applications filed before September 16, 2012
• PTO/SB/110 (Declaration for Utility or Design Patent Application (37 CFR 1.63), Korean Language—applications filed before September 16, 2012)

Type of Request: Extension and revision of a currently approved information collection.

Number of Respondents: 663,209 respondents per year.

Average Hour per Response: The USPTO estimates that it takes the public between 45 minutes (.75 hours) and 40 hours to complete a single response, depending on the complexity of the submission. This includes the time to gather the necessary information, prepare the appropriate documents, and submit the response to the USPTO.

Estimated Total Annual Respondent Burden Hours: 15,598,813 hours.

Estimated Total Annual Non-Hour Cost Burden: $1,205,915,848.

Needs and Uses: The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) is required by Title 35 of the United States Code (U.S.C.) to examine applications for patents. The USPTO administers the patent statutes relating to examination through various regulations in such as 37 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 1.16 through 1.84. Each patent applicant must provide sufficient information to allow the USPTO to properly examine the application to determine whether it meets the criteria set forth in the patent statutes and regulations for issuance as a patent. The patent statutes and regulations require that an application for patent include the following information:

1. A specification containing a description of the invention and at least one claim defining the property right sought by the applicant;
2. A drawing(s) or photograph(s), where necessary, for an understanding of the invention;
3. An oath or declaration signed by the applicant; and
4. A filing fee.

Various types of patent applications are covered under this information collection:

• New original utility, plant, design, and provisional applications;
• Continuation/divisional applications of international applications;
• Continuation/divisional and continuation-in-part applications of utility, plant, and design applications. In some instances, the information collection covers certain other papers filed by applicants, such as, petitions to accept an unintentionally delayed priority or benefit claim, petitions to accept a filing by another than all of the inventors or a person not the inventor, and petitions requesting that applications filed under 37 CFR 1.495(b) be accorded a receipt date.

Affected Public: Private sector; individuals or households.
Frequency: On occasion.

Responsible Party: Required to obtain or retain benefits.
