SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On October 3, 2023, DHS published a notice in the Federal Register at 88 FR 68130 titled “Extension and Redesignation of Venezuela for Temporary Protected Status.” This document makes a technical correction to that notice (FR Doc. 2023–21865), correcting two incorrect references in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section of the notice. This document aligns the dates that appear in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section with the dates that appears in the DATES section.

The corrections are as follows:

(1) On page 68134, under the section “Required Application Forms and Application Fees To Register or Re-Register for TPS,” USCIS is correcting the date in the third paragraph, second sentence; and

(2) On page 68135, under the section “How can TPS beneficiaries obtain an Employment Authorization Document (EAD)?” USCIS is correcting the date in the first paragraph, sixth sentence regarding the date through which the EAD will be valid if the Form I–765 is approved.

In both instances, the dates should be September 10, 2025, not April 2, 2025. The “continuous residence” date for applicants for TPS under the redesignation of Venezuela remains as July 31, 2023, and is not affected by this document.

Correction

In FR 2023–21865, Federal Register of October 3, 2023, USCIS is correcting the following:

1. On page 68134, third column, third paragraph, second sentence under the section “Required Application Forms and Application Fees To Register or Re-Register for TPS,” is corrected to read as follows:

If USCIS approves an individual’s Form I–821, USCIS will grant the individual TPS through September 10, 2025.

2. On page 68135, second column, fourth sentence, is corrected to read as follows:

If USCIS approves a pending TPS-related Form I–765, USCIS will issue the individual a new EAD that will be valid through September 10, 2025.
