chief Counsel (International). However, other personnel from the Treasury Department and the IRS participated in their development.

Amendments to the Regulations

For the reasons set out in the preamble, 26 CFR part 1 is amended as follows:

PART 1—INCOME TAXES

Paragraph 1. The authority citation for part 1 is amended by:

■ 1. Adding a sectional authority for §1.864(c)(8)–2 in numerical order.
■ 3. Adding sectional authorities for §§1.1446–3, 1.1446–4, and 1.1446(f)–1 through 1.1446(f)–5 in numerical order.
■ 4. Revising the sectional authority for §1.6050K–1.

The additions and revisions read in part as follows:

Authority: 26 U.S.C. 7805 * * *

§1.864(c)(8)–2 Notification and reporting requirements.

Paragraph 1. The notification described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section may be combined with or provided at the same time as the notification described in §1.6050K–1(d), provided that it satisfies the requirements of both sections.

Paragraph 2. The notification described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section must also include any information prescribed by the Commissioner in forms or instructions or in publications or guidance published by the Internal Revenue Service (see §§601.601(d)(2) and 601.602 of this chapter).

*(b) Reporting by specified partnerships with notifying transferee—

(1) In general—(i) Requirement to provide statement. A specified partnership must provide to a notifying transferee the statement described in paragraph (b)(2) of this section if—

(A) The partnership receives the notice described in paragraph (a) of this section, or otherwise has actual knowledge that there has been a transfer of an interest in the partnership by a notifying transferee; and

(B) At the time of the transfer, the notifying transferee would have had a distributable share of deemed sale EC gain or deemed sale EC loss within the meaning of §1.864(c)(8)–1(c).

(ii) Distributions. For purposes of paragraph (b)(1)(B) of this section, a specified partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution is treated as having actual knowledge of that transfer.

(2) Contents of statement. The statement required to be furnished by the specified partnership under paragraph (b)(1) of this section must include—

(i) The items described in §1.864(c)(8)–1(c)(3)(ii) (foreign transferee’s aggregate deemed sale EC items, which includes items derived from lower-tier partnerships);

(ii) Whether the items described in paragraph (b)(2) of this section were determined in whole or in part under §1.864(c)(8)–1(c)(2)(i)(E) (material change in circumstances rule for determining deemed sale EC gain or deemed sale EC loss from a deemed sale of the partnership’s inventory property or intangibles); and

(iii) Any other information as may be prescribed by the Commissioner in forms, instructions, publications, or guidance published in the Internal Revenue Bulletins (see §§601.601(d)(2) and 601.602 of this chapter).

(3) Time for furnishing statement. The specified partnership must furnish the required information on or before the due date (with extensions) for issuing Schedule K–1 (Form 1065), Partner’s Share of Income, Deductions, Credits, etc., or other statement required to be furnished under §1.6031(b)–1T, to the notifying transferee for the year of the transfer. See §1.6031(b)–1T(b).

(4) Manner of furnishing statement. The statement required to be furnished under paragraph (b)(1) of this section must be provided on Schedule K–1 (Form 1065), Partner’s Share of Income, Deductions, Credits, etc., or other statement required to be furnished under §1.6031(b)–1T.

(5) Partnership notifying transferee. For purposes of this paragraph (b), a specified partnership must treat a notifying transferor that is a partnership as a nonresident alien individual.
(c) Statement may be provided to agent. A specified partnership may provide a statement required under paragraph (b)(2) of this section to a person other than the notifying transferor if the person is described in § 1.6031(b)–1T(c).
(d) Definitions. The following definitions apply for purposes of this section.
(1) Notifying transferor. The term notifying transferor means any foreign person, any domestic partnership that has a foreign person as a direct partner, and any domestic partnership that has actual knowledge that a foreign person indirectly holds, through one or more partnerships, an interest in the domestic partnership.
(2) Specified partnership. The term specified partnership means a partnership that is engaged in a trade or business within the United States or that owns (directly or indirectly) an interest in a partnership that is engaged in a trade or business within the United States.
(3) Transfer. The term transfer has the meaning provided in § 1.864(c)(8)–1(g)(5).
(e) Applicability dates. Paragraph (a) of this section applies to transfers that occur on or after November 30, 2020.
Paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section apply to returns filed on or after November 30, 2020. Paragraph (d) of this section applies beginning on § 1.1445–2 Situations in which withholding is not required under section 1445(a).

and real estate investment trusts (REITs).

(1) * * * *(c) * * * *

(i) In general. The amount to be withheld with respect to a distribution by a REIT, under this section shall be equal to the highest rate specified in section 1445(e)(1) multiplied by the amount described in paragraph (c)(2)(i) of this section.

(2) * * * *(f) Qualified notice. A qualified notice for purposes of paragraph (b)(3)(iv) of this section is a notice provided in the manner described in § 1.1446–4(b)(4) by a partnership, trust, or REIT regarding a distribution that is attributable to the disposition of a United States real property interest. In the case of a REIT, a qualified notice is only a notice of a distribution, all or any portion of which the REIT actually designates, or characterizes in accordance with paragraph (c)(2)(ii)(C) of this section, as a capital gain dividend in the manner described in §1.1446–4(b)(4), with respect to each share or certificate of beneficial interest. A deemed designation under paragraph (c)(2)(ii)(A) of this section may not be the subject of a qualified notice under this paragraph (f). A person described in paragraph (b)(3) of this section is treated as receiving a qualified notice when the notice is provided in accordance with §1.1446–4(b)(4).

(j) Applicability dates. Paragraph (c)(2)(i) of this section applies to distributions on or after November 30, 2020. Paragraph (f) of this section applies to distributions made on or after January 1, 2022. For distributions made before January 1, 2022, see §1.1445–8(f) as contained in 26 CFR part 1, revised as of April 1, 2020.

<td>Qualified notice. For purposes of this section, a qualified notice is a notice from a publicly traded partnership that states the amount of a distribution that is attributable to each type of income described in paragraphs (f)(3)(i) through (v) of this section. A qualified notice may also include the information described in § 1.1446(f)(4)(b)(3) (relating to the 10-percent exception to withholding under section 1446(f)(1)) and the information described in § 1.1446(f)(4)(c)(2)(iii) (relating to an adjustment to the amount realized for withholding under section 1446(f)(1)). The notice must be posted in a readily accessible format in an area of the primary public website of the publicly traded partnership that is dedicated to this purpose, and a copy of the notice must be delivered to any registered holder that is a nominee. A qualified notice must be posted and delivered to the registered holder by the date required for providing notice with respect to distributions described in 17 CFR 240.10b–17(b)(1) or (3) issued pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78a) and contain the information described therein as it would relate to the distribution. The publicly traded partnership must keep the notice accessible to the public for ten years on its primary public website or the primary public website of any successor organization. No specific format is required unless otherwise prescribed by the Commissioner in forms or instructions or in publications or guidance published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin (see §§ 601.601(d)(2) and 601.602 of this chapter). | (e) | Determining foreign status of partners. Except as provided in this paragraph (e), the rules of § 1.1446–1 shall apply in determining whether a nominee of a publicly traded partnership is a foreign partner for purposes of the 1446 tax. A partnership or nominee...
obligated to withhold under this section shall be entitled to rely on any of the forms acceptable under §1.1446–1 that it receives from persons on whose behalf it holds interests in the partnership to the same extent a partnership is entitled to rely on such forms under those rules. If a partnership or nominee pays a distribution to an entity that provides a valid qualified intermediary withholding certification described in §1.1441–1(e)(3)(ii) indicating that the entity does not assume primary withholding responsibility for the distribution, for withholding under this section the partnership or nominee may instead rely on a withholding statement that allocates the distribution to—

(1) A chapter 3 withholding rate pool (as described in §1.1441–1(e)(5)(v)(C)) consisting of account holders that are foreign persons subject to withholding at the highest rate of tax specified in section 1;

(2) A chapter 3 withholding rate pool (as described in §1.1441–1(e)(5)(v)(C)) consisting of account holders that are foreign persons subject to withholding at the highest rate of tax specified in section 11(b);

(3) A chapter 3 withholding rate pool (as described in §1.1441–1(e)(5)(v)(C)) consisting of account holders that are foreign persons not subject to withholding; or

(4) Each account holder for which a form acceptable under §1.1446–1 is provided.

(3) Ordering rule relating to distributions. Distributions from publicly traded partnerships are deemed to be paid out of the following types of income in the order indicated—

(i) Amounts attributable to income described in section 1441 or 1442 that are not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States and are subject to withholding under §1.1441–2(a);

(ii) Amounts attributable to income described in section 1441 or 1442 that are not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States and are not subject to withholding under §1.1441–2(a);

(iii) Amounts attributable to income effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States that are not subject to withholding under §§1.1446–1 through 1.1446–6;

(iv) Amounts subject to withholding under §§1.1446–1 through 1.1446–6; and

(v) Amounts not listed in paragraphs (b)(3)(i) through (iv) of this section.

* * * * *

Par. 9. Section 1.1446–6 is amended by adding a sentence after the first sentence of paragraph (e)(1) to read as follows:

§1.1446–6 Special rules to reduce a partnership’s 1446 tax with respect to a foreign partner’s allocable share of effectively connected taxable income.

