

free DDIY tax prep solution, there should be consideration to sell Credit Karma Tax to the IRS so that the IRS may directly provide this service to the American people for free. The $50 million sale would account for <0.5% of the IRS's operating budget. While this may be an extreme suggestion to some, I believe it is time that the American taxpayers get what they were promised when the industry successfully lobbied and created the Free File Alliance. The FFA program has been a failure since its creation and this is a once in a lifetime opportunity to fix it and truly put the taxpayer first, all for less than one half of a percent of the IRS budget.

Sincerely,
Travis Curtis.
