BILLING CODE 4164-01-P

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Food and Drug Administration

[Docket No. FDA-2021-P-0306]

Determination That OVIDE (Malathion) Lotion, 0.5%, Was Not Withdrawn From Sale for Reasons of Safety or Effectiveness

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA or Agency) has determined that OVIDE (malathion) lotion, 0.5%, was not withdrawn from sale for reasons of safety or effectiveness. This determination means that FDA will not begin procedures to withdraw approval of abbreviated new drug applications (ANDAs) that refer to this drug product, and it will allow FDA to continue to approve ANDAs that refer to the product as long as they meet relevant legal and regulatory requirements.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Kaetochi Okemgbo, Center for Drug Evaluation and Research, Food and Drug Administration, 10903 New Hampshire Ave., Bldg. 51, Rm. 6272, Silver Spring, MD 20993-0002, 240-825-9944, Kaetochi.Okemgbo@fda.hhs.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In 1984, Congress enacted the Drug Price Competition and Patent Term

Restoration Act of 1984 (Pub. L. 98-417) (the 1984 amendments), which authorized the approval of duplicate versions of drug products under an ANDA procedure. ANDA applicants must, with certain exceptions, show that the drug for which they are seeking approval contains the same active ingredient in the same strength and dosage form as the “listed drug,” which is a version of the drug that was previously approved. ANDA applicants do not have to repeat the extensive clinical testing otherwise necessary to gain approval of a new drug application (NDA).

The 1984 amendments include what is now section 505(j)(7) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 355(j)(7)), which requires FDA to publish a list of all approved drugs. FDA publishes this list as part of the “Approved Drug Products With Therapeutic Equivalence Evaluations,” which is known generally as the “Orange Book.” Under FDA regulations, drugs are removed from the list if the Agency withdraws or suspends approval of the drug’s NDA or ANDA for reasons of safety or effectiveness or if FDA determines that the listed drug was withdrawn from sale for reasons of safety or effectiveness (21 CFR 314.162).

A person may petition the Agency to determine, or the Agency may determine on its own initiative, whether a listed drug was withdrawn from sale for reasons of safety or effectiveness. This determination may be made at any time after the drug has been withdrawn from sale, but must be made prior to approving an ANDA that refers to the listed drug (§ 314.161 (21 CFR 314.161)). FDA may not approve an ANDA that does not refer to a listed drug.

OVIDE (malathion) lotion, 0.5%, is the subject of NDA 018613, held by Taro Pharmaceutical Industries, Ltd., and initially approved on August 2, 1982. OVIDE is indicated for patients infected with Pediculus humanus capitis (head lice and their ova) of the scalp hair.

In a letter dated August 19, 2019, Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. notified FDA that OVIDE (malathion) lotion, 0.5%, was being discontinued, and FDA moved the drug product to the “Discontinued Drug Product List” section of the Orange Book.

Encube Ethicals Private Ltd. submitted a citizen petition dated March 19, 2021 (Docket No. FDA-2021-P-0306), under 21 CFR 10.30, requesting that the Agency determine whether OVIDE (malathion) lotion, 0.5%, was withdrawn from sale for reasons of safety or effectiveness.

After considering the citizen petition and reviewing Agency records and based on the information we have at this time, FDA has determined under § 314.161 that OVIDE (malathion) lotion, 0.5% was not withdrawn for reasons of safety or effectiveness. The petitioner has identified no data or other information suggesting that OVIDE (malathion) lotion, 0.5%, was withdrawn for reasons of safety or effectiveness. We have carefully reviewed our files for records concerning the withdrawal of OVIDE (malathion) lotion, 0.5%, from sale. We have also independently evaluated relevant literature and data for possible postmarketing adverse events. We have found no information that would indicate that this drug product was withdrawn from sale for reasons of safety or effectiveness.

