Federal Register

Vol. 89, No. 39

Tuesday, February 27, 2024

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains regulatory documents having general applicability and legal effect, most of which are keyed to and codified in the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published under 50 titles pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 1510.

The Code of Federal Regulations is sold by the Superintendent of Documents.

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

Office of the Secretary

6 CFR Part 5

Privacy Act of 1974

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Department of Homeland Security.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Department of Homeland Security (DHS or Department) is updating and clarifying its regulations related to the procedures for receiving Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and Privacy Act of 1974 requests.

DATES: This final rule is effective March 28, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mason Clutter, Chief Privacy Officer, Privacy Office, Department of Homeland Security, Washington, DC 20528, (202) 343-1717, Privacy@hq.dhs.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Specifically, DHS is updating Title 6, part 5, subsections 5.3(a)(2), 5.4(c), 5.21(a)(2), 5.21(a)(6), 5.22(c), and Appendix A to part 5.

I. Background

The Secretary of Homeland Security has authority under 5 U.S.C. 301, 552, and 552a, and 6 U.S.C. 112(e) to issue FOIA and Privacy Act regulations. That authority has been delegated to the Chief Privacy Officer of the Department pursuant to 6 U.S.C. 142 and DHS Del. No. 13001, Rev. 01 (June 2, 2020). The Department last updated its regulations under the FOIA and Privacy Act, 6 CFR part 5 on November 16, 2022 (87 FR 68599).

II. Discussion of Final Rule

This rule provides clarifying and procedural updates to Title 6, part 5, paragraphs 5.3(a)(2) and 5.21(a)(6), which provides instructions to requesters on how and where to make FOIA and Privacy Act (and Judicial Redress Act (JRA) if applicable) requests for DHS records. Specifically, DHS is adding a reference to Appendix A to part 5 for requesters to know when and how to submit a request to DHS component FOIA Offices. Furthermore, DHS is providing additional instructions in those sections on how the DHS Privacy Office can assist a requester if the requester does not know which component may have responsive records.

In addition, DHS is updating Title 6, part 5, paragraphs 5.3(a)(2), 5.21(a)(2), 5.21(a)(6) by replacing the URL <https://www.dhs.gov/dhs-foia-request-submission-form> with the following URL <https://www.dhs.gov/foia>. DHS is updating Appendix A to part 5 “FOIA/ Privacy Act Offices of the Department of Homeland Security,” by replacing the electronic URL where individuals can submit requests by way of instructions from DHS’s FOIA website from <https://foiarequest.dhs.gov/> to <https://www.dhs.gov/foia>.

As background, the DHS Headquarters Privacy Office maintains the contract for a FOIA processing solution used by most DHS component FOIA Offices. The DHS Headquarters Privacy Office updated its FOIA processing solution in 2023 and is now utilizing new technology and software services in order to receive electronic submission via a new FOIA online portal. This solution includes several features that will lessen the administrative burden associated with FOIA and provide DHS processors access to powerful information processing tools that will make it significantly easier to locate and efficiently process records. As such, DHS has decided to change the URL in those subsections and the appendix to link to the new portal. Further, for clarity, a parenthetical “(or JRA if applicable)” was added in Section II of Appendix A to part 5 to clarify that such requests, in addition to FOIA and Privacy Act requests, may be made to those DHS components listed in that section.

In 6 CFR 5.4(c), DHS is changing the title of this paragraph to “Forwarding misdirected requests.” In addition, DHS is modifying subsection 5.4(c) to clarify when and how a misdirected request should be forwarded. A request is not a misdirected request if the receiving DHS component may maintain records responsive to any portion of the request.

This is true even if the request may cover records that are maintained by a different DHS component. Under such circumstances, the receiving DHS component is under no obligation to refer the request to a different DHS component or other Federal agency responsible for maintaining other records identified in the request. If another agency should have received the request, the DHS component can, but is not required, to advise the requester to send their request to that other agency.

Finally, DHS is revising 6 CFR 5.22(c) to modify the title of paragraph 5.22(c) and modify the subsection to include and clarify that any misdirected Privacy Act or Judicial Redress Act (JRA) requests must be forwarded under the same procedures of 6 CFR 5.4(c).

III. Regulatory History

DHS did not publish a notice of proposed rulemaking for this rule. Under Title 5 of the United States Code (U.S.C.), Section 553(b)(A), this final rule is exempt from notice and public comment rulemaking requirements because the change involves rules of agency organization, procedure, or practice. In addition, under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B), an agency may waive the notice and comment requirements if it finds, for good cause, that notice and comment is impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest. DHS finds that notice and comment is unnecessary under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B) because the procedures for receiving FOIA and Privacy Act requests is an agency procedural update that will have no substantive effect on the public. For the same reasons, DHS finds that good cause exists under 5 U.S.C. 553(d) for making this final rule effective immediately upon publication.

IV. Regulatory Analyses

Executive Orders 12866, 13563 and 14094—Regulatory Review

Executive Orders 12866 (Regulatory Planning and Review), as amended by Executive Order 14094 (Modernizing Regulatory Review), and 13563 (Improving Regulation and Regulatory Review) direct agencies to assess the costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distributive impacts, and equity). Executive Order 13563 emphasizes the importance of quantifying costs and benefits, reducing costs, harmonizing rules, and promoting flexibility.

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has not designated this rule a significant regulatory action under section 3(f) of Executive Order 12866, as amended by Executive Order 14094. Accordingly, OMB has not reviewed this regulatory action.

This rule will not impose any additional costs on the public or the government. This rule provides an updated URL for requesters to submit a FOIA request and DHS is providing additional instructions how the DHS Privacy Office can assist a requester if the requester does not know which component may have responsive records. DHS believes the updates in these regulations will allow DHS to more efficiently process FOIA requests.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule will not result in the expenditure by state, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100,000,000 or more in any one year, and it will not significantly or uniquely affect small governments. Therefore, no written statement was deemed necessary under the provisions of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

Under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA), 5 U.S.C. 601–612, and section 213(a) of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, 5 U.S.C. 601 note, agencies must consider the impact of their rulemakings on “small entities” (small businesses, small organizations, and local governments). The term “small entities” comprises small businesses, not-for-profit organizations that are independently owned and operated and are not dominant in their fields, and governmental jurisdictions with populations of less than 50,000. The RFA’s regulatory flexibility analysis requirements apply only to those rules for which an agency is required to publish a general notice of proposed rulemaking pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b) or any other law. See 5 U.S.C. 604(a). DHS did not issue a notice of proposed rulemaking for this action. Therefore, a regulatory flexibility analysis is not required for this rule.

Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996

This rule is not a major rule as defined by section 251 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996 (as amended), 5 U.S.C. 804(2). The Office of Management and Budget’s Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs has not found that this rule is likely to result in an annual effect on the economy of $100,000,000 or more; a major increase in costs or prices; or significant adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or on the ability of United States-based companies to compete with foreign-based companies in domestic and export markets.

National Environmental Policy Act

DHS reviews proposed actions to determine whether the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) applies to them and, if so, what degree of analysis is required. DHS Directive 023–01 Rev. 01 (Directive) and Instruction Manual 023–01–001–01 Rev. 01 (Instruction Manual) establish the procedures that DHS and its components use to comply with NEPA and the Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) regulations for implementing NEPA, 40 CFR parts 1500 through 1508.

The CEQ regulations require Federal agencies to establish, with CEQ review and concurrence, categories of actions (“categorical exclusions”) which experience has shown do not individually or cumulatively have a significant effect on the human environment and, therefore, do not require an Environmental Assessment (EA) or Environmental Impact Statement (EIS). 40 CFR 1501.4(a); 1507.3(c)(8). Under DHS NEPA implementing procedures, for an action to be categorically excluded, it must satisfy each of the following three conditions: (1) the entire action clearly fits within one or more of the categorical exclusions; (2) the action is not a piece of a larger action; and (3) no extraordinary circumstances exist that create the potential for a significant environmental effect. Instruction Manual section V.B(2)(a)–(c).

As discussed above, this rule makes clarifying and procedural updates to CFR Title 6, part 5, paragraphs 5.3(a)(2), 5.4(c), 5.21(a)(6), and 5.22(a) regarding requests for DHS records and, therefore, clearly fits within categorical exclusion A3(a): “Promulgation of rules . . . of a strictly administrative or procedural nature.” Instruction Manual, Appendix A, Table 1. Furthermore, this rule is not part of a larger action and presents no extraordinary circumstances creating the potential for significant environmental impacts. Therefore, this rule is categorically excluded from further NEPA review and documentation.

For the reasons stated in the preamble, DHS amends Chapter I, part 5 of Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations, as follows:

PART 5—DISCLOSURE OF RECORDS AND INFORMATION

■ 1. The authority citation for part 5 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 6 U.S.C. 101 et seq.; Pub. L. 107–296, 116 Stat. 2135; 5 U.S.C. 301; 6 U.S.C. 142; DHS Del. No. 13001, Rev. 01 (June 2, 2020).

Subpart A also issued under 5 U.S.C. 552.

Subpart B also issued under 5 U.S.C. 552a and 552 note.2.

■ 2. Revise § 5.3(a)(2) to read as follows:

§ 5.3 Requirements for making requests.

(a) * * *

(2) A requester may send their request to the Privacy Office, U.S. Department of Homeland Security, 2707 Martin Luther King Jr. Ave. SE, STOP–0655, or via the internet at <https://www.dhs.gov/foia>, or via fax to (202) 343–4011, for any of the Headquarters Offices of the Department of Homeland Security listed in Appendix A to Subpart 5. In addition, if a requester does not know which DHS component may maintain responsive records to a request, the requester may explicitly ask for assistance from the DHS Privacy Office with identifying the proper component that most likely maintains any potential responsive records. Upon a request for assistance and based on information provided in the FOIA request and by the requester, the Privacy Office will forward the request to the DHS component(s) that it determines to be most likely, as of the date of the request for information, to maintain the records that are sought. The Privacy Office will notify the requester that it is forwarding the request, including identifying the component(s) where the request has been sent, provide the FOIA Public Liaison contact information for the respective component(s), and provide administrative appeal rights in the response. If the requester does not agree with the Privacy Office’s determination regarding which components would likely have records responsive to the request, the requester must submit a timely appeal of the Privacy Office's determination. Although these are not to be considered misdirected requests, the recipient DHS component shall be granted the same number of days to respond as permitted by 6 CFR 5.4(c) and 5.5(a).

■ 3. Revise § 5.4(c) to read as follows:

§ 5.4 Responsibility for responding to requests.

* * * * *

(c) Forwarding misdirected requests. Where a component's FOIA office determines that a request was misdirected within DHS, the receiving component's FOIA office, within 10 working days, shall route the request to the FOIA office of the proper component(s) for processing. Once the misdirected request has been forwarded and received by the appropriate DHS component, the 20-working day-time period to respond to the request commences, but in any event not later than 10 days after the request is first received by any DHS component that is designated in the DHS regulations to receive FOIA requests. A request is not a misdirected request if the receiving DHS component may maintain records responsive to any portion of the request. In other words, the receiving DHS component is not obligated to forward to other DHS components that may maintain responsive records unless those other DHS components are explicitly listed in the request.

* * * * *

■ 4. Revise § 5.21(a)(2) and (a)(6) to read as follows:

§ 5.21 Requests for access to records.

(a) * * *

(2) An individual may make a request for access to a Department of Homeland Security record about that individual covered by a DHS-wide or component system of records notice (SORN) by writing directly to the Department component that maintains the record at the address listed in appendix A to this part or via the internet at <https://www.dhs.gov/foia>. A description of all DHS-wide and component SORNs may be found here: <https://www.dhs.gov/system-records-notice-sorn>.

(6) An individual may send a request to the Privacy Office, Mail Stop 0655, U.S. Department of Homeland Security, 2707 Martin Luther King Jr. Ave. SE, Washington, DC 20528-0655, or via the internet at <https://www.dhs.gov/foia>, or via fax to (202) 343-4011 for any of the Headquarters Offices of the Department of Homeland Security listed Appendix A to Subpart 5. In addition, if a requester does not know which DHS component may maintain responsive records to a request, the requester may explicitly ask for assistance from the DHS Privacy Office with identifying the proper component that most likely maintains any potential responsive records citing this section of the regulations. Upon a request for assistance and based on information provided in the FOIA request and by the requester, the Privacy Office will forward the request to the DHS component(s) that it determines to be most likely, as of the date of the request for information, to maintain the records that are sought. The Privacy Office will notify the requester that it is forwarding the request, including identifying the component(s) where the request has been sent, provide the FOIA Public Liaison contact information for the respective component(s), and provide administrative appeal rights in the response. If the requester does not agree with the Privacy Office's determination regarding which components would likely have records responsive to the request, the requester must submit a timely appeal of the Privacy Office's determination. For the quickest possible handling, the requester should mark both the request letter and the envelope "Privacy Act Request" or "Judicial Redress Act Request."

■ 5. Revise § 5.22(c) to read as follows:

§ 5.22 Responsibility for responding to requests for access to records.

* * * * *

(c) Misdirected requests, consultations, coordination, and referrals. All misdirected requests and consultations, coordination, and referrals for requests of records subject to the Privacy Act or JRA will follow the same process and procedures as described in § 5.4(c) and § 5.4(d), including how to handle those requests that pertain to law enforcement information, as specified in § 5.4(d)(2), and classified information, as specified in § 5.4(d)(2) and (e). Further, whenever a request is made for access to a record containing information that has been classified by or may be appropriate for classification by another component or agency under any relevant Executive order concerning the classification of records, the receiving component will refer to § 5.24 for processing.

Dairy Margin Coverage Production History Adjustment and Program Extension AGENCY: Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) and Farm Service Agency (FSA), Department of Agriculture (USDA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This rule revises the regulations for Dairy Margin Coverage (DMC) as required by the Further Continuing Appropriations and Other Extensions Act, 2024, which extends provisions of the Agriculture Improvement Act of 2018 (2018 Farm Bill) and amends the Agricultural Act of 2014 (2014 Farm Bill) to allow eligible dairy operations to make a one-time adjustment to established production history and extend DMC through 2024. In addition, the rule extends eligibility of multi-year (lock-in) contracts for an additional year until December 31, 2024, and applies the discounted DMC premium rate to the newly established adjusted base production history.