* * * * *

(e) * * * * In 2008, the relevant rate of withholding for foreign partners that were not corporations (that is, the highest rate in section 1 as specified in §1.1446–3(a)(2)(i)) was 35%, and the due date for filing Form 8804 for domestic calendar year partnerships (that is, the date specified in §1.1446–3(d)(1)(iii)) was April 15. * * * *

Par. 10. Section 1.1446–7 is amended by revising the section heading and adding six sentences at the end of the paragraph to read as follows:

§1.1446–7 Applicability dates.

* * * * Section 1.1446–3 generally applies to returns filed on or after January 30, 2020 and §1.1446–3T (as contained in 26 CFR part 1, revised as of April 1, 2019) generally applies to returns filed before January 30, 2020. The addition of §1.1446–3(c)(4) applies to transfers of partnership interests that occurred on or after January 29, 2021, except that a taxpayer may choose to apply §1.1446–3(c)(4) to transfers of partnership interests that occurred on or after January 1, 2018. Sections 1.1446–3(a)(2)(i), (d)(2)(vi), and (e)(4) and 1.1446–4(f)(1) apply to partnership taxable years beginning on or after November 30, 2020. For partnership taxable years beginning before November 30, 2020, see those sections as in effect and contained in 26 CFR part 1, revised as of April 1, 2020.
include an escrow agent that does not effect sales other than transactions that are incidental to the purpose of escrow (such as sales to collect on collateral).

(2) The term controlling partner means a partner that, together with any person that bears a relationship described in section 267(b) or 707(b)(1) to the partner, owns directly or indirectly a 50 percent or greater interest in the capital, profits, deductions, or losses of the partnership at any time within the 12 months before the determination date (see paragraph (c)(4) of this section).

(3) The term agent has the meaning provided in §1.6045–1(a)(10).

(4) The term foreign person means a person that is not a United States person, including a QI branch of a U.S. financial institution (as defined in §1.1471–1(b)(109)).

(5) The term PTP interest means an interest in a publicly traded partnership if the interest is publicly traded on an established securities market or is readily tradable on a secondary market (or the substantial equivalent thereof).

(6) The term publicly traded partnership has the same meaning as in section 7704 and §§1.7704–1 through 1.7704–4 but does not include a publicly traded partnership treated as a corporation under that section.

(7) The term TIN means the tax identifying number assigned to a person under section 6109.

(8) The term transfer means a sale, exchange, or other disposition, and includes a distribution from a partnership to a partner, as well as a transfer treated as a sale or exchange under section 707(a)(2)(B).

(9) The term transferee means any person, foreign or domestic, that acquires a partnership interest through a transfer, and includes a partnership that makes a distribution.

(10) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the term transferor means any person, foreign or domestic, that transfers a partnership interest. In the case of a trust, to the extent all or a portion of the income of the trust is treated as owned by the grantor or another person under sections 671 through 679 (such trust, a grantor trust), the term transferor means the grantor or such other person.

(11) The term transferor’s agent or transferee’s agent means any person who represents the transferor or transferee (respectively) in any negotiation with another person relating to the transaction or in settling the transaction. A person will not be treated as a transferee’s agent solely because it performs one or more of the activities described in §1.1445–4(f)(3) (relating to activities of settlement officers and clerical personnel).

(12) The term United States person or U.S. person means a person described in section 7701(a)(30).

(c) General rules of applicability—(1) In general. This paragraph (c) provides general rules that apply for purposes of this section and §§1.1446(f)–2 through 1.1446(f)–5.

(2) Certifications—(i) In general. This paragraph (c)(2) provides rules that are applicable to certifications described in this section and §§1.1446(f)–2 through 1.1446(f)–5, except as otherwise provided therein, or as may be prescribed by the Commissioner in forms or instructions or in publications or guidance published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin (see §§601.601(d)(2) and 601.602 of this chapter). A certification must provide the name and address of the person providing it. A certification must also be signed under penalties of perjury and, if the certification is provided by the transferor, must include a TIN if the transferor has, or is required to have, a TIN. A transferee (or other person required to withhold) may not rely on a certification if it knows that a transferee has, or is required to have, a TIN, and that TIN has not been provided with the certification. A certification includes any documents associated with the certification, such as statements from the partnership, IRS forms, withholding certificates, withholding statements, certifications, or other documentation. Documents associated with the certification form an integral part of the certification, and the penalties of perjury statement provided on the certification also applies to the associated documents. A certification (other than the certification described in §1.1446(f)–2(d)(2)) may not be relied upon if it is obtained earlier than 30 days before the transfer or any time after the transfer.

(ii) Penalties of perjury. A certification signed under penalties of perjury must provide the following: “Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined the information on this document, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is true, correct, and complete.”

(iii) Authority to sign certifications on behalf of a business entity. A certification provided by a business entity must be signed by an individual who is an officer, director, general partner, or managing member of the entity or other individual that has authority to sign for the entity under local law.

(iv) Electronic submission. A certification may be sent electronically, including as text in an email, an image embedded in an email, or a Portable Document Format (.pdf) attached to an email. An electronic certification, however, may not be relied upon if the person receiving the submission knows that the certification was transmitted by a person not authorized to do so by the person required to execute the certification.

(v) Retention period. Any person that relies on a certification pursuant to this section and §§1.1446(f)–2 through 1.1446(f)–5 must retain the certification (including any documentation) for as long as it may be relevant to the determination of its withholding obligation under section 1446(f) or its withholding tax liability under section 1461.

(vi) Submission to IRS. The recipient of a certification is not required to mail a copy to the IRS, except as provided in §1.1446(f)–2(b)(7) and (c)(4)(vi) (involving certifications relating to an income tax treaty), or as may be prescribed by the Commissioner in forms or instructions or in publications or guidance published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin (see §§601.601(d)(2) and 601.602 of this chapter).

(vii) Grantor trusts. A certification provided by a transferee that is a grantor or other owner of a grantor trust must identify the portion of the amount realized that is attributable to the grantor or other owner. A certification provided by a foreign grantor trust on behalf of a transferee that is a grantor or owner must also include a Form W–8IMY, Certificate of Foreign Intermediary, Foreign Flow-Through Entity, or Certain U.S. Branches for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting, or a similar statement for a domestic grantor trust with a foreign grantor or owner), that includes a withholding statement that provides the percentage of the amount realized allocable to each grantor or owner of the trust, and any applicable certification for each grantor or owner. In the case of a certification so provided, a grantor or owner of the trust is treated as having provided the certification to the transferee (or broker).

(3) Books and records. A partnership that relies on its books and records pursuant to this section and §§1.1446(f)–2 through 1.1446(f)–5 (including for purposes of providing a certification or other statement) must identify in its books and records the date on which the transfer occurred, the information on which the partnership relied, and the provisions of this section and §§1.1446(f)–2 through 1.1446(f)–5.
§ 1.1446(f)–2 Withholding on the transfer of a non-publicly traded partnership interest

(a) Transferor’s obligation to withhold. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a transferor is required to withhold under section 1446(f)(1) a tax equal to 10 percent of the amount realized on any transfer of a partnership interest. This section does not apply to a transfer of a PTP interest that is effected through one or more brokers, including a distribution made with respect to a PTP interest held in an account with a broker. For rules regarding those transfers, see §1.1446(f)–4.

(b) Exceptions to withholding—(1) In general. A transferor is not required to withhold under this section if it properly relies on a certification or its books and records as described in this paragraph (b). A transferor may not rely on a certification if it has actual knowledge that the certification is incorrect or unreliable. A partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution may not rely on its books and records as described in this section for rules that apply when the transferee realizes gain but is not required to recognize the gain under a provision of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) No section 751 income. For purposes of paragraph (b)(3)(i) of this section, a transferee may rely on a certification from the partnership stating that the transfer of the partnership interest would not result in any ordinary income arising from the application of section 751 and §1.751–1 to the transferor as of the determination date. The certification from the partnership must be attached to, and forms part of, the certification of no realized gain that the transferor provides to the transferee.

(iii) Partnership distributions. A partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution may rely on its books and records, or on a certification from the transferee, to determine that the distribution would not result in any realized gain to the transferee as of the determination date.

(4) Less than 10 percent effectively connected gain—(i) In general. A transferee (other than a partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution) may rely on a certification from the partnership that states that—

(A) The transferee is a foreign person; or

(B) The transferee is a partnership that is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States, or, if the transferee would have been effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States, would have been less than 10 percent of the total net gain; or

(C) The transferee is a trust, estate, or other entity that is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States and that is not a trust or estate the income from which is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States; or

(D) The transferee is a grantor or a donor trust the income from which is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States, or, if the transferee would have been effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States, would have been less than 10 percent of the total net gain; or

(2) Certification of non-foreign status by transferor. A transferee may rely on a certification of non-foreign status from the transferor that states that the transferor is a foreign person, states the transferor’s name, TIN, and address, and is signed under penalties of perjury.

For purposes of this paragraph (b)(2), a certification of non-foreign status includes a valid Form W–9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification. For purposes of this paragraph (b)(2), a transferee may rely on a valid Form W–9 from the transferor that it already possesses if the form meets the requirements of this paragraph (b)(2).

