The proposed rule would amend MSHA's existing standards to better protect miners against occupational exposure to respirable crystalline silica, a carcinogen, and to improve respiratory protection for all airborne hazards.

The public comment period for this proposed rule was scheduled to close on August 28, 2023, 45 days after publication of the proposed rule. MSHA received requests from commenters for both an extension of the comment period and for no extension of the comment period. Several requested that there not be any extension, so that a final rule can be promulgated without delay to prevent additional diseases among miners. Others requested that the comment period be extended to prepare comments, gather data and information, and address the questions MSHA raised in the proposal. Generally, those requesters asked for an additional 60, 90 or 120 days.

After reviewing these comments, MSHA has determined that it is appropriate to extend the public comment period until September 11, 2023, in order to provide stakeholders and interested parties an additional 15 days to review the proposal and prepare comments.
