BILLING CODE 9110-12-P

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

[Docket No. DHS-2011-0108]

RIN 1601-ZA11

Identification of Foreign Countries Whose Nationals Are Eligible To Participate in the H-2A and H-2B Nonimmigrant Worker ProgramsAGENCY: Office of the Secretary, DHS.ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Under Department of Homeland Security (DHS) regulations, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) may generally only approve petitions for H-2A and H-2B nonimmigrant status for nationals of countries that the Secretary of Homeland Security, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, has designated by notice published in the Federal Register. Each such notice shall be effective for one year after its date of publication. This notice announces that the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, is identifying 87 countries whose nationals are eligible to participate in the H-2A program and 88 countries whose nationals are eligible to participate in the H-2B program for the coming year.

DATES: The designations in this notice are effective from November 9, 2023 and shall be without effect on November 8, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ihsan Gunduz, Office of Strategy, Policy, and Plans, Department of Homeland Security, Washington, DC 20528, (202) 282-9708.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

Generally, USCIS may approve H-2A and H-2B petitions for nationals of only those countries that the Secretary of Homeland Security, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, has designated as participating countries.¹ Such designation must be published as a notice in the Federal Register and expires after one year. In designating countries to include on the lists, the Secretary of Homeland Security, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, will take into account factors including, but not limited to: (1) the country's cooperation with respect to issuance of travel documents for citizens, subjects, nationals, and residents of that country who are subject to a final order of removal; (2) the number of final and unexecuted orders of removal against citizens, subjects, nationals, and residents of that country; (3) the number of orders of removal executed against citizens, subjects, nationals, and residents of that country; and (4) such other factors as may serve the U.S. interest. See 8 CFR 214.2(h)(5)(i)(F)(1)(i) and 8 CFR 214.2(h)(6)(i)(E)(1).² Examples of specific factors serving the U.S. interest that are taken into account when considering whether to designate or terminate the designation of a country include, but are not limited to: fraud (e.g., fraud in the H-2 petition or visa application process by nationals of the country, the country's level of cooperation with the U.S. government in addressing H-2 associated visa fraud, and the country's level of information sharing to combat immigration-related fraud), nonimmigrant visa overstay³ rates for nationals of the country (including but not limited to H-2A and H-2B nonimmigrant visa overstay rates), and non-compliance with the terms and conditions of the H-2 visa programs by nationals of the country.

As previously indicated, see 86 FR 2689; 86 FR 62559, in evaluating the U.S. interest, the Secretary of Homeland Security, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, will generally ascribe a negative weight to evidence that a country had a suspected in-country visa overstay rate of 10 percent or higher with a number of expected departures of 50 individuals or higher in either the H-2A or H-2B classification according to U.S. Customs and Border Protection overstay data, and generally, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, will terminate designation of that country from the H-2A or H-2B nonimmigrant visa program, as appropriate, unless, after consideration of other relevant factors, it is determined not to be in the U.S. interest to do so.

Similarly, DHS recognizes that countries designated under long-standing practice by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) as "At Risk of Non-Compliance" or "Uncooperative" with removals based on ICE data put the integrity of the immigration system and the American people at risk. Therefore, unless other favorable factors in the U.S. interest outweigh such designations by ICE, the Secretary of Homeland Security, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, generally will terminate designation of such countries from the H-2A and H-2B nonimmigrant visa programs. Because there are separate lists for the H-2A and H-2B categories, it is possible that, in applying the above-described regulatory criteria for listing countries, a country may appear on one list but not on the other.

