

E. Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

The Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (2 U.S.C. 1531–1538) requires Federal agencies to assess the effects of their discretionary regulatory actions. In particular, the Act addresses actions that may result in the expenditure by a State, local, or tribal government, in the aggregate, or by the private sector of $100,000,000 (adjusted for inflation) or more in any one year. Though this rule will not result in such an expenditure, we do discuss the effects of this rule elsewhere in this preamble.

F. Environment

We have analyzed this rule under Department of Homeland Security Directive 023–01, Rev. 1, associated implementing instructions, and Environmental Planning COMDTINST 5090.1 (series), which guide the Coast Guard in complying with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4321–4370f), and have determined that this action is one of a category of actions that do not individually or cumulatively have a significant effect on the human environment. This rule involves a safety zone lasting only 1 hour that will prohibit entry within a 500-foot radius of a fireworks display in Lake Charlevoix. It is categorically excluded from further review under paragraph L[60(a)] of Appendix A, Table 1 of DHS Instruction Manual 023–01–001–01, Rev. 1. A Record of Environmental Consideration supporting this determination is available in the docket. For instructions on locating the docket, see the ADDRESSES section of this preamble.

G. Protest Activities

The Coast Guard respects the First Amendment rights of protesters. Protesters are asked to call or email the person listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section to coordinate protest activities so that your message can be received without jeopardizing the safety or security of people, places or vessels.

DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS

38 CFR Part 5

RIN 2900–AR21

Changes to Administrative Procedures Governing Guidance Documents

AGENCY: Department of Veterans Affairs.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) is amending its regulations that govern the processes and procedures for issuing and managing guidance documents. These changes are necessary because an Executive order (E.O.) entitled “Promoting the Rule of Law Through Improved Agency Guidance Documents,” under which the regulations were originally issued, has been rescinded by an E.O. entitled “Revocation of Certain Executive Orders Concerning Federal Regulation.” This final rulemaking will implement changes to ensure that the processes and procedures comply with the mandates of the E.Os. entitled “Revocation of Certain Executive Orders Concerning Federal Regulation” and “Regulatory Planning and Review,” while also maintaining certain beneficial practices.

DATES: This rule is effective July 7, 2021.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jeffrey Martin, Office of Regulation Policy and Management (00REG), 810 Vermont Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20420, (202) 230–6402. (This is not a toll-free telephone number).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On November 13, 2020 (85 FR 72569), VA promulgated regulations in 38 CFR part 5 that established processes and procedures for issuing and managing guidance documents in accordance with E.O. 13891, Promoting the Rule of Law Through Improved Agency Guidance Documents. However, E.O. 13891 was rescinded by E.O. 13992, Revocation of Certain Executive Orders Concerning Federal Regulation, which directed agencies to “promptly take steps to rescind any orders, rules, regulations, guidelines, or policies, or portions thereof, implementing or enforcing” the rescinded E.O. With E.O. 13891 rescinded, there is no requirement that VA have regulations that govern guidance documents. However, some of the requirements and processes contained in the regulations serve useful functions and are worth maintaining. Additionally, VA’s practices for guidance documents are still expected to comply with E.O. 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review. Therefore, to ensure VA’s practices regarding guidance documents comply with both E.O. 12866 and E.O. 13992, and continue certain beneficial practices, we make the following changes to the regulations in part 5.

Authority

We are removing the citation to E.O. 13891 in the authority for part 5 and replacing it with a citation to E.O. 12866.

Section 5.0 Purpose.

Section 5.0 is being amended by removing the language that discusses E.O. 13891.

Section 5.10 Definitions relating to guidance documents.

Section 5.10 is the definitions section. The section generally tracks the requirements that were outlined in E.O. 13891, as applied to VA. However, we are not making any changes to this section. We note that the definition of “guidance document” in § 5.10 largely correlates with the definition of “rule” from E.O. 12866, and the criteria for what makes a guidance document “significant” are substantively the same as the criteria for rules under E.O. 12866.

Section 5.15 Procedures for issuing guidance documents.

Section 5.15 contains procedures for issuing guidance documents. Paragraph (a) applies to all guidance documents, while paragraph (b) is specific to significant guidance documents.

We are changing paragraph (a)(1) to state that each guidance document should include a disclaimer that the document does not have the force and effect of law and is not meant to bind the public in any way, rather than requiring such disclaimers to be included. This disclaimer is not required by E.O. 12866, and removing its requirement will minimize litigation risks associated with technical noncompliance. However, we are not entirely eliminating the use of the disclaimer because we believe it serves a beneficial purpose of clarifying the scope and limitations of guidance documents.

