

app stores. Game developers relied on Tapjoy to generate revenue for themselves and offer gamers a way to earn currency to enhance their play. However, Tapjoy's failure to screen fraudulent offers left both gamers and developers holding the bag.

The settlement proposed today should help reverse the lax policing practices that led hundreds of thousands of gamers to file complaints. But when it comes to addressing the deeper structural problems in this marketplace that threaten both gamers and developers, the Commission will need to use all of its tools—competition, consumer protection, and data protection—to combat middlemen mischief, including by the largest gaming gatekeepers.
