

PENSION BENEFIT GUARANTY CORPORATION*29 CFR Parts 4001 and 4901

RIN 1212-AB44

Examination and Copying of PBGC Records*AGENCY: Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation.ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule updates and clarifies guidance on examining records kept by PBGC. The amendments reflect statutory changes to the Freedom of Information Act and recent updates to PBGC's procedures for record examination.

DATES:

Effective date. This rule is effective on August 24, 2022.

Applicability date. The amendments under this final rule apply to requests under the Freedom of Information Act submitted to PBGC on or after August 24, 2022.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Executive SummaryPurpose and Authority

This final rule updates the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation's (PBGC's) regulation on requesting, obtaining, and examining records to reflect statutory changes and current agency practice. Authority for this rule is provided by section 4002(b)(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and by the Freedom of Information Act, as amended.

Major Provisions

This final rule:

- Clarifies that PBGC's disclosable records are generally available in an electronic, rather than paper, format.
- Describes the procedure to seek expedited treatment for record requests.
- Clarifies the acceptable methods for submitting record requests.
- Updates the time limit to respond to record requests.
- Clarifies the procedures available to a requester when PBGC extends the time to respond to a disclosure request or an appeal.

- Clarifies the procedure for responding to requests that are of concern to a Federal agency other than PBGC.

- Updates the fees for search and review time.
- Modifies the definitions of certain categories of requesters.

Background

The Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) is amending its regulation on Examination and Copying of Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation Records (29 CFR part 4901) ("FOIA regulation") to: (1) incorporate statutory changes to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552) ("FOIA") made by the FOIA Improvement Act of 2016 ("the 2016 Act") and prior statutory amendments; (2) reflect PBGC's current procedures for processing and responding to FOIA requests; and (3) update the fees charged to certain requesters to more accurately reflect PBGC's costs in performing the search and review work that is necessary to respond to their FOIA requests. The final rule also makes clarifications and other editorial changes to 29 CFR part 4901.

PBGC is committed to maintaining excellent customer service in responding to FOIA requests. Since 2015, PBGC has received the Department of Justice's Office of Information Policy's highest score in each key area for which it recognizes agencies: (1) applying a presumption of openness, (2) having an efficient system in place for responding to requests, (3) increasing proactive disclosures, (4) utilizing technology, and (5) reducing any backlogs and improving timeliness.<sup>1</sup> A 2015 audit by the National Security Archive, a non-governmental organization, gave PBGC its highest rating and found it to be among "the best overall [for] . . . proactively meeting the 21st Century Standard of posting all or nearly all FOIA releases online."<sup>2</sup> The changes further improve PBGC's FOIA process and increase the transparency of its procedures.

On October 13, 2020 (at 85 FR 64425), PBGC published a proposed rule to amend this regulation and did not receive any public comments. The provisions of this final rule are the same as the proposed rule and are discussed below.

Final Rule AmendmentsRecords Available in an Electronic Format*

Section 2 of the 2016 Act replaced references to "public inspection and copying" in the FOIA with "public inspection in an electronic format." A stated goal of the 2016 Act was to "require federal agencies to make their disclosable records and documents available for public inspection in an electronic format."<sup>3</sup> PBGC's Disclosure Division follows this directive and produces disclosable records in an electronic format, but in several places PBGC's FOIA regulation referred to the practice of offering paper copies of documents. The final rule replaces the term "copy" in its FOIA regulation with language conveying that, where practicable, records covered under the FOIA are available or will be made available in an electronic, rather than paper, format. Also, the final rule adds in § 4901.2 a definition of the term "record" with a reference to the statutory definition, which includes information in an electronic format.

Electronic Reading Room

PBGC used to maintain a reference room on-site where members of the public could inspect and copy certain PBGC records without formally requesting them. Following the directive of the 2016 Act to make records and documents available for public inspection in an electronic format, PBGC modified its FOIA regulation and replaced instances of the term "reference room" with "electronic reading room," meaning an online and publicly accessible database of certain PBGC records.<sup>4</sup>

The final rule updates § 4901.4(c) of the FOIA regulation to remove the requirement that PBGC keep a register for the purpose of collecting the names of people who inspect rulemaking proceedings in the electronic reading room and the times at which they do so. This requirement was possible with PBGC's on-site reference room but is impractical with its electronic reading room. It would be unnecessarily burdensome to require individuals who inspect rulemaking proceedings in the

Submitting a Record Request

The final rule amends § 4901.11 of the FOIA regulation to clarify the procedures for submitting a request for records. First, PBGC's Disclosure Division requires FOIA requests to be in writing, and the final rule codifies this requirement. Second, the final rule codifies that electronic telecommunication (i.e., email, online portal) is an approved method to submit a FOIA request. Third, the final rule adds a statement that a requester may seek the assistance of a PBGC FOIA Public Liaison and a description of this position. PBGC's Disclosure Division has designated FOIA Public Liaisons, as required by FOIA, who assist requesters with describing records they are seeking, understanding the status of requests, and resolving disputes. This addition to § 4901.11 highlights the availability of this help.

In addition, the final rule clarifies PBGC procedures that apply when a FOIA request does not sufficiently describe the records being sought. Section 4901.12(b) of the FOIA regulation states that PBGC will offer assistance to a requester who has submitted a deficient request. The final rule adds that the requester will be informed of the availability of assistance from the FOIA Public Liaison, that the failure to reasonably describe the records being sought could cause a delay in responding to the request or a denial of the request, and that an amended request must provide sufficient detail to meet the requirements of an original request.

Action on Request

Section 552(a)(6)(A)(i) of the FOIA provides that a Federal agency has 20 working days to make a determination on a FOIA request. A Senate Report to the Electronic Freedom of Information Act Amendments of 1996,<sup>5</sup> the law that increased the required response period from 10 to 20 days, said, "Compliance with the 10-day rule is a practical impossibility for the majority of agencies."<sup>6</sup> Therefore, the final rule updates the time limit for responding to FOIA requests in § 4901.14(a) of the FOIA regulation from 10 working days to 20 working days, not including extensions. In practice, PBGC already follows the time limit permitted under the statute to allow for thorough and appropriate searches and reviews of agency records.

