SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 303(a)(6) of the Social Security Act authorizes this information collection. Eligibility for unemployment insurance benefits requires applicants demonstrate attachment to the labor force. This requirement of labor force attachment is generally measured through the amount of past wages earned. The data in the ETA 218, Benefit Rights and Experience Report, include numbers of individuals who were and were not monetarily eligible, those who were eligible for the maximum benefits, those who were eligible based on classification by potential duration categories, and those who were exhausting their full entitlement as classified by actual duration categories. DOL uses these data to conduct solvency studies, cost estimating and modeling, and in assessment of state benefit formulas. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on January 13, 2022 (87 FR 2185).

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless the OMB approves it and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid OMB Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6.

DOL seeks PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal. State Workforce Agencies (SWAs) administer the Unemployment Compensation for Ex-servicemembers (UCX) program in accordance with the same terms and provisions of the paying State’s unemployment insurance laws, which apply to unemployed claimants who worked in the private sector. SWAs must be able to obtain certain information (wage and separation data) about each claimant filing claims for UCX benefits in order to determine their eligibility for benefits. DOL has prescribed a form to enable SWAs to obtain this necessary information from the Military Branches. Form ETA-843 is essential to the UCX claims process, and the frequency of use varies depending upon the circumstances involved.
