12 CFR Part 627

RIN 3052–AD46

Title IV Conservators and Receivers

AGENCY: Farm Credit Administration.

ACTION: Direct final rule.

SUMMARY: The Farm Credit Administration (FCA, we, or our) issues this direct final rule to repeal certain regulations in part 627 that have been superseded by section 5412 of the Agricultural Improvement Act of 2018 (2018 Farm Bill), which strengthens, clarifies, and updates the authorities of the Farm Credit System Insurance Corporation (FSCIC or Insurance Corporation) to act as a conservator or receiver of a Farm Credit System (FCS or System) institution.

DATES: If no significant adverse comment is received on or before April 21, 2021, this regulation shall become effective no earlier than the expiration of 30 days after publication in the Federal Register during which either or both Houses of Congress are in session. Pursuant to 12 U.S.C. 2252(c)(1), FCA will publish notification of the effective date in the Federal Register.

ADDRESSES: For accuracy and efficiency reasons, please submit comments by email or through FCA's website. We do not accept comments submitted by facsimiles (fax), as faxes are difficult for us to process and achieve compliance with section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. I. Objective

The objective of this direct final rule is to repeal regulatory provisions in part 627 that have been superseded by section 5412 of the 2018 Farm Bill.

II. Background

On December 20, 2018, President Trump signed the 2018 Farm Bill into law.¹ Section 5142 of the 2018 Farm Bill added a new section 5.61C to the Farm Credit Act of 1971, as amended (Act).² This new statutory provision strengthens, clarifies, and updates the powers and duties of FCSIC after FCA has appointed it as the conservator or receiver of a FCS institution.³ Additionally, section 5.61C of the Act enhances FCSIC's authority to handle claims by various parties against a System institution in conservatorship or receivership. FCSIC's new statutory conservatorship and receivership authorities are comparable to those of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, National Credit Union Administration, and Federal Housing Finance Agency.⁴

FCA is revising its regulations in part 627 so they are consistent with section 5412 of the 2018 Farm Bill. FCA is issuing this direct final rule that repeals several regulations in part 627 that are now inconsistent with provisions in section 5.61C of the Act pertaining to FCSIC's authority to administer conservatorships and receiverships of FCS institutions. FCA may address the following issues in subsequent rulemakings: (1) Voluntary liquidation of System institutions under section 4.12(a) of the Act; (2) FCA appointment of conservators and receivers pursuant to section 4.12(b) of the Act; and (3) chartering and dissolving bridge banks in accordance with section 5.61C(h) of the Act.

III. Repeal of Regulations Superseded by Statutory Amendments

FCA is rescinding, in their entirety, nine (9) regulations in subpart B and one regulation in subpart C of part 627 pertaining to the receivership or conservatorship of System institutions. New section 5.61C of the Act has strengthened, clarified, and updated FCSIC's conservatorship and receivership authorities, thereby superseding and rendering these ten (10) regulations obsolete. More specifically, this direct rule rescinds:

- 12 CFR 627.2725 Powers and duties of the receiver—sets forth the powers and duties of the receiver of a System institution.
- 12 CFR 627.2726 Treatment by the conservator or receiver of financial assets transferred in connection with a securitization or participation—defines beneficial interests, financial assets, participation, securitization, and special purpose entity. It describes the treatment of financial assets transferred in connection with a securitization or participation in a conservator or receiver.
- 12 CFR 627.2730 Preservation of equity—provides that no capital stock, participation certificates, equity reserves, or other allocated equities of an institution in receivership will be issued, allocated, retired, sold, distributed, transferred, assigned, or applied against any indebtedness of the owners of such equities. This regulation confirms that borrower stock must be retired in accordance with section 4.9A of the Act.
- 12 CFR 627.2740 Creditors' claims—describes the requirements to provide notice to creditors, the allowance and disallowance of claims, and the procedures for handling certain claims.
- 12 CFR 627.2745 Priority of claims—associations—describes the priority of claims for the distribution of the assets of an association in liquidation.
- 12 CFR 627.2750 Priority of claims—banks—describes the priority of claims for the distribution of the assets of a bank in liquidation.
- 12 CFR 627.2752 Priority of claims—other Farm Credit institutions—describes the priority of claims for the distribution of the assets of a System institution other than an association or bank.

- 12 CFR 627.2755 Payment of claims—describes the payment of claims and if there are insufficient funds to pay any class of claims in full, distribution for that class of claims will be handled on a pro rata basis.

- 12 CFR 627.2760 Inventory, audit, and reports—describes inventory, audit, and reporting requirements for the receiver upon possession, annually, and upon final liquidation.

- 12 CFR 627.2780 Powers and duties of conservators—describes the powers and duties of the conservator to conduct its operations for the benefit of the creditors and stockholders of the institution.

As noted earlier, section 5412 of the 2018 Farm Bill, which added section 5.61C to the Act, enhanced, clarified, and updated FCSIC's powers to conduct conservatorships and receiverships of System institutions. More specifically, various provisions in section 5.61C(b)(2) of the Act include authorization for FCSIC to: (1) Operate any System institution in conservatorship or receivership, (2) function as the institution's board of directors, officers, members, and stockholders, (3) use proceeds collected from the performance of contracts and sale of assets to pay valid claims, and (4) receive, determine, and settle claims, and set the priority of claims in accordance with the statute. Furthermore, sections 5.61C(b)(1), (b)(4), and (b)(10)(C) of the Act expressly authorize FCSIC to prescribe regulations regarding the conduct of conservatorships and receiverships, and the allowance, disallowance, and resolution of claims in receivership.