Section 552(a)(6)(A)(ii) of the FOIA provides that Federal agencies have a single opportunity to ask the requester for additional information and to toll the 20-working day response period while awaiting the requester's response. This provision is intended to "ensure accuracy in FOIA responses."<sup>7</sup> PBGC's Disclosure Division follows the statute with respect to tolling the response period, and the final rule codifies this practice in § 4901.14(a).

Also, the final rule adds to § 4901.14(b) a provision that PBGC will provide records in the format specified in the request if practicable.

Finally, the final rule clarifies PBGC's procedures for when a requested record cannot be located. Section 4901.14(d) of the FOIA regulation states that a request may be denied if a record is not located in time to determine whether it may be disclosed. The final rule clarifies that when records cannot be located despite a reasonably calculated search to uncover all relevant documents, PBGC will let the requester know there are no records to provide, rather than deny the request.

Appeals

Under PBGC's procedures, a requester may appeal any adverse determination by the Disclosure Division. However, before the final rule, § 4901.15(a) stated that a requester may appeal only a denial of a request for disclosure of information. The amendment to § 4901.15(a) clarifies that a requester may appeal any adverse decision by the Disclosure Division under FOIA, including a denial of: access to records, expedited processing, or waiver of fees. It also clarifies the instructions for submitting an appeal.

Extensions of Time

As provided for in section 552(a)(6)(B) of the FOIA and § 4901.16 of the FOIA regulation, PBGC may extend its time to respond to a disclosure request or an appeal when it must collect records stored off-site, examine a voluminous amount of records, or consult with another agency to respond to a FOIA request. The final rule adds to § 4901.16 that when an extension of time exceeds 10 working days, the requester will be notified of the opportunity to seek assistance, modify the request, or arrange an alternative time period (with new response due dates) for processing the original or modified request. This change is intended to improve customer service.

Expedited Action on Requests and Appeals

Section 552(a)(6)(E)(i) of the FOIA states that Federal agencies must promulgate regulations to provide expedited processing of FOIA requests and appeals where the requester demonstrates a compelling need and for other reasons determined by the agency. PBGC's Disclosure Division has a process to request and receive expedited processing. The final rule codifies this process. New § 4901.17 allows a requester to submit a request for expedited action on a disclosure request or appeal. PBGC will act on the disclosure request or appeal as soon as practicable if the requester demonstrates that: (1) a lack of expedited action could reasonably be expected to pose an imminent threat to the life or physical safety of an individual or the loss of an individual's substantial due process rights, or (2) the requester is primarily engaged in disseminating information and the disclosure request or appeal is urgently needed to inform the public about an actual or alleged Federal Government activity.

The final rule also moves what was § 4901.17 on exhaustion of administrative remedies to newly added § 4901.18.

Record of Concern to More Than One Agency

The final rule modifies § 4901.23, which covers the procedures for a requested record that is of interest to a Federal agency other than PBGC. Before the final rule, PBGC could release such a record only if it determined that PBGC's interest in the record was greater than that of the other agency. Under the amendment, PBGC has greater discretion over whether to transfer the request to another agency. If PBGC receives a request for records that is of concern to another agency, PBGC will either consult with the interested Federal agency about the requested records before determining whether the record is disclosable or refer the request to the interested Federal agency to make that determination. This change is intended to eliminate referrals where the requested record is of concern to the other agency, but PBGC is nonetheless able to determine whether it may be disclosed. Allowing a consultation in these situations will help to ensure that certain requests for records are not unnecessarily delayed.

Charges for Services

The final rule simplifies the categories of requesters used to determine if a requester will be charged fees. Before, under § 4901.31(b), (1) non-commercial scientific or educational institutions and (2) the news media were considered two separate categories. Under the amendment, they are combined into a single category, as requesters that fall within these parameters are not assessed fees for responses to their FOIA requests.

In addition, the final rule updates the definitions in § 4901.31(b). In § 4901.31(b)(1)(ii), the definition of “commercial use” states that such use may include litigation work and that PBGC will determine if a requester should be in the “commercial use” category on a case-by-case basis and inform the requester of its decision. In § 4901.31(b)(2)(iii), the definition of “educational institution” is modified to allow PBGC to verify that a request is in furtherance of scholarly research and to state that PBGC will inform the requester of its decision. Also, the final rule updates and clarifies the definition of “representative of the news media” in § 4901.31(b)(2)(iv).

Finally, the final rule amends § 4901.31(e) to clarify the circumstances in which PBGC may fail to comply with a time limit under section 552(a)(6) of the FOIA but still assess fees.

Fee Schedule

The final rule updates the fees charged for search and review time on its FOIA fee schedule. Under section 552(a)(4)(A)(i) of the FOIA,<sup>8</sup> Federal agencies must conform their FOIA fee schedules with OMB’s Uniform Freedom of Information Act Fee Schedule and Guidelines<sup>9</sup> (OMB Guidelines). This guidance states, “Agencies should charge fees that recoup the full allowable direct costs they incur.” Direct costs, per OMB Guidelines, include the salary rate, meaning basic rate of pay plus 16 percent, intended to cover benefits,<sup>10</sup> of the employee making the search. Agencies may establish an average rate for the range of grades typically involved if “a homogeneous class of personnel is used exclusively (e.g., all administrative/clerical, or all professional/executive).”

Before the final rule, PBGC’s fees were too low to comport with the requirement to fully recoup direct costs, per OMB Guidelines and 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(4)(A)(i). PBGC charged $1.75 per quarter hour ($7.00 per hour) for search and review work performed by custodial or clerical personnel and $4.00 per quarter hour ($16.00 per hour) for search and review work performed by supervisory and professional personnel. These rates were set in 1987<sup>11</sup> and were well below the salary rates of PBGC employees working on FOIA requests.