(3) No realized gain by transferor—(i) In general. A transferee (other than a partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution) may rely on a certification from the transferor that states that the transfer of the partnership interest would not result in any realized gain (including ordinary income arising from the application of section 751 and §1.751–1) to the transferee as of the determination date (see §1.1446(f)–1(c)(4)). See paragraph (b)(6) of this section for rules that apply when the transferor realizes gain but is not required to recognize the gain under a provision of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) No section 751 income. For purposes of paragraph (b)(3)(i) of this section, a transferee may rely on a certification from the partnership stating that the transfer of the partnership interest would not result in any ordinary income arising from the application of section 751 and §1.751–1 to the transferee as of the determination date. The certification from the partnership must be attached to, and forms part of, the certification of no realized gain that the transferor provides to the transferee.

(iii) Partnership distributions. A partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution may rely on its books and records, or on a certification from the transferee, to determine that the distribution would not result in any realized gain to the transferee as of the determination date.

(4) Less than 10 percent effectively connected gain—(i) In general. A transferee (other than a partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution) may rely on a certification from the partnership that states that—

(A) The transferee is a foreign person; or

(C) The transferee is a trust, estate, or other entity that is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States and that is not a trust or estate the income from which is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States, or, if the transferee would have been effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States, would have been less than 10 percent of the total net gain; or

(2) Certification of non-foreign status by transferor. A transferee may rely on a certification of non-foreign status from the transferor that states that the transferor is a foreign person, states the transferor’s name, TIN, and address, and is signed under penalties of perjury.

For purposes of this paragraph (b)(2), a certification of non-foreign status includes a valid Form W–9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification. For purposes of this paragraph (b)(2), a transferee may rely on a valid Form W–9 from the transferor that it already possesses if the form meets the requirements of this paragraph (b)(2).

(3) No realized gain by transferor—(i) In general. A transferee (other than a partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution) may rely on a certification from the transferor that states that the transfer of the partnership interest would not result in any realized gain (including ordinary income arising from the application of section 751 and §1.751–1) to the transferee as of the determination date (see §1.1446(f)–1(c)(4)). See paragraph (b)(6) of this section for rules that apply when the transferor realizes gain but is not required to recognize the gain under a provision of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) No section 751 income. For purposes of paragraph (b)(3)(i) of this section, a transferee may rely on a certification from the partnership stating that the transfer of the partnership interest would not result in any ordinary income arising from the application of section 751 and §1.751–1 to the transferee as of the determination date. The certification from the partnership must be attached to, and forms part of, the certification of no realized gain that the transferor provides to the transferee.

(iii) Partnership distributions. A partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution may rely on its books and records, or on a certification from the transferee, to determine that the distribution would not result in any realized gain to the transferee as of the determination date.

(4) Less than 10 percent effectively connected gain—(i) In general. A transferee (other than a partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution) may rely on a certification from the partnership that states that—

(A) The transferee is a foreign person; or

(C) The transferee is a trust, estate, or other entity that is not engaged in a trade or business within the United States and that is not a trust or estate the income from which is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States, or, if the transferee would have been effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States, would have been less than 10 percent of the total net gain; or

(2) Certification of non-foreign status by transferor. A transferee may rely on a certification of non-foreign status from the transferor that states that the transferor is a foreign person, states the transferor’s name, TIN, and address, and is signed under penalties of perjury.

For purposes of this paragraph (b)(2), a certification of non-foreign status includes a valid Form W–9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification. For purposes of this paragraph (b)(2), a transferee may rely on a valid Form W–9 from the transferor that it already possesses if the form meets the requirements of this paragraph (b)(2).

(3) No realized gain by transferor—(i) In general. A transferee (other than a partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution) may rely on a certification from the transferor that states that the transfer of the partnership interest would not result in any realized gain (including ordinary income arising from the application of section 751 and §1.751–1) to the transferee as of the determination date (see §1.1446(f)–1(c)(4)). See paragraph (b)(6) of this section for rules that apply when the transferor realizes gain but is not required to recognize the gain under a provision of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) No section 751 income. For purposes of paragraph (b)(3)(i) of this section, a transferee may rely on a certification from the partnership stating that the transfer of the partnership interest would not result in any ordinary income arising from the application of section 751 and §1.751–1 to the transferee as of the determination date. The certification from the partnership must be attached to, and forms part of, the certification of no realized gain that the transferor provides to the transferee.

(iii) Partnership distributions. A partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution may rely on its books and records, or on a certification from the transferee, to determine that the distribution would not result in any realized gain to the transferee as of the determination date.
(ii) Partnership distributions. A partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution may rely on its books and records to determine that paragraph (b)(4)(i)(A) of this section is satisfied as of the determination date or paragraph (b)(4)(i)(B) of this section is satisfied for the taxable year of the partnership through the date of transfer.

(5) Less than 10 percent effectively connected income—(i) In general. A transferee (other than a partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution) may rely on a certification from the transferor that states that—

(A) The transferor was a partner in the partnership throughout the look-back period described in paragraph (b)(5)(ii) of this section;

(B) The transferor’s distributive share of gross effectively connected income from the partnership, as reported on a schedule K–1 (Form 1065), Partner’s Share of Income, Deductions, Credits, etc., or other statement required to be furnished under §1.14031(b)–1T, including any gross effectively connected income included in the distributive share of a partner that bears a relationship to the transferee described in section 267(b) or 707(b)(1), was less than $1 million for each of the taxable years within the look-back period described in paragraph (b)(5)(ii) of this section;

(C) The transferor’s distributive share of gross effectively connected income from the partnership, as reported on a Schedule K–1 (Form 1065), Partner’s Share of Income, Deductions, Credits, etc., or other statement required to be furnished under §1.14031(b)–1T, for each of the taxable years within the look-back period described in paragraph (b)(5)(ii) of this section, was less than 10 percent of the transferor’s total distributive share of gross income from the partnership for that year as determined under subchapter K of the Internal Revenue Code (as provided on a Schedule K–1 (Form 1065) or other statement required to be furnished under §1.14031(b)–1T); and

(D) The transferor’s distributive share of income or gain from the partnership that is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States or deductions or losses properly allocated and apportioned to that income in each of the taxable years within the look-back period described in paragraph (b)(5)(ii) of this section has been timely paid to the IRS, provided that the return was required to be filed when the transferor furnishes the certification (taking into account any extensions of time to file).

(ii) Look-back period—(A) In general. The transferor’s look-back period is the transferor’s immediately prior taxable year and the two preceding taxable years.

(B) Immediately prior taxable year. The transferor’s immediately prior taxable year is the transferor’s most recent taxable year—

(1) With or within which a taxable year of the partnership ended; and

(2) For which a Schedule K–1 (Form 1065) was due (including extensions) or furnished (if earlier) before the transfer.

(C) Limitation. A transferee may not rely on a certification that is provided before the transferor’s receipt of the Schedule K–1 (Form 1065) described in paragraph (b)(5)(ii)(B) of this section. No distributive share of gross income. A transferee that did not have a distributive share of gross income in any year described in paragraph (b)(5)(ii)(A) of this section cannot provide the certification described in this paragraph (b)(5).

(iv) Partnership distributions. A partnership that is a transferee by reason of making a distribution may rely on its books and records to determine that the requirements in paragraphs (b)(5)(i)(A) through (C) of this section have been satisfied (subject to the rules in paragraphs (b)(5)(ii) and (iii) of this section). The partnership must also obtain a representation from the transferor stating that the requirement in paragraph (b)(5)(i)(D) of this section has been satisfied.

(6) Certification of nonrecognition by transferor—(i) In general. A transferee may rely on a certification from the transferor that states that by reason of the operation of a nonrecognition provision of the Internal Revenue Code the transferor is not required to recognize any gain or loss with respect to the transferee. The certification must briefly describe the transfer and provide the relevant law and facts relating to the certification.

(ii) Partial nonrecognition. Paragraph (b)(6)(i) of this section does not apply if only a portion of the gain realized on the transfer is subject to a nonrecognition provision. However, see paragraph (c)(4)(v) of this section for rules applicable to a transferor’s claim for partial nonrecognition.

(7) Income tax treaties—(i) In general. A transferee may rely on a certification from the transferor that states that the transferor is not subject to tax on any gain from the transfer pursuant to an income tax treaty in effect between the United States and a foreign country if the requirements of this paragraph (b)(7) are met. The transferor makes the certification on a withholding certificate (on a Form W–8BEN, Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting (Individuals), or Form W–8BEN–E, Certificate of Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting (Entities)) that meets the requirements for validity under §1.1446–1(c)(2)(iv) (or an applicable substitute form that meets the requirements under §1.1446–1(c)(5)) and that contains the information necessary to support the claim for treaty benefits. A transferee may rely on a certification of treaty benefits only if, within 30 days after the date of the transfer, the transferor mails a copy of the certification to the Internal Revenue Service, at the address provided in §1.1445–1(g)(10), together with a cover letter providing the name, TIN, and address of the transferee and the partnership in which an interest was transferred.