Even where the Secretary of Homeland Security has determined to terminate or decided not to designate a country, DHS, through USCIS, may allow, on a case-by-case basis, a national from a country that is not on the list to be named as a beneficiary of an H-2A or H-2B petition based on a determination that it is in the U.S. interest, in the totality of the circumstances, for that individual noncitizen to be a beneficiary of an H-2 petition. Determination of such U.S. interest will take into account factors, including but not limited to: (1) evidence from the petitioner demonstrating that a worker with the required skills is not available either from among U.S. workers or from among foreign workers from a country currently on the list described in 8 CFR 214.2(h)(5)(i)(F)(1)(i) (H-2A nonimmigrants) or 214.2(h)(6)(i)(E)(1) (H-2B nonimmigrants), as applicable; (2) evidence that the beneficiary has been admitted to the United States previously in H-2A or H-2B status; (3) the potential for abuse, fraud, or other harm to the integrity of the H-2A or H-2B visa program through the potential admission of a beneficiary from a country not currently on the list; and (4) such other factors as may serve the U.S. interest. See 8 CFR 214.2(h)(5)(i)(F)(1)(i) and 8 CFR 214.2(h)(6)(i)(E)(2). An additional factor for beneficiaries of H-2B petitions, although not necessarily determinative, would be whether the H-2B petition qualifies under section 1049 of the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) for FY 2018, Public Law 115-91, section 1045 of the NDAA for FY 2019, Public Law 115-232, section 9502 of the NDAA for FY 2021, Public Law 116-283, or section 5901 of the NDAA for FY 2023, Public Law 117-263.

In December 2008, DHS published the first lists of eligible countries for the H-2A and H-2B Visa Programs in the Federal Register. These notices, "Identification of Foreign Countries Whose Nationals Are Eligible to Participate in the H-2A Visa Program," and "Identification of Foreign Countries Whose Nationals Are Eligible to Participate in the H-2B Visa Program," designated 28 countries whose nationals were eligible to participate in the H-2A and H-2B programs. See 73 FR 77043 (Dec. 18, 2008); 73 FR 77729 (Dec. 19, 2008). The notices ceased to have effect on January 17, 2009, and January 18, 2009, respectively. Since the publication of the first lists in 2008, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, has published a series of notices on a regular basis. See 75 FR 2879 (Jan. 19, 2010) (adding 11 countries to both programs); 76 FR 2915 (Jan. 18, 2011) (removing one country from and adding 15 countries to both programs); 77 FR 2558 (Jan. 18, 2012) (adding five countries to both programs); 78 FR 4154 (Jan. 18, 2013) (adding one country to both programs); 79 FR 3214 (Jan. 17, 2014) (adding four countries to both programs); 79 FR 74735 (Dec. 16, 2014) (adding five countries to both programs); 80 FR 72079 (Nov. 18, 2015) (removing one country from the H-2B program and adding 16 countries to both programs); 81 FR 74468 (Oct. 26, 2016) (adding one country to both programs); 83 FR 2646 (Jan. 18, 2018) (removing three countries from and adding one country to both programs); 84 FR 133 (Jan. 18, 2019) (removing two countries from and adding 2 countries to both programs, removing one country from only the H-2B program, and adding one country to only the H-2A program); 85 FR 3067 (January 17, 2020) (leaving the lists unchanged); 86 FR 2689 (Jan. 13, 2021) (removing two countries from both programs, removing one country from only the H-2A program, and adding one country to

² DHS has published a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM) in the Federal Register in which it is proposing to eliminate the requirement to designate countries whose nationals are eligible to participate in the H-2A and H-2B programs from DHS regulations. The rule is in a proposal stage and does not impact the designation of eligible countries contained in this notice. The regulations requiring the designation of countries whose nationals are eligible to participate in the H-2 programs will remain in effect until such time as DHS publishes any final rule amending such regulations and such final rule goes into effect, if applicable. See 88 FR 65040.

only the H-2B program); 86 FR 62559 (Nov. 10, 2021) (removing one country from only the H-2A program, adding one country to only the H-2B program, and separately adding five countries to both programs); and 87 FR 67930 (Nov. 10, 2022) (adding one country to both programs).