PBGC personnel who typically conduct search and review work are a homogeneous class of professional employees. These employees generally are at the grade level of GS–12 or higher. Accordingly, the final rule, like the proposed, sets a single fee for search and review work performed by professional personnel at $54.00 per hour (approximately basic pay plus 16 percent<sup>12</sup> for a GS–12, step 5 employee in Washington, DC in 2020). The rate is within the range of fees charged by other agencies for search and review work by professional personnel.

The change to PBGC’s fee schedule is unlikely to increase fees to individual plan participants or beneficiaries requesting their own records. PBGC considers most such requests to be covered wholly under the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, which allows fees only for duplication. Based on PBGC’s experience processing these requests, any components of them that are not covered under the Privacy Act likely require no more than 2 hours of search time. As these are for “other requesters,” i.e., individual plan participants requesting their own records, they are granted at no charge. In addition, PBGC will not earn any additional funds from this change as FOIA fees are paid to the U.S. Treasury, not to the agency responding to the request.

The final rule also streamlines and simplifies PBGC’s methods of calculating certain fees under FOIA. Before the final rule, § 4901.32(a)(2) stated that PBGC’s transportation costs necessary to retrieve off-site records would be charged to a requester. Under the amendment, PBGC will charge these costs in accordance with the Transactional Billing Rate Schedule established by the National Archives and Records Administration.

Finally, the final rule deletes § 4901.32(a)(3), which establishes a different system of charges for searches of computerized records; the outmoded limits on copied documents in § 4901.32(b)(3); and the outmoded references to PBGC’s provision of a manual copying machine in § 4901.32(b)(4).

Payment of Fees

The final rule changes the approved methods for payment of FOIA fees in § 4901.33 to include: check, money order or other PBGC permitted means. This change will allow PBGC to employ new technologies for submitting FOIA fee payments as they are developed.

Waiver or Reduction of Charges

Section 552(a)(4)(A)(iii) of the FOIA describes the conditions necessary to waive FOIA fees.<sup>13</sup> Because inability to pay is not described in this provision of the statute, the final rule deletes the language in § 4901.34(b) of the FOIA regulation, which provided that the Disclosure Officer could waive or reduce fees based on the requester’s inability to pay. The final rule instead adheres to the statutory language about when fees may be waived. It also provides that PBGC will inform the requester in writing that a fee waiver request was denied and why. This amendment is intended to increase accuracy and transparency about when fees may be waived.

Compliance With Rulemaking Guidelines

Executive Orders 12866 and 13563

The Office of Management and Budget has determined that this rulemaking is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866. This rule updates PBGC’s FOIA regulation to comport with amendments to 5 U.S.C. 552 and PBGC’s procedures.

Accordingly, OMB has not reviewed the final rule under Executive Order 12866.

Executive Order 12866 directs agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distributive impacts, and equity).

Although this is not a significant regulatory action under Executive Order

<sup>8</sup> “[E]ach agency shall promulgate regulations . . . specifying the schedule of fees applicable to the processing of requests . . . Such schedule shall conform to the guidelines which shall be promulgated, pursuant to notice and receipt of public comment, by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget and which shall provide for a uniform schedule of fees for all agencies.”

<sup>13</sup> The conditions under 552(a)(4)(A)(iii) of the FOIA are, “if disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester.”

12866, PBGC has examined the economic implications of this final rule and has concluded that there will be no significant economic impact as a result of the amendments to PBGC's regulation. Most of the amendments merely clarify existing PBGC practices or modify the regulation to meet statutory requirements. The only additional costs to the public come from the update to the fees for search and review time under § 4901.32 to bring the fee schedule in line with current costs. PBGC collects annually less than $3,000 in fees for responding to FOIA requests. Under the final rule, PBGC is raising its FOIA fee to $54.00 per hour, which is 3.375 times its previous FOIA fee of $16.00 per hour. With the increase of 3.375 times, PBGC anticipates that it will collect roughly between $6,500 and $10,000 in fees annually. Therefore, the increased fees under § 4901.32 will not have a significant economic impact on the public.

Section 6 of Executive Order 13563 requires agencies to rethink existing regulations by periodically reviewing their regulatory program for rules that "may be outmoded, ineffective, insufficient, or excessively burdensome." These rules should be modified, streamlined, expanded, or repealed as appropriate. PBGC has identified clarifications, updates, and improvements to this regulation consistent with the principles for review under Executive Order 13563. PBGC believes that the changes will provide clearer guidance to the public.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Regulatory Flexibility Act<sup>14</sup> imposes certain requirements with respect to rules that are subject to the notice-and-comment requirements of section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act and that are likely to have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Unless an agency determines that a final rule is not likely to have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities, section 604 of the Regulatory Flexibility Act requires that the agency present a final regulatory flexibility analysis at the time of the publication of the final rule describing the impact of the rule on small entities and steps taken to minimize the impact. Small entities include small businesses, organizations, and governmental jurisdictions.

PBGC certifies under section 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act that the amendments in this final rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Although PBGC does not have data on the number of small entities that the rule will impact, the rule's economic impact on small entities will be nominal. Most of the amendments clarify existing PBGC practices and will have a neutral cost impact. The amendment to PBGC's search and review fees is consistent with the mandates on all Federal agencies under FOIA and OMB Guidelines. Under FOIA, agencies may recover only the direct costs of searching for, reviewing, and duplicating the records processed for requesters. Thus, under the final rule, the fees assessed by PBGC are nominal. Accordingly, as provided in section 605 of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, sections 603 and 604 do not apply.

29 CFR Part 4001

Business and industry, Organization and functions (Government agencies), Pension insurance, Pensions, Small businesses.

29 CFR Part 4901

Freedom of information.

In consideration of the foregoing, PBGC amends 29 CFR parts 4001 and 4901 as follows:

PART 4001—TERMINOLOGY

- 1. The authority citation for part 4001 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 29 U.S.C. 1301, 1302(b)(3).