(ii) Treaty claim for less than all of the gain. Paragraph (b)(7)(i) of this section does not apply if treaty benefits apply to only a portion of the gain from the transfer. However, see paragraph (c)(4)(vi) of this section for rules applicable to situations in which treaty benefits apply to only a portion of the gain.

(iii) Exclusive means to claim an exception from withholding based on treaty benefits. A transferee claiming treaty benefits with respect to all of the gain from the transfer must use the exception in this paragraph (b)(7) and not any other exception or determination procedure in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section to claim an exception to withholding by reason of a claim of treaty benefits.

(c) Determining the amount to withhold—(1) In general. A transferee that is required to withhold under this section must withhold 10 percent of the amount realized on the transfer of the partnership interest, except as otherwise provided in this paragraph (c). Any procedures in this paragraph (c) apply solely for purposes of determining the amount to withhold under section 1446(f)(1) and this section. A transferee may not rely on a certification if it has actual knowledge that the certification is incorrect or unreliable. A partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution may not rely on its books and records if it knows, or has reason to know, that the information is incorrect or unreliable.
(2) Amount realized—(i) In general. The amount realized on the transfer of the partnership interest is determined under section 1001 (including §§ 1.1001–1 through 1.1001–5) and section 752 (including §§ 1.752–1 through 1.752–7). Thus, the amount realized includes the amount of cash paid (or to be paid), the fair market value of other property transferred (or to be transferred), the amount of any liabilities assumed by the transferee or to which the partnership interest is subject, and the reduction in the transferee’s share of partnership liabilities. In the case of a distribution, the amount realized is the sum of the amount of cash distributed (or to be distributed), the fair market value of property distributed (or to be distributed), and the reduction in the transferee’s share of partnership liabilities.

(ii) Alternative procedures for transferee to determine share of partnership liabilities—(A) In general. A transferee (other than a partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution), as an alternative to determining the share of partnership liabilities under paragraph (c)(2)(i) of this section, may use the procedures of this paragraph (c)(2)(ii) to determine the extent to which a reduction in partnership liabilities is included in the amount realized.

(B) Certification of liabilities by transferee. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a transferee may rely on a certification from a transferee, other than a controlling partner, that provides the amount of the transferee’s share of partnership liabilities reported on the most recent Schedule K–1 (Form 1065) issued by the partnership. If the transferee’s actual share of liabilities at the time of the transfer differs from the amount reported on that Schedule K–1 (Form 1065), the certification will not be treated as incorrect or unreliable if the transferee also certifies that it does not have actual knowledge of any events occurring after receiving the Schedule K–1 (Form 1065) and before the date of the transfer that would cause the amount of the transferee’s share of partnership liabilities at the time of the transfer to differ by more than 25 percent from the amount shown on the certification by the partnership for the determination date.

(iii) Partnership’s determination of partnership liabilities for distributions. A partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution may rely on its books and records to determine the extent to which the transferee’s share of partnership liabilities on the determination date are included in the amount realized. The information in the books and records will not be treated as incorrect or unreliable unless the partnership has actual knowledge, on or before the date of the distribution, of any events occurring after the determination date that would cause the amount of the transferee’s share of partnership liabilities at the time of the transfer to differ by more than 25 percent from the amount determined by the partnership as of the determination date.

(iv) Certification by a foreign partnership of modified amount realized—(A) In general. When a transferee is a foreign partnership, a transferee may use the procedures of this paragraph (c)(2)(iv) to determine the amount realized. For purposes of this paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A), the transferee may treat the modified amount realized as the amount realized to the extent that it may rely on a certification from the transferee providing the modified amount realized.

(B) Determining modified amount realized. The modified amount realized is determined by multiplying the amount realized (as determined under this paragraph (c)(2), without regard to this paragraph (c)(2)(iv)) by the aggregate percentage computed as of the determination date. The aggregate percentage is the percentage of the gain (if any) arising from the transfer that would be allocated to presumed foreign taxable persons. For purposes of this paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(B), a presumed foreign taxable person is any direct or indirect partner of the transferee that has not provided either a certification of non-foreign status that meets the requirements of paragraph (b)(2) of this section or a certification of treaty benefits that states that the partner is not subject to tax on any gain from the transfer pursuant to an income tax treaty in effect between the United States and a foreign country. A valid certification of treaty benefits must meet the requirements of paragraph (b)(7) of this section (as applied to the partner claiming treaty benefits), including the requirement that the transferee mail a copy of the certification to the IRS within the time prescribed. For purposes of this paragraph (c)(2)(iv), an indirect partner is a person that owns an interest in the transferee indirectly through one or more foreign partnerships.

(C) Certification. The certification is made by providing a withholding certificate (on Form W–8IMY, Certificate of Foreign Intermediary, Foreign Flow-Through Entity, or Certain U.S. Branches for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting) that includes a withholding statement that provides the percentage of interest allocable to each direct or indirect partner and that provides whether each such person is a United States person, a foreign partner eligible for treaty benefits, or a presumed foreign taxable person. The certification must also include the certification of non-foreign status or the certification of treaty benefits from each direct or indirect partner that is not a presumed foreign taxable person.

(3) Lack of money or property or lack of knowledge regarding liabilities. The amount to withhold equals the amount realized determined without regard to any decrease in the transferee’s share of partnership liabilities if—

(i) The amount otherwise required to be withheld under this paragraph (c) would exceed the amount realized determined without regard to the decrease in the transferee’s share of partnership liabilities; or

(ii) The transferee is unable to determine the amount realized because it does not have actual knowledge of the transferee’s share of partnership liabilities (and has not received or cannot rely on a certification described in paragraph (c)(2)(ii)(B) or (C) of this section).

(4) Certification of maximum tax liability—(i) In general. A transferee may use the procedures of this paragraph (c)(4) for determining the amount to withhold for purposes of section 1446(f)(1) and paragraph (a) of this section. A transferee (other than a partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution) may rely on a certification from a transferee that is a foreign corporation, a nonresident alien individual, a foreign partnership, or a foreign trust regarding the transferor’s maximum tax liability as described in paragraph (c)(4)(ii) of this section. A partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution may instead rely on its books and records to determine the transferor’s maximum tax liability if the books and records includes the information required by paragraphs (c)(4)(iii) and (iv) of this section. A transferor that is a foreign partnership or a foreign trust is treated as a nonresident alien individual for purposes of determining the transferor’s maximum tax liability.

(ii) Maximum tax liability. For purposes of this paragraph (c)(4), the term maximum tax liability means the amount of the transferor’s effectively connected gain (as determined under paragraph (c)(4)(iii)(E) of this section) multiplied by the applicable percentage, as defined in §1.1446–3(a)(2).

(iii) Required information. The certification must include—

(A) A statement that the transferor is either a nonresident alien individual, a foreign corporation, a foreign partnership, or a foreign trust;

(B) The transferor’s adjusted basis in the transfer;

(C) The transferor’s amount realized (determined in accordance with paragraph (c)(2) of this section) on the determination date;

(D) Whether the transferor remains a partner immediately after the transfer;

(E) The amount of outside ordinary gain and outside capital gain that would be recognized and treated as effectively connected gain under §1.864(c)(8)–1(b) on the determination date (effectively connected gain);

(F) The transferor’s maximum tax liability on the determination date;

(G) A representation from the transferor that the transferor determined the amounts described in paragraph (c)(4)(iii)(E) of this section based on the statement described in paragraph (c)(4)(iv) of this section, if applicable; and

(H) A representation from the transferor that it has provided the transferee with a copy of the statement described in paragraph (c)(4)(iv) of this section.

(iv) Partnership statement. A transferor may make the representation in paragraph (c)(4)(iii)(G) of this section only if the partnership provides to the transferor a statement (that meets the requirements for a certification under the general rules for applicability in §1.1446(f)–1(c)) that includes—

(A) The partnership’s name, address, and TIN; and

(B) The transferor’s aggregate deemed sale EC ordinary gain, within the meaning of §1.864(c)(8)–1(c)(3)(iii)(A) (if any) and the transferor’s aggregate deemed sale EC capital gain, within the meaning of §1.864(c)(8)–1(c)(3)(iii)(B) (if any), in each case, on the determination date.

(v) Partial nonrecognition. If a nonrecognition provision applies to only a portion of the gain realized on the transfer, a certification described in paragraph (c)(4)(i) may be relied upon only if the certification also includes the information required in paragraph (b)(6) of this section (substituting “a portion of the gain” or “any gain or loss” in paragraph (b)(6)(i) of this section).

(vi) Income tax treaties. If only a portion of the gain on the transfer is not subject to tax pursuant to an income tax treaty in effect between the United States and a foreign country, a certification described in paragraph (c)(4)(i) of this section may be relied upon only if the requirements of paragraph (b)(7)(i) of this section have been met, including the requirement to obtain the applicable withholding certificate indicating that the gain from the transfer is not subject to tax pursuant to an income tax treaty (substituting “a portion of the gain” for “any gain” in paragraph (b)(7)(i) of this section), and the requirement to mail a copy of the withholding certificate to the IRS.