DATES: Effective: February 27, 2024.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

FSA is revising the DMC regulations in 7 CFR part 1430 as required by the Further Continuing Appropriations and Other Extensions Act, 2024 (Pub. L. 118-22), which extends provisions of the 2018 Farm Bill (Pub. L. 115-334) and amends the 2014 Farm Bill (Pub. L. 113-79). This rule is necessary to implement statutory revisions to DMC to extend coverage for calendar year 2024 and update the production history for dairy operations with less than 5 million pounds according to a prescribed formula using 2019 marketings. This one-time adjustment allows for the production history for each participating dairy operation with less than 5 million pounds of production to better reflect the current production of the dairy operation. The production history for DMC was previously based on the higher of 2011, 2012, or 2013 marketings. The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 (CAA; Pub. L. 116-260), separately authorized, as discussed further below, supplemental payments to certain dairy operations that had supplemental production during DMC coverage years 2021, 2022, or 2023, based on actual 2019 marketings. These payments were referred to as Supplemental DMC. Amendments to DMC made by the Further Continuing Appropriations and Other Extensions Act, 2024, authorize a base production history adjustment for certain dairies using the same formula. Therefore, for ease of administration, for 2024 DMC enrollment, dairy operations that established supplemental production history during the coverage years of 2021 through 2023 will combine their supplemental production history with established production history to create one adjusted base production history. Dairy operations that meet requirements for the adjustment but did not establish supplemental production history during the coverage years of 2021, 2022, and 2023 will have the opportunity to establish a base production history adjustment during 2024 DMC enrollment. For those dairy operations enrolled in 2023 DMC under a multi-year lock-in contract, lock-in eligibility will be extended until December 31, 2024. In addition, dairy operations enrolled in multi-year lock-in contracts are eligible for the discounted DMC premium rate during the 2024 coverage year.

Dairy Margin Coverage

Section 1403 of Subtitle D of Title I of the 2014 Farm Bill (7 U.S.C. 9053) authorizes DMC to provide a risk management program for dairy operations that pays producers when the difference between the price of milk and the cost of feed (the margin) falls below a certain dollar amount selected by the producer. Producers are eligible for catastrophic level margin protection (based on a $4 margin and 95 percent production history coverage) for their dairy operations by paying an annual administrative fee and are also able to purchase greater coverage (up to $9.50 margin on 5 to 95 percent of production history) for an annual premium.

Section 761 of Subtitle B of Title VII of Division N of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 (CAA; Pub. L. 116–260) authorized eligible participants in DMC, who have an approved DMC contract, the opportunity to create a supplemental production history and receive supplemental payments whenever the average actual dairy production margin for a month is less than the coverage level threshold as selected by the dairy operation. Dairy operations eligible for supplemental coverage were to have an approved DMC contract for the applicable calendar year and have an existing DMC production history of less than 5 million pounds. The supplemental production history was determined by multiplying 75 percent of the result of subtracting the dairy operation's established production history from their actual milk marketings for the 2019 calendar year as follows:

(2019 milk marketings – production history) × 75%

Participating dairy operations with approved supplemental pounds had the same coverage percentage and level as on the DMC contract for the applicable calendar year and DMC and Supplemental DMC payments were issued according to the corresponding coverage levels for both established production history and supplemental pounds, respectively.

Authority to make the supplemental production history payments under the CAA ended as of December 31, 2023. However, amendments to the 2014 Farm Bill under the Further Continuing Appropriations and Other Extensions Act, 2024, use the same supplemental production history formula authorized by the CAA to determine the new adjusted base production history for eligible dairy operations to enroll for 2024 DMC coverage. The result of the formula is added to the historic established production history resulting in a new adjusted base production history for the dairy operation. DMC payments, when triggered, will be based on the adjusted base production history and applicable coverage elections for the 2024 coverage year. The supplemental production history for participating dairy operations with established production history during the 2021, 2022, or 2023 coverage years will be combined with their historical production history resulting in one new adjusted base production history for the dairy operation. Dairy operations with historical production history over 5 million pounds and no supplemental production history are not affected. Eligible DMC dairy operations that did not previously establish supplemental history may establish an adjusted base production history according to the previous supplemental formula used to update production history.

For dairy operations enrolled in 2023 DMC under a multi-year lock-in contract, the Further Continuing Appropriations and Other Extensions Act, 2024, extends their lock-in eligibility for another year until December 31, 2024. Those dairy operations must enroll during the 2024 coverage election period to extend lock-in coverage through coverage year 2024. Dairy operations with 2023 lock-in coverage that do not enroll during the 2024 DMC Coverage Election Period will not be enrolled in 2024 DMC. Dairy operations enrolled in multi-year lock-in contracts are eligible for the discounted DMC premium rate on all pounds of Tier 1 adjusted base production history. For dairy operations with lock-in contracts that have an adjusted base production history that exceeds the 5-million pound Tier 1 threshold, the additional Tier 2 pounds will be automatically enrolled at the Tier 2, $4.00 Catastrophic level unless the dairy operation chooses to opt out of lock-in coverage for 2024 DMC. For 2024, dairy operations with lock-in contracts have the option to opt out of lock-in coverage and enroll in 2024 DMC through an annual contract with standard non-discounted premium rates applicable.

For 2024, DMC-enrollment participating dairy operations with annual contracts and adjusted base production history will select a coverage percentage and level on their adjusted base production history and pay the standard premium rate. Tier 1 and Tier 2 premium rates are specified in 7 CFR 1430.407. DMC enrollment for the 2024 coverage year will be effective retroactive to January 1, 2024. Eligible dairy operations that are approved for 2024 DMC enrollment will receive any applicable payments triggered after January 1, 2024.

FSA will announce by press release and external communications a 60-day or more enrollment or coverage election period for participating dairy operations to enroll in 2024 DMC.

Notice, Comment, Exemptions, and Effective Date

As specified in section 1601(c)(2) of Subtitle F of Title I of the 2014 Farm Bill (7 U.S.C. 9091(c)(2)), the regulations to implement and administer the DMC Program are:

- Exempt from the notice and comment provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553, and
- Exempt from the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35).

In addition, section 1601(c)(3) as well as section 1246 of Subtitle E of title XII of the Food Security Act of 1985 (16 U.S.C. 3846) direct the Secretary to use the authority provided in 5 U.S.C. 808 (part of the Congressional Review Act), which provides that when an agency finds for good cause that notice and public procedure are impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest, the rule may take effect at such time as the agency determines.

DMC is authorized through December 31, 2024, under the recently enacted Further Continuing Appropriations and Other Extensions Act, 2024, which also extends certain provisions of the 2018 Farm Bill through September 30, 2024. FSA and CCC find that notice and public procedure are contrary to the public interest. Therefore, even though this rule is a major rule for purposes of the Congressional Review Act (5 U.S.C. 800–808), FSA and CCC are not required to delay the effective date for 60 days from the date of publication to allow for Congressional review. Therefore, this rule is effective on the date of publication in the Federal Register.

In addition, because this rule is exempt from the requirements in 5 U.S.C. 553, it is also exempt from the regulatory analysis requirements of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601–612), as amended by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996 (SBREFA). The requirements for the regulatory flexibility analysis in 5 U.S.C. 603 and 604 are specifically tied to the agency being required to issue a proposed rule by section 553 or any other law, further, the definition of rule in 5 U.S.C. 601 is tied to the publication of a proposed rule.

Executive Orders 12866 and 13563

Executive Order 12866, “Regulatory Planning and Review,” and Executive Order 13563, “Improving Regulation and Regulatory Review,” direct agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distributive impacts, and equity). Executive Order 13563 emphasized the importance of quantifying both costs and benefits, of reducing costs, of harmonizing rules, and of promoting flexibility. The requirements in Executive Orders 12866 and 13573 for the analysis of costs and benefits apply to rules that are determined to be significant.

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) designated this rule as not significant under Executive Order 12866 and therefore, OMB has not reviewed this rule.

Environmental Review

The environmental impacts of this final rule have been considered in a manner consistent with the provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA, 42 U.S.C. 4321–4347), the regulations of the Council on Environmental Quality (40 CFR parts 1500–1508), the FSA regulation for compliance with NEPA (7 CFR part 799), and, because FSA will be making the payments to producers, the USDA regulation for compliance with NEPA (7 CFR part 1b).

The intent of the DMC Program is a margin-based support program for dairy producers providing risk management coverage that will pay producers when the difference between the national price of milk and the national estimated cost of feed (the margin) falls below a certain level. The aspects of DMC being revised in this rule do not have the potential to impact the human environment. As such, for DMC, the FSA categorical exclusions in 7 CFR 799.31 apply, specifically 7 CFR 799.31(b)(6)(iii) Financial assistance to supplement income, manage the supply of agricultural commodities, or influence the cost or supply of such commodities or programs of a similar nature or intent (that is, price support programs) and (vi) Safety net programs administered by FSA.

Through this review, FSA determined that the proposed changes in this rule fit within the categorical exclusions listed above. Categorical exclusions apply when no extraordinary circumstances exist (7 CFR 799.33). As such, FSA evaluated the potential for extraordinary circumstances and determined that none apply because the provisions identified in this final rule are minor and administrative in nature, are intended to clarify the mandatory requirements of the programs, and do not constitute a major Federal action that would significantly affect the quality of the human environment, individually or cumulatively. Therefore, an environmental assessment or environmental impact statement will not be prepared for this regulatory action; this rule serves as documentation of the programmatic environmental compliance decision for this Federal action.

Executive Order 12988

This rule has been reviewed under Executive Order 12988, “Civil Justice Reform.” This rule will not preempt State or local laws, regulations, or policies unless they represent an irreconcilable conflict with this rule. Eligible dairy operations that are approved for 2024 DMC enrollment will receive any applicable payments that trigger after January 1, 2024. Before any judicial actions may be brought regarding the provisions of this rule, the administrative appeal provisions of 7 CFR parts 11 and 780 are to be exhausted.

Executive Order 13175

This rule has been reviewed in accordance with the requirements of Executive Order 13175, “Consultation and Coordination with Indian Tribal Governments.” Executive Order 13175 requires Federal agencies to consult and coordinate with Tribes on a Government-to-Government basis on policies that have Tribal implications, including regulations, legislative comments or proposed legislation, and other policy statements or actions that have substantial direct effects on one or more Indian Tribes, on the relationship between the Federal Government and Indian Tribes, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities between the Federal Government and Indian Tribes.

USDA has assessed the impact of this rule on Indian Tribes and determined that this rule does not, to our knowledge, have Tribal implications that required Tribal consultation under Executive Order 13175 at this time. If a Tribe requests consultation, the USDA Office of Tribal Relations (OTR) will ensure meaningful consultation is provided where changes, additions, and modifications are not expressly mandated by law.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

Title II of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA, Pub. L. 104–4) requires Federal agencies to assess the effects of their regulatory actions of State, local, and Tribal governments or the private sector. Agencies generally must prepare a written statement, including cost benefit analysis, for proposed and final rules with Federal mandates that may result in expenditures of $100 million or more in any 1 year for State, local or Tribal governments, in the aggregate, or to the private sector. UMRA generally requires agencies to consider alternatives and adopt the more cost effective or least burdensome alternative that achieves the objectives of the rule. This rule contains no Federal mandates, as defined in Title II of UMRA, for State, local and Tribal governments or the private sector. Therefore, this rule is not subject to the requirements of sections 202 and 205 of UMRA.

Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA)

As noted above, the regulations to implement the DMC Program are exempt from PRA as specified in 7 U.S.C. 9091.

Federal Assistance Programs

The title and number of the Federal assistance program, as found in the Assistance Listing¹ to which this rule applies is: 10.127—Dairy Margin Coverage Program.

USDA Non-Discrimination Policy

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and USDA civil rights regulations and policies, USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family or parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

List of Subjects in 7 CFR Part 1430

Dairy products, Fraud, Penalties, Reporting and recordkeeping requirements.

PART 1430—DAIRY PRODUCTS

■ 1. The authority citation for part 1430 is revised to read as follows:

Authority: 7 U.S.C. 9051-9060 and 9071 and 15 U.S.C. 714b and 714c.

Subpart D—Dairy Margin Coverage Program

■ 2. Amend 1430.402 as follows:

- a. Add the definition of “Adjusted base production history” in alphabetical order;
- b. Remove the definition of “Supplemental Dairy Margin Coverage payment”; and
- c. Revise the definition of “Supplemental production history”.

The addition and revision to read as follows:

§ 1430.402 Definitions.

* * * * *

Adjusted base production history means the production history determined under this subpart for a participating dairy operation with production of less than 5 million pounds that is adjusted according to this subpart.

Supplemental production history means the production history determined according to a formula using actual 2019 marketings, as authorized by the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 (Pub. L. 116-260) for coverage years 2021, 2022, and 2023, for dairy operations enrolled in DMC with less than 5 million pounds of production.

§ 1430.403 [Amended]

■ 3. In § 1430.403, amend paragraph (f), by removing the word “supplemental” and adding “adjusted based” in its place both times it appears.

■ 4. Amend § 1430.404 as follows:

- a. In paragraph (a), remove the word “supplemental” and add “adjusted base” in its place;
- b. Revise paragraph (b) introductory text;
- c. Remove paragraph (b)(3);
- d. Revise paragraphs (c)(1) and (e)(2);
- e. Revise paragraph (h);

The revisions read as follows:

§ 1430.404 Time and method of registration and annual election.

* * * * *

(b) A dairy operation must submit completed contracts and any other supporting documentation, during the annual election period established by the Deputy Administrator, to the administrative county FSA office serving the dairy operation. However, the production history must be established only once and approved by CCC before the contract is submitted and considered complete. Dairy operations with less than 5 million pounds of production may make a one-time adjustment to production history based on a prescribed formula using actual 2019 milk marketings according to § 1430.405(a)(3), during the 2024 annual coverage election period. Once the adjusted base production history is established, that history will be permanent, will be used in place of previously established production history, and will be subject to coverage elections made by the dairy operation under the lock-in option according to § 1430.407(j) or made by the dairy operation in subsequent annual coverage year enrollments.

* * * * *

(1) The applicable year of coverage for contracts received during an annual election period will be the following calendar year, except for 2019 and 2024, where the election and coverage year will be the same, or unless otherwise specified by the Deputy Administrator for Farm Programs. Coverage for dairy operations that register during the 2019 election period will be retroactive to January 1, 2019. Coverage for dairy operations that are approved for 2024 DMC enrollment will receive any applicable payments triggered after January 1, 2024.