- 2. Amend § 4001.2 by revising the definition of "Disclosure officer" to read as follows:

§ 4001.2 Definitions.

* * * * *

Disclosure Officer means the official designated as Disclosure Officer in the Office of the General Counsel, PBGC.

* * * * *

PART 4901—DISCLOSURE AND PUBLIC INSPECTION OF PENSION BENEFIT GUARANTY CORPORATION RECORDS

- 3. The authority citation for part 4901 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 5 U.S.C. 552, 29 U.S.C. 1302(b)(3), E.O. 12600, 52 FR 23781, 3 CFR, 1987 Comp., p. 235.

- 4. Revise the heading of part 4901 to read as set forth above.

- 5. Revise § 4901.1 to read as follows:

§ 4901.1 Purpose and scope.

This part contains PBGC's general rules implementing the Freedom of Information Act. This part sets forth generally the categories of records accessible to the public, types of records subject to prohibitions or restrictions on disclosure, and procedures whereby members of the public may access and inspect PBGC records.

- 6. Amend § 4901.2 by:
  - a. Removing "party," from the first definition; and
  - b. Adding in alphabetical order a definition for "Record".

The addition reads as follows:

§ 4901.2 Definitions.

* * * * *

Record has the meaning attributed to it by section 552(f)(2) of FOIA.

§ 4901.3 [Amended]

- 7. Amend § 4901.3 by removing "The PBGC" and "website" and adding in their places "PBGC" and "website", respectively.

- 8. Amend § 4901.4 by:
  - a. Removing "The PBGC shall" and adding in its place "PBGC will" in the introductory text;
  - b. Removing "Copies of Federal Register documents published by the PBGC, and copies of" and adding in its place "Federal Register documents published by PBGC, and" in paragraph (a);
  - c. Removing "Copies of informational" and adding in its place "Informational" in paragraph (b);
  - d. Revising paragraphs (c) and (d); and
  - e. Removing "paragraph (a)(2)" and adding in its place "section 552(a)(2)" in paragraph (e).

The revisions read as follows:

- c. Removing "Copies of informational" and adding in its place "Informational" in paragraph (b);
- d. Revising paragraphs (c) and (d); and
- e. Removing "paragraph (a)(2)" and adding in its place "section 552(a)(2)" in paragraph (e).

The revisions read as follows:

§ 4901.4 Information maintained in electronic reading room.

* * * * *

(c) Rulemaking proceedings. All papers and documents made a part of the official record in administrative proceedings conducted by PBGC in connection with the issuance, amendment, or revocation of rules and regulations or determinations having general applicability or legal effect with respect to members of the public or a class thereof;

(d) Other agency proceedings, policies, staff manuals and instructions, and records. Except to the extent that deletion of identifying details is required to prevent a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy (in which case PBGC will explain in writing the justification for the deletion)—

(1) Adjudication proceedings. Final opinions, orders, and (except to the extent that an exemption provided by FOIA must be asserted in the public interest to prevent a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy or violation of law or to ensure the proper discharge of the functions of PBGC) other papers and documents made a part of the official record in adjudication proceedings conducted by PBGC;

(2) Policy statements and interpretations. Statements of policy and interpretations affecting a member of the public which have been adopted by PBGC and which have not been published in the Federal Register;

(3) Staff manuals and instructions. Administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff issued by PBGC that affect any member of the public;

(4) Frequently requested records. Records that have been released under section 552(a)(3) of FOIA and have been the subject of three or more disclosure requests; and

(5) Other records. Records that have been released under section 552(a)(3) of FOIA and that PBGC determines, because of the nature of the records' subject matter, have become or are likely to become the subject of subsequent disclosure requests for substantially the same records; and

■ 9. Revise § 4901.5 to read as follows:

§ 4901.5 Disclosure of other information.

(a) In general. Upon the request of any person submitted in accordance with subpart B of this part, the Disclosure Officer will make any document (or portion thereof) from the records of PBGC in the custody of any official of PBGC available for inspection unless PBGC reasonably foresees that disclosure would harm an interest protected by an exemption under the provisions of section 552(b) of FOIA and subpart C of this part or disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law. The procedures in subpart B of this part must be used for records that are not made available in PBGC's electronic reading room under § 4901.4 and may be used for records that are available in the electronic reading room. Records are not records of PBGC and are not required to be furnished under FOIA, if they could only be produced by manipulation of existing information (such as computer analyses of existing data), thus creating information not previously in existence.

(b) Discretionary disclosure. Unless prohibited from disclosure by § 4901.21(a), the Disclosure Officer may make any document (or portion thereof) from the records of PBGC available for inspection if the Disclosure Officer determines that disclosure furthers the public interest and does not impede the discharge of any of the functions of PBGC.

■ 10. Revise § 4901.6 to read as follows:

§ 4901.6 Filing rules; computation of time.

(a) Place, method, and date of filing. (1) For rules about where to file a submission under this part with PBGC, see § 4000.4 of this chapter.

(2) For rules about permissible methods of filing with PBGC under this part, see § 4000.3 of this chapter.

(3) For rules about the date that a submission under this part was filed with PBGC, see subpart C of part 4000 of this chapter.

(b) Computation of time. For rules about any time period under this part, see subpart D of part 4000 of this chapter.

■ 11. Revise § 4901.11 to read as follows:

§ 4901.11 Submission of requests for access to records.

(a) In general. A request to inspect any record subject to this subpart must be submitted in writing to the Disclosure Officer, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, by mail, in-person delivery, or electronic telecommunication in accordance with the FOIA instructions on PBGC's website, www.pbgc.gov. To facilitate processing, "FOIA request" should appear prominently on the request.

(b) Assistance with requests. A person who intends to submit or has submitted a request to inspect any record subject to this subpart may at any time seek assistance from a FOIA Public Liaison listed on PBGC's website, www.pbgc.gov. PBGC's FOIA Public Liaisons are responsible for assisting in reducing delays, increasing transparency and understanding of the status of requests, and assisting in the resolution of disputes.