Section 5.61C(b)(15)(B) of the Act states that FCSIC shall make an annual accounting or report about each conservatorship or receivership available to the FCA Board. Providing an annual accounting or report to FCA is currently required by § 627.2760, which is among the regulations that we are rescinding. Pursuant to the Act, FCA is able to obtain necessary annual accounting or reports from FCSIC.

This direct final rule is not rescinding subpart A, §§ 627.2720, 627.2735, or 627.2765 in subpart B, or §§ 627.2770, 627.2775, 627.2785, or 627.2790 in subpart C of part 627 because these regulations implement section 4.12(b) of the Act which authorizes FCA to appoint FCSIC as the receiver or conservator of System institutions. Similarly, we are not repealing subpart D of part 627 which governs our authority to supervise and regulate the voluntary liquidation of a System institution without a receiver. FCA may revise or update these regulations in a subsequent rulemaking. We may also engage in a rulemaking that implements section 5.61C(h) of the Act, which governs the chartering, termination, and dissolution of System bridge banks that enable FCSIC to handle the resolution of one or more distressed FCS institutions.

² Section 5.61C of the Act is codified at 12 U.S.C. 2277a–10c. The Act is available at www.fca.gov under “Laws and regulations,” and “Statutes.”

³ Section 4.12(b) of the Act requires FCA to appoint FCSIC as the conservator or receiver of an FCS bank, association, service corporation, or the Federal Farm Credit Banks Funding Corporation. Section 8.41(c)(1)(A) allows, but does not require, FCA to appoint FCSIC as the conservator or receiver of the Federal Agricultural Mortgage Corporation (Farmer Mac).

IV. Direct Final Rule

For the reasons discussed above, we are rescinding the above-referenced sections of part 627 subparts B (Receivers and Receiverships) and C (Conservators and Conservatorships) by direct final rulemaking. The Administrative Conference of the United States recommends direct final rulemakings for Federal agencies to enact noncontroversial regulations on an expedited basis, without the usual notice and comment period.⁵ This process enables us to reduce the time and resources we need to develop, review, and publish a final rule while still affording the public an adequate opportunity to comment or object to the rule.

In a direct final rulemaking, we notify the public that the rule will become effective on a specified date unless we receive a significant adverse comment during the comment period. A significant adverse comment is one where the commenter explains why the rule would be inappropriate (including challenges to its underlying premise or approach), ineffective, or unacceptable without a change. In general, a significant adverse comment would raise an issue serious enough to warrant a substantive response from the FCA in a notice-and-comment proceeding.

We believe that a direct final rulemaking is the appropriate method for rescinding above-referenced sections in subparts B and C of part 627 that are superseded by the 2018 Farm Bill. We do not anticipate there will be significant adverse comments because this direct final rule implements recent statutory amendments governing FCSIC's numerous powers and duties as the conservator or receiver of System institutions. If, however, we receive a significant adverse comment during the comment period, we will publish in the Federal Register a notice of withdrawal of the relevant provisions of this rule that will also indicate how the agency plans to proceed. If we receive no significant adverse comments, we will publish notice of the effective date of the rule following the required congressional waiting period under section 5.17(c)(1) of the Act.

V. Regulatory Flexibility Act Analysis and Major Rule Conclusion

Pursuant to section 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), FCA hereby certifies that the direct final rule would not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Each of the banks in the Farm Credit System, considered together with its affiliated associations, has assets and annual income in excess of the amounts that would qualify them as small entities. Therefore, Farm Credit System institutions are not "small entities" as defined in the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Under the provisions of the Congressional Review Act (5 U.S.C. 801 et seq.), the Office of Management and Budget's Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs has determined that this direct final rule is not a "major rule," as the term is defined at 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

Business Loan Program Temporary Changes; Paycheck Protection Program as Amended by American Rescue Plan Act

AGENCY: U.S. Small Business Administration.

ACTION: Interim final rule.

SUMMARY: This interim final rule implements changes related to loans made under the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP), which was originally established under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act) to provide economic relief to small businesses nationwide adversely impacted by the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19). On December 27, 2020, the Economic Aid to Hard-Hit Small Businesses, Nonprofits, and Venues Act (Economic Aid Act) was enacted, extending the authority to make PPP loans through March 31, 2021, revising certain PPP requirements, and permitting second draw PPP loans. On January 14, 2021, SBA published an interim final rule that incorporated the Economic Aid Act amendments to the PPP and consolidated the interim final rules (and important guidance) that had been issued governing borrower eligibility, lender eligibility, and PPP application and origination requirements for PPP loans. On March 11, 2021, the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (American Rescue Plan Act) was enacted expanding eligibility for first and second draw PPP loans, revising the exclusions from payroll costs for purposes of loan forgiveness, and providing that a PPP borrower that receives a PPP loan after December 27, 2020 can be approved for a Shuttered Venue Operator Grant under certain conditions. This interim final rule revises the PPP rules to incorporate the American Rescue Plan Act's amendments to the PPP. Additionally, this interim final rule clarifies the eligibility for first draw PPP loans for applicants that are assigned a North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code beginning with 72 and have more than one physical location and clarifies certain payroll cost exclusions included in the Economic Aid Act.

DATES:

Effective date: The provisions of this interim final rule are effective March 18, 2021.