(d) Reporting and paying withheld amounts—(1) In general. A transferee required to withhold under this section must report and pay any tax withheld by the 20th day after the date of the transfer using Forms 8288, U.S. Withholding Tax Return for Dispositions by Foreign Persons of U.S. Real Property Interests, and 8288–A, Statement of Withholding on Dispositions by Foreign Persons of U.S. Real Property Interests, in accordance with the instructions to those forms. The IRS will stamp Form 8288–A to show receipt and mail a stamped copy to the transferee (at the address reported on the form). See paragraph (e)(2) of this section for the procedures for the transferee to claim a credit for amounts withheld. Forms 8288 and 8288–A must include the TINs of both the transferor and the transferee. If any required TIN is not provided, the transferee must still report and pay any tax withheld on Form 8288.

(2) Certification of withholding to partnership for purposes of section 1446(f)(4). A transferee (other than a partnership that is a transferee because it makes a distribution) must certify to the partnership the extent to which it has satisfied its obligation to withhold under this section no later than 10 days after the transfer. The certification must either include a copy of Form 8288–A that the transferee files with respect to the transfer, or state the amount realized and the amount withheld on the transfer. The certification must also include any certifications that the transferee relied on to apply an exception to withholding under paragraph (b) of this section or to determine the amount to withhold under paragraph (c) of this section. A transferee that relied on a certification to apply an exception or adjustment to withholding remains liable under this section when the partnership knows, or has reason to know, that the certification is incorrect or unreliable.

See §1.1446(f)(3)–1 for rules regarding a partnership’s obligation to withhold on distributions to a transferee when this certification establishes only partial satisfaction of the required amount, is not provided, or cannot be relied upon.

(e) Effect of withholding on transferee—(1) In general. The withholding of tax by a transferee under this section does not relieve a foreign person from filing a U.S. tax return with respect to the transfer. See §§1.6012–1(b)(1), 1.6012–2(g)(1), and 1.6031(a)–1. Further, the withholding of tax by a transferee does not relieve a nonresident alien individual or foreign corporation subject to tax on gain by reason of section 864(c)(8) from paying any tax due with the return that has not been fully satisfied through withholding.

(2) Manner of obtaining credit—(i) Individuals or corporations. Except as provided in paragraph (e)(3) of this section, an individual or corporation may claim a credit under section 33 for the amount withheld under this section by attaching to its applicable return the stamped copy of Form 8288–A provided to it under paragraph (d)(1) of this section.

(ii) Partnerships, trusts, or estates. For a rule allowing a foreign partnership that is a transferee to claim a credit for the amount withheld under this section against its tax liability under section 1446(a), see §1.1446–3(c)(4). For the rule providing the extent to which a foreign trust or estate may claim a credit for an amount withheld under this section, see §1.1462–1. Except as provided in paragraph (e)(3) of this section, a foreign partnership, trust, or estate claiming a credit for an amount withheld must attach to its applicable return the stamped copy of Form 8288–A provided to it under paragraph (d)(1) of this section. A foreign partnership, trust, or estate must also provide any other information required in forms or instructions to any beneficiary or owner that is liable for tax on any of the gain under section 864(c)(8).

(3) Failure to receive Form 8288–A. If a stamped copy of Form 8288–A has not been provided to the transferee by the IRS, the transferee may establish the amount of tax withheld by the transferee by attaching to its return substantial evidence of the amount. The transferee must attach to its return a statement that includes all of the information otherwise required to be provided on Form 8288–A.

(i) Applicability date. This section applies to transfers that occur on or after January 29, 2021.

§ 1.1446(f)—3 Partnership's requirement to withhold under section 1446(f)(4) on distributions made to transferee.

(a) Partnership’s obligation to withhold amounts not withheld by the transferee—(1) In general. If a transferee fails to withhold any amount required to be withheld under § 1.1446(f)—2, the partnership in which the interest was transferred must withhold from any distributions with respect to the transferred interest pursuant to this section. To determine its withholding obligation under this paragraph (a)(1), a partnership may rely on a certification received from the transferee described in § 1.1446(f)—2(d)(2) unless it knows, or has reason to know, that the certification is incorrect or unreliable. A partnership that already possesses a certification of non-foreign status (including a Form W–9) for the transferee that meets the requirements provided in § 1.1446(f)—2(b)(2) may instead rely on this certification to determine that it has no withholding obligation under this paragraph (a)(1) unless it knows, or has reason to know, that the certification is incorrect or unreliable. A partnership that receives a certification described in § 1.1446(f)—2(d)(2) that is inconsistent with the information on the certification of non-foreign status in its possession is treated as having actual knowledge, or reason to know, that the certification of non-foreign status is incorrect or unreliable.

(b) Exceptions to withholding—(1) Withholding has been satisfied by transferee. A partnership is not required to withhold under paragraph (a)(1) of this section if it relies on a certification described in § 1.1446(f)—2(d)(2) received from the transferee (within the time prescribed in § 1.1446(f)—2(d)(2)) that states that an exception to withholding described in § 1.1446(f)—2(b) applies or that the transferee withheld the full amount required to be withheld (taking into account any adjustments under § 1.1446(f)—2(c)) under § 1.1446(f)—2.

(2) PTP interests. A partnership is not required to withhold under this section on distributions made with respect to a PTP interest.

(c) Withholding rules—(1) Timing of withholding—(i) In general. A partnership required to withhold under paragraph (a)(1) of this section must withhold on distributions made with respect to a transferred interest beginning on the later of—

(A) The date that is 30 days after the date of transfer; or

(B) The date that is 15 days after the date on which the partnership acquires actual knowledge that the transfer has occurred.

(ii) Satisfaction of withholding obligation. A partnership is treated as satisfying its withholding obligation under paragraph (a)(1) of this section and may stop withholding on distributions with respect to a transferred interest on the earlier of—

(A) The date on which the partnership completes withholding and paying the amount required to be withheld under paragraph (c)(2) of this section; or

(B) The date on which the partnership receives and may rely on a certification from the transferee described in § 1.1446(f)—2(d)(2) (without regard to whether the certification is received by the time prescribed in § 1.1446(f)—2(d)(2)) that claims an exception to withholding under § 1.1446(f)—2(b).

(2) Amount to withhold—(i) In general. A partnership required to withhold under paragraph (a)(1) of this section must withhold the full amount of each distribution made with respect to the transferred interest until it has withheld—

(A) A tax of 10 percent of the amount realized (determined solely under § 1.1446(f)—2(c)(2)(i)) on the transfer, reduced by any amount withheld by the transferee; plus

(B) Any interest computed under paragraph (c)(2)(ii) of this section.

(ii) Computation of interest. The amount of interest required to be withheld under paragraph (a)(1) of this section is the amount of interest that would be required to be paid under section 6601 and § 301.6601–1 of this chapter if the amount that should have been withheld by the transferee was considered an underpayment of tax. For purposes of this paragraph (c)(2)(ii), interest is payable between the date that is 20 days after the date of the transfer and the date on which the tax due under paragraph (a)(1) of this section is paid to the IRS.

(iii) Certifications required. For purposes of paragraph (c)(2)(ii)(A) of this section, a partnership must determine the amount realized on the transfer and any amount withheld by the transferee based on a certification from the transferee described in § 1.1446(f)—2(d)(2), without regard to whether the certification is received by the time prescribed in § 1.1446(f)—2(d)(2). A partnership that does not receive or cannot rely on a certification from the transferee described in § 1.1446(f)—2(d)(2) must withhold tax equal to the full amount of each distribution made with respect to a transferred interest until it receives a certification that it can rely on.

(3) Coordination with other withholding provisions. Any amount required to be withheld on a distribution under any other provision of the Internal Revenue Code is not also required to be withheld under section 1446(f)(4) of this section.
(d) Reporting and paying withheld amounts. The partnership must report and pay the tax withheld using Forms 8288, U.S. Withholding Tax Return for Dispositions by Foreign Persons of U.S. Real Property Interests, and 8288–C, Statement of Withholding Under Section 1446(f)(4) for Withholding on Dispositions by Foreign Persons of Partnership Interests, as provided in forms, instructions, or other guidance.

(e) Effect of withholding on transferee and transferor—(1) Transferor. The withholding of tax by a partnership under this section does not relieve a foreign person from filing a U.S. income tax return with respect to the transfer. See §§ 1.16012–1(b)(1), 1.6012–2(g)(1), and 1.6031(a). Further, the withholding of tax by a partnership does not relieve a nonresident alien individual or foreign corporation subject to tax on gain by reason of section 864(c)(8) from paying any tax due with the return that has not been fully satisfied through withholding. An individual or corporation is not allowed a credit under section 33 for amounts withheld on distributions to the transferee under this section. See, however, §§ 1.1446(f)–5(a) and 1.1463–1(a), which generally provide that tax will not be recollected if paid by another person.

(2) Transferee. A transferee is treated as satisfying its withholding tax liability under § 1.1446(f)–2 to the extent that a partnership withholds tax (which does not include interest) under this section. Interest computed under paragraph (c)(2)(ii) of this section that is withheld by the partnership from the transferee is treated as paid by the transferee with respect to its withholding tax liability under § 1.1446(f)–2. An excess amount under this section is the amount of tax and interest withheld under this section that exceeds the transferee’s withholding tax liability under § 1.1446(f)–2 plus any interest owed by the transferee with respect to such liability. A transferee may claim a refund for the excess amount if payments have been made in excess of the tax which is properly due by the transferee for the tax period.

