SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Central California RAC advises the Secretary of the Interior, through the BLM, on a variety of planning and management issues associated with BLM-managed public lands in central California. Topics for these meetings are as follows:

June 22, 2022: The RAC will hear about the Recreation Area Management Plan anticipated to be developed for the Keysville Special Recreation Management Area and determine how it will participate in the process. The RAC will also be briefed on the impacts on BLM-managed public lands due to increased outdoor recreation during the pandemic, and hear reports from the district and field offices, including a wildland fire pre-season forecast.

Sept. 14, 2022: The RAC will be briefed on business plans being developed with potential fee increases at BLM-managed recreation sites within the jurisdictions of the Mother Lode and Central Coast field offices, which would require recommendations from the RAC. The RAC will also hear reports from the district and field offices.

November 2 and 3, 2022: On November 2, the RAC will discuss implementation of the Alabama Hills Management Plan. The RAC will also learn about the Casa Diablo IV Geothermal Development Project, hear reports from the district and field offices, including a post-season wildland fire assessment, and schedule additional meeting dates for 2023. On November 3, the RAC will tour the Alabama Hills National Scenic Area to see the improvements made under the Management Plan, including new signs indicating areas that are now day use only; added portable restrooms in two locations; and designated campsites in some areas.

February 22 and 23, 2023: On February 22, the RAC will be briefed on the progress of the South Cow Mountain OHV Management Area Implementation Plan and determine how it will participate in the planning process. The RAC will hear an update on the BLM Trails and Travel Management Plan for the Berryessa Snow Mountain National Monument and hear reports from the district and field offices. On February 23, 2023, the RAC will tour the South Cow Mountain OHV Management Area to view conditions and opportunities for improving off-highway vehicle facilities at the South Cow Mountain OHV Management Area.

All meetings are open to the public. Each RAC meeting has time allocated for public comments. Depending on the number of persons wishing to speak and the time available, the amount of time for oral comments may be limited. Written public comments may be sent to the BLM Central California District Office listed in the ADDRESSES section of this notice. All comments received at least 1 week in advance of the meeting will be provided to the RAC.

Public Disclosure of Comments: Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Members of the public are welcome on field tours but must provide their own transportation and meals. Individuals who plan to attend and need special assistance, such as sign language interpretation and other reasonable accommodations, should contact the BLM (see FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT) at least 2 weeks in advance of the field tours. In-person meetings and the field tours will follow current Centers for Disease Control COVID-19 guidance regarding social distancing and wearing of masks.

Detailed minutes for the RAC meetings will be maintained in the BLM Central California District Office. Minutes will also be posted to the BLM California RAC web page at <https://go.usa.gov/xH9ya>.

[Investigation Nos. 701-TA-470-471 and 731-TA-1169-1170 (Second Review)]

Certain Coated Paper Suitable for High-Quality Print Graphics Using Sheet-Fed Presses From China and Indonesia; Scheduling of Expedited Five-Year Reviews

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Commission hereby gives notice of the scheduling of expedited reviews pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 ("the Act") to determine whether revocation of the antidumping and countervailing duty orders on certain coated paper suitable for high-quality print graphics using sheet-fed presses ("coated paper") from China and Indonesia would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury within a reasonably foreseeable time.

DATES: March 7, 2022.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Caitlyn Hendricks (202-205-2058), Office of Investigations, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20436. Hearing-impaired persons can obtain information on this matter by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on 202-205-1810. Persons with mobility impairments who will need special assistance in gaining access to the Commission should contact the Office of the Secretary at 202-205-2000.

General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server (<https://www.usitc.gov>). The public record for these reviews may be viewed on the Commission's electronic docket (EDIS) at <https://edis.usitc.gov>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background.—On March 7, 2022, the Commission determined that the domestic interested party group response to its notice of institution (86 FR 68272, December 1, 2021) of the subject five-year reviews was adequate and that the respondent interested party group response was inadequate. The Commission did not find any other circumstances that would warrant conducting full reviews.¹ Accordingly, the Commission determined that it would conduct expedited reviews pursuant to section 751(c)(3) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)(3)).

For further information concerning the conduct of these reviews and rules of general application, consult the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, part 201, subparts A and B (19 CFR part 201), and part 207, subparts A, D, E, and F (19 CFR part 207).

Please note the Secretary's Office will accept only electronic filings at this time. Filings must be made through the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS, <https://edis.usitc.gov>). No in-person paper-based filings or paper copies of any electronic filings will be accepted until further notice.

Staff report.—A staff report containing information concerning the subject matter of the reviews has been placed in the nonpublic record, and will be made available to persons on the Administrative Protective Order service list for these reviews on April 21, 2022. A public version will be issued thereafter, pursuant to section 207.62(d)(4) of the Commission's rules.

Written submissions.—As provided in section 207.62(d) of the Commission's rules, interested parties that are parties to the reviews and that have provided individually adequate responses to the notice of institution,² and any party

² The Commission has found the joint response to its notice of institution filed on behalf of Verso Corporation, and Sappi North America, Inc., two U.S. producers of coated paper, and from the United Steel, Paper and Forestry, Rubber, Manufacturing, Energy, Allied Industrial and Service Workers International Union, AFL-CIO, CLC, which represents workers at domestic coated paper production facilities, to be individually adequate. Comments from other interested parties will not be accepted (see 19 CFR 207.62(d)(2)).
