To the extent that the Board collects such information during an examination of the banking organization, confidential treatment may be afforded to that information under exemption 8 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(1)), which protects information collected as part of the Board’s supervisory process. Additionally, individual respondents may request confidential treatment of information pursuant to exemption 4 of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4)), which protects “trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person [that is] privileged or confidential.” The Board will treat such information as confidential to the extent permitted by law, including the FOIA.