As with paragraph (a)(1), we are changing paragraph (a)(2) to state that each guidance document should include the listed information, rather than requiring the information to be included. We believe this change will provide a measure of standardization to guidance documents without requiring significant additional work and will also minimize litigation risks associated with technical noncompliance.

For paragraph (b), as with paragraphs (a)(1) and (2), we are changing the language to state that significant guidance documents should contain the disclaimer and listed information from paragraph (a), rather than requiring that they do so.

We are removing paragraph (b)(1) and renumbering the remaining paragraphs accordingly. This change will remove the requirement to conduct notice-and-comment procedures when issuing significant guidance documents. We acknowledge that providing the public an opportunity to participate in the process of issuing guidance documents would track the requirements from section 6(a)(1) of E.O. 12866 that agencies provide the public meaningful participation and an opportunity to comment on proposed regulations. However, guidance documents are not regulations, and requiring notice-and-comment procedures is an onerous process that is not required by any law or other authority. Further, there are already less burdensome methods of allowing public participation. For example, § 5.20 creates a process for the public to petition for withdrawal or modification of guidance documents.

In redesignated paragraph (b)(1), we are removing the reference to E.O. 13891. And in redesignated paragraph (b)(3), we are removing the reference to E.Os. 13771 and 13777 as they have also been rescinded by E.O. 13992. We are also removing the phrase “for regulations and rules,” because as noted above, guidance documents are not regulations and thus are not subject to the same processes and requirements as regulations.

Section 5.20 Procedures for petition for the withdrawal or modification of a guidance document.

Section 5.20 contains a process for the public to petition for the withdrawal or modification of guidance documents, including the minimum amount of information that must be included in a petition. Although not mandated by any law or other authority, we are generally keeping this process in place as it is consistent with E.O. 12866’s focus on allowing public participation. However, to permit the Department increased flexibility in responding to petitions, we are changing the 90-day time limit to respond in paragraph (c) from a requirement to a goal that the agency will seek to meet.

Section 5.25 Guidance website.

Section 5.25 will continue to provide notice of the Department’s guidance document website. However, we are removing the second sentence from this section. This will remove the reference to E.O. 13891. Additionally, this will remove the limitation on how the agency may use guidance documents not available on the website to increase the agency’s flexibility in utilizing guidance documents.

Administrative Procedure Act

The Secretary of Veterans Affairs is publishing this rule without prior opportunity for public comment pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A) as this rule is a rule of agency organization, procedure, or practice, and thus is published as a final rule.

Paperwork Reduction Act

This rule contains no provisions constituting a collection of information under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501–3521).

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Secretary hereby certifies that this final rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities as they are defined in the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601–612. The regulations established by this rulemaking do not impose burdens or otherwise regulate the activities of any entities outside of VA. Therefore, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 605(b), the initial and final regulatory flexibility analysis requirements of 5 U.S.C. 603 and 604 do not apply.

Executive Orders 12866 and 13563

Executive Orders 12866 and 13563 direct agencies to assess the costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, when regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, and other advantages; distributive impacts; and equity). E.O. 13563 (Improving Regulation and Regulatory Review) emphasizes the importance of quantifying both costs and benefits, reducing costs, harmonizing rules, and promoting flexibility. The Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs (OIRA) has determined that this rule is not a significant regulatory action under E.O. 12866. The Regulatory Impact Analysis associated with this rulemaking can be found as a supporting document at www.regulations.gov.

Unfunded Mandates

The Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 requires, at 2 U.S.C. 1532, that agencies prepare an assessment of anticipated costs and benefits before issuing any rule that may result in the expenditure by State, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million or more (adjusted annually for inflation) in any one year. This final rule would have no such effect on State, local, and tribal governments, or on the private sector.

Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance

There are no Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance numbers and titles for this rule.

Congressional Review Act

Pursuant to the Congressional Review Act (5 U.S.C. 801 et seq.), OIRA designated this rule as not a major rule as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

Significant New Use Rules on Certain Chemical Substances (20-6.B)

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: EPA is issuing significant new use rules (SNURs) under the Toxic Substances Control Act (TSCA) for chemical substances which were the subject of premanufacture notices (PMNs). This action requires persons to notify EPA at least 90 days before commencing manufacture (defined by statute to include import) or processing of any of these chemical substances for an activity that is designated as a significant new use by this rule. This action further requires that persons not commence manufacture or processing for the significant new use until they have submitted a Significant New Use Notice (SNUN). EPA has conducted a review of the notice, made an appropriate determination on the notice, and has taken any risk management actions as are required as a result of that determination.

DATES: This rule is effective on August 6, 2021. For purposes of judicial review, this rule shall be promulgated at 1 p.m. (e.s.t.) on June 21, 2021.
