POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

The records are maintained in paper and electronic media. Access to electronic records is restricted to authorized personnel who have been issued non-transferrable access codes and passwords.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

Records are retrievable by a variety of fields including, without limitation, the individual's name, address, account number, social security number, transaction number, phone number, date of birth, or by some combination thereof.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS:

The Bureau maintains records in accordance with a National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) approved schedule. The records are covered in item 1 of the NARA approved Records Disposition Authority for Enforcement. The disposition of these records is temporary and are destroyed or deleted six months after the end of the calendar year when the record is created. The longest retention period would total 18 months if the information is no longer needed to support a Bureau activity. If the record is being used for a specific matter, then it becomes a matter record and is subject to the disposition schedule as it applies to that matter, which can range from one year beyond the year created to permanently archived for historically significant cases. Per NI-587-12-8, records in this system will be destroyed 15 years after cutoff.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

Access to electronic records is restricted to authorized personnel who have been issued non-transferrable access codes and passwords. Other records are maintained in locked file cabinets or rooms with access limited to those personnel whose official duties require access.