■ 12. Amend § 4901.12 by:

■ a. Removing "Each request" and adding in its place "Each disclosure request" in paragraph (a);

■ b. Revising paragraph (b); and

■ c. Removing "Requests calling", "paragraph (a)(3)", "the PBGC", and "disclosure officer shall" and adding in their places "Disclosure requests calling", "section 552(a)(3)", "PBGC", and "Disclosure Officer will", respectively, in paragraph (c).

The revision reads as follows:

§ 4901.12 Description of information requested.

(b) Deficient descriptions. (1) If the description is insufficient to enable a professional employee familiar with the subject area of the disclosure request to locate the record with a reasonable amount of effort, the Disclosure Officer will notify the requester and, to the extent possible, indicate the additional information required. PBGC will make every reasonable effort to assist a requester in the identification and location of the record or records sought. PBGC will not withhold records merely because of difficulty in finding them.

(2) A requester who is attempting to modify or reformulate a disclosure request may discuss the request with a FOIA Public Liaison, who is available to assist the requester in reasonably describing the records sought. If the requester fails to reasonably describe the records sought, PBGC's response to the request may be delayed or denied.

(3) Any amended disclosure request must meet the requirements for a request under paragraph (a) of this section.

■ 13. Revise § 4901.13 to read as follows:

§ 4901.13 Receipt by agency of request.

The Disclosure Officer will note the date and time of receipt on each disclosure request for access to records. A disclosure request is deemed received and the period within which PBGC acts on the request, as set forth in § 4901.14, begins on the next working day following receipt, except that a disclosure request is deemed received only if and when PBGC receives all of the following:

(a) A sufficient description under § 4901.12;

(b) Payment or assurance of payment if required under § 4901.33(b); and

(c) The requester's consent to pay substantial search, review, and/or duplication charges under subpart D of this part if PBGC determines that such charges may be substantial and so notifies the requester. Consent must be in the form of a statement that charges under subpart D of this part will be acceptable either in any amount or up to a specified amount. To avoid possible delay, a requester may include such a statement in an initial disclosure request.

■ 14. Revise § 4901.14 to read as follows:

§ 4901.14 Action on request.

(a) Time for action. Promptly and in any event within 20 working days after receipt of a disclosure request (subject to extension under § 4901.16), the Disclosure Officer will take action with respect to each requested item (or portion of an item) under either paragraph (b), (c), or (d) of this section. Following receipt, PBGC may ask the requester for information once and toll the 20-day period until PBGC receives such information.

(b) Request granted. If the Disclosure Officer determines that the disclosure request will be granted, PBGC will so advise the requester and will promptly make the records available to the requester. PBGC will accommodate any specification of the preferred form or format for the sought record as stated in the request, if the record is readily reproducible in the preferred form or format.

(c) Request denied. If the Disclosure Officer determines that the disclosure request will be denied, PBGC will so advise the requester in writing with a brief statement of the reasons for the denial, including, if applicable, a reference to the specific exemption(s) authorizing the denial and an explanation of how each such exemption applies to the matter withheld.

(d) Records not located. If the Disclosure Officer determines that, despite a reasonably calculated search to uncover all relevant documents, the requested records could not be located, PBGC will issue a “no-records” response, and so advise the requester in writing.

(e) Information for requester. Written responses issued under paragraph (c) or (d) of this section will include the name and title of the person(s) responsible for the denial, outline the appeal procedure available, and notify the requester of the right to seek dispute resolution services from a PBGC FOIA Public Liaison or the Office of Government Information Services.

■ 15. Amend § 4901.15 by:

■ a. Revising paragraphs (a) through (c); and

■ b. Removing “shall” and “the PBGC’s public reference” and adding in their places “will” and “PBGC’s electronic reading”, respectively, in paragraph (d). The revisions read as follows:

§ 4901.15 Appeals from denial of requests.

(a) Submittal of appeals. A requester may appeal any adverse determination by the Disclosure Officer of a request under FOIA, including a denial of a request for access to records, expedited action, or fee waiver. The requester may file a written appeal within 90 days from the date of the denial or, in the case of a partial denial, 90 days from the date the requester receives the disclosed material. The appeal must include the grounds for appeal and any supporting statements or arguments. The requester must address the appeal to the General Counsel, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, and must submit the appeal by mail, in-person delivery, or electronic telecommunication in accordance with the FOIA instructions on PBGC’s website, www.pbgc.gov. To facilitate processing, the words “FOIA appeal” should appear prominently on the appeal.

(b) Receipt and consideration of appeal. The General Counsel will note the date and time of receipt on each appeal and notify the requester thereof. Within 20 working days after receipt of an appeal (subject to extension under § 4901.16), the General Counsel will issue a decision on the appeal.

(1) The General Counsel will determine de novo whether the denial of disclosure was in accordance with FOIA and this part.

(2) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the General Counsel may act on an appeal notwithstanding the pendency of an action for judicial relief in the same matter and, if no appeal has been filed, may treat the pending action as the filing of an appeal.

(c) Decision on appeal. As to each item (or portion of an item) whose nondisclosure is appealed, the General Counsel will either—

(1) Grant the appeal and so advise the requester in writing, in which case the records with respect to which the appeal is granted will promptly be made available to the requester; or

(2) Deny the appeal and so advise the requester in writing with a brief statement of the reasons for the denial, including a reference to the specific exemption(s) authorizing the denial, an explanation of how each such exemption applies to the matter withheld, and notice of the provisions for judicial review in section 552(a)(4) of FOIA. The General Counsel’s decision will be the final action of PBGC with respect to the request.

■ 16. Revise § 4901.16 to read as follows:

§ 4901.16 Extensions of time.