(2) During the 2019 annual coverage election period only, participating dairy operations that make a one-time election of coverage level and percentage of coverage, according to § 1430.407(j), will be locked in at the same coverage level and percentage of coverage for a 5-year period beginning January 1, 2019, and ending December 31, 2023. During the annual coverage election period, dairy operations that elected that lock-in option must choose to remain locked in at the same coverage level and percentage of coverage for an additional year, ending December 31, 2024, or opt out of lock-in coverage for coverage year 2024. Dairy operations that elect the lock-in option are required to pay the annual administrative fee and submit an annual contract during the annual contract election period for each coverage year to certify that the dairy operation is still in the business of producing and commercially marketing milk. If the operation fails to pay the applicable administrative fees or certify the status of the dairy operation, the dairy operation will remain obligated for all applicable unpaid administrative and premium fees calculated for the lock-in period.

* * * * *

(h) In addition to meeting requirements in paragraph (g) of this section, the dairy operation must submit a separate form as prescribed by CCC to establish the adjusted base production history for the dairy operation, if applicable, to complete a submission.

■ 5. Amend § 1430.405 as follows:

- a. In paragraph (a) introductory text, remove the word “years” and add “years, and will establish an adjusted base production history, if applicable”;
- b. In paragraph (a)(1), remove the word “supplemental”; and add “or adjusted base production history” in its place;
- c. Revise paragraph (a)(3);
- d. Add paragraph (a)(4);
- e. In paragraph (f), remove the words “and supplemental” wherever they appear and add “or adjusted base production” in their place; and

■ f. In paragraph (g), remove the word “supplemental” and add “adjusted base production” in its place;

The revision and additions read as follows:

§ 1430.405 Establishment and transfer of production history for a participating dairy operation.

(3) A participating dairy operation may establish supplemental production history during the coverage election period preceding the coverage year, except for 2021 when a special enrollment will occur. To determine supplemental production history, the dairy operation production history established according to paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section must be subtracted from that dairy operation’s actual pounds of 2019 milk production as indicated on the milk marketing statement, with the result multiplied by 75 percent. Supplemental production history may not be established after the 2023 coverage year.

(4) A participating dairy operation with production of less than 5 million pounds may establish adjusted base production history during the coverage election period beginning with the 2024 coverage year. To determine adjusted base production history, the dairy operation production history established according to paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section, and as previously adjusted under paragraph (e) of this section, if applicable, must be subtracted from that dairy operation’s actual pounds of 2019 milk production as indicated on the milk marketing statement, with the result multiplied by 75 percent, and then added to the previously established production history. If the new adjusted base production history for a lock-in contract in coverage year 2024 exceeds the maximum 5 million pounds that can be covered under Tier 1, according to § 1430.407(d), the excess pounds above 5 million pounds will be enrolled in Tier 2 at the $4.00 Catastrophic level coverage. If the new adjusted base production history for an annual contract exceeds the maximum 5 million pounds that can be covered under Tier 1, the excess pounds above 5 million pounds will be enrolled according to the coverage elections on the annual contract.

■ 6. In § 1430.406, amend paragraph (c) by removing “2023” and adding “2024” in its place;

■ 7. Amend § 1430.407 as follows:

■ a. In paragraph (a) introductory text, remove the word “succeeding” and add “applicable” in its place;

■ b. In paragraph (a)(2), remove the words “and supplemental” and add “or adjusted base production” in their place; and

■ c. Revise paragraphs (f), (j) and (n). The revisions read as follows:

§ 1430.407 Buy-up coverage.

* * * * *

(f) The annual premium due for a participating dairy operation is calculated for production history or adjusted base production history, as applicable, by multiplying:

(1) The covered production history or adjusted base production history; and

(2) The premium per cwt of milk specified in paragraph (e) of this section for the coverage level elected in paragraph (d) of this section by the dairy operation.

(j) For each calendar year 2019 through 2023, a participating dairy operation that makes a one-time election of a coverage level threshold and a percentage of coverage according to this section, for a 5-year period, will have their elected coverage level, as applicable to each tier, reduced by 25 percent. The option to lock in for the premium rate discount must be elected during the 2019 annual coverage election period announced by FSA. Except that, new dairy operations, not in existence during the 2019 annual election period, that elect to participate in DMC according to § 1430.404(b), are eligible to receive the premium rate discount for locking coverage for the period beginning with the first available calendar year and ending in 2023, except that new dairy operations registering for DMC for the first time for coverage year 2023 and dairy operations that stop producing and marketing milk in 2019 that are registering for eligible months in 2019 are not eligible for the multi-year premium rate discount. All dairy operations that elect the lock-in option are subject to full participation in the DMC Program at the same elected premium coverage levels and calculated premium for the duration of DMC according to § 1430.413. Participating dairy operations that received the premium rate discount during the 2023 calendar year of coverage are eligible to receive the premium rate discount for calendar year 2024, unless the dairy operation opts-out of lock-in coverage for 2024 according to § 1430.404(e)(2).

* * * * *

(n) The premium rate for adjusted base production history eligible under a lock-in contract maintains the 25 percent discounted rate according to paragraph (j) of this section.

* * * * *

(n) The premium rate for adjusted base production history eligible under a lock-in contract maintains the 25 percent discounted rate according to paragraph (j) of this section.

§ 1430.409 [Amended]

■ 7. Amend § 1430.409 as follows:

■ a. In paragraph (b), remove the words “production history” and add the words “production history or established adjusted base production history” in their place both times they appear;

■ a. In paragraph (b)(2), add the word “and” at the end;

■ b. In paragraph (b)(3), remove the words “of the” and add “or adjusted base production history of the” in their place and remove “; and” and add a period in their place;

■ c. Remove paragraph (b)(4); and

■ d. In paragraph (c), remove the word “history” and add “history or adjusted base production history” in its place both times it appears.

■ 8. Amend § 1430.413 as follows:

■ a. In paragraph (b), remove the words “for each” and add “no later than September 1 of the applicable calendar year of coverage” in their place;

■ b. In paragraph (c), remove the date “December 31, 2023” and add “the end of the lock-in period” in its place; and

■ c. Add paragraphs (d) and (e).

§ 1430.413 Multi-year contract for lock-in option.

* * * * *

(d) For 2024 DMC coverage, participating dairy operations with lock-in coverage in 2023 are eligible to extend lock-in coverage for coverage year 2024.

(e) During the 2024 election period, a participating dairy operation with lock-in coverage in 2023, may opt out of the lock-in contract for coverage year 2024 and enroll in 2024 DMC through an annual contract at the standard premium rate.

Airworthiness Directives; Robinson Helicopter Company Helicopters

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The FAA is adopting a new airworthiness directive (AD) for certain Robinson Helicopter Company Model R22, R22 Alpha, R22 Beta, R22 Mariner, R44, R44 II, and R66 helicopters. This AD was prompted by reports of helicopters losing a tail rotor blade (TRB) tip cap. This AD requires visually checking and inspecting certain part-numbered and serial-numbered TRB tip caps for evidence of corrosion and, depending on the results, removing the corrosion. This AD also requires removing all affected TRBs from service and prohibits installing them on any helicopter. The FAA is issuing this AD to address the unsafe condition on these products.

DATES: This AD is effective April 2, 2024.

ADDRESSES:

AD Docket: You may examine the AD docket at regulations.gov under Docket No. FAA-2023-2232; or in person at Docket Operations between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays. The AD docket contains this final rule, any comments received, and other information. The address for Docket Operations is U.S. Department of Transportation, Docket Operations, M-30, West Building Ground Floor, Room W12-140, 1200 New Jersey Avenue SE, Washington, DC 20590.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

The FAA issued a notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM) to amend 14 CFR part 39 by adding an AD that would apply to certain Robinson Helicopter Company Model R22, R22 Alpha, R22 Beta, R22 Mariner, R44, R44 II, and R66 helicopters. The NPRM published in the Federal Register on December 6, 2023 (88 FR 84761). The NPRM was prompted by three reports of TRB tip caps coming loose due to corrosion at the bond on Robinson Helicopter Company Model R44 helicopters. Due to the similarity of the TRB tip caps on Robinson Helicopter Company Model R22, R22 Alpha, R22 Beta, R22 Mariner, R44 II, and R66 helicopters, those model helicopters are also affected by this issue. According to Robinson Helicopter Company, it has also seen TRBs that have corroded to an unserviceable condition, including severe leading edge pitting and degradation of the bond at the tip cap. Robinson Helicopter Company advises that helicopters operating near saltwater are particularly susceptible to corrosion, especially if stored outdoors. Affected TRBs were factory-installed or shipped as spares prior to November 2022. The three reports include a TRB tip cap departing its helicopter. The separate incidents occurred during a run-up check, after landing, and during a landing on different helicopters.

In the NPRM, the FAA proposed to require repetitively checking and inspecting the tips caps of TRB part number (P/N) A029-2 with TRB serial numbers (S/N) up to 11279 inclusive (P/N A029-2 REV A through U inclusive), TRB P/N C029-3 with TRB S/N up to 14329 inclusive (P/N C029-3 REV A through Q inclusive), and TRB P/N F029-1 with TRB S/N up to 3099 inclusive (P/N F029-1 REV A through F inclusive) for evidence of corrosion, removing corrosion, and eventual removal of those TRBs from service. The owner/operator (pilot) holding at least a private pilot certificate may accomplish the check of the TRB tip caps and must enter compliance with the applicable paragraph of this AD into the helicopter maintenance records in accordance with 14 CFR 43.9(a) and 91.417(a)(2)(v). The pilot may perform this action because it only involves visually checking the TRB tip caps for an exposed tip cap bond line or bubbled paint. This action could be performed equally well by a pilot or a mechanic. This is an exception to the FAA's standard maintenance regulations.

A debonded TRB tip cap can cause severe vibration and possible failure of the tail rotor gearbox housing. This condition, if not addressed, could result in increased vibrations, reduced controllability, and subsequent loss of control of the helicopter. The FAA is issuing this AD to address the unsafe condition on these products.

Discussion of Final Airworthiness DirectiveComments

The FAA received no comments on the NPRM or on the determination of the costs.

Conclusion

The FAA reviewed the relevant data and determined that air safety requires adopting this AD as proposed. Accordingly, the FAA is issuing this AD to address the unsafe condition on these products. Except for minor editorial changes, this AD is adopted as proposed in the NPRM.

Related Service Information

The FAA reviewed Robinson Helicopter Company R22 Service Bulletin SB-120, R44 Service Bulletin SB-112, and R66 Service Bulletin SB-41, each dated December 22, 2022 (SB-120, SB-112, and SB-41). This service information specifies procedures for revising the Pilot's Operating Handbook of affected helicopters by inserting the included "Special Tail Rotor Tip Preflight Inspection" page and briefing all pilots and maintenance personnel regarding those inspection procedures. This service information also specifies procedures for replacing, and returning or sending photos of affected TRBs to Robinson Helicopter Company.

The FAA also reviewed Robinson Helicopter Company R22 Service Letter SL-93, R44 Service Letter SL-82, and R66 Service Letter SL-40, each dated June 30, 2021 (co-published as one document) (SL-93, SL-82, and SL-40). This service information specifies procedures for removing corrosion from TRBs, applying protectant, balancing TRBs after corrosion removal or painting, chemical cleaning TRBs, and tap testing the TRB tip cap area.

Differences Between This AD and the Service Information

The effectivity of Robinson Helicopter Company SB-120, SB-112, and SB-41 identify the helicopter S/Ns that the affected TRBs were factory-installed on and the shipping dates of affected TRB spares, whereas this AD applies to the specified model helicopters with certain part-numbered and serial-numbered TRBs installed. Robinson Helicopter Company SB-120, SB-112, and SB-41 specify revising the Pilot's Operating Handbook of affected helicopters and briefing all pilots and maintenance personnel regarding the inspection requirements, whereas this AD does not require those actions. Robinson Helicopter Company SB-120, SB-112, and SB-41 do not specify any visual inspections accomplished by a mechanic, whereas this AD requires repetitive visual inspections of the TRBs by persons authorized under 14 CFR 43.3. Robinson Helicopter Company SB-120, SB-112, and SB-41 specify replacing, and returning or sending photos of affected TRBs by December 31, 2024, whereas this AD requires removing affected TRBs from service within 10 months.

SL-93, SL-82, and SL-40 specify procedures for chemical cleaning TRBs, tap testing the TRB tip care area, applying protectant, and balancing TRBs after corrosion removal or painting, whereas this AD does not require those actions.

Costs of Compliance

The FAA estimates that this AD affects 2,701 helicopters of U.S. registry. The FAA estimates the following costs to comply with this AD. Labor costs are estimated at $85 per work-hour.

Visually checking or inspecting the TRBs (up to two affected TRBs per helicopter) will take approximately 0.25 work-hour for an estimated cost of up to $22 per helicopter per cycle, for a U.S. fleet cost of up to $59,422 per cycle. If required, removing any corrosion will take approximately 2 work-hours and the parts will cost approximately $100 for an estimated cost of $270 per TRB. Replacing a TRB will take approximately 3.5 work-hours and the parts will cost up to approximately $3,600 for an estimated cost of up to $3,898 per TRB.

The FAA has included all known costs in its cost estimate. According to the manufacturer, however, some of the costs of this AD may be covered under warranty, thereby reducing the cost impact on affected operators.

Authority for This Rulemaking

Title 49 of the United States Code specifies the FAA's authority to issue rules on aviation safety. Subtitle I, section 106, describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII: Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the Agency's authority.

The FAA is issuing this rulemaking under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart III, Section 44701: General requirements. Under that section, Congress charges the FAA with promoting safe flight of civil aircraft in air commerce by prescribing regulations for practices, methods, and procedures the Administrator finds necessary for safety in air commerce. This regulation is within the scope of that authority because it addresses an unsafe condition that is likely to exist or develop on products identified in this rulemaking action.

Regulatory Findings

This AD will not have federalism implications under Executive Order 13132. This AD will not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government.

For the reasons discussed above, I certify that this AD:

- (1) Is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866,
- (2) Will not affect intrastate aviation in Alaska, and
- (3) Will not have a significant economic impact, positive or negative, on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

The Amendment

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

- 1. The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 106(g), 40113, 44701.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

- 2. The FAA amends § 39.13 by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

2024-04-02 Robinson Helicopter Company:
Amendment 39-22681; Docket No. FAA-2023-2232; Project Identifier AD-2023-00943-R.

(a) Effective Date

This airworthiness directive (AD) is effective April 2, 2024.

(b) Affected ADs

None.

(c) Applicability

This AD applies to the Robinson Helicopter Company helicopters, certificated in any category, identified in paragraphs (c)(1) through (3) of this AD.

