DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
Office of the Secretary
[Docket ID DoD–2021–OS–0089]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (USD(P&R)), Department of Defense (DoD).

ACTION: Notice of a new system of records.

SUMMARY: The USD(P&R) is establishing a new system of records titled "Problematic Sexual Behavior in Children and Youth (PSB–CY) Information System," DPR 50. This system of records supports operation of the PSB–CY Information System, which was created to satisfy a congressional mandate that the DoD establish a centralized database of information on incidents of problematic sexual behavior in children and youth occurring on U.S. military installations. The PSB–CY Information System is used to document, coordinate, and manage the continuum of care provided to children, youth, and their families in order to identify, report, respond, and intervene in incidents of PSB–CY. The system will also support the implementation of well-coordinated safety planning, support services, and referrals to specialized services when appropriate that will meet the complex needs of children, youth, and their families involved in incidents of PSB–CY.

DATES: This system of records is effective upon publication; however, comments on the Routine Uses will be accepted on or before September 22, 2021. The Routine Uses are effective at the close of the comment period.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments, identified by docket number and title, by any of the following methods: * Federal Rulemaking Portal: https://www.regulations.gov. Follow the instructions for submitting comments.
and support services to address smooth and uninterrupted referrals to specialized services in order to create and maintain safety for and meet the complex needs of children, youth, and their families involved in incidents of PSB-CY.

C. Support statistical analysis, tracking and reporting to ensure continuous process improvement.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

A. Exhibiting child under the age of 18 years at the time of an incident of problematic sexual behavior occurring on a military installation.

B. Impacted child(ren) under the age of 18 years at the time of an incident of problematic sexual behavior occurring on a military installation.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Concerning the child (to include the exhibiting child and impacted children):

Name; age; date of birth; Social Security Numbers (SSNs); emergency contact data; gender/gender identification; medical information such as case notes, clinical assessment details, description of incident, risk and safety plan, substance use details at time of incident, clinical treatment plan. The records will also contain information about the parent/legal guardian of the children, such as name; date of birth; Department of Defense (DoD) Identification Number; rank/grade; marital status; work and home contact information (such as phone number and/or cellular phone; mailing and email addresses to include official duty address); military records; race/ethnicity; and education information.

Note: Separate electronic records are maintained on the exhibiting child and impacted child(ren).

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Child development centers, military treatment facilities, DoD schools, and individuals such as parent/legal guardians, and exhibiting or impacted children only if their parent/legal guardian give(s) consent.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, the records contained herein may specifically be disclosed outside the DoD as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3) as follows:

A. To contractors, grantees, experts, consultants, students, and others performing or working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other assignment for the federal government when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to this system of records.

B. To the appropriate federal, state, local, territorial, tribal, or foreign, or international law enforcement authority or other appropriate entity where a record, either alone or in conjunction with other information, indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether criminal, civil, or regulatory in nature.

C. To any component of the Department of Justice for the purpose of representing the DoD, or its components, officers, employees, or members in pending or potential litigation to which the record is pertinent.

D. In an appropriate proceeding before a court, grand jury, or administrative or adjudicative body or official, when the DoD or other Agency representing the DoD determines that the records are relevant and necessary to the proceeding; or in an appropriate proceeding before an administrative or adjudicative body when the adjudicator determines the records to be relevant to the proceeding.

E. To the National Archives and Records Administration for the purpose of records management inspections conducted under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

F. To a Member of Congress or staff acting upon the Member’s behalf when the Member or staff requests the information on behalf of, and at the request of, the individual who is the subject of the record.

G. To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) the DoD suspects of confirms a breach of the system of records; (2) the DoD determined as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, the DoD (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the DoD’s efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

H. To another Federal agency or Federal entity, when the DoD determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (1) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (2) preventing, remediating, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.

I. To such recipients and under such circumstances and procedures as are mandated by Federal statute or treaty.