In unusual circumstances (as described in section 552(a)(6)(B) of FOIA), the time to respond to a disclosure request under § 4901.14(a) or an appeal under § 4901.15(b) may be extended as reasonably necessary to process the request or appeal. The Disclosure Officer will notify the requester in writing within the original time period of the unusual circumstances and the date when a response is expected to be sent. When the extension for a disclosure request exceeds 10 working days, the notice will provide the requester with an opportunity to modify the disclosure request or arrange an alternative time period for processing the original or modified request. This notice will also alert the requester of the availability of a PBGC FOIA Public Liaison for assistance and the Office of Government Information Services for dispute resolution services. The maximum extension for responding to an appeal is 10 working days minus the amount of any extension on the request to which the appeal relates.

■ 17. Revise § 4901.17 to read as follows:

§ 4901.17 Expedited action on requests and appeals.

(a) In general. Upon a request submitted in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, PBGC will expedite a disclosure request under § 4901.11 or an appeal under § 4901.15 if PBGC determines that the requester has demonstrated one of the following:

(1) The disclosure request or appeal involves circumstances in which the lack of expedited action could reasonably be expected to pose an imminent threat to the life or physical safety of an individual or the loss of an individual’s substantial due process rights.

(2) The requester is primarily engaged in disseminating information and the disclosure request or appeal is urgently needed to inform the public about an actual or alleged Federal Government activity.

(b) Timing and method of request. A request for PBGC to expedite a disclosure request or an appeal may be made at any time and must be made by mail, in-person delivery, or electronic telecommunication in accordance with the FOIA instructions on PBGC’s website, www.pbgc.gov.

(c) Action on request. (1) PBGC will notify the requester within 10 calendar days of receipt of a request for expedited action whether PBGC will expedite a disclosure request or an appeal.

(2) Request granted. If PBGC determines that the request for expedited action will be granted, PBGC will take action on the disclosure request or the appeal as soon as practicable.

(3) Request denied. If PBGC determines that the request for expedited action will be denied, PBGC will so advise the requester in writing with a brief statement of the reasons for the denial. The writing will also include the name and title or position of the person(s) responsible for the denial, outline the appeal procedure available, and notify the requester of the right to seek dispute resolution services from a PBGC FOIA Public Liaison or the Office of Government Information Services. PBGC will act on any appeal of that decision expeditiously.

- 18. Add § 4901.18 to read as follows:

§ 4901.18 Exhaustion of administrative remedies.

If the Disclosure Officer fails to make a determination to grant or deny access to requested records, or the General Counsel does not make a decision on appeal from a denial of access to PBGC records, within the time prescribed (including any extension) for making such determination or decision, the requester's administrative remedies will be deemed exhausted and the requester may apply for judicial relief under FOIA. However, since a court may allow PBGC additional time to act as provided in FOIA, processing of the disclosure request or appeal will continue and PBGC will so advise the requester.

- 19. Revise § 4901.21 to read as follows:

§ 4901.21 Restrictions in general.

(a) Records not disclosable. PBGC will not disclose records to the extent prohibited by section 552(b)(1) or (3) of FOIA, sections 4010 and 4043 of ERISA, or other statutes.

(b) Records disclosure of which may be refused. Unless prohibited from disclosure by paragraph (a) of this section, PBGC need not but may, as provided in § 4901.5(b), disclose records exempted from FOIA, which include as of August 24, 2022 records under:

- (1) Section 552(b)(2) of FOIA, dealing in general with internal agency personnel rules and practices;
- (2) Section 552(b)(4) of FOIA, dealing in general with trade secrets and commercial and financial information;
- (3) Section 552(b)(5) of FOIA, dealing in general with inter-agency and intra-agency memoranda and letters;
- (4) Section 552(b)(6) of FOIA, dealing in general with personnel, medical, and similar files;
- (5) Section 552(b)(7) of FOIA, dealing in general with records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes;
- (6) Section 552(b)(8) of FOIA, dealing in general with reports on financial institutions; or
- (7) Section 552(b)(9) of FOIA, dealing in general with information about wells.

§ 4901.22 [Amended]

- 20. Amend § 4901.22 by removing “shall not” and adding in its place “will not” in the first sentence and removing “shall be” and adding in its place “will be” in the second sentence.

- 21. Revise § 4901.23 to read as follows:

§ 4901.23 Record of concern to agency other than PBGC.

When reviewing a record in response to a disclosure request, PBGC will determine whether another agency is better able to determine whether the record is exempt from disclosure under FOIA. As to any such record, PBGC will proceed in one of the following ways:

(a) Consultation with another agency. When the record contains information of interest to another agency, PBGC will make a release determination only if its interest in the record is the primary interest and only after PBGC consults with that agency.

(b) Referral to another agency. (1) When an agency other than PBGC has primary interest in the record, then PBGC will refer the responsibility for responding to the disclosure request regarding that record to that agency.

(2) Whenever PBGC refers any part of the responsibility for responding to a disclosure request to another agency, PBGC will document the referral, maintain a copy of the record that it refers, and notify the requester of the referral, informing the requester of the name(s) of the agency to which the record was referred, including that agency's FOIA office.

- 22. Amend § 4901.24 by:
  - a. Revising the section heading and paragraph (a);
  - b. Removing “submitter shall” and “paragraph shall” and adding in their places “submitter must” and “paragraph (b) will”, respectively, and removing “therefor” in paragraph (b);
  - c. Removing “disclosure officer”, “Counsel shall”, “this paragraph”, and “requester shall” and adding in their places “Disclosure Officer”, “Counsel will”, “this paragraph (c)”, and “requester will”, respectively, in paragraph (c);
  - d. Removing “disclosure should”, “subsection (b)”, “paragraph (b)(4) of FOIA”, “asserted should”, and “paragraph shall” and adding in their places “disclosure must”, “section 552(b)”, “section 552(b)(4)”, “asserted must”, and “paragraph (d) will”, respectively, in paragraph (d);
  - e. Revising paragraph (e); and
  - f. Removing “disclosure officer” and “Counsel shall” and adding in their places “Disclosure Officer” and “Counsel will”, respectively, in paragraph (f).