(1) Model R22, R22 Alpha, R22 Beta, and R22 Mariner helicopters with tail rotor blade (TRB) part number (P/N) A029-2 with TRB serial numbers (S/N) up to 11279 inclusive (P/N A029-2 REV A through U inclusive), installed;

(e) Unsafe Condition

This AD was prompted by reports of helicopters losing a TRB tip cap. The FAA is issuing this AD to detect and prevent TRB tip cap failures. The unsafe condition, if not addressed, could result in increased vibrations, reduced controllability, and subsequent loss of control of the helicopter.

(f) Compliance

Comply with this AD within the compliance times specified, unless already done.

(g) Required Actions

(1) Within 10 hours time-in-service (TIS) after the effective date of this AD and thereafter before the first flight of each day, visually check each TRB tip cap area (at and adjacent to the tip cap bond line on each surface and edge of the TRB) for an exposed tip cap bond line or bubbled paint, as depicted in Figure 1 to paragraph (g)(1) of this AD. These items may indicate evidence of corrosion. The owner/operator (pilot) holding at least a private pilot certificate may accomplish this TRB tip cap check and must enter compliance with this paragraph of the AD into the helicopter maintenance records in accordance with 14 CFR 43.9(a) and 91.417(a)(2)(v). The record must be maintained as required by 14 CFR 91.417, 121.380, or 135.439.

(2) Within 100 hours TIS or during the next 100 hour or annual inspection after the effective date of this AD, whichever occurs first, and thereafter at intervals not to exceed 100 hours TIS or during the next 100 hour or annual inspection, whichever occurs first, visually inspect each TRB tip cap area (at and adjacent to the tip cap bond line on each surface and edge of the TRB) for evidence of corrosion, which may be indicated by an exposed tip cap bond line or bubbled paint, as depicted in Figure 1 to paragraph (g)(1) of this AD.

(3) As a result of the actions required by either paragraph (g)(1) or (2) of this AD, if there is evidence of corrosion, an exposed tip cap bond line, or bubbled paint, before further flight, remove all of the corrosion.

Note 1 to paragraph (g)(3): Robinson Helicopter Company R22 Service Letter SL-93, R44 Service Letter SL-82, and R66 Service Letter SL-40, each dated June 30, 2021 (co-published as one document), provide information regarding removing corrosion from TRBs.

(4) Within 10 months of the effective date of this AD, remove all TRBs identified in paragraph (c) of this AD from service.

(5) As of 10 months after the effective date of this AD, do not install a TRB identified in paragraph (c) of this AD on any helicopter.

(h) Alternative Methods of Compliance (AMOCs)

(1) The Manager, West Certification Branch, FAA, has the authority to approve AMOCs for this AD, if requested using the procedures found in 14 CFR 39.19. In accordance with 14 CFR 39.19, send your request to your principal inspector or local Flight Standards District Office, as appropriate. Establishment of Multiple Air Traffic Service (ATS) Routes; Hawaiian Islands

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This action establishes United States Area Navigation (RNAV) Routes T-340, T-342, T-344, and T-346 in the Hawaiian Islands. These RNAV routes facilitate the movement of aircraft among the Hawaiian Islands and increase operational efficiencies to RNAV Standard Instrument Departures (SID) and RNAV Standard Terminal Arrival Routes (STAR), which enhances the air traffic capacity of the Hawaiian airports.

DATES: Effective date 0901 UTC, May 16, 2024. The Director of the Federal Register approves this incorporation by reference action under 1 CFR part 51, subject to the annual revision of FAA Order JO 7400.11 and publication of conforming amendments.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Authority for This Rulemaking

The FAA's authority to issue rules regarding aviation safety is found in Title 49 of the United States Code. Subtitle I, Section 106 describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the agency's authority. This rulemaking is promulgated under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart I, Section 40103. Under that section, the FAA is charged with prescribing regulations to assign the use of the airspace necessary to ensure the safety of aircraft and the efficient use of airspace. This regulation is within the scope of that authority as it expands the availability of RNAV in Hawaii and promotes operational efficiencies to RNAV SID and RNAV STAR which enhances the air traffic capacity of the Hawaiian airports.

History

The FAA published an NPRM for Docket No. FAA-2019-0900 in the Federal Register (84 FR 67884; December 12, 2019), proposing to establish RNAV routes T-340, T-342, T-344, and T-346 in the Hawaiian Islands. Interested parties were invited to participate in this rulemaking effort by submitting comments on the proposal. No comments were received.

Differences From the NPRM

The NPRM published in the Federal Register (84 FR 67884; December 12, 2019), included the new waypoint (WP) MALOA, HI, WP in the route description for RNAV route T-340. This WP will not be used as a route point for T-340. The NPRM also included HLENA, HI, WP in the route description of T-340. This action changes the name of the HLENA, HI, WP to HLONO, HI, WP. The location of the HLONO, HI, WP will remain as published for HLENA, HI, WP, in the NPRM. Finally, the route points KOLEA, HI, WP and PAIKO, HI, WP listed in the NPRM for T-346 have been renamed. The new name of the KOLEA, HI, WP is KIKKI, HI, WP. The location of the KIKKI, HI, WP will remain as published for KOLEA, HI, WP, in the NPRM. The new name of the PAIKO, HI, WP, is PLACK, HI, WP. The location of the PLACK, HI, WP will remain as published for PAIKO, HI, WP, in the NPRM. Lastly, the route point NORWA, HI, WP is being removed from the route description of T-346. This route point represents a less than one degree turn and therefore is not required to be included in the route description. The updated route point names and route descriptions are incorporated in this action.

Incorporation by Reference

United States Area Navigation Routes are published in paragraph 6011 of FAA Order JO 7400.11 Airspace Designations and Reporting Points, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1 on an annual basis. This document amends the current version of that order, FAA Order JO 7400.11H, dated August 11, 2023, and effective September 15, 2023. FAA Order JO 7400.11H is publicly available as listed in the ADDRESSES section of this document. These amendments will be published in the next update to FAA Order JO 7400.11.

FAA Order JO 7400.11H lists Class A, B, C, D, and E airspace areas, air traffic service routes, and reporting points.

International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) Considerations

As part of this action relates to the navigable airspace outside the United States 12 nautical mile territorial limit, this rule is submitted consistent with the ICAO Standards and Recommended Practices (SARPs).

Applicability of the SARPs by the FAA, in areas outside domestic airspace of the United States is governed by Annex 11 to the Convention on International Civil Aviation. Annex 11's purpose, together with Annex 2, is to ensure that international civil aviation is carried out under uniform conditions designed to improve the safety and efficiency of air operations.

The SARPs in Annex 11 apply in those parts of the airspace under the jurisdiction of a Contracting State wherein air traffic services are provided and wherever a Contracting State accepts the responsibility of providing air traffic services over the high seas or in airspace of undetermined sovereignty. A Contracting State accepting such responsibility may apply the SARPs to civil aircraft in a manner consistent with that adopted for airspace under its domestic jurisdiction.

Executive Order 10854 requires coordination with the Secretary of State and Secretary of Defense in the event an airspace action will wholly, or in part, affect an area outside of the United States or the overlying airspace thereof, over or in which the Federal Government of the United States, under international treaty, agreement, or other lawful arrangement, has appropriate jurisdiction or control.

Due to this action involving, in part, the designation of navigable airspace outside of the United States, the Administrator has consulted with the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Defense in accordance with the provisions of Executive Order 10854.

The Rule

This action amends 14 CFR part 71 by establishing RNAV Routes T-340, T-342, T-344, and T-346 in the Hawaiian Islands to facilitate the movement of aircraft among the Hawaiian Islands and increase operational efficiencies to current and proposed RNAV SIDs and STARs. The new RNAV routes are described below.

T-340: T-340 is a new route that extends between the NORBY, HI, Fix and the Hilo, HI (ITO), Very High Frequency Omnidirectional Range/Tactical Air Navigation (VORTAC). RNAV Route T-340 provides a route to the north of the island of Maui, avoiding turbulence from strong trade winds. Additionally, T-340 provides an alternative weather avoidance route between Oahu and the Big Island.

T-342: T-342 is a new route that extends between the KUHIO, HI, WP and the Kona HI (KOA), VORTAC. RNAV Route T-342 provides a route to the north of the island of Molokai and then turns south to the Kona VORTAC. Additionally, T-342 provides for weather avoidance.

T-344: T-344 is a new route that extends between the NAPUA, HI, Fix and the Kona, HI (KOA), VORTAC. RNAV Route T-344 provides a route along the south side of the Hawaiian Island chain. Additionally, T-344 provides a more direct routing from the island of Kauai to the Big Island.

T-346: T-346 is a new route that extends between the Lihua, HI (LIH), VORTAC and the PLACK, HI, WP. RNAV Route T-346 provides a route from the island of Kauai to the Big Island and connects to RNAV Route T-340. Additionally, T-346 supports single engine aircraft that need to stay within gliding distance to the shoreline.

Regulatory Notices and Analyses

The FAA has determined that this regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. It, therefore: (1) is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a “significant rule” under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that only affects air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this rule, when promulgated, does not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Environmental Review

The FAA has determined that this airspace action of establishing RNAV Routes T–340, T–342, T–344, and T–346 in the Hawaiian Islands, qualifies for categorical exclusion under the National Environmental Policy Act (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.) and its implementing regulations at 40 CFR part 1500, and in accordance with FAA Order 1050.1F, Environmental Impacts: Policies and Procedures, paragraph 5–6.5a, which categorically excludes from further environmental impact review rulemaking actions that designate or modify classes of airspace areas, airways, routes, and reporting points (see 14 CFR part 71, Designation of Class A, B, C, D, and E Airspace Areas; Air Traffic Service Routes; and Reporting Points), and paragraph 5–6.5i, which categorically excludes from further environmental review the establishment of new or revised air traffic control procedures conducted at 3,000 feet or more above ground level (AGL); procedures conducted below 3,000 feet AGL that do not cause traffic to be routinely routed over noise sensitive areas; modifications to currently approved procedures conducted below 3,000 feet AGL that do not significantly increase noise over noise sensitive areas; and increases in minimum altitudes and landing minima. As such, this action is not expected to result in any potentially significant environmental impacts. In accordance with FAA Order 1050.1F, paragraph 5–2 regarding Extraordinary Circumstances, the FAA has reviewed this action for factors and circumstances in which a normally categorically excluded action may have a significant environmental impact requiring further analysis. Accordingly, the FAA has determined that no extraordinary circumstances exist that warrant preparation of an environmental assessment or environmental impact study.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Authority for This Rulemaking

The FAA’s authority to issue rules regarding aviation safety is found in Title 49 of the United States Code. Subtitle I, Section 106, describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the agency’s authority. This rulemaking is promulgated under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart I, Section 40103. Under that section, the FAA is charged with prescribing regulations to assign the use of the airspace necessary to ensure the safety of aircraft and the efficient use of airspace. This regulation is within the scope of that authority as it modifies Class E airspace to support IFR operations at Spanish Fork Municipal Airport/Woodhouse Field, Spanish Fork, UT.

History

The FAA published a notice of proposed rulemaking for Docket No. FAA-2023-1757 in the Federal Register (88 FR 63542; September 15, 2023), proposing to modify Class E airspace at Spanish Fork Municipal Airport/Woodhouse Field, UT. Interested parties were invited to participate in this rulemaking effort by submitting written comments on the proposal to the FAA. No comments were received.

Incorporation by Reference

Class E5 airspace area is published in paragraph 6005, respectively, of FAA Order JO 7400.11, Airspace Designations and Reporting Points, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1 on an annual basis. This document amends the current version of that order, FAA Order JO 7400.11H, dated August 11, 2023, and effective September 15, 2023. FAA Order JO 7400.11H is publicly available as listed in the ADDRESSES section of this document. These amendments will be published in the next update to FAA Order JO 7400.11.

FAA Order JO 7400.11H lists Class A, B, C, D, and E airspace areas, air traffic service routes, and reporting points.

The Rule

This action amends 14 CFR part 71 by modifying the Class E airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface at Spanish Fork Municipal Airport/Woodhouse Field, Spanish Fork, UT.

The Class E airspace area extending upward from 700 feet above the surface is increased to a 6.9-mile radius to better contain IFR departures until they reach 1,200 feet above the surface on the SPANISH FORK ONE DEPARTURE (OBSTACLE) procedure. Additionally, a 2.1-mile extension from the airport’s 326° bearing extending 2 miles on either side is added to better contain IFR arrival operations below 1,500 feet above the surface on the Area Navigation (RNAV) (Global Positioning System [GPS]) Y Runway (RWY) 12 and RNAV (GPS) Z RWY 12 approaches.

Regulatory Notices and Analyses

The FAA has determined that this regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. It, therefore: (1) is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a “significant rule” under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that only affects air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this rule, when promulgated, does not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Environmental Review

The FAA has determined that this action qualifies for categorical exclusion under the National Environmental Policy Act in accordance with FAA Order 1050.1F, “Environmental Impacts: Policies and Procedures,” paragraph 5–6.5.a. This airspace action is not expected to cause any potentially significant environmental impacts, and no extraordinary circumstances exist that warrant preparation of an environmental assessment.

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This action amends the Class E airspace at Maple Lake, MN. This action is the result of an airspace review as part of the decommissioning of the Darwin very high frequency omnidirectional range (VOR) as part of the VOR Minimum Operating Network (MON) Program. This action updates the name of Maple Lake Municipal Airport-Bill Mavencamp Sr. Field to coincide with the FAA’s aeronautical database. This action does not change the airspace boundaries or operating requirements.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Authority for This Rulemaking

The FAA’s authority to issue rules regarding aviation safety is found in Title 49 of the United States Code. Subtitle I, Section 106 describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the agency’s authority. This rulemaking is promulgated under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart I, Section 40103. Under that section, the FAA is charged with prescribing regulations to assign the use of airspace necessary to ensure the safety of aircraft and the efficient use of airspace. This regulation is within the scope of that authority as it amends the Class E airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface at Maple Lake Municipal Airport-Bill Mavencamp Sr. Field, Maple Lake, MN, to support instrument flight rule operations at this airport.

History

The airspace at Maple Lake Municipal Airport-Bill Mavencamp Sr. Field, Maple Lake, MN, was reviewed as part of the decommissioning of the Darwin VOR as part of the VOR MON Program. The airspace review revealed that the name of the airport had been changed, but the airspace legal description had not been updated. This action updates the name of the airport to coincide with the FAA’s aeronautical database. This action is an administrative change and does not affect the airspace boundaries or operating requirements.

Incorporation by Reference

Class E airspace designations are published in paragraph 6005 of FAA Order JO 7400.11, Airspace Designations and Reporting Points, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1 on an annual basis. This document amends the current version of that order, FAA Order JO 7400.11H, dated August 11, 2023, and effective September 15, 2023. FAA Order JO 7400.11H is publicly available as listed in the ADDRESSES section of this document. These amendments will be published in the next update to FAA Order JO 7400.11.

