minorities have disproportionately higher rates of injury associated with carbon monoxide poisoning, residential fires, and drowning in pools and spas.

II. Topics

The CPSC's Equity Action Plan, available at <https://www.cpsc.gov/equity>, outlines the agency's efforts to address such disparities. CPSC seeks information from any interested parties on the Equity Action Plan and potential methods of improving agency informational and educational outreach, stakeholder engagement, regulatory and enforcement policies, research methods, data and analysis, standards development, or any other relevant strategies to reduce deaths and injuries associated with racial disparities or other underserved communities.

III. Roundtable Details

A. Time and Place

CPSC staff will hold the forum in-person and via webinar from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m., Eastern Standard Time (EST) on Wednesday, May 25, 2022.

B. Registration

Registration is required to participate as a discussant and attend via webinar. Registration is not required to attend in person. If you would like to attend the roundtable discussion as an observer, but you do not wish to participate as a discussant, please register online by May 24, 2022. (See the ADDRESSES portion of this document for the website link and instructions to register.)

If you would like to participate in the roundtable discussion in-person, contact Jonathan Midgett, Consumer Ombudsman, at consumerombudsman@cpsc.gov by May 18, 2022. If you would like to participate in the roundtable discussion via webinar, contact Jonathan Midgett, Consumer Ombudsman, at consumerombudsman@cpsc.gov and register by May 18, 2022. (See the ADDRESSES portion of this document for the website link.) CPSC staff will select participants, based on considerations such as the total number of volunteers, time constraints, and the goal of having representation from a wide variety of stakeholder groups and interests. Staff will notify those who are selected to participate by May 20, 2022. Although staff will try to accommodate all persons who wish to participate, the final discussant group will depend on the number of persons who wish to contribute. If you have any questions regarding participating in the roundtable, please contact Jonathan Midgett, by email at: consumerombudsman@cpsc.gov, or telephone at:

301–509–8120. Detailed instructions for the webinar participants and other interested parties will be made available on the CPSC’s Public Calendar: <https://cpsc.gov/newsroom/public-calendar>.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

[Docket No. ED–2022–SCC–0008]

Agency Information Collection Activities; Submission to the Office of Management and Budget for Review and Approval; Comment Request; National Resource Centers’ Survey on Diverse Perspectives

AGENCY: Office of Postsecondary Education (OPE), Department of Education (ED).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, ED is proposing a new collection.

DATES: Interested persons are invited to submit comments on or before June 2, 2022.

ADDRESSES: Written comments and recommendations for proposed information collection requests should be sent within 30 days of publication of this notice to www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain. Find this information collection request by selecting “Department of Education” under “Currently Under Review,” then check “Only Show ICR for Public Comment” checkbox. Comments may also be sent to ICDocketmgr@ed.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For specific questions related to collection activities, please contact Sara Starke, (202) 453–7681.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of Education (ED), in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA) (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)), provides the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed, revised, and continuing collections of information. This helps the Department assess the impact of its information collection requirements and minimize the public’s reporting burden. It also helps the public understand the Department’s information collection requirements and provide the requested data in the desired format. ED is soliciting comments on the proposed information collection request (ICR) that is described below. The Department of Education is especially interested in public comment addressing the following issues: (1) Is this collection necessary to the proper functions of the Department; (2) will this information be processed and used in a timely manner; (3) is the estimate of burden accurate; (4) how might the Department enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (5) how might the Department minimize the burden of this collection on the respondents, including through the use of information technology.