The revisions read as follows:

§ 4901.24 Special rules for trade secrets and confidential commercial or financial information submitted to PBGC.

(a) Application. To the extent permitted by law, this section applies to a request for disclosure of a record that contains information that has been designated by the submitter in good faith in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section or a record that PBGC has reason to believe contains such information, unless one of the following applies:

- (1) Access to the information is denied.
- (2) The information has been published or officially made available to the public.
- (3) Disclosure of the information is required by law other than FOIA.
- (4) The designation under paragraph (b) of this section appears obviously frivolous, except that in such a case PBGC will notify the submitter in writing of a determination to disclose the information within a reasonable time before the disclosure date (which shall be specified in the notice).

(e) Notification to submitter of decision to disclose. If the Disclosure Officer or (where disclosure is in response to an appeal) the General Counsel decides to disclose information subject to this section despite the submitter's objections, the Disclosure Officer (or General Counsel) will give the submitter written notice, explaining briefly why the information is to be disclosed despite those objections, describing the information to be disclosed, and specifying the date when the information will be disclosed to the requester. The notification will, to the extent permitted by law, be provided a reasonable number of days before the disclosure date so specified, and a copy will be provided to the requester.

- 23. Amend § 4901.31 by:
  - a. Revising paragraphs (a) and (b);
  - b. Removing “the PBGC” and adding in its place “PBGC” in paragraph (c); and
  - c. Revising paragraphs (d) and (e).
 The revisions read as follows:

§ 4901.31 Charges for services.

(a) In general. Pursuant to the provisions of section 552 of FOIA, as amended, PBGC will assess charges to cover the direct costs of searching for, reviewing, and/or duplicating records requested under FOIA, except where the charges are limited or waived under paragraph (b) or (d) of this section, according to the fee schedule in § 4901.32. No charge will be assessed if the costs of routine collection and processing of the fee would be equal to or greater than the fee itself. Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, no charge for searching (or in the case of a requester described under section 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II) of FOIA, for duplication) will be assessed if PBGC has failed to comply with any time limit under section 552(a)(6) of FOIA.

(1) Direct costs means those expenditures which PBGC actually incurs in searching for and duplicating (and in the case of commercial requesters, reviewing) documents to respond to a disclosure request under FOIA and this part. Not included in direct costs are overhead expenses such as costs of space, and heating or lighting the facility in which the records are stored.

(2) Search means all time spent looking for material that is responsive to a disclosure request under FOIA and this part, including page-by-page or line-by-line identification of materials within a document, if required. Searches may be done manually or by computer using existing programming. Search is distinguishable from “review” which is defined in paragraph (a)(3) of this section.

(3) Review means the process of examining documents located in response to a disclosure request under FOIA and this part to determine whether any portion of any document located is permitted or required to be withheld. It also includes processing any documents for disclosure, e.g., doing all that is necessary to redact them and otherwise prepare them for release. Review does not include time spent resolving general legal or policy issues regarding the application of exemptions.

(4) Duplication means the process of making a copy of a document necessary to respond to a disclosure request under FOIA and this part, in a form that is reasonably usable by the requester. Copies can take the form of paper copy, audio-visual materials, or electronic records, among others.

(b) Categories of requesters. For purposes of assessing fees, requesters who seek access to records under FOIA and this part are divided into three categories: commercial use requesters, non-commercial scientific or educational institutions or news media requesters, and all other requesters. PBGC will determine the category of a requester and charge fees according to the following rules.

(1) Commercial use requesters. (i) When records are requested for commercial use, PBGC will assess charges, as provided in this subpart, for the full direct costs of searching for, reviewing for release, and duplicating the records sought. Fees for search and review may be charged even if the record searched for is not found or if, after it is found, it is determined that the request to inspect it may be denied under section 552(b) of FOIA and this part.

(ii) A “commercial use” request is a request that asks for information for a use or a purpose that furthers a commercial, trade, or profit interest, which can include furthering those interests through litigation. PBGC’s decision to place a requester in the commercial use category will be made on a case-by-case basis dependent upon on the requester’s intended use of the information. PBGC will notify requesters of their placement in this category.

(2) Non-commercial scientific or educational institutions, or news media requesters. (i) When records are requested by a non-commercial scientific or educational institution or a news media requester, PBGC will assess charges, as provided in this subpart, for the full direct cost of duplication only, excluding charges for the first 100 pages.

(ii) A non-commercial scientific institution is an institution that is not operated for a “commercial use” as that term is defined in paragraph (b)(1)(ii) of this section, and which is operated solely for the purpose of conducting scientific research the results of which are not intended to promote any particular product or industry.

(iii) An educational institution is any school that operates a program of scholarly research. A requester in this fee category must show that the request is made in connection with his or her role at the educational institution. PBGC may seek verification from the requester that the request is in furtherance of scholarly research and PBGC will advise requesters of their placement in this category.

(iv)(A) A representative of the news media is any person or entity that gathers information of potential interest to a segment of the public, uses editorial skills to turn the raw materials into a distinct work, and distributes that work to an audience. The term news means information that is about current events or that would be of current interest to the public. Examples of news media entities include television or radio stations broadcasting to the public at large, and publishers of periodicals that disseminate “news” and make their products available through a variety of means to the general public, including news organizations that disseminate solely on the internet. These examples are not intended to be all-inclusive. A “freelance” journalist who demonstrates a solid basis for expecting publication through a news media entity will be considered as a representative of the news media.

(B) To be eligible for inclusion in this category, the request must not be made for a commercial use. A request for records supporting the news dissemination function of the requester who is a representative of the news media will not be considered to be a request that is for a commercial use.

(3) All other requesters. When records are requested by requesters who do not fit into any of the categories in paragraph (b)(1) or (2) of this section, PBGC will assess charges, as provided in this subpart, for the full direct cost of searching for and duplicating the records sought, with the exceptions that there will be no charge for the first 100 pages of duplication and the first 2 hours of search time. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, there will be no charge for search time in the event of requests under the Privacy Act of 1974 from subjects of records filed in PBGC’s systems of records for the disclosure of records about themselves. Search fees, where applicable, may be charged even if the record sought is not found.