FAA Order JO 7400.11H lists Class A, B, C, D, and E airspace areas, air traffic service routes, and reporting points.

The Rule

This amendment to 14 CFR part 71 modifies the Class E airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface at Maple Lake Municipal Airport-Bill Mavencamp Sr. Field, Maple Lake, MN by updating the name (previously Maple Lake Municipal Airport) of the airport to coincide with the FAA’s aeronautical database.

This action is an administrative change and does not affect the airspace boundaries or operating requirements; therefore, notice and public procedure under 5 U.S.C. 553(b) is unnecessary.

Regulatory Notices and Analyses

The FAA has determined that this regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. It, therefore: (1) is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a “significant rule” under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that only affects air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this rule, when promulgated, does not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Environmental Review

The FAA has determined that this action qualifies for categorical exclusion under the National Environmental Policy Act in accordance with FAA Order 1050.1F, “Environmental Impacts: Policies and Procedures,” paragraph 5–6.5.a. This airspace action is not expected to cause any potentially significant environmental impacts, and no extraordinary circumstances exist that warrant preparation of an environmental assessment.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Authority for This Rulemaking

The FAA’s authority to issue rules regarding aviation safety is found in Title 49 of the United States Code. Subtitle I, Section 106 describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the agency’s authority. This rulemaking is promulgated under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart I, Section 40103. Under that section, the FAA is charged with prescribing regulations to assign the use of the airspace necessary to ensure the safety of aircraft and the efficient use of airspace. This regulation is within the scope of that authority as it modifies the Air Traffic Service (ATS) route structure as necessary to preserve the safe and efficient flow of air traffic within the National Airspace System.

History

The FAA published a NPRM for Docket No. FAA 2023–1441 in the Federal Register (88 FR 42659; July 3, 2023), proposing to revoke B–12 in the vicinity of Kodiak Island, AK. Interested parties were invited to participate in this rulemaking effort by submitting written comments on the proposal to the FAA. No comments were received.

Incorporation by Reference

Colored Federal Airways are published in paragraph 6009 of FAA Order JO 7400.11, Airspace Designations and Reporting Points, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1 on an annual basis. This document amends the current version of that order, FAA Order JO 7400.11H, dated August 11, 2023, and effective September 15, 2023. FAA Order JO 7400.11H is publicly available as listed in the ADDRESSES section of this document. These amendments will be published in the next update to FAA Order JO 7400.11.

FAA Order JO 7400.11H lists Class A, B, C, D, and E airspace areas, air traffic service routes, and reporting points.

The Rule

This action amends 14 CFR part 71 by revoking Colored Federal Airway B–12, in its entirety in the vicinity of Kodiak, AK.

Regulatory Notices and Analyses

The FAA has determined that this regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. It, therefore: (1) is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a “significant rule” under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that only affects air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this rule, when promulgated, does not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Environmental Review

The FAA has determined that this airspace action of revoking Colored Federal Airway B–12 in the vicinity of Kodiak, AK qualifies for categorical exclusion under the National Environmental Policy Act (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.) and its implementing regulations at 40 CFR part 1500, and in accordance with FAA Order 1050.1F, Environmental Impacts: Policies and Procedures, paragraph 5–6.5a, which categorically excludes from further environmental impact review rulemaking actions that designate or modify classes of airspace areas, airways, routes, and reporting points (see 14 CFR part 71, Designation of Class A, B, C, D, and E Airspace Areas; Air Traffic Service Routes; and Reporting Points), and paragraph 5–6.5k, which categorically excludes from further environmental review the publication of existing air traffic control procedures that do not essentially change existing tracks, create new tracks, change altitude, or change concentration of aircraft on these tracks. As such, this action is not expected to result in any potentially significant environmental impacts. In accordance with FAA Order 1050.1F, paragraph 5–2 regarding Extraordinary Circumstances, the FAA has reviewed this action for factors and circumstances in which a normally categorically excluded action may have a significant environmental impact requiring further analysis. Accordingly, the FAA has determined that no extraordinary circumstances exist that warrant preparation of an environmental assessment or environmental impact study.

RIN 0694–AJ54

Additions of Entities to the Entity List

AGENCY: Bureau of Industry and Security, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: In this rule, the Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS) amends the Export Administration Regulations (EAR) by adding 93 entities under 95 entries to the Entity List. These entries are listed on the Entity List under the destinations of the People’s Republic of China (China) (8), India (1), Kyrgyzstan (2), Russia (63), South Korea (1), Turkey (16), and the United Arab Emirates (UAE) (4). Two entities are added to the Entity List under two destinations, accounting for the difference in the totals. These entities have been determined by the U.S. Government to be acting contrary to the national security or foreign policy interests of the United States.

DATES: This rule is effective February 23, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Chair, End-User Review Committee, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Export Administration, Bureau of Industry and Security, Department of Commerce, Phone: (202) 482–5991, Email: ERC@bis.doc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Entity List (supplement no. 4 to part 744 of the EAR (15 CFR parts 730 through 774)) identifies entities for which there is reasonable cause to believe, based on specific and articulable facts, that the entities have been involved, are involved, or pose a significant risk of being or becoming involved in activities contrary to the national security or foreign policy interests of the United States, pursuant to § 744.11(b). The EAR impose additional license requirements on, and limit the availability of, most license exceptions for exports, reexports, and transfers (in-country) when a listed entity is a party to the transaction. The license review policy for each listed entity is identified in the “License Review Policy” column on the Entity List, and the impact on the availability of license exceptions is described in the relevant Federal Register document that added the entity to the Entity List. The Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS) places entities on the Entity List pursuant to parts 744 (Control Policy: End-User and End-Use Based) and 746 (Embargoes and Other Special Controls) of the EAR.

The End-User Review Committee (ERC), composed of representatives of the Departments of Commerce (Chair), State, Defense, Energy and, where appropriate, the Treasury, makes all decisions regarding additions to, removals from, or other modifications to the Entity List. The ERC makes all decisions to add an entry to the Entity List by majority vote and makes all decisions to remove or modify an entry by unanimous vote.

Additions to the Entity List

The ERC determined to add the following five entities to the Entity List: Dennex Enterprises Limited; Exeya Co., Limited; Most Development Limited; Sigma Technology Limited; and United Electronics Group Company Limited, all under the destination of China. These entities are added based on information that they significantly contribute to Russia's military and/or defense industrial base by facilitating the diversion of controlled microelectronics to Russia's military and intelligence authorities in support of Russia's war in Ukraine. This activity is contrary to the national security and foreign policy interests of the United States under § 744.11 and these entities qualify as military end users under § 744.21(g) of the EAR. These entities are receiving a footnote 3 designation because the ERC has determined that they are Russian or Belarusian 'military end users' pursuant to § 744.21. A footnote 3 designation subjects these entities to the Russia/Belarus-Military End User Foreign Direct Product (FDP) rule, detailed in § 734.9(g). The entities are added with a license requirement for all items subject to the EAR and a license review policy of denial for all items subject to the EAR apart from food and medicine designated as EAR99, which will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

The ERC determined to add the following eight entities to the Entity List: Kaili Industrial H.K. Limited and Shenzhen Speed Industrial Materials Co., Ltd. under the destination of China, Muller Markt LLC and Profflab LLC under the destination of Kyrgyzstan, Daesung International Trading under the destination of South Korea, and Karasani Dis Ticaret Limited Sirketi; and Orel Dis Ticaret Ltd. under the destination of Turkey. These entities are added for their provision of support to Russia's industrial sector by procuring U.S.-origin machine tools, electronics test equipment, and machine tool spare parts for Russian end-users without required BIS licenses. These items enable Russia to continue its war against Ukraine by developing Russia's industrial base, which gives it the supplies and manufacturing capabilities it needs to replenish munitions and other military goods while also building its wartime economy. This activity is contrary to the national security and foreign policy interests of the United States under § 744.11 of the EAR. These entities will be added with a license requirement for all items subject to the EAR and a license review policy of denial.

The ERC determined to add the following 12 entities to the Entity List: Bion Group Ic Ve Dis Ticaret Limited Sirketi, under the destinations of China and Turkey; Sky17 OOO, under the destination of Russia; and Alesta World Dis Ticaret Ltd; Azu International Bilgi Teknolojileri Ve Dis Ticaret Limited Sirketi; Cozum Yazilim Donanim Elektronik Ic Ve Dis Tic A S; CTL Dis Ticaret Limited Sirketi; CTM Dis Ticaret Ltd. Sti.; Ercacan Makina Ekipmanlari ve Sanayi Tedarik Ltd Sti.; Kayi Bilişim Elektronik Enerji Madencilik Ve Danismanlik Ltd. Şti.; Megasan Elektronik Ticaret Ve Sanayi A.S.; Smart Trading Tasimacilik San Ve Tic Ltd Sti; and Transeurope Bilişim Diş Ticaret Limited Şirketi, all under the destination of Turkey. These entities are being added because they have engaged in conduct contrary to U.S. foreign policy interests, including by supplying Russia with U.S.-origin items of potential importance to Russia's war effort. The actions of these companies are contrary to U.S. national security and foreign policy interests under § 744.11 of the EAR. Licenses are required for all items subject to the EAR. License applications will be reviewed under a presumption of denial.

The ERC determined to add the following entity to the Entity List: Crynofist Aviation, under the destinations of India and the UAE. This addition is being made because the entity has repeatedly engaged in dilatory, evasive, or misleading behavior regarding its importing of U.S. origin goods. Furthermore, this entity has diverted or attempted to divert U.S.-origin items to Russia without prior authorization from BIS. This activity is contrary to U.S. national security and foreign policy interests under § 744.11 of the EAR. License applications will be reviewed under a presumption of denial.

The ERC determined to add the following six entities to the Entity List: OOO Center for Non-Destructive Testing Technologies Sovtest; Sovtest ATE; Sovtest MTM OOO; Sovtest-Servis OOO; Sovtest-Tekhno OOO; and UK PT Sovtest OOO, all under the destination of Russia. These entities are added based on the risk they pose of attempting to procure and re-export U.S.-origin items contrary to the national security and foreign policy interests of the United States. These entities are all corporate affiliates of OOO Sovtest Comp, which was added to the Entity List on December 22, 2020 (85 FR 83416), for acquiring both radiation-hardened parts and other sensitive electronic components and reexporting those U.S.-origin components to Russia without required licenses. In addition, according to open-source Russian government contract data, these entities have since 2001 acted as suppliers of electronic goods and other items for an extensive array of Russian governmental and state-owned entities that are currently designated on the Entity List. The ERC has determined these entities are engaging in conduct that poses a risk of violating the EAR such that prior review of exports and re-exports involving these parties, and the imposition of license requirements, enhances BIS's ability to prevent further violations of the EAR. These entities will be added with a license requirement for all items subject to the EAR. License applications will be reviewed under a presumption of denial.

The ERC determined to add the following 46 entities to the Entity List: AFM-Servers Limited Liability Company; Closed Joint Stock Company Marine Bridge and Navigation Systems; Closed Joint Stock Company Tekhrim; EFO Company Limited Liability Company; Federal State Unitary Enterprise Central Research Institute of Structural Materials Prometheus named after I.V. Gorynina; Joint Stock Company 356 Aircraft Repair Plant; Joint Stock Company 502 Military-Technical Property Repair Plant; Joint Stock Company A.S. Yakovlev Design Bureau; Joint Stock Company Aerokon; Joint Stock Company Bryansk Wheeled Tractor Factory-Almaz-Antey; Joint Stock Company Central Company of Financial Industrial Group High Speed Fleet; Joint Stock Company Central Scientific-Research Radiotechnical Institute named after Academic A. I. Berg; Joint Stock Company Defense Systems; Joint Stock Company Design Bureau Kuntsevo; Joint Stock Company Design Bureau of Special Machine Building; Joint Stock Company Eastern Defense Enterprise Granit; Joint Stock Company Kazan Experimental Design Bureau Soyuz; Joint Stock Company Main Production and Technical Enterprise Granit; Joint Stock Company Moscow Scientific-Research Institute Agat; Joint Stock Company Murom Radio Measuring Devices Plant; Joint Stock Company Mytishchi Machine Building Plant; Joint Stock Company Navigator Institute of Aviation Instrument-Making; Joint Stock Company Novosibirsk Aircraft Repair Plant; Joint Stock Company Oboronpromservice United Base Service Center; Joint Stock Company Obukhovskoye; Joint Stock Company Ryazan Production and Technical Enterprise Granit; Joint Stock Company Scientific Production Association Android Technics; Joint Stock Company Scientific Production Association Moscow Radio-Technical Plant; Joint Stock Company Scientific Production Association Pravdinsky Radio Plant; Joint Stock Company Scientific Production Enterprise Plant Iskra; Joint Stock Company Scientific Research Institute of Modern Telecommunication Technologies; Joint Stock Company Specialized Vector Experimental Design Bureau for Systems and Means of Measurement; Joint Stock Company State Scientific-Research Institute of Instrument Making; Joint Stock Company Sukhoi Design Bureau Company; Joint Stock Company Uraltransmash; Joint Stock Company Vega Radio Engineering Corporation; Joint Stock Company Zavod No. 9; Nobel Brothers Shipyard Limited Liability Company; OKB Luch Limited Liability Company; Open Joint Stock Company Russian Systems Corporation; P.P. Shirshov Institute of Oceanology of the Russian Academy of Sciences; Prom Composite Limited Liability Company; Public Joint Stock Company Saturn; Public Joint Stock Company Scientific Production Enterprise Impulse; Russian Firearms Limited Liability Company; and VR-Technologies Limited Liability Company, all under the destination of Russia. These entities are added for acquiring and attempting to acquire U.S.-origin items in support of Russia's military. This activity is contrary to U.S. national security and foreign policy interests under § 744.11 and these entities qualify as military end users under § 744.21 of the EAR. These entities are receiving a footnote 3 designation because the ERC has determined that they are Russian or Belarusian 'military end users' pursuant to § 744.21. A footnote 3 designation subjects these entities to the Russia/Belarus-Military End User Foreign Direct Product (FDP) rule, detailed in § 734.9(g). The entities are added with a license requirement for all items subject to the EAR and a license review policy of denial for all items subject to the EAR apart from food and medicine designated as EAR99, which will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

The ERC determined to add the following ten entities to the Entity List: Acrol LLC; ARD Satcom; EKB-Neva; EMS Expert LLC; Fifth Element LLC; Medanta; Militech AO; Militech Trade LLC; Symphony LLC; and T-Komponent SP, all under the destination of Russia, to the Entity List. These entities are being added for attempting to evade export controls and sanctions and attempting to acquire U.S.-origin items in support of Russia. This activity is contrary to U.S. national security and foreign policy interests under § 744.11.

