While you can ask BLM in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

A decision of the Secretary of the Interior to extend a withdrawal as requested is subject to compliance with the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA). The BLM established a categorical exclusion (CX), developed pursuant to NEPA, and found at 516 Departmental Manual 11.9(E)(1), that addresses extensions such as the one requested, which consists merely of an extension of time, without any other changes. The BLM anticipates reliance on the referenced CX, subject to extraordinary circumstances review, should the Secretary elect to extend the withdrawal, and anticipates that neither preparation of an environmental impact statement nor an environmental assessment will be necessary.

This application will be processed in accordance with the regulations at 43 CFR 2310.4.