(d) Waiver or reduction of charges. Circumstances under which any fee listed in § 4901.32 may be waived or reduced are set forth in § 4901.34.

(e) Unusual or exceptional circumstances. Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this section, if PBGC fails to comply with a time limit under section 552(a)(6) of FOIA, PBGC may nevertheless assess a charge for search and review services (or in the case of a requester described under section 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II), for duplication) if one of the following circumstances applies:

(1) PBGC has determined that unusual circumstances (as defined in section 552(a)(6)(B) of FOIA) apply, PBGC needs more than 10 additional days to process the disclosure request, and more than 5,000 pages are necessary to respond to the request, provided that:

(i) PBGC has provided timely written notice of this determination to the requester; and

(ii) PBGC has discussed with the requester, or made three or more good-faith attempts to do so, via written mail, electronic mail, or telephone how the requester could effectively limit the scope of the request.

(2) PBGC has determined that unusual circumstances (as defined in section 552(a)(6)(B) of FOIA) apply, PBGC has provided timely written notice to the requester of the unusual circumstances extending the time limit by 10 additional days, and PBGC processes the disclosure request within that time.

(3) A court has determined that exceptional circumstances exist (as defined in section 552(a)(6)(C) of FOIA) and has issued an order excusing PBGC's failure to comply with the time limit.

■ 24. Amend § 4901.32 by revising paragraphs (a) and (b) to read as follows:

§ 4901.32 Fee schedule.

(a) Charges for searching and review of records. Charges applicable under this subpart to the search for and review of records will be made according to the following fee schedule:

(1) Search time and review time. For ordinary search services and review services, PBGC charges $54.00 per hour. PBGC charges fees in quarter hour increments.

(2) Retrieving records stored by NARA. For disclosure requests that require the retrieval of records stored at a Federal records center operated by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), PBGC charges additional costs in accordance with the Transactional Billing Rate Schedule established by NARA.

(b) Charges for duplication of records. Charges applicable under this subpart for obtaining requested copies of records made available for inspection will be made according to the following fee schedule and subject to the following conditions.

(1) Standard copying fee. $0.15 for each page of record copies furnished.

(2) Voluminous material. If the volume of page copy desired by the requester is such that the reproduction charge at the standard page rate would be in excess of $50, the person desiring reproduction may request a special rate quotation from PBGC.

(3) Indexes. Pursuant to section 552(a)(2) of FOIA copies of indexes or supplements thereto which are maintained as therein provided but which have not been published will be provided on request at a cost not to exceed the direct cost of duplication.

■ 25. Amend § 4901.33 by:

■ a. Revising paragraphs (a), (b) introductory text, and (b)(1);

■ b. Removing “the PBGC” and adding in its place “PBGC” in paragraph (b)(2); and

■ c. Removing “The PBGC” and adding in its place “PBGC” in paragraph (c).

The revisions read as follows:

§ 4901.33 Payment of fees.

(a) Medium of payment. Payment of the applicable fees as provided in this section must be made by check, money order, or other PBGC permitted method, and in accordance with the FOIA instructions on PBGC's website, www.pbgc.gov.

(b) Advance payment or assurance of payment. Payment or assurance of payment before work is begun or continued on a disclosure request may be required as follows:

(1) Where PBGC estimates or determines that charges allowable under the rules in this subpart, are likely to exceed $250, PBGC may require advance payment of the entire fee or assurance of payment, as follows:

(i) Where the requester has a history of prompt payment of fees under this part, PBGC will notify the requester of the likely cost and obtain satisfactory assurance of full payment; or

(ii) Where the requester has no history of payment for requests made pursuant to FOIA and this part, PBGC may require the requester to make an advance payment of an amount up to the full estimated charges.

■ 26. Amend § 4901.34 by:

■ a. Removing “disclosure officer”, “government”, “waiver request shall”, and “request for waiver” and adding in their places “Disclosure Officer”, “Government”, “waiver or reduction request must”, and “request”, respectively, in paragraph (a); and

■ b. Revising paragraph (b).

The revision reads as follows:

§ 4901.34 Waiver or reduction of charges.

* * * * *

(b) If the Disclosure Officer determines that the request for fee waiver or reduction will be denied, the requester will be so advised in writing with a brief statement of the reasons for the denial. The writing will include the name and title or position of the person(s) responsible for the denial, outline the appeal procedure available, and notify the requester of the right to seek dispute resolution services from a PBGC FOIA Public Liaison or the Office of Government Information Services.

Methylorubrum extorquens Strain NLS0042; Exemption From the Requirement of a Tolerance

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This regulation establishes an exemption from the requirement of a tolerance for residues of Methylorubrum extorquens strain NLS0042 in or on all food commodities when used in accordance with label directions and good agricultural practices. NewLeaf Symbiotics, Inc., submitted a petition to EPA under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FFDCA), requesting an exemption from the requirement of a tolerance. This regulation eliminates the need to establish a maximum permissible level for residues of Methylorubrum extorquens strain NLS0042 under FFDCA when used in accordance with this exemption.

DATES: This regulation is effective July 25, 2022. Objections and requests for hearings must be received on or before September 23, 2022, and must be filed in accordance with the instructions provided in 40 CFR part 178 (see also Unit I.C. of the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION).

ADDRESSES: The docket for this action, identified by docket identification (ID) number EPA-HQ-OPP-2021-0571, is available at <https://www.regulations.gov> or at the Office of Pesticide Programs Regulatory Public Docket (OPP Docket) in the Environmental Protection Agency Docket Center (EPA/DC), West William Jefferson Clinton Bldg., Rm. 3334, 1301 Constitution Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20460-0001. The Public Reading Room is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, excluding legal holidays. The telephone number for the Public Reading Room and the OPP Docket is (202) 566-1744.