The ERC determined to add the following three entities to the Entity List: Miray Global Sanayi Ve Ticaret; Ramses Turizm Isletmesi Danismanlik; and Svista Turizm Ve Havacilik Dis, all under the destination of Turkey. These entities are added because they have shipped U.S.-origin goods to Russia in apparent violation of U.S. export controls imposed on Russia following its further invasion of Ukraine. License applications will be reviewed under a presumption of denial.

The ERC determined to add the following three entities to the Entity List: Lucky Star General Trading LLC; Marakish Express Cargo LLC; and Payload Cargo LLC, all under the destination of the United Arab Emirates. These additions are being made because these entities are part of a network implicated in the attempted transshipment of U.S.-origin goods to Iran or Russia, which presents a significant risk of violating the EAR. This activity is contrary to the national security and foreign policy interests of the United States under § 744.11 of the EAR. Licenses are required for all items subject to the EAR. License applications will be reviewed under a presumption of denial.

RIN 0694–AJ53
Additions of Entities, Revisions of Entries, and Removal of an Entity From the Entity List AGENCY: Bureau of Industry and Security, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Final rule.
SUMMARY: The Bureau of Industry and Security is amending the Export Administration Regulations (EAR) by adding two entities under seven entries to the Entity List. These entities are listed under the destinations of Canada (1), the People’s Republic of China (China) (1), India (1), Japan (1), Malaysia (1), Sweden (1), and the United Arab Emirates (UAE) (1). Some entities are added under multiple entries, accounting for the difference in the totals. This final rule also modifies two existing entries on the Entity List under the destination of China. This final rule removes one entity under the destination of the UAE.

DATES: This rule is effective February 27, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Chair, End-User Review Committee, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Export Administration, Bureau of Industry and Security, Department of Commerce, Phone: (202) 482-5991, Email: ERC@bis.doc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Entity List (supplement no. 4 to part 744 of the EAR (15 CFR parts 730–774)) identifies entities for which there is reasonable cause to believe, based on specific and articulable facts, that the entities have been involved, are involved, or pose a significant risk of being or becoming involved in activities contrary to the national security or foreign policy interests of the United States, pursuant to § 744.11(b). The EAR impose additional license requirements on, and limit the availability of, most license exceptions for exports, reexports, and transfers (in-country) where a listed entity is a party to the transaction. The license review policy for each listed entity is identified in the “License Review Policy” column on the Entity List, and the impact on the availability of license exceptions is described in the relevant Federal Register document that adds the entity to the Entity List. The Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS) places entities on the Entity List pursuant to part 744 (Control Policy: End-User and End-Use Based) and part 746 (Embargoes and Other Special Controls) of the EAR.

The End-User Review Committee (ERC), composed of representatives of the Departments of Commerce (Chair), State, Defense, Energy and, where appropriate, the Treasury, makes all decisions regarding additions to, removals from, or other modifications to the Entity List. The ERC makes all decisions to add an entry to the Entity List by majority vote and makes all decisions to remove or modify an entry by unanimous vote.

Additions to the Entity List

The ERC determined to add Chengdu Beizhan Electronics Co. Ltd., to the Entity List under the destination of China for acquiring and attempting to acquire U.S.-origin items on behalf of the University of Electronic Science and Technology, an entity on the BIS Entity List. These activities are contrary to U.S.

national security and foreign policy interests under § 744.11 of the EAR. This entity is added with a license requirement for all items subject to the EAR. The entity is added with a license review policy of a presumption of denial.

The ERC determined to add Sandvine Incorporated, under the destinations of Canada, India, Japan, Malaysia, Sweden, and the United Arab Emirates to the Entity List. This addition is being made based on information that Sandvine supplies deep packet inspection technology to the Government of Egypt, where it is used in mass web-monitoring and censorship to block news as well as target political actors and human rights activists. These activities are contrary to the national security and foreign policy interests of the United States under § 744.11 of the EAR. These entities are added with a license requirement for all items subject to the EAR. They are added with a license review policy of a presumption of denial.

For the reasons described above, this final rule adds the following 2 entities under 7 entries to the Entity List and includes, where appropriate, aliases:

Canada

- Sandvine Incorporated.

China

- Chengdu Beizhan Electronics Co., Ltd.

India

- Sandvine Incorporated.

Japan

- Sandvine Incorporated.

Malaysia

- Sandvine Incorporated.

Sweden

- Sandvine Incorporated.

United Arab Emirates

- Sandvine Incorporated.

Modifications to the Entity List

This final rule implements the decision of the ERC to modify two existing entries on the Entity List, both under the destination of China. The ERC determined to revise the entry for Beijing China Aviation Technology Co., Ltd., by adding an alias to the entry for a total of five aliases. In addition, the ERC determined to revise the entry for Rayscience Optoelectronics Innovation Co., Ltd., to add one alias and one additional address.

Removal From the Entity List

The ERC determined to remove Jazirah Aviation Club under the destination of the UAE from the Entity List based on the review the ERC conducted in accordance with the procedures described in supplement no. 5 to part 744 of the EAR.

Savings Clause

For the changes being made in this final rule, shipments of items removed from eligibility for a License Exception or export, reexport, or transfer (in-country) without a license (NLR) as a result of this regulatory action that were en route aboard a carrier to a port of export, reexport, or transfer (in-country), on February 27, 2024, pursuant to actual orders for export, reexport, or transfer (in-country) to or within a foreign destination, may proceed to that destination under the previous eligibility for a License Exception or export, reexport, or transfer (in-country) without a license (NLR) before March 28, 2024. Any such items not actually exported, reexported or transferred (in-country) before midnight, on March 28, 2024, require a license in accordance with this final rule.

Export Control Reform Act of 2018

On August 13, 2018, the President signed into law the John S. McCain National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2019, which included the Export Control Reform Act of 2018 (ECRA) (50 U.S.C. 4801–4852). ECRA provides the legal basis for BIS’s principal authorities and serves as the authority under which BIS issues this rule.

Accordingly, no regulatory flexibility analysis is required and none has been prepared.

40 CFR Part 52

[EPA-R09-OAR-2022-0604; FRL-10574-02-R9]

Air Plan Approval; CA; San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is taking final action to approve revisions to the San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District

(SJVAPCD) portion of the California State Implementation Plan (SIP). The revisions were submitted by the California Air Resources Board (CARB), on behalf of SJVAPCD, in response to the EPA's May 22, 2015 finding of substantial inadequacy and SIP call for certain provisions in the SIP related to exemptions and affirmative defenses applicable to excess emissions during startup, shutdown, and malfunction (SSM) events. The EPA is finalizing approval of the SIP revisions because the Agency has determined that they are in accordance with the requirements for SIP provisions under the Clean Air Act (CAA or the Act) and correct deficiencies identified in the May 22, 2015, SIP call.

DATES: This rule is effective March 28, 2024.

ADDRESSES: The EPA has established a docket for this action under Docket ID No. EPA-R09-OAR-2022-0604. All documents in the docket are listed on the <https://www.regulations.gov> website. I. Proposed Action

On February 22, 2013, the EPA issued a Federal Register notice of proposed rulemaking outlining EPA’s policy at the time with respect to SIP provisions related to periods of SSM. The EPA analyzed specific SSM SIP provisions and explained how each one either did or did not comply with the CAA with regard to excess emission events.¹ For each SIP provision that the EPA determined to be inconsistent with the CAA, the EPA proposed to find that the existing SIP provision was substantially inadequate to meet CAA requirements and thus proposed to issue a SIP call under CAA section 110(k)(5). On September 17, 2014, the EPA issued a document supplementing and revising what the Agency had previously proposed on February 22, 2013, in light of a D.C. Circuit decision that determined the CAA precludes authority of the EPA to create affirmative defense provisions applicable to private civil suits. The EPA outlined its updated policy that affirmative defense SIP provisions are not consistent with CAA requirements. The EPA proposed in the supplemental proposal document to apply its revised interpretation of the CAA to specific affirmative defense SIP provisions and proposed SIP calls for those provisions where appropriate (79 FR 55920, September 17, 2014).

On June 12, 2015, pursuant to CAA section 110(k)(5), the EPA finalized “State Implementation Plans: Response to Petition for Rulemaking; Restatement and Update of EPA’s SSM Policy Applicable to SIPs; Findings of Substantial Inadequacy; and SIP Calls to Amend Provisions Applying to Excess Emissions During Periods of Startup, Shutdown and Malfunction,” hereafter referred to as the “2015 SSM SIP Action.”² The 2015 SSM SIP Action clarified, restated, and updated the EPA’s interpretation that SSM exemptions and affirmative defense SIP provisions are inconsistent with CAA requirements. The 2015 SSM SIP Action found that certain SIP provisions in 36 states were substantially inadequate to meet CAA requirements and issued a SIP call to those states to submit SIP revisions to address the inadequacies. The EPA established an 18-month deadline by which the affected states had to submit such SIP revisions. States were required to submit corrective revisions to their SIPs in response to the SIP calls by November 22, 2016.

The EPA issued a Memorandum in October 2020 (2020 Memorandum), which stated that certain provisions governing SSM periods in SIPs could be viewed as consistent with CAA requirements.³ Importantly, the 2020 Memorandum stated that it “did not alter in any way the determinations made in the 2015 SSM SIP Action that identified specific state SIP provisions that were substantially inadequate to meet the requirements of the Act.” Accordingly, the 2020 Memorandum had no direct impact on the SIP call issued to SJVAPCD in 2015. The 2020 Memorandum did, however, indicate the EPA’s intent at the time to review SIP calls that were issued in the 2015 SSM SIP Action to determine whether the EPA should maintain, modify, or withdraw particular SIP calls through future agency actions.

On September 30, 2021, the EPA’s Deputy Administrator withdrew the 2020 Memorandum and announced the EPA’s return to the policy articulated in the 2015 SSM SIP Action (2021 Memorandum).⁴ As articulated in the 2021 Memorandum, SIP provisions that contain exemptions or affirmative defense provisions are not consistent with CAA requirements and, therefore, generally are not approvable if contained in a SIP submission. This policy approach is intended to ensure that all communities and populations, including overburdened communities, receive the full health and environmental protections provided by the CAA.⁵ The 2021 Memorandum also retracted the prior statement from the 2020 Memorandum of EPA’s plans to review and potentially modify or withdraw particular SIP calls. That statement no longer reflects the EPA’s intent. The EPA intends to implement the principles laid out in the 2015 SSM SIP Action as the Agency takes action on SIP submissions, including SJVAPCD’s SIP submittal, provided in response to the 2015 SIP call.

With regards to SJVAPCD, the SIP call identified Rules 110, 111, and 113 because the rules contained improper affirmative defenses for excess emissions during startup, shutdown, and malfunction events. On August 10, 2023 (88 FR 54257), the EPA proposed to approve removal of the rules in the following table from the California SIP.

District	Rule No.	Rule title	Adopted	Submitted
San Joaquin Valley APCD (Fresno County APCD)	110	Equipment Breakdown	2/17/2022	4/14/2022
San Joaquin Valley APCD (Stanislaus County APCD)	110	Equipment Breakdown	2/17/2022	4/14/2022

⁴ September 30, 2021, memorandum “Withdrawal of the October 9, 2020, Memorandum Addressing Startup, Shutdown, and Malfunctions in State Implementation Plans and Implementation of the Prior Policy,” from Janet McCabe, Deputy Administrator.

⁵ 80 FR 33985.

District	Rule No.	Rule title	Adopted	Submitted
San Joaquin Valley APCD (Kern County APCD)	111	Equipment Breakdown	2/17/2022	4/14/2022
San Joaquin Valley APCD (Kings County APCD)	111	Equipment Breakdown	2/17/2022	4/14/2022
San Joaquin Valley (Tulare County APCD)	111	Equipment Breakdown	2/17/2022	4/14/2022
San Joaquin Valley APCD (Madera County APCD)	113	Equipment Breakdown	2/17/2022	4/14/2022

As discussed in the proposal, the EPA proposed to approve the removal of these rules from the SJVAPCD portions of the California SIP because such removal is consistent with CAA requirements and would correct the deficiencies identified by the Agency in the 2015 SSM SIP Action. SJVAPCD is retaining the affirmative defenses solely for state law purposes, outside of the EPA approved SIP. Removal of the affirmative defenses from the SIP is also consistent with the EPA policy for exclusion of “state law only” provisions from SIPs and will serve to minimize any potential confusion about the inapplicability of the affirmative defense provisions in Federal court enforcement actions.

II. Public Comments and EPA Responses

The EPA’s proposed action provided a 30-day public comment period. During this period, we received one comment from the Sierra Club and Environmental Integrity Project in support of the proposed rulemaking.

III. EPA Action

No comments were submitted that change our assessment of the rules as described in our proposed action. Therefore, as authorized in section 110(k)(3) of the Act, and for the reasons identified in the August 22, 2023 proposal, the EPA is fully approving the removal of these rules from the SJVAPCD portion of the California SIP. The Agency’s final approval of this submission fully corrects the inadequacies in the SJVAPCD portion of the California SIP that were identified in the EPA’s 2015 SSM SIP Action.

IV. Incorporation by Reference

In this document, the EPA is amending regulatory text that includes incorporation by reference. As described in section I of the preamble and as set forth below in the amendments to 40 CFR part 52, the EPA is removing provisions from the Fresno County, Kern County, Kings County, Madera County, Stanislaus County, and Tulare County portions of the California SIP, which is incorporated by reference in accordance with the requirements of 1 CFR 51. The EPA has made, and will continue to make, these documents available through www.regulations.gov and at the EPA Region IX Office (please contact the person identified in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this preamble for more information).

