

applicants' fingerprints and associated information in NGI after the completion of their application and, while retained, their fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI as part of the FBI's Rap Back program.<sup>2</sup> In retaining applicants' fingerprints, the FBI conducts recurrent vetting of applicants' criminal history until the expiration date of the applicant's STA. TSA also transmits applicants' biometrics for enrollment into the Department of Homeland Security Automated Biometrics Identification System and its successor systems for recurrent vetting of applicants' criminal history, lawful presence, and ties to terrorism and for future support of TSA's biometric-based identification at airport checkpoints.

TSA uses the STA results to decide if an individual poses a low risk to transportation or national security. TSA issues approved applicants a known traveler number (KTN) that they may use when making travel reservations. Airline passengers who submit a KTN when making airline reservations are eligible for expedited screening on flights originating from U.S. airports and select international locations including Nassau, Bahamas.<sup>3</sup> TSA uses the traveler's KTN and other information during passenger prescreening to verify that the individual traveling matches the information on TSA's list of known travelers and to confirm TSA PreCheck™ expedited screening eligibility.

When the STA is complete, TSA makes a final determination on eligibility for the TSA PreCheck™ Application Program and notifies applicants of its decision. Most applicants generally should expect to receive notification from TSA within 3 to 5 days and up to 60 days of the submission of their completed applications. If initially deemed ineligible by TSA, applicants will have an opportunity to correct cases of misidentification or inaccurate criminal records. Applicants must submit a correction of any information they believe to be inaccurate within 60 days of issuance of TSA's letter. If a corrected record is not received by TSA within the specified amount of time, the agency may make a final determination to deny eligibility. Individuals who TSA determines are ineligible for the TSA PreCheck™ Application Program will undergo standard or other screening at airport security checkpoints.

TSA PreCheck™ Enrollment and Renewal Enhancements

The introduction of additional enrollment providers, as discussed in the previous ICR revision, will allow enrollment providers to offer multiple price points for TSA PreCheck™ enrollment and renewal as well as additional enrollment locations, which will allow the public to select the best option for their needs. TSA plans to explore<sup>4</sup> new enrollment capabilities to include remote proctored enrollment to further expand TSA's ability to service the public. This revision also addresses TSA's plan to accept Mobile Drivers Licenses and other Digital Identities for identity verification at enrollment upon TSA approval. Lastly, TSA intends to continue to collect information from TSA PreCheck™ members after enrollment through voluntary customer experience surveys to better serve the public.

The TSA PreCheck™ Application Program enhances aviation security by permitting TSA to better focus its limited security resources on passengers who are unknown to TSA and whose level of risk is undetermined, while also facilitating and improving the commercial aviation travel experience for the public. Travelers who choose not to enroll in this initiative are not subject to any limitations on their travel because of their choice; they will be processed through normal TSA screening before entering the sterile areas of airports. TSA also retains the authority to perform standard or other screening on a random basis on TSA PreCheck™ Application Program participants and any other travelers authorized to receive expedited physical screening.

TSA estimates that there will be an average of 4,948,845 respondents over a 3-year period, for a total of 14,871,740 respondents. This estimate is based on current and projected enrollments with TSA's existing program. TSA estimates that there will be an average annual hour burden of 5,031,067 hours over a 3-year projection, for a total of 15,093,202 hours. TSA estimates an average of 1.015 hours per respondent to complete the enrollment process, which includes time to fill out the enrollment or renewal application, round trip travel time to an enrollment center (as needed), providing biographic and biometric information to TSA (via an enrollment center or pre-enrollment options), the time burden for any records correction for the applicant, and time for surveys. The applicant fee per respondent for those who apply for the program directly with TSA will average $80 for initial enrollments, $70 for online renewals, and $75 for in-person renewals, which covers TSA's program costs, TSA's enrollment vendor's costs, and the FBI fee for the criminal history records check.

<sup>2</sup> The FBI's Rap Back service allows authorized agencies to receive on-going status notifications of any criminal history reported to the FBI after the initial processing and retention of criminal or civil transactions using fingerprint identification.

<sup>3</sup> Passengers who are eligible for expedited screening typically will receive more limited physical screening; e.g., will be able to leave on their shoes, light outerwear, and belt; to keep their laptop in its case; and to keep their "3-1-1" compliant liquids/gels bag in a carry-on.

<sup>4</sup> Remote Proctored Enrollment refers to enrollments conducted in-person by the applicant and monitored remotely by a trusted agent via real-time video stream.
