

I. General Information

A. How can I get copies of the Draft Policy document and other related information?

You may access this document electronically at <https://www.epa.gov/environmentaljustice/epas-meaningful-involvement-policy> or at <https://www.federalregister.gov>. EPA established an official public docket under Docket ID No. EPA-HQ-OEJECR-2023-0326 which is accessible electronically at <https://www.regulations.gov> that will also contain copies of this Federal Register notice. The public docket does not include CBI or other information whose disclosure is restricted by statute.

B. What should I consider as I prepare my comments for the EPA?

1. Tips for preparing your comments. When preparing and submitting your comments, see Tips for Effective Comments at <https://www.epa.gov/dockets>. Please note that once submitted, comments cannot be edited or removed from the docket. The EPA may publish any comment received to its public docket. Please also consider the following questions while drafting comments:

- How can the EPA's Meaningful Involvement Approach support meaningful involvement without putting an extra burden on the public, and communities with environmental justice concerns specifically?
- How could the adapted Public Participation Spectrum be enhanced?
- Are there other examples of meaningful public involvement that the EPA should consider in this policy?

2. Submitting CBI. Do not submit CBI information to the EPA through regulations.gov or email. Clearly mark the part or all of the information that you claim to be CBI. In addition to one complete version of the comment that includes information claimed as CBI, a copy of the comment that does not contain the information claimed as CBI must be submitted for inclusion in the public docket. Information so marked will not be disclosed except in accordance with procedures set forth in 40 CFR part 2.

Michael S. Regan,