V. Statutory and Executive Order Reviews

Under the Clean Air Act, the Administrator is required to approve a SIP submission that complies with the provisions of the Act and applicable federal regulations. 42 U.S.C. 7410(k); 40 CFR 52.02(a). Thus, in reviewing SIP submissions, the EPA’s role is to approve state choices, provided they meet the criteria of the Clean Air Act. Accordingly, this action merely approves state law as meeting federal requirements and does not impose additional requirements beyond those imposed by state law. For that reason, this action:

- Is not a significant regulatory action subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget under Executive Orders 12866 (58 FR 51735, October 4, 1993) and 14094 (88 FR 21879, April 11, 2023);
 - Does not impose an information collection burden under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.);
 - Is certified as not having a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.);
 - Does not contain any unfunded mandate or significantly or uniquely affect small governments, as described in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (Pub. L. 104–4);
 - Does not have federalism implications as specified in Executive Order 13132 (64 FR 43255, August 10, 1999);
 - Is not subject to Executive Order 13045 (62 FR 19885, April 23, 1997) because it approves a state program;
 - Is not a significant regulatory action subject to Executive Order 13211 (66 FR 28355, May 22, 2001); and
 - Is not subject to requirements of Section 12(d) of the National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act of 1995 (15 U.S.C. 272 note) because application of those requirements would be inconsistent with the Clean Air Act.
- In addition, the SIP is not approved to apply on any Indian reservation land or in any other area where the EPA or an Indian tribe has demonstrated that a tribe has jurisdiction. In those areas of Indian country, the rule does not have tribal implications and will not impose substantial direct costs on tribal governments or preempt tribal law as specified by Executive Order 13175 (65 FR 67249, November 9, 2000).

Executive Order 12898 (Federal Actions To Address Environmental Justice in Minority Populations and Low-Income Populations, 59 FR 7629, Feb. 16, 1994) directs Federal agencies to identify and address “disproportionately high and adverse human health or environmental effects” of their actions on minority populations and low-income populations to the greatest extent practicable and permitted by law. The EPA defines environmental justice (EJ) as “the fair treatment and meaningful involvement of all people regardless of race, color, national origin, or income with respect to the development, implementation, and enforcement of environmental laws, regulations, and policies.” The EPA further defines the term fair treatment to mean that “no group of people should bear a disproportionate burden of environmental harms and risks, including those resulting from the negative environmental consequences of industrial, governmental, and commercial operations or programs and policies.”

The State did not evaluate environmental justice considerations as part of its SIP submittal; the CAA and applicable implementing regulations neither prohibit nor require such an evaluation. The EPA did not perform an EJ analysis and did not consider EJ in this action. Consideration of EJ is not required as part of this action, and there is no information in the record inconsistent with the stated goal of Executive Order 12898 of achieving environmental justice for people of color, low-income populations, and Indigenous peoples.

This action is subject to the Congressional Review Act, and the EPA will submit a rule report to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. This action is not a “major rule” as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

Under section 307(b)(1) of the Clean Air Act, petitions for judicial review of this action must be filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the appropriate circuit by April 29, 2024. Filing a petition for reconsideration by the Administrator of the final rule does not affect the finality of this action for the purposes of judicial review nor does it extend the time within which a petition for judicial review may be filed, and shall not postpone the effectiveness of such rule or action. This action may not be challenged later in proceedings to enforce its requirements. (See section 307(b)(2).)

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration

50 CFR Part 622

[Docket No. 231101–0256; RTID 0648–XD672]

Fisheries of the Caribbean, Gulf of Mexico, and South Atlantic; 2024 Recreational Closure for Golden Tilefish in the South Atlantic

AGENCY: National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS), National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), Commerce.

ACTION: Temporary rule; closure.

SUMMARY: NMFS announces the 2024 recreational fishing season for golden tilefish in the exclusive economic zone (EEZ) of the South Atlantic. Announcing the length of the recreational season is the accountability measure (AM) for the recreational sector. NMFS estimates that recreational landings of golden tilefish will reach the recreational annual catch limit (ACL) for the 2024 fishing year by February 29, 2024. Accordingly, NMFS announces the closure date for the recreational harvest of golden tilefish in the South Atlantic EEZ to protect the golden tilefish resource.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Karla Gore, NMFS Southeast Regional Office, telephone: 727–824–5305, email: karla.gore@noaa.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The snapper-grouper fishery of the South Atlantic includes golden tilefish and is managed under the Fishery Management Plan for the Snapper-Grouper Fishery of the South Atlantic Region (FMP). The FMP was prepared by the South Atlantic Fishery Management Council and NMFS, and is implemented by NMFS under the authority of the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act (Magnuson-Stevens Act) by regulations at 50 CFR part 622.

Regulations at 50 CFR 622.193(a)(2) specify the 2024 recreational ACL for golden tilefish of 2,635 fish, and the recreational AM. The recreational AM states that NMFS will project the length of the recreational fishing season for golden tilefish based on catch rates from the previous fishing year and announce the end date of the recreational season (50 CFR 622.193(a)(2)). The recreational season for golden tilefish started on January 1, 2024. Data from the NMFS Southeast Fisheries Science Center informed NMFS' projection that recreational landings will reach the recreational ACL for 2024 by the end of February. Therefore, NMFS announces that the end date of the recreational season for golden tilefish is February 29, 2024, and the recreational sector for golden tilefish in the South Atlantic EEZ will be closed from March 1 through December 31, 2024. During the recreational closure, the bag and possession limits for golden tilefish in or from the South Atlantic EEZ are zero. The next recreational fishing year and season for golden tilefish begins on January 1, 2025.

Classification

NMFS issues this action pursuant to section 305(d) of the Magnuson-Stevens Act. This action is required by 50 CFR 622.193(a)(2), which was issued pursuant to section 304(b) of the Magnuson-Stevens Act, and is exempt from review under Executive Order 12866.

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B), there is good cause to waive prior notice and an opportunity for public comment on this action, as notice and comment are unnecessary and contrary to the public interest. Such procedures are unnecessary because the rule that established the recreational ACL and AM for golden tilefish has already been subject to notice and comment, and all that remains is to notify the public of the end date of the recreational season. Such procedures are contrary to the public interest because of the need to immediately implement this action to protect the golden tilefish stock. The recreational ACL will soon be reached and prior notice and opportunity for public comment would require additional time, potentially resulting in a harvest well in excess of the established ACL.

For the reasons just stated, there is also good cause to waive the 30-day delay in the effectiveness of this action under 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(3).

Fisheries Off West Coast States; West Coast Salmon Fisheries; Amendment 24 to the Pacific Coast Salmon Fishery Management Plan

AGENCY: National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS), National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of agency decision.

SUMMARY: NMFS announces the approval of amendment 24 to the Pacific Salmon Fishery Management Plan (Salmon FMP). The intent of amendment 24 is to clarify the technical process for reviewing updates to the models used to determine the Chinook salmon abundance threshold that may trigger additional management measures to limit the impact of ocean salmon fisheries on Southern Resident killer whales (SRKW). The whales are listed under the Endangered Species Act (ESA) and Chinook salmon, some of which are listed as threatened under the ESA, are their preferred prey. This action is administrative in nature and does not change the formula for calculating the threshold or the fishery management responses currently described in the Salmon FMP.

DATES: The amendment was approved on February 21, 2024.

ADDRESSES: The amended Salmon FMP is available on the Pacific Fishery Management Council's (Council) website (<https://www.pcouncil.org>).

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Shannon Penna at 562-980-4239, Shannon.Penna@noaa.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The ocean salmon fisheries in the exclusive economic zone (EEZ) (3-200 nautical miles; 5.6-370.4 kilometers) seaward of Washington, Oregon, and California are managed under the Salmon FMP. Amendment 24 to the Salmon FMP will clarify the process for review of updates to the models used to determine the Chinook salmon abundance threshold, and the recalculation of the threshold value based on updated model information, by revising Section 6.6.8 of the Salmon FMP. The revised text will not change the approach used to calculate the threshold. Amendment 24 also includes some minor housekeeping edits, such as updates to references and correction of a species name.

The Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act (MSA) requires that each regional fishery management council submit any fishery management plan (FMP) or plan amendment it prepares to NMFS for review and approval, disapproval, or partial approval by the Secretary of Commerce (Secretary) (MSA 304(a)). The MSA also requires that NMFS, upon receiving an FMP or plan amendment, immediately publish a notice that the FMP or plan amendment is available for public review and comment.

The Notice of Availability (NOA) for amendment 24 was published in the Federal Register on November 27, 2023 (88 FR 82819), with a 60-day comment period that ended on January 26, 2024.

NMFS determined that amendment 24 is consistent with the MSA and other applicable laws, and the Secretary of Commerce approved amendment 24 on February 21, 2024. The November 27, 2023, NOA contains additional information on this action. Amendment 24 will be implemented through the annual salmon management measures; no changes to existing Federal regulations are necessary.

Public Comment

We received one comment from the public in support of amendment 24.

Airworthiness Directives; Leonardo S.p.a. Helicopters

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM).

SUMMARY: The FAA proposes to adopt a new airworthiness directive (AD) for all Leonardo S.p.a. Model AW189 helicopters. This proposed AD was prompted by a report of abnormal oscillatory behavior during automated glide slope approaches, due to sealant on the glide slope (G/S) antenna coaxial connectors. This proposed AD would require visually inspecting certain G/S antennas and G/S antenna coaxial connectors for the presence of any sealant; cleaning parts and removing any sealant; performing an external G/S acceptance test procedure (ATP); and taking corrective actions if necessary. This proposed AD would also prohibit installing certain G/S antennas and G/S antenna coaxial connectors. These actions are specified in a European Union Aviation Safety Agency (EASA) AD, which is proposed for incorporation by reference. The FAA is proposing this AD to address the unsafe condition on these products.

DATES: The FAA must receive comments on this NPRM by April 12, 2024.

ADDRESSES: You may send comments, using the procedures found in 14 CFR 11.43 and 11.45, by any of the following methods:

MCAI-2022-00066-R" at the beginning of your comments. The most helpful comments reference a specific portion of the proposal, explain the reason for any recommended change, and include supporting data. The FAA will consider all comments received by the closing date and may amend this proposal because of those comments.

Except for Confidential Business Information (CBI) as described in the following paragraph, and other information as described in 14 CFR 11.35, the FAA will post all comments received, without change, to regulations.gov, including any personal information you provide. The agency will also post a report summarizing each substantive verbal contact received about this NPRM.

Confidential Business Information

CBI is commercial or financial information that is both customarily and actually treated as private by its owner. Under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 U.S.C. 552), CBI is exempt from public disclosure. If your comments responsive to this NPRM contain commercial or financial information that is customarily treated as private, that you actually treat as private, and that is relevant or responsive to this NPRM, it is important that you clearly designate the submitted comments as CBI. Please mark each page of your submission containing CBI as "PROPIN." The FAA will treat such marked submissions as confidential under the FOIA, and they will not be placed in the public docket of this NPRM. Submissions containing CBI should be sent to Sungmo Cho, Aviation Safety Engineer, FAA, 1600 Stewart Avenue, Suite 410, Westbury, NY 11590; phone (781) 238-7241; email: Sungmo.D.Cho@faa.gov. Any commentary that the FAA receives which is not specifically designated as CBI will be placed in the public docket for this rulemaking.

Background

EASA, which is the Technical Agent for the Member States of the European Union, has issued EASA AD 2022-0010, dated January 20, 2022 (EASA AD 2022-0010), to correct an unsafe condition on Leonardo S.p.A. Model AW189 helicopters.

This proposed AD was prompted by a report of abnormal oscillatory behavior during automated glide slope approaches. Subsequent investigations identified sealant on the G/S antenna coaxial connectors, which isolated it from its grounding plane. The FAA is proposing this AD to detect and address the presence of sealant on or around the G/S antenna, which if not addressed, could lead to erratic signals from the G/S antenna and reduced capability of the helicopter to perform safe automated approaches. See EASA AD 2022–0010 for additional background information.

You may examine the EASA AD in the AD docket at regulations.gov under Docket No. FAA–2024–0236.

Related Service Information Under 1 CFR Part 51

EASA AD 2022–0010 requires visually inspecting G/S antenna part number (P/N) 6208–88–62 and G/S antenna coaxial connectors P/N PE4958, which are both parts of G/S antenna kit P/N 8G3430F00111, for any sealant. If any sealant is found, EASA AD 2022–0010 requires removing any sealant, and performing further inspections and corrective actions.

EASA AD 2022–0010 also requires performing an ATP and depending on the results, replacing and removing certain parts, and additional tests. EASA AD 2022–0010 allows the affected G/S antenna and G/S antenna coaxial connectors to be installed on a helicopter if certain requirements are met.

This material is reasonably available because the interested parties have access to it through their normal course of business or by the means identified in ADDRESSES.

Other Related Service Information

The FAA also reviewed Leonardo Helicopters Alert Service Bulletin No. 189–295, dated November 29, 2021. This service information specifies procedures for visually inspecting the G/S antenna for the presence of sealant; removing any sealant that is detected; removing and replacing any affected parts; performing any corrective actions if necessary, performing an ATP, which includes verifying flight display, decibel milliwatts, and pass/fail information; and reporting certain information to the manufacturer.

FAA’s Determination

These helicopters have been approved by EASA and are approved for operation in the United States. Pursuant to the FAA’s bilateral agreement with the European Union, EASA has notified the FAA of the unsafe condition described in its AD. The FAA is proposing this AD after determining that the unsafe condition described previously is likely to exist or develop on other helicopters of the same type design.

Proposed AD Requirements in This NPRM

This proposed AD would require accomplishing the actions specified in EASA AD 2022–0010, described previously, as incorporated by reference, except for any differences identified as exceptions in the regulatory text of this proposed AD and except as discussed under “Differences Between this Proposed AD and the EASA AD.”

Explanation of Required Compliance Information

In the FAA’s ongoing efforts to improve the efficiency of the AD process, the FAA developed a process to use some civil aviation authority (CAA) ADs as the primary source of information for compliance with requirements for corresponding FAA ADs. The FAA has been coordinating this process with manufacturers and CAAs. As a result, the FAA proposes to incorporate EASA AD 2022–0010 by reference in the FAA final rule. This proposed AD would, therefore, require compliance with EASA AD 2022–0010 AD in its entirety through that incorporation, except for any differences identified as exceptions in the regulatory text of this proposed AD. Using common terms that are the same as the heading of a particular section in EASA AD 2022–0010 does not mean that operators need comply only with that section. For example, where the AD requirement refers to “all required actions and compliance times,” compliance with this AD requirement is not limited to the section titled “Required Action(s) and Compliance Time(s)” in EASA AD 2022–0010. Service information referenced in EASA AD 2022–0010 for compliance will be available at regulations.gov under Docket No. FAA–2024–0236 after the FAA final rule is published.

Differences Between This Proposed AD and the EASA AD

If any discrepancy is found during the ATP, EASA AD 2022–0010 requires replacing each affected part with a serviceable part, whereas this proposed AD would require removing each affected part from service and replacing it with a serviceable part.

Service information referenced in EASA AD 2022–0010 contains an inspection report (ANNEX B), whereas this proposed AD would not require completing that information.

