SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration (PHMSA) is considering an adjustment to our statutorily mandated registration and fee assessment program for persons who offer for transportation or transport certain categories and quantities of hazardous materials. PHMSA conducts a national hazardous materials registration program under the mandate in 49 U.S.C. 5108 for a person who offers ¹ for transportation (i.e., shippers) or transports certain hazardous materials in intrastate, interstate, or foreign commerce. The registration program implements the mandate for persons to file a registration statement with the Secretary of Transportation—as delegated to PHMSA—and collects registration and processing fees from persons required to file a registration statement (hereafter referred to as "registrants") to fund the Emergency Preparedness (EP) grants. EP grants support hazardous materials emergency response planning and training activities by states, local governments, and Native American tribes. EP grants also fund nonprofit organizations to provide "train-the-trainer" programs for hazardous materials emergency response training and hazardous materials employee training. Additionally, EP grants support the development of the Emergency Response Guidebook (ERG) that assists emergency responders in determining appropriate response measures and provides funds for grantee monitoring and technical assistance. Congress recognized in the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act of 2021 2 (IIJA) (as evidenced by increased authorization levels for the EP Grant Program), and as congressional testimony was reinforced in the aftermath of the 2023 Norfolk Southern train derailment in East Palestine, Ohio, there is an increasing need for Federal support for first responders, particularly responders to hazardous materials related incidents, such as are supported through the EP grants.

To raise additional revenue to meet the increasing needs for the EP Grant Program, PHMSA has discretion to require additional persons to register beyond those who offer, and transport certain categories and quantities of hazardous materials listed in 49 U.S.C. 5108(a)(1)—and to set the annual registration fee between the statutorily mandated minimum and maximum amounts. See 49 U.S.C. 5108(b), 5116, and 5128(b). PHMSA may currently set an annual registration fee between a minimum of $250 and maximum of $3,000. In the HM-208J Advanced Noticed of Proposed Rulemaking (ANPRM),3 PHMSA presented a fee scenario table and options to solicit feedback from stakeholders on potential methods and any alternative methods to achieve the increased funding. PHMSA presented nine options for consideration, grouped between a scenario where the maximum fee remains $3,000 per year, and an alternative scenario where Congress increases the maximum fee. The options included:

If registration fees remain at a maximum $3,000 per year, PHMSA is considering the following options for comment:

- 1. Keep the existing registration requirements (see 49 CFR 107.601) and raise the registration fee for large businesses from $2,575 to $3,000.
- 2. Keep the existing registration requirements and apply a nominal fee (e.g., $25) for each facility or geographic location from which a registered person (i.e., a company) offers for transportation, or transports, certain hazardous materials.