Determination of Countries With Continued Eligibility

The Secretary of Homeland Security has determined, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, that the 86 countries previously designated to participate in the H-2A program in the November 10, 2022 notice continue to meet the regulatory standards for eligible countries and therefore should remain designated as countries whose nationals are eligible to participate in the H-2A program. Additionally, the Secretary of Homeland Security has determined, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, that the 87 countries previously designated to participate in the H-2B program in the November 10, 2022 notice continue to meet the regulatory standards for eligible countries and therefore should remain designated as countries whose nationals are eligible to participate in the H-2B program. These determinations take into account how the regulatory factors identified above apply to each of these countries.

Consistent with the previous notices, nationals of non-designated countries may still be beneficiaries of approved H-2A and H-2B petitions upon the request of the petitioner if USCIS determines, as a matter of discretion and on a case-by-case basis, that it is in the U.S. interest for the individual to be a beneficiary of such petition. See 8 CFR 214.2(h)(5)(i)(F)(1)(ii) and 8 CFR 214.2(h)(6)(i)(E)(2). USCIS may favorably consider a beneficiary of an H-2A or H-2B petition who is not a national of a country included on the H-2A or H-2B eligibility lists as serving the national interest, depending on the totality of the circumstances, as described above. An additional factor for beneficiaries of H-2B petitions, although not necessarily determinative, would be whether the H-2B petition qualifies under section 1049 of the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) for FY 2018, Public Law 115–91, section 1045 of the NDAA for FY 2019, Public Law 115–232, section 9502 of the NDAA for FY 2021, Public Law 116–283, or section 5901 of the NDAA for FY 2023, Public Law 117–263. However, any ultimate determination of eligibility will be made according to all the relevant factors and evidence in each individual circumstance.

Countries Now Designated as Eligible

The Secretary of Homeland Security has also determined, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, that Bolivia should be designated as an eligible country to participate in both the H-2A and H-2B nonimmigrant visa programs because its participation is in the U.S. interest consistent with the regulations governing these programs.

Bolivia consistently cooperates with accepting its nationals subject to a final order of removal. Furthermore, nationals of Bolivia do not present significant visa overstay concerns; their overstay rates are consistent with other countries currently listed as eligible to participate in the H-2A and H-2B programs. Bolivian nationals are generally compliant with the terms and conditions of all visa categories. For instance, DOS's recent validation study of B1/B2 visas found that under two percent of Bolivian nationals overstayed their B1/B2 visas. Due to the current economic situation in Bolivia, adding Bolivia to these programs would contribute to DOS's goals of promoting economic development and improving bilateral commercial relationships in Bolivia. Additionally, the H-2A and H-2B programs will provide an alternative, lawful, pathway to irregular migration for Bolivian nationals seeking an economic opportunity in the United States. Based on the foregoing reasons, adding Bolivia to both the H-2A and H-2B eligible countries lists serves the U.S. interest.

Designation of Countries Whose Nationals Are Eligible To Participate in the H-2A and H-2B Nonimmigrant Worker Programs

Pursuant to the authority provided to the Secretary of Homeland Security under sections 214(a)(1) and 215(a)(1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1184(a)(1) and 1185(a)(1)), I am designating, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, the following countries as those whose nationals are eligible to participate in the H-2A nonimmigrant worker program:

This notice does not affect the current status of noncitizens who at the time of publication of this notice hold valid H-2A or H-2B nonimmigrant status. Noncitizens currently holding such status, however, will be affected by this notice should they seek an extension of stay in the H-2 classification, or a change of status from one H-2 status to another, for employment on or after the effective date of this notice. Similarly, noncitizens holding nonimmigrant status other than H-2 are not affected by this notice, but will be affected by this notice if they seek a change of status to H-2 on or after the effective date of this notice.

Nothing in this notice limits the authority of the Secretary of Homeland Security or his designee or any other federal agency to invoke against any foreign country or its nationals any other remedy, penalty, or enforcement action available by law.

Alejandro N. Mayorkas,
Secretary of Homeland Security.
