Out of an abundance of caution for members of the public and our staff, the EPA Docket Center and Reading Room are closed to the public, with limited exceptions, to reduce the risk of transmitting COVID-19. Our Docket Center staff will continue to provide remote customer service via email, phone, and webform. We encourage the public to submit comments via <https://www.regulations.gov> or email, as there may be a delay in processing mail and faxes. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For information related to medical accommodation requests contact the National Reasonable Accommodation Coordinators (NRACs) at ReasonableAccommodations@epa.gov. For information related to religious accommodation requests contact Krysti Wells, Director, Office of Customer Advocacy, Policy and Portfolio Management (OCAPPM), wells.krysti@epa.gov, 202-564-6295.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: EPA uses RAMS to store and maintain information related to requests from individuals for reasonable accommodations from the Agency, as necessary to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Previously, RAMS covered information on requests for accommodation based on disability. EPA is amending the SORN so that in addition to these disability-related requests, the SORN also explicitly covers requests based on an individual's religious belief, practice, or observance. Additionally, EPA is adding coverage for certain specific accommodation requests based on medical conditions that may not qualify as a disability when such accommodations are authorized (e.g. requests for temporary accommodation for a broken leg, or a delay from the COVID-19 vaccination requirement). EPA is additionally updating the SORN to reflect new requirements in Executive Orders and federal guidance. Accordingly, EPA is updating the following sections of the RAMS SORN: For Further Information Contact; Supplementary Information; System Location; System Manager; Authority; Purpose; Categories of Individuals Covered; Categories of Records; Record Source Categories; Routine Uses; Policies and Practices for Storage of Records; Policies And Practices For Retention And Disposal Of Records; Administrative, Technical, And Physical Safeguards; Record Access Procedure; Contesting Records Procedures, and Notification Procedure.

The updates will allow the Agency to manage all reasonable accommodation request information under the single updated RAMS SORN. EPA will maintain information under the RAMS SORN in two sections—one for medical accommodation request information and one for religious accommodation request information. Medical information is maintained separately from other personnel records.

Reasonable accommodation records are retained until three years after an employee separates from EPA or three years after an applicant made the request if they are not hired.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

Security controls used to protect personal sensitive data in RAMS are commensurate with those required for an information system rated MODERATE for confidentiality, integrity, and availability, as prescribed in National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Special Publication, 800-53, "Security and Privacy Controls for Information Systems and Organizations," Revision 5.

All staff authorized to use RAMS are required to take training on the proper handling of personally identifiable information before using RAMS as well as annual Agency Information Security and Privacy Awareness training.

2. Technical Safeguards: EPA staff authorized to access electronic records are assigned permission levels. Permission level assignments allow authorized users to access only those system functions and records specific to their Agency work need. EPA also has technical security measures including restrictions on computer access to authorized individuals and required use of a personal identity verification (PIV) card and password. Medical documentation is password protected.

3. Physical Safeguards: Only authorized EPA staff have access to paper files, which are stored within locking filing cabinets or locked rooms in secured facilities with controlled access. Electronic storage devices are maintained in secured facilities with controlled access.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

All requests for access to personal records should cite the Privacy Act of 1974 and reference the type of request being made (i.e., access). Requests must include: (1) The name and signature of the individual making the request; (2) the name of the Privacy Act system of records to which the request relates; (3) a statement whether a personal inspection of the records or a copy of them by mail is desired; and (4) proof of identity.