(f) Applicability date. This section applies to transfers that occur on or after January 1, 2022.

§ 1.1446(f)–4 Withholding on the transfer of a publicly traded partnership interest.

(a) Obligation to withhold on a transfer of a PTP interest—(1) In general. If a transfer of a PTP interest is effected through one or more brokers (as defined in § 1.1446(f)–1(b)(1)), the transferee is not required to withhold under section 1446(f)(1) and § 1.1446(f)–2. Rather, any broker required to withhold under paragraph (a)(2) of this section must withhold a tax equal to 10 percent of the amount realized (as defined in paragraph (c)(2) of this section) on the transfer of a PTP interest, except as otherwise provided in this section. For cases in which a publicly traded partnership is liable for withholding under this section, see paragraphs (b)(3)(i) and (c)(2)(iii) of this section.

(2) Broker’s requirement to withhold—(i) In general. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a broker is required to withhold under this section if it pays an amount realized to another broker that it is required to treat as a foreign person, or if a broker pays an amount realized to a foreign transferee that is its customer.

(ii) Payments to foreign brokers. A broker that pays an amount realized from the transfer of a PTP interest to another broker that is required to treat as a foreign person must withhold under this section unless it establishes that the second-mentioned broker obtains documentation on which it may rely establishing that the second-mentioned broker is described in paragraph (a)(2)(ii)(A) or (B) of this section. A broker must treat any broker to which it pays an amount realized from the transfer of a PTP interest as a foreign person unless it obtains, or already possesses, documentation (including a certification of non-foreign status) on which it may rely that establishes that the other broker is a U.S. person. A broker may rely on documentation described in this section that is a qualified intermediary that is a qualified intermediary under section 1441–1(c)(2)(i)(A) or (B) of this section, unless it has actual knowledge that the documentation is unreliable or incorrect.

(A) A broker is described in this paragraph (a)(2)(ii)(A) if it is a qualified intermediary (as defined in § 1.1441–1(e)(5)(ii)) that provides a valid primary withholding responsibility for the payment.

(B) A broker is described in this paragraph (a)(2)(ii)(B) if it is a U.S. branch of a foreign person (as described in § 1.1441–1(b)(2)(iv)) that provides a valid U.S. branch withholding certificate (as described in § 1.1441–1(e)(3)(v)), but without regard to the requirement in § 1.1441–1(e)(3)(v) that the certificate state that the amount is not effectively connected with a trade or business within the United States that states that the U.S. branch agrees to be treated as a U.S. person with respect to the payment.

(iii) Payments to foreign transferees that are customers of the broker. A broker that pays an amount realized to a foreign transferee that is its customer (as defined in § 1.6045–1(a)(2)) from the transfer of a PTP interest is required to withhold under this section unless an exception under paragraph (b) of this section applies.

(3) Exception from certain withholding by U.S. clearing organizations. A broker that is a U.S. clearing organization clearing or settling a sale of a PTP interest is not required to withhold on the amount realized from the sale. However, see § 1.1461–1(c)(2)(i)(R)(2) for the requirement that a U.S. clearing organization acting as a central counterparty report on Form 1042–S sales of PTP interests that it clears and settles on a net basis.

(4) Exception when withholding already satisfied. A broker that receives from another broker an amount realized from the transfer of a PTP interest is required to withhold under this section unless the other broker has withheld the full amount required. A broker that receives from another broker an amount realized from the transfer of a PTP interest may treat the withholding as having been satisfied on the full amount required unless it knows or has reason to know that the withholding obligation has not already been satisfied. A broker that is a qualified intermediary determines its withholding requirement for purposes of this paragraph (a)(4) in accordance with its qualified intermediary agreement.

(5) Documentation obtained from another person to determine a broker’s status. A U.S. clearing organization may act as an agent for a broker receiving an amount realized from another broker that is a member of the clearing organization for purposes of furnishing valid documentation described in paragraph (a)(2) of this section (the first-mentioned broker’s status to such other broker, provided the clearing organization notifies the first-mentioned broker and such broker has the ability to opt out. A broker that obtains documentation from a clearing organization under this paragraph (a)(5) for a broker to which the first-mentioned broker is paying an amount realized may rely on such documentation unless it has actual knowledge that the documentation is incorrect or unreliable.

(6) Date of withholding with respect to a transfer other than a distribution. For a transfer of a PTP interest that is not a distribution, a broker is required to apply the principles of § 31.3406(a)–4(b)(1) of this chapter to determine the date on which to withhold under this section.

(7) Payments to qualified intermediaries not assuming primary withholding responsibility. With respect to the transfer of a PTP interest, if a broker pays the amount realized to a foreign person that the broker may treat as a qualified intermediary (as defined in § 1.1441–1(e)(5)(iii)) that does not assume primary withholding responsibility for the payment based on a valid qualified intermediary withholding certificate described in § 1.1441–1(e)(5)(iii) upon which the broker may rely under paragraph (a)(2) of this section, the broker may withhold as provided in this paragraph (a)(7).

Under this paragraph (a)(7), a broker may withhold under this section by reference to the amount of the payment that the broker can reliably determine, based on the withholding statement provided with the withholding certificate, is allocable to—

(i) Foreign transferees included in a chapter 3 withholding rate pool (as described in § 1.1441–1(e)(5)(v)(C)) that are subject to a 10 percent rate of withholding on the payment of the amount realized;

(ii) Foreign transferees included in a chapter 3 withholding rate pool (as described in § 1.1441–1(e)(5)(v)(C)) that qualify for an exception from withholding on the payment of the amount realized under paragraph (b) of this section;

(iii) Each foreign transferor for which a form acceptable under § 1.1446–1 is provided; or

(iv) U.S. transferees, based on a valid Form W–9 provided for each such transferor to the extent that the transferor is not included in a chapter 4 withholding rate pool of U.S. payees (as described in § 1.1441–1(e)(5)(v)(C)), to the extent permitted for purposes of chapter 4 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Qualified intermediary or U.S. branch withholding requirement. A broker that is a qualified intermediary (as defined in § 1.1441–1(e)(5)(ii)) or U.S. branch must assume primary withholding responsibility under this section for a distribution from a publicly traded partnership for which the qualified intermediary or U.S. branch acts as a nominee for purposes of section 1446(a). See § 1.1446–4(b)(3).

(b) Exceptions to withholding—(1) In general. A broker is not required to withhold under this section if it properly relies on a certification described in paragraph (b)(2), (5), or (6) of this section, a qualified notice described in paragraph (b)(3) of this section, or if the exception described in paragraph (b)(4) of this section applies.

A broker may not rely on a certification described in this paragraph (b) if it has actual knowledge that the certification is incorrect or unreliable.

(2) Certification of non-foreign status. A broker may rely on a certification of non-foreign status that it obtains from the transferor. A certification of non-foreign status under this section means a Form W–9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification, or valid substitute form, that meets the requirements of § 1.1441–1(d)(2). For purposes of this paragraph (b)(2), a broker may rely on a valid form that it already possesses from the transferor. A broker may instead rely on certification from a second broker (as defined in § 1.6045–1(a)(1)) that acts as an agent for the transferor when the second broker does not receive the amount realized from the transfer of the PTP interest. This certification must state that the second broker has collected a valid certification of non-foreign status (within the meaning of this paragraph (b)(2)) from the transferor, and it must include the transferor’s TIN and status as a foreign or U.S. person.

(3) Less than 10 percent effectively connected gain by partnership—(i) In general. A broker may rely on a qualified notice described in paragraph (b)(3)(iii) of this section that states that the 10-percent exception applies, as determined under paragraph (b)(3)(ii) of this section. In a case in which a broker properly relies on a qualified notice under paragraph (b)(1) of this section that results in withholding on a transaction of a non-foreign transferor, the publicly traded partnership that issued the notice is solely liable for the underwithheld tax under section 1461. A publicly traded partnership’s liability referenced in the preceding sentence, however, applies only when the publicly traded partnership fails to make a reasonable estimate of the amounts required for determining the applicability of the 10-percent exception.

(ii) 10-percent exception—(A) In general. The 10-percent exception applies to a transfer if, on the PTP designated date described in paragraph (b)(3)(i)(B) of this section—

(1) If the publicly traded partnership sold all of its assets at fair market value in the manner described in § 1.864(c)(8)–1(c), either—

(i) The amount of net gain that would have been effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States would be less than 10 percent of the total net gain; or

(ii) No gain would have been effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States; or

(2) The partnership was not engaged in a trade or business within the United States at any time during the taxable year of the partnership through the PTP designated date.

(B) PTP designated date. The PTP designated date for a transfer is any date for a deemed sale determination that is designated by the publicly traded partnership in a qualified notice described in paragraph (b)(3)(iii) of this section, provided that the PTP designated date occurs on or after the date that is 92 days before the date on which the publicly traded partnership posted the qualified notice naming the PTP designated date.

(iii) Qualified notice—(A) In general. Except as provided in paragraphs (b)(3)(iii)(B) and (C) of this section, a qualified notice described in this paragraph (b)(3)(iii) is the most recent qualified notice (within the meaning of § 1.1446–4(b)(4)) posted by the publicly traded partnership.

