SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

On December 27, 2020, the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 (CAA), which includes the No Surprises Act, was signed into law. The No Surprises Act provides Federal protections against surprise billing and limits out-of-network cost sharing under many of the circumstances in which surprise bills arise most frequently. Section 102 of the No Surprises Act added Code section 9816, ERISA section 716, and PHS Act section 2799A-1, which contain limitations on cost sharing and requirements for initial payments for emergency services. In addition, Section 103 of the No Surprises Act amended Code section 9816, ERISA section 716, and PHS Act section 2799A-1 to establish a Federal independent dispute resolution (Federal IDR) process that nonparticipating providers or facilities and group health plans and health insurance issuers in the group and individual market may use following the end of an unsuccessful open negotiation period to determine the out-of-network rate for certain services. The Federal IDR process requires a number of disclosures from plans, issuers, FEHB carriers, and nonparticipating providers or nonparticipating emergency facilities. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on November 9, 2021 (86 FR 62206). On April 5, 2022, the Department of Labor submitted another emergency request to revise the ICR to remove language to be consistent with the federal court ruling in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas on the Interim Final Rule, Requirements Related to Surprise Billing; Part II (Texas Medical Association v. HHS). The ICR Revision was approved by OMB on April 11, 2022. The Departments welcome comments on those revisions. For additional substantive information, see the related submission at <https://www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAOMBHistory?ombControlNumber=1210-0169>.

This information collection is subject to the PRA. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6.

DOL seeks PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal.
