FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Agency Information Collection Activities: Announcement of Board Approval Under Delegated Authority and Submission to OMB

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

SUMMARY: The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (Board) is adopting a proposal to extend for three years, with revision, the recordkeeping and disclosure requirements associated with the Truth in Lending Act (TILA), implemented by Regulation Z (FR Z; OMB No. 7100-0199). The revisions are applicable immediately.

Final Approval Under OMB Delegated Authority of the Extension for Three Years, With Revision, of the Following Information Collection

Report title: Recordkeeping and Disclosure Requirements Associated with Truth in Lending (Regulation Z).¹

Agency form number: FR Z.

OMB control number: 7100-0199.

Effective Date: The revisions are effective immediately.

Frequency: Annually, on occasion.

Respondents: The FR Z panel comprises state member banks with assets of $10 billion or less that are not affiliated with an insured depository institution with assets over $10 billion (irrespective of the consolidated assets of any holding company); non-depository affiliates of such state member banks; and non-depository affiliates of bank holding companies that are not affiliated with an insured depository institution with assets over

$10 billion.² However, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (Bureau) and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) also have administrative enforcement authority over nondepository institutions for Regulation Z.³ Accordingly, the Bureau allocates to itself half of the estimated burden to non-depository institutions, with the other half allocated to the FTC.⁴

The Board's ability to reduce regulatory burden for small entities under Regulation Z is limited because the Dodd-Frank Act transferred rule writing authority for Board-supervised institutions under Regulation Z to the Bureau. Nonetheless, the Board has taken steps to minimize burden on small entities through tailored supervision, including through a risk-focused consumer compliance supervision program and an examination frequency policy that provides for lengthened time between examinations for institutions with a lower risk profile.

The Board allocates to itself all estimated burden to state member banks with assets of $10 billion or less that are not affiliated with an insured depository institution with assets over $10 billion.

General description of report: The Truth in Lending Act (TILA) and Regulation Z promote the informed use of credit to consumers for personal, family, or household purposes by requiring disclosures about its terms and costs, as well as ensure that consumers are provided with timely information on the nature and costs of the residential real estate settlement process.

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The disclosure, recordkeeping, and other requirements of Regulation Z are authorized by TILA, which directs the Bureau and, for certain lenders, the Board to issue regulations implementing the statute. The obligation to respond is mandatory.

The disclosures, records, policies and procedures required by Regulation Z are not required to be submitted to the Board. To the extent such information is obtained by the Board through the examination process, they may be kept confidential under exemption 8 of the Freedom of Information Act, which protects information contained in or related to an examination of a financial institution.⁵

Current actions: On April 16, 2021, the Board published an initial notice in the Federal Register (86 FR 20156) requesting public comment for 60 days on the extension, with revision, of the FR Z. The Board proposed to revise FR Z to: (1) Add burden related to disclosure requirements in rules issued by the Bureau since the Board’s last Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) submission, as well as for one information collection for which the Bureau estimates burden but the Board previously did not; (2) break out and clarify burden estimates that were previously consolidated; and (3) eliminate burden associated with certain requirements because the Bureau accounts for burden for the entire industry, or because the burden is now deemed de minimis or a part of an institution’s usual and customary business practices. The comment period for this notice expired on June 15, 2021. The Board did not receive any comments. The revisions will be implemented as proposed.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, August 26, 2021.

Michele Taylor Fennell,

Deputy Associate Secretary of the Board.
