

applicable Privacy Act Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) clauses in the solicitations and contracts.

Physical Safeguards: Controls to secure the data and protect paper and electronic records, buildings, and related infrastructure against threats associated with their physical environment include the use of the HHS Employee ID or badge number and NIH key cards, security guards, cipher locks, biometrics, and closed-circuit TV. Paper records are secured in locked file cabinets, offices and facilities. Electronic media are kept on secure servers or computer systems.

Technical Safeguards: Controls executed by the computer system are employed to minimize the possibility of unauthorized access, use, or dissemination of the data in the system. Examples include user identification, password protection, firewalls, virtual private network, encryption, intrusion detection system, common access cards, smart cards, biometrics and public key infrastructure.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

This system of records is exempt from access under the Privacy Act to the extent that providing access to a subject individual would reveal the identity of a source who furnished information to the Federal Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence. However, DLR will consider all access requests addressed to the System Manager. To request access to a record about you, write to the System Manager at the address identified above, and reasonably specify the record contents sought. The request should include (a) your full name, (b) your address, (c) the approximate date(s) the information was collected, (d) the type(s) of information collected, and (e) the office(s) or official(s) responsible for the collection of information. You may also request an accounting of disclosures, if any, that have been made of any records maintained about you.

You must verify your identity by providing either (a) a notarization of your signed request or (b) a written statement certifying under penalty of perjury that you are the individual who you claim to be, and that you understand that the knowing and willful request for a record pertaining to an individual under false pretenses is a criminal offense under the Privacy Act, subject to a fine of up to five thousand dollars.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

This system of records is exempt from the amendment provisions of the Privacy Act to the extent that responding to an amendment request would reveal the identity of a source who furnished information to the Federal Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence. However, DLR will consider all amendment requests addressed to the System Manager. To contest information in a record about you, write to the System Manager identified above, provide the same information required for an access request, and verify your identity in the manner required for an access request. Reasonably identify the record and specify the information contested, state the corrective action sought and the reason(s) for requesting the correction, and include any supporting documentation. The right to contest records is limited to information that is factually inaccurate, incomplete, irrelevant, or untimely (obsolete).

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES:

This system of records is not exempt from the notification provisions of the Privacy Act. To request notification of whether this system of records contains a record about you, you must make a written request to System Manager identified above, provide the same information required for an access request, verify your identity in the manner required for an access request, and include the name and number of this system of records.

EXEMPTIONS PROMULGATED FOR THE SYSTEM:

The records in this system of records constitute investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for federal contracts pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5). The system of records is exempt from the access, amendment, and accounting of disclosures requirements of the Privacy Act, at 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3) and (d)(1) through (4), to the extent that compliance with those requirements would reveal the identity of a source who furnished information to the Federal Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence.
