AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (Commerce) is rescinding the administrative review of the antidumping duty order on certain coated paper suitable for high-quality print graphics using sheet-fed presses from the People’s Republic of China (China) for the period November 1, 2019, through October 31, 2020, based on the withdrawal of the request for review.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On November 3, 2020, the Commerce Department in the Federal Register published a notice of opportunity to request an administrative review of the antidumping duty (AD) order on coated paper from China.1 Commerce received a timely-filed request from Verso Corporation (Verso), a domestic interested party and the petitioner in the underlying investigation, for an administrative review of exports of subject merchandise to the United States during the period of review (POR) with respect to 15 companies, in accordance with section 751(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, (the Act) and 19 CFR 351.213(b).2 On January 6, 2021, pursuant to this request, and in accordance with 19 CFR 351.221(c)(1)(i), Commerce published a notice in the Federal Register initiating an administrative review of the AD order on coated paper from China.3 On March 26, 2021, Verso withdrew its request for an administrative review with respect to all companies for which it requested a review.4

Rescission of Review

Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.213(d)(1), Commerce will rescind an administrative review, in whole or in part, if the party or parties that requested the review withdraws its request within 90 days of the publication date of the notice of initiation of the requested review. Verso timely submitted a request to withdraw its request for an administrative review for all companies for which an administrative review was initiated and later clarified that its initial submission applied to all companies, although it omitted one by name. No other party requested an administrative review of