(B) Qualified notice posting date requirement. A qualified notice is described in this paragraph (b)(3)(iii) only if the publicly traded partnership has posted it within the 92-day period ending on the date of the transfer. For a transfer that is a distribution by the publicly traded partnership, the qualified notice is described in paragraph (b)(3)(iii) of this section only if the qualified notice is posted with respect to the distribution.

(C) Recent posting of qualified notice. If the most recent qualified notice posted by the publicly traded partnership was posted during the 10-day period ending on the date of the transfer, a broker may instead rely on the immediately preceding qualified notice (within the meaning of § 1.1446–4(b)(4)) posted by the publicly traded partnership, provided that it satisfies the condition described in paragraph (b)(3)(iii)(B) of this section.

(4) Amount subject to withholding under section 3406. A broker is not required to withhold under this section if the amount realized from the transfer of the PTP interest is subject to withholding under § 31.3406(b)(3)–2 of this chapter.

(5) Income tax treaties. A broker may rely on a certification from the transferor that states that the transferor is not subject to tax on any gain from the transfer pursuant to an income tax treaty in effect between the United States and a foreign country if the requirements of this paragraph (b)(5) are met. The transferor makes the certification on a withholding certificate (on a Form W–8BEN, Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting)
In general. A broker that is required to withhold under this section must pay the withheld tax pursuant to the deposit rules in § 1.6302–2. For rules regarding reporting on Forms 1042, Annual Withholding Tax Return for U.S. Source Income of Foreign Persons, and 1042–S, Foreign Person’s U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding, that apply to a broker that withholds under this section, see § 1.1461–1(b) and (c). For rules regarding when an amount realized on the transfer of a PTP interest is reportable on a Form 1042–S (including in certain cases in which withholding is not required), see § 1.1461–1(c)(6)(i)(B). A broker that pays the amount realized to a foreign partnership must issue a Form 1042–S directly to the partnership rather than issuing a form to each of the partners of the partnership. See § 1.1461–1(c)(1)(ii)(A)(8) (treating the foreign partnership as a recipient for reporting purposes). A broker making a payment to a U.S. branch treated as a U.S. person must not treat the branch as a U.S. person for purposes of reporting the payment made to the branch. Therefore, a payment made by a U.S. S branch must be reported on Form 1042–S. See § 1.1461–1(c). A Form 1042–S issued (Individuals), or Form W–8BEN–E, Certificate of Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting (Entities) that meets the requirements for validity under § 1.1446–1(c)(2)(iv) (or an applicable substitute form that meets the requirements under § 1.1446–1(c)(5)) and that contains the information necessary to support the claim for treaty benefits. For purposes of this paragraph (b)(5), a broker may rely on a withholding certificate that it already possesses from the transferor that meets the requirements of this paragraph (b)(5) unless it has actual knowledge that the information is incorrect or unreliable. The exception in this paragraph (b)(5) does not apply if treaty benefits apply to only a portion of the gain from the transfer.

(c) Determining the amount to withhold—(1) In general. A broker that is required to withhold under this section must withhold 10 percent of the amount realized on the transfer of the PTP interest, except as provided in this paragraph (c). Any procedures in this paragraph (c) apply solely for purposes of determining the amount to withhold under section 1446(f)(1) and this section. A broker may not rely on a withholding certificate that it already possesses from the partnership unless it has actual knowledge that the information is incorrect or unreliable.

(2) Amount realized—(i) In general. Solely for purposes of this section, the amount realized is the amount of gross proceeds (as defined in § 1.6045–1(d)(5)) paid or credited upon the transfer to the customer or other broker (as applicable), or, in the case of a distribution, the amount determined under paragraph (c)(2)(iii) of this section.

(ii) Certification by a foreign partnership of modified amount realized—(A) In general. When a transferor is a foreign partnership, a broker may use the procedures of this paragraph (c)(2)(ii) to determine the amount realized. For purposes of this paragraph (c)(2)(ii)(A), the broker may treat the modified amount realized as the amount realized to the extent it may rely on a certification from the transferor providing the modified amount realized.

(B) Determining modified amount realized. The modified amount realized is determined by multiplying the amount realized (as determined under this paragraph (c)(2), without regard to this paragraph (c)(2)(ii)) by the aggregate percentage computed as of the determination date (see § 1.1446(f)–1(c)(4)). The aggregate percentage is the percentage of the gain (if any) arising from the transfer that would be allocated to presumed foreign taxable persons. For purposes of this paragraph (c)(2)(ii)(B), a presumed foreign taxable person is any direct or indirect partner of the transferor that has not provided either a certification of non-foreign status that meets the requirements of paragraph (b)(2) of this section or a certification of treaty benefits that states that the partner is not subject to tax on any gain from the transfer pursuant to an income tax treaty in effect between the United States and a foreign country. A valid certification of treaty benefits must meet the requirements of paragraph (b)(5) of this section (as applied to the partner claiming treaty benefits). For purposes of this paragraph (c)(2)(ii), an indirect partner is a person that owns an interest in the transferor indirectly through one or more foreign partnerships.

(C) Certification. The certification is made by providing a withholding certificate (on Form W–8B–MY, Certificate of Foreign Intermediary, Foreign Flow-Through Entity, or Certain U.S. Branches for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting) that includes a withholding statement that provides the percentage of gain allocable to each direct or indirect partner and that provides whether each such person is a United States person, a foreign partner eligible for treaty benefits, or a presumed foreign taxable person. The certification must also include the certification of non-foreign status or the certification of treaty benefits for any direct or indirect partner that is not a presumed foreign taxable person. For purposes of this paragraph (c)(2)(iii), a broker may rely on a withholding certificate and withholding statement that it already possesses from the partnership unless it has actual knowledge that the information is incorrect or unreliable.

(iii) Determination of amount realized on a distribution. The amount realized on a distribution from a publicly traded partnership is the amount of the distribution reduced by the portion of the distribution that is attributable to the cumulative net income of the partnership. The cumulative net income is the net income earned by the publicly traded partnership since its formation that has not been previously distributed by the partnership. A publicly traded partnership identifies such excess portion of the distribution as an amount in excess of cumulative net income on a qualified notice (within the meaning of § 1.1446–4(d)(1)) posted with respect to the distribution. If a broker properly withholds based on the qualified notice (applying the rules of § 1.1446–4(d)(1) to the distribution), the broker is not liable for any underwithholding on an amount attributable to an amount in excess of cumulative net income. Rather, the publicly traded partnership that issued the qualified notice is solely liable for the underwithheld tax under section 1461 on such amount that results from a broker’s reliance on the notice.

(d) Reporting and paying withheld amounts. A broker that is required to withhold under this section must pay the withheld tax pursuant to the deposit rules in § 1.6302–2. For rules regarding reporting on Forms 1042, Annual Withholding Tax Return for U.S. Source Income of Foreign Persons, and 1042–S, Foreign Person’s U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding, that apply to a broker that withholds under this section, see § 1.1461–1(b) and (c). For rules regarding when an amount realized on the transfer of a PTP interest is reportable on a Form 1042–S (including in certain cases in which withholding is not required), see § 1.1461–1(c)(6)(i)(B). A broker that pays the amount realized to a foreign partnership must issue a Form 1042–S directly to the partnership rather than issuing a form to each of the partners of the partnership. See § 1.1461–1(c)(1)(ii)(A)(8) (treating the foreign partnership as a recipient for reporting purposes). A broker making a payment to a U.S. branch treated as a U.S. person must not treat the branch as a U.S. person for purposes of reporting the payment made to the branch. Therefore, a payment made by a U.S. S branch must be reported on Form 1042–S. See § 1.1461–1(c). A Form 1042–S issued directly to the transferee must include the TIN of the transferee unless the broker does not know the TIN at the time of issuance.

(e) Effect of withholding on transferor—(1) In general. The withholding of tax under this section does not relieve a foreign person from filing a U.S. tax return with respect to the transfer. See §§ 1.6012–1(b)(1), 1.6012–2(g)(1), and 1.6031(a)–1. Further, the withholding of tax by a broker does not relieve a nonresident alien individual or foreign corporation subject to tax on gain by reason of section 864(c)(8) from paying any tax due with the return that has not been fully satisfied through withholding.

(2) Manner of obtaining credit—(i) Individuals and corporations. An individual or corporation may claim a credit for an amount withheld under section 864(c)(8) from paying any tax due within 90 days of the issuance of the certificate under paragraph (c)(1) of this section, see § 1.1462–1. A foreign trust or estate must also provide in IRS forms or instructions). A foreign trust or estate must also attach to its applicable return the Form 1042–S that includes its TIN (or as otherwise provided in IRS forms or instructions).

(ii) Partnerships, trusts, or estates. For a rule allowing a foreign partnership that is a transferor to claim a credit for the amount withheld under this section against its obligation to withhold under section 1446(a), see § 1.1446–3(c)(4). For the rule providing the extent to which a foreign trust or estate may claim a credit for an amount withheld under this section, see § 1.1462–1. A foreign partnership, trust, or estate claiming a credit for an amount withheld must attach to its applicable return the Form 1042–S provided to it under paragraph (d) of this section (or as otherwise provided in IRS forms or instructions). A foreign trust or estate must also provide any information required in forms or instructions to any beneficiary or owner that is liable for tax on any of the gain under section 864(c)(8).