Accordingly, the Agency will continue to list OVIDE (malathion) lotion, 0.5%, in the “Discontinued Drug Product List” section of the Orange Book. The “Discontinued Drug Product List” delineates, among other items, drug products that have been discontinued from marketing for reasons other than safety or effectiveness. FDA will not begin procedures to withdraw approval of approved ANDAs that refer to this drug product. Additional ANDAs for this drug product may also be approved by the Agency as long as they meet all other legal and regulatory requirements for the approval of ANDAs. If FDA determines that labeling for this drug product should be revised to meet current standards, the Agency will advise ANDA applicants to submit such labeling.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501-3521), Federal Agencies must obtain approval from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for each collection of information they conduct or sponsor. "Collection of information" is defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502(3) and 5 CFR 1320.3(c) and includes Agency requests or requirements that members of the public submit reports, keep records, or provide information to a third party. Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)) requires Federal Agencies to provide a 60-day notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information, including each proposed revision of an existing collection of information, before submitting the collection to OMB for approval. To comply with this requirement, FDA is publishing notice of the proposed collection of information set forth in this document.

With respect to the following collection of information, FDA invites comments on these topics: (1) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of FDA's functions, including whether the information will have practical utility; (2) the accuracy of FDA's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (4) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques, when appropriate, and other forms of information technology.

Food Safety; Federal-State Food Regulatory Program Standards

OMB Control Number 0910-0760—Revision

This information collection supports implementation of FDA's Federal-State Regulatory Program Standards, part of our National Integrated Food Safety System (IFSS) Programs and Initiatives. For more information we invite you to visit our website at: <https://www.fda.gov/federal-state-local-tribal-and-territorial-officials/national-integrated-food-safety-system-ifss-programs-and-initiatives>. In the United States, Federal and State governments work cooperatively to ensure the safety of food intended for both human and animal consumption. Part of this effort includes developing and maintaining uniform review criteria by which to assess food safety. FDA has established and maintains a number of program standards aimed at improving the safety evaluation for certain food products including manufactured foods and animal feed. Similarly, we are establishing regulatory program standards for eggs and have developed the “Eggs Regulatory Program Standards” (ERPS). The ERPS is intended for use by State and local regulatory officials and identifies ten elements we believe are essential to the effective regulatory assessment of egg safety. States are encouraged to build systems that are sustainable and implement plans corresponding to the IFSS.

In the course of their normal duties, State, local, Territorial, and Tribal governments collect information pertaining to compliance with the respective State, local, Territorial, and tribal food safety requirements within their jurisdictions. Although content and format of the information collected may vary, these activities are a usual and customary part of routine regulatory oversight. Respondents to the information collection are State, local, Territorial, Tribal, and Federal regulatory agencies participating in FDA’s Voluntary National Retail Food Regulatory Program Standards (information collection currently approved under OMB control number 0910–0621). Consistent with the ERPS, respondents will submit the following information to FDA: (1) Program self-assessment; (2) risk factor study of the regulated industry; and (3) independent outside audit (verification audit).

The ERPS offers forms, worksheets, and templates to help respondents assess and meet the program elements identified and discussed. Respondents are not required to use the sample collection instruments included in the ERPS, however all data elements should be submitted to FDA and supporting documentation retained. The ERPS is not intended to address any performance appraisal processes that any State, local, Territorial, or tribal agency may use to evaluate its employees’ performance. Funding opportunities are available to respondents who choose to implement the ERPS, however these opportunities are limited and contingent upon the availability of funds, and to those respondents who currently have an egg inspection contract with FDA and thus subject to auditing. A copy of the ERPS has been posted to FDA–2021–N–0341 and is available at <https://www.regulations.gov>.

We estimate the burden of the information collection as follows:

TABLE 1—ESTIMATED ANNUAL REPORTING BURDEN ¹

Respondents; information collection activity	Number of respondents	Number of responses per respondent	Total annual responses	Average burden per response	Total hours
State, Local, Territorial, and/or Tribal Governments; submission of data elements to FDA consistent with ERPS	10	10	100	500	500,000

¹ There are no capital costs or operating and maintenance costs associated with this collection of information.

Based on our experience with similar information collection, we estimate an initial 10 respondents will participate in the ERPS, and assume an average of 500 hours is necessary for the attendant recordkeeping and submission of data elements to FDA. We expect participation in the ERPS to increase.

Dated: May 7, 2021.

Acting Principal Associate Commissioner for Policy.
