OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

5 CFR Part 315

RIN 3206-AM76

Noncompetitive Appointment of Certain Military Spouses

AGENCY: Office of Personnel Management.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is issuing final regulations to modify the provisions governing the recruitment and employment of certain military spouses in Federal agencies to conform to statutory mandates affecting the rules governing this hiring authority and to carry out certain provisions of an Executive order of May 9, 2018, Enhancing Noncompetitive Civil Service Appointments of Military Spouses. OPM is revising the current text to conform to the eligibility criteria for appointment of military spouses to intervening statutory requirements and add agency reporting requirements. The intent of this hiring authority is to enhance the recruitment and noncompetitive appointment of certain military spouses for permanent Federal positions in the competitive service.

DATES: This rule is effective October 21, 2021.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Michelle Glynn, telephone: 202-606-1571, fax: 202-606-3340, TDD: 202-418-3134, or email: michelle.glynn@opm.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On May 29, 2020, the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) published proposed regulations in the Federal Register at 85 FR 32304 to modify the provisions governing the hiring authority for certain military spouses. OPM made these changes to effect provisions contained in the Fiscal Year (FY) 2013 National Defense Authorization Act

(NDAA), Public Law 112-239, section 566, subsequently codified at 5 U.S.C. 3330d; the FY 2017 NDAA, Public Law 114-328, section 1131, which amended 5 U.S.C. 3330d(c); and the FY 2019 NDAA, Public Law 115-232, section 573, which temporarily amends 5 U.S.C. 3330d and imposes a temporary reporting requirement on OPM; as well as certain provisions of E.O. 13832 of May 9, 2018, Enhancing Noncompetitive Civil Service Appointments of Military Spouses, imposing permanent agency reporting requirements. OPM received one comment on the proposed rule from an individual.

The individual recommends that OPM use the term “temporary” in conjunction with “noncompetitive” when describing or referring to this hiring authority. OPM is not adopting this suggestion. Agencies may appoint eligible spouses to positions on a permanent, term, or temporary basis under this authority. The regulations in 5 CFR part 316 currently provide for noncompetitive appointment of certain military spouses on a term or temporary basis (§ 316.301.302(b)(3) for term employment and § 316.402(b)(3) for temporary limited employment).

OPM is adopting the proposed regulation with one minor change to the email address for submission of agency’s yearly reports to Department of Labor.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Office of Personnel Management Director certifies that this regulation will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because it applies only to Federal agencies and employees.

E.O. 13563 and E.O. 12866, Regulatory Review

This rule has been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget in accordance with E.O. 13563 and 12866.

E.O. 13132, Federalism

This regulation will not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the National Government and the States, or on distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with Executive Order 13132, it is determined that this rule does not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant preparation of a Federalism Assessment.

E.O. 12988, Civil Justice Reform

This regulation meets the applicable standard set forth in section 3(a) and (b)(2) of Executive Order 12988.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule will not result in the expenditure by State, local or tribal governments of more than $100 million annually. Thus, no written assessment of unfunded mandates is required.

Congressional Review Act

The Congressional Review Act (5 U.S.C. 801 et seq.) requires rules (as defined in 5 U.S.C. 804) to be submitted to Congress before taking effect. OPM will submit to Congress and the Comptroller General of the United States a report regarding the issuance of this action before its effective date, as required by 5 U.S.C. 801. OMB’s Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs has determined that this is not a “major rule” as defined by the Congressional Review Act (5 U.S.C. 804(2)).

Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35)

This final regulatory action will not impose any additional reporting or recordkeeping requirements under the Paperwork Reduction Act.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Background

The Cotton Research and Promotion Order (7 CFR part 1205) was amended in 1991, following a referendum that July. These amendments provided for: (1) Importer representation on the Cotton Board by an appropriate number of persons, to be determined by USDA, who import cotton or cotton products into the U.S. and who USDA selects from nominations submitted by importer organizations certified by USDA; (2) assessments levied on imported cotton and cotton products at a rate determined in the same manner as for U.S. cotton; (3) increased amount USDA can be reimbursed for conducting a referendum from $200,000 to $300,000; (4) reimbursement of government agencies that assist in administering the collection of assessments on imported cotton and cotton products; and (5) termination of producers' right to demand a refund of assessments.

On December 18, 2020, USDA issued a determination based on its review (85 FR 82426) not to conduct a referendum regarding the 1991 amendments to the Order; however, the Act provides that USDA shall nevertheless conduct a referendum at the request of 10 percent or more of the total number of eligible producers and importers that voted in the most recent referendum. Furthermore, the Act provides for a sign-up period during which eligible cotton producers and importers may request that USDA conduct a referendum on continuation of the 1991 amendments to the Order.

Pursuant to section 8(c) of the Act, USDA provided all eligible Upland cotton producers and importers of cotton and cotton-containing products an opportunity to sign up and request a continuance referendum regarding the 1991 amendments to the Order from June 21, 2021, until July 2, 2021 (86 FR 20255). During the counting and verification of sign-up requests, the AMS learned that the United States Postal Service (USPS) erroneously closed the Post Office Box AMS used to receive sign-up requests, and USPS returned mail contained within the box. Given this error by the USPS and not knowing how many pieces of mail were contained in the box, the AMS determined it is necessary to reopen the sign-up period to allow for any eligible