(f) Applicability date. This section applies to transfers that occur on or after January 1, 2022.

§ 1.1446(f)–5 Liability for failure to withhold.

(a) Liability for failure to withhold. Every person required to withhold and pay tax under section 1446(f), but that fails to do so, is liable for the tax under section 1461, plus any applicable interest, penalties, or additions to tax. A partnership that failed to withhold and pay tax under § 1.1446(f)–3 is liable only for the amount of tax that it failed to collect (but not any interest computed on that amount under § 1.1446(f)–3(e)(2)) and any interest, penalties, or additions to tax with regard to the partnership's failure to withhold.

(1) * * * With respect to withholding under section 1446, this section shall be applicable to transfers that occur on or after January 1, 2022.

(b) Tax liability otherwise satisfied. Under section 1463, if the tax required to be withheld under section 1446(f) is paid by another person required to withhold under section 1446(f), or by the nonresident alien individual or foreign corporation subject to tax on gain resulting from section 864(c)(8), the tax will not be recollected. The person required to withhold must establish proof of payment by another person required to withhold or by the nonresident alien individual or foreign corporation subject to tax on gain resulting from section 864(c)(8). The person required to withhold may show that a reduced rate of withholding was appropriate by establishing the amount of tax due by the foreign transferor (as defined in § 1.864(c)(8)–1(g)(3)) on gain resulting from section 864(c)(8). The person required to withhold under section 1446(f) is not relieved from liability for any interest, penalties, or additions to tax that would otherwise apply. However, if the person required to withhold establishes to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that no gain on the transfer is treated as effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States under section 864(c)(8), no interest, penalties, or additions to tax will apply.

(c) Liability of agents—(1) Duty to provide notice of false certification. A transferee’s or transferor’s agent (other than a broker required to withhold under § 1.1446(f)–4) must provide notice to a transferee (or other person required to withhold) if that person is furnished with a certification described in §§ 1.1446(f)–1 through 1.1446(f)–4 that the agent knows is false. A person required to withhold may not rely on a certification if it receives the notice described in this paragraph (c)(1).

(2) Procedural requirements. Any agent who is required to provide notice under paragraph (c)(1) of this section must do so in writing (including by electronic submission) as soon as possible after learning of the false certification. If the agent first learns of the false certification before the date of transfer, notice must be given by the third day following that discovery but no later than the date of transfer (before the transferee’s payment of consideration). If an agent first learns of a false certification after the date of transfer, notice must be given by the third day following that discovery. The notice must also explain the possible consequences to the recipient of a failure to withhold. The notice need not disclose the information on which the agent’s statement is based. The agent must also furnish a copy of the notice to the IRS by the date on which the notice is required to be given to the recipient. The copy of the notice must be delivered to the address provided in § 1.1445–1(g)(10) and must be accompanied by a cover letter stating that the copy is being filed pursuant to the requirements of this paragraph (c)(2).

(3) Failure to provide notice. Any agent who is required to provide notice under paragraph (c)(1) of this section, but fails to do so in the manner required in paragraph (c)(2) of this section, is liable for the tax that the person who should have been provided notice in accordance with paragraph (c)(2) of this section was required to withhold under section 1446(f) if the notice had been given.

(4) Limitation on liability. An agent’s liability under paragraph (c)(3) of this section is limited to the amount of compensation that the agent derives from the transaction. In addition, an agent that assists in the preparation of, or fails to disclose knowledge of, a false certification may be liable for civil and criminal penalties.

(d) Applicability date. This section applies to transfers that occur on or after January 29, 2021. apply only to publicly traded partnerships and nominees that withhold under § 1.1446–4 and brokers and publicly traded partnerships that withhold (or are otherwise liable for underwithholding) under § 1.1446(f)–4 on transfers of publicly traded partnership interests. See § 1.1461–3 regarding withholding tax liabilities under sections 1446(a) and 1446(f) and penalties that apply for failure to withhold under either of those sections.

(ii) * * *

(A) * * * For a payment to a foreign partnership on the transfer of a publicly traded partnership interest subject to § 1.1446(f)–4(a), see paragraph (c)(1)(ii)(A)(8) of this section (treat the foreign partnership as a recipient). * * * * *

(i) Applicability date. This section applies to payments made on or after January 1, 2022. For payments made before January 1, 2022, see this section as in effect and contained in 26 CFR part 1, as revised April 1, 2020.

Par. 14. Section 1.1461–3 is amended by revising the first sentence and last sentence of the paragraph to read as follows:

§ 1.1461–3 Withholding under section 1466.

For rules relating to the withholding tax liability of a partnership, nominee, or transferee under section 1446, see §§ 1.1446–1 through 1.1446–7 and 1.1446(f)–1 through 1.1446(f)–5. * * * *

The references in this section to §§ 1.1446–1 through 1.1446–7 apply to partnership taxable years beginning after May 18, 2005, or such earlier time as the regulations under §§ 1.1446–1 through 1.1446–5 apply by reason of an election under § 1.1446–7, and the references in this section to §§ 1.1446(f)–1 through 1.1446(f)–5 shall apply with respect to returns for transfers that occur on or after January 29, 2021.

Par. 15. Section 1.1463–1 is amended by revising the fourth and fifth sentences of paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 1.1463–1 Tax paid by recipient of income.

(a) * * * See §§ 1.1446–3(e) and (f) and 1.1446(f)–5(a) for application of the rule of this paragraph (a), and for additional rules, in which the withholding tax was required to be paid under section 1446. The references in the previous sentence to § 1.1446–3(e) and (f) apply to partnership taxable years beginning after May 18, 2005, or such earlier time as the regulations under §§ 1.1446–1 through 1.1446–5 apply by reason of an election under § 1.1446–7, and the reference in the previous sentence to § 1.1446(f)–5(a) shall apply to the tax required to be withheld under section 1446(f) for transfers that occur on or after January 29, 2021.

Par. 16. Section 1.1464–1 is amended by revising the last sentence of paragraph (a) and paragraph (c) to read as follows:

§ 1.1464–1 Refunds or credits.
(a) * * * With respect to section 1446(a), this section applies only to a publicly traded partnership or nominee described in § 1.1446–4 and, with respect to section 1446(f), only to a publicly traded partnership or broker described in § 1.1446(f)–4.

(c) Applicability date. The last sentence of paragraph (a) of this section applies to nominees and publicly traded partnerships described in § 1.1446–4 for partnership taxable years beginning after April 29, 2008, and to brokers required to withhold and publicly traded partnerships liable for underwithholding under § 1.1446(f)–4 on transfers that occur on or after January 1, 2022.

Par. 17. Section 1.6050K–1 is amended by:

1. Redesignating paragraphs (c) introductory text and (c)(1) through (3) as the paragraphs (c)(1)(i) through (iii), respectively.
2. Adding a heading to newly redesignated paragraph (c)(1).
3. Adding paragraphs (c)(2) and (3), (d)(3), and (h).

The additions read as follows:

§ 1.6050K–1 Returns relating to sales or exchanges of certain partnership interests.
   (c) * * * (1) In general. * * *
   (2) Information to be provided to transferors. The statement a partnership must provide to a transferor partner pursuant to paragraph (c)(1) of this section must also include the information necessary for the transferor to make the transferor’s required statement under § 1.751–1(a)(3).
   (3) Transfers of partnership interests by foreign persons. For additional information required to be provided by the partnership if section 864(c)(8) applies to the transfer of a partnership interest by a foreign person, see § 1.864(c)(8)–2(b).
   (d) * * *
   (3) Transfers of partnership interests by foreign persons. For notifications required by foreign transferors of partnership interests, see § 1.864(c)(8)–2(a).
   (h) Applicability date. Paragraphs (c)(2) and (3) of this section apply to returns filed on or after November 30, 2020. Paragraph (d)(3) of this section applies to transfers that occur on or after November 30, 2020.

Par. 18. Section 1.6302–2 is amended by:
1. Revising the last sentence of paragraph (a)(1)(i).
2. Revising the heading and second sentence of paragraph (g).

The revisions read as follows:

§ 1.6302–2 Deposit rules for tax withheld on nonresident aliens and foreign corporations.
(a) * * *
(1) * * *
(i) * * * With respect to section 1446(a), this section applies only to a publicly traded partnership or nominee described in § 1.1446–4 and, with respect to section 1446(f), only to a publicly traded partnership or broker described in § 1.1446(f)–4.
   * * * * *
   (g) Applicability dates. * * * In the last sentence of paragraph (a)(1)(i) of this section, the reference to § 1.1446–4 shall apply to partnership taxable years beginning after April 29, 2008, and the reference to § 1.1446(f)–4 shall apply to tax required to be withheld on or after January 1, 2022.

Sunita Lough,
Deputy Commissioner for Services and Enforcement.
Approved: October 1, 2020.

David J. Kautter,
Assistant Secretary of the Treasury (Tax Policy).