Costs of Compliance

The FAA estimates that this AD, if adopted as proposed, would affect 4 helicopters of U.S. Registry. Labor rates are estimated at $85 per work-hour. Based on these numbers, the FAA estimates the following costs to comply with this proposed AD.

Visually inspecting for sealant around the G/S antenna would take about 5 work-hours for an estimated cost of $425 per helicopter and up to $1,700 for the U.S. fleet.

If required, removing any sealant and cleaning any part would take about 0.5 work-hour for an estimated cost of $43 per helicopter.

Performing an ATP would take about 1 work-hour for an estimated cost of $85 per helicopter and up to $340 for the U.S. fleet.

If required, removing and replacing a G/S antenna, to include removing and replacing the connectors would take about 3 work-hours and parts would cost about $100,100 for an estimated cost of $100,355 per helicopter.

Authority for This Rulemaking

Title 49 of the United States Code specifies the FAA’s authority to issue rules on aviation safety. Subtitle I, section 106, describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII: Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the Agency’s authority.

The FAA is issuing this rulemaking under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart III, Section 44701: General requirements. Under that section, Congress charges the FAA with promoting safe flight of civil aircraft in air commerce by prescribing regulations for practices, methods, and procedures the Administrator finds necessary for safety in air commerce. This regulation is within the scope of that authority because it addresses an unsafe condition that is likely to exist or develop on products identified in this rulemaking action.

Regulatory Findings

The FAA determined that this proposed AD would not have federalism implications under Executive Order 13132. This proposed AD would not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government.

For the reasons discussed above, I certify this proposed regulation:

(1) Is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866,

(2) Would not affect intrastate aviation in Alaska, and

(3) Would not have a significant economic impact, positive or negative, on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

The Proposed Amendment

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

■ 1. The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 106(g), 40113, 44701.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

■ 2. The FAA amends § 39.13 by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

Leonardo S.p.a.: Docket No. FAA-2024-0236; Project Identifier MCAI-2022-00066-R.

(a) Comments Due Date

The FAA must receive comments on this airworthiness directive (AD) by April 12, 2024.

(b) Affected ADs

None.

(c) Applicability

This AD applies to all Leonardo S.p.a. Model AW189 helicopters, certificated in any category.

(d) Subject

(h) Exceptions to EASA AD 2022-0010

(1) Where EASA AD 2022-0010 states “flight hours;” for this AD, replace that text with “hours time-in-service.”

(2) Where EASA AD 2022-0010 refers to its effective date, this AD requires using the effective date of this AD.

(3) Where paragraph (1) of EASA AD 2022-0010 states “in accordance with the instructions of Part I of the ASB;” for this AD, replace that text with “in accordance with the Accomplishment Instructions, Part I, paragraphs 4 and 5 of the ASB.”

(5) Where paragraphs (4) and (5) of EASA AD 2022-0010 state “discrepancy;” for this AD, replace that text with “discrepancy, which is one or more “fail” results in the acceptance test procedure.”

(6) Where paragraphs (4) and (5) of EASA AD 2022-0010 state to “replace the/those affected parts with serviceable parts;” for this AD, replace that text with “remove the affected part, as defined in EASA AD 2022-0010, from service and replace it with a serviceable part, as defined in EASA AD 2022-0010. Thereafter, after installing a serviceable part, as defined in EASA AD 2022-0010, before further flight, accomplish an acceptance test procedure (ATP) in accordance with the instructions of Annex A of the ASB.”

(7) Where the service information referenced in EASA AD 2022-0010 specifies discarding existing hardware, this AD requires removing the existing hardware from service.

(8) Where paragraph (4) of EASA AD 2022-0010 states “in accordance with the instructions of Part I of the ASB;” for this AD, replace that text with “in accordance with the Accomplishment Instructions, Part I, paragraphs 9 through 11 of the ASB.”

(10) This AD does not adopt the “Remarks” section of EASA AD 2022-0010.

(i) No Reporting Requirement

Although the service information referenced in EASA AD 2022-0010 specifies to submit certain information to the manufacturer, this AD does not include that requirement.

(j) Special Flight Permits

Special flight permits may be issued in accordance with 14 CFR 21.197 and 21.199, provided there are no passengers, and no flights are performed under instrument flight rules (IFR).

(k) Alternative Methods of Compliance (AMOCs)

(1) The Manager, International Validation Branch, FAA, has the authority to approve AMOCs for this AD, if requested using the procedures found in 14 CFR 39.19. In accordance with 14 CFR 39.19, send your request to your principal inspector or local Flight Standards District Office, as appropriate. Background

EASA, which is the Technical Agent for the Member States of the European Union, has issued EASA AD 2022-0214, dated October 21, 2022 (EASA AD 2022-0214), to correct an unsafe condition for certain serial-numbered Leonardo S.p.A. Model AW189 helicopters.

This proposed AD was prompted by a report of an uncommanded deployment of the ELS. Subsequent investigation determined incorrect installation of its control cable could have caused the occurrence. The FAA is proposing this AD to address unintended activation and deployment of the ELS. The unsafe condition, if not addressed, could result in unintended activation and deployment of the ELS in flight with possible impact on the rotors, resulting in reduced control of the helicopter. You may examine EASA AD 2022-0214 in the AD docket at regulations.gov under Docket No. FAA-2024-0235.

Related Service Information Under 14 CFR Part 51

EASA AD 2022-0214 requires a one-time inspection of both the left- and right-side life-raft installations for certain serial-numbered helicopters and, depending on findings, replacing its control cable and checking the assembly, replacing a cable pulley cover, correcting the cable installation, and replacing the life-raft assembly, as applicable.

This material is reasonably available because the interested parties have access to it through their normal course of business or by the means identified in the ADDRESSES section.

Other Related Service Information

The FAA also reviewed Leonardo Helicopters Alert Service Bulletin No.189–315, dated October 20, 2022. This service information specifies procedures for inspecting the ELS.

FAA's Determination

These helicopters have been approved by EASA and are approved for operation in the United States. Pursuant to the FAA's bilateral agreement with the European Union, EASA has notified the FAA about the unsafe condition described in its AD. The FAA is proposing this AD after evaluating all known relevant information and determining that the unsafe condition described previously is likely to exist or develop on other helicopters of the same type design.

Proposed AD Requirements in This NPRM

This proposed AD would require accomplishing the actions specified in EASA AD 2022–0214, described previously, as incorporated by reference, except for any differences identified as exceptions in the regulatory text of this proposed AD and except as discussed under “Differences Between this Proposed AD and the EASA AD.”

Explanation of Required Compliance Information

In the FAA's ongoing efforts to improve the efficiency of the AD process, the FAA developed a process to use some civil aviation authority (CAA) ADs as the primary source of information for compliance with requirements for corresponding FAA ADs. The FAA has been coordinating this process with manufacturers and CAAs. As a result, the FAA proposes to incorporate EASA AD 2022–0214 by reference in the FAA final rule. This proposed AD would, therefore, require compliance with EASA AD 2022–0214 in its entirety through that incorporation, except for any differences identified as exceptions in the regulatory text of this proposed AD. Using common terms that are the same as the heading of a particular section in EASA AD 2022–0214 does not mean that operators need comply only with that section. For example, where the AD requirement refers to “all required actions and compliance times,” compliance with this AD requirement is not limited to the section titled “Required Action(s) and Compliance Time(s)” in EASA AD 2022–0214. Service information referenced in EASA AD 2022–0214 for compliance will be available at regulations.gov under Docket No. FAA–2024–0235 after the FAA final rule is published.

Differences Between This Proposed AD and the EASA AD

The service information referenced in EASA AD 2022–0214 specifies taking pictures, completing an inspection report, and sending removed parts to the manufacturer, whereas this proposed AD would not include those actions.

The service information referenced in EASA AD 2022–0214 cautions that step 3.3 shall be performed by trained operators or by authorized service stations only, whereas this proposed AD would require that step to be accomplished by persons authorized under 14 CFR 43.3.

EASA AD 2022–0214 refers to the emergency life-raft assembly inspection as a “check,” whereas this proposed AD would refer to that action as an “inspection” because that action must be accomplished by persons authorized under 14 CFR 43.3.

EASA AD 2022–0214 allows installing inoperative placard(s) in clear view of both pilots to defer certain corrective action, provided all flight crews are informed and, thereafter, the helicopter is operated accordingly. FAA regulations mandate compliance with placards. However, this proposed AD would not require informing flight crews or operating the helicopter accordingly because compliance with such requirements in an AD is impracticable to demonstrate or track on an ongoing basis; therefore, a requirement to operate the aircraft in such a manner is unenforceable. Nonetheless, flight crews of the helicopters identified in the applicability must operate in accordance with the placard(s) proposed by this AD.

Costs of Compliance

The FAA estimates that this AD, if adopted as proposed, would affect 4 helicopters of U.S. Registry. Labor rates are estimated at $85 per work-hour. Based on these numbers, the FAA estimates the following costs to comply with this proposed AD.

Inspecting the left- and right-hand side life-raft installations would take about 4 work-hours for an estimated cost of $340 per helicopter and $1,360 for the U.S. fleet.

If required, replacing a control cable and inspecting the life-raft assembly would take about 1 work-hour and parts would cost about $1,665 for an estimated cost of $1,750 per side. If required, replacing a pulley cover would take about 0.5 work-hour and parts would cost about $100 for an estimated cost of $143 per side. If required, correcting the cable installation would take about 4 work-hour and would cost about $340 per side. If required, replacing a life raft assembly would take about 4 work-hours and parts would cost about $125,700 for an estimated cost of $126,040 per side.

The FAA has included all known costs in its cost estimate. According to the manufacturer, however, some of the costs of this proposed AD may be covered under warranty, thereby reducing the cost impact on affected operators.

Authority for This Rulemaking

Title 49 of the United States Code specifies the FAA's authority to issue rules on aviation safety. Subtitle I, section 106, describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII: Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the Agency's authority.

The FAA is issuing this rulemaking under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart III, Section 44701: General requirements. Under that section, Congress charges the FAA with promoting safe flight of civil aircraft in air commerce by prescribing regulations for practices, methods, and procedures the Administrator finds necessary for safety in air commerce. This regulation is within the scope of that authority because it addresses an unsafe condition that is likely to exist or develop on products identified in this rulemaking action.

Regulatory Findings

The FAA determined that this proposed AD would not have federalism implications under Executive Order 13132. This proposed AD would not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national Government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government.

For the reasons discussed above, I certify this proposed regulation:

(1) Is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866,

(2) Would not affect intrastate aviation in Alaska, and

(3) Would not have a significant economic impact, positive or negative, on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Accordingly, under the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, the FAA proposes to amend 14 CFR part 39 as follows:

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

■ 1. The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 106(g), 40113, 44701.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

■ 2. The FAA amends § 39.13 by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

Leonardo S.p.a.: Docket No. FAA–2024–0235; Project Identifier MCAI–2022–01376–R.

(a) Comments Due Date

The FAA must receive comments on this airworthiness directive (AD) by April 12, 2024.

(b) Affected ADs

None.

(c) Applicability

This AD applies to Leonardo S.p.a. Model AW189 helicopters, certificated in any category, as identified in European Union Aviation Safety Agency (EASA) AD 2022–0214, dated October 21, 2022 (EASA AD 2022–0214).

(d) Subject

Joint Aircraft Service Component (JASC) Code 2564, Life Raft.

(e) Unsafe Condition

This AD was prompted by a report of an uncommanded deployment of the Emergency life-raft system (ELS), possibly due to an incorrect installation of its control cable. The FAA is issuing this AD to address unintended activation and deployment of the ELS. The unsafe condition, if not addressed, could result in unintended activation and deployment of the ELS in flight with possible impact on the rotors, resulting in reduced control of the helicopter.

(f) Compliance

Comply with this AD within the compliance times specified, unless already done.

(g) Requirements

Except as specified in paragraphs (h) and (i) of this AD: Comply with all required actions and compliance times specified in, and in accordance with, EASA AD 2022–0214.

(h) Exceptions to EASA AD 2022–0214

(1) Where EASA AD 2022–0214 refers to “flight hours,” this AD requires replacing those words with “hours time-in-service.”

(2) Where EASA AD 2022–0214 refers to its effective date, this AD requires using the effective date of this AD.

(3) Where the service information referenced in paragraph (1) of EASA AD

2022–0214 specifies taking pictures and completing the inspection report, this AD does not include those requirements.

(4) Where the service information referenced in paragraph (1) of EASA AD 2022–0214 states, “damage (e.g., wear or bird caging)” or “damaged” when referring to the control cable that comes out from the sheath; for this AD, replace that text with, “damage, which may be indicated by wear, corrosion, a broken wire, a necked down section, a kink, bird-caging, a flattened area, abrasion, or gouging.”

(5) Where the service information referenced in paragraph (1) of EASA AD 2022–0214 states, “condition (no sign of damage, cracks or missing parts)” or “damaged” when referring to the break-away pin; for this AD, replace that text with, “damage, which may be indicated by wear, corrosion, nick, cracks, or distortion.”

(6) Where the service information referenced in paragraph (1) of EASA AD 2022–0214 states, “condition,” “damage/wear,” and “damages” when referring to the pulley cover; for this AD, replace that text with, “damage, which may be indicated by abrasion, cracks, punctures, cuts, corrosion, or distortion.”

(7) Where the service information referenced in paragraph (1) of EASA AD 2022–0214 specifies removing the pulley cover in case it is not possible to properly inspect the whole cover; for this AD, removing the pulley cover to inspect the whole cover is required.

(8) Where the service information referenced in paragraph (1) of EASA AD 2022–0214 cautions that step 3.3 shall be performed by trained operators or by authorized service stations only, this AD does not include those cautions. For this AD, step 3.3 must be accomplished by persons authorized under 14 CFR 43.3.

(11) Where paragraph (5) of EASA AD 2022–0214 specifies “before next flight after the check as required by paragraph (2) of this AD,” this AD requires replacing that text with “before next flight after the life-raft assembly inspection as required by paragraph (2) of this AD.”

(12) Where paragraph (5) of EASA AD 2022–0214 specifies to inform all flight crews and, thereafter, operate the helicopter accordingly, this AD does not require those actions.

(13) Where Table 1 of paragraph (5) of EASA AD 2022–0214 specifies “Within 120 days after accomplishment of the inspection as required by paragraph (1) of this AD”, this AD requires replacing that text with “Before next flight over water.”

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Authority for This Rulemaking

The FAA's authority to issue rules regarding aviation safety is found in Title 49 of the United States Code. Subtitle I, Section 106 describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the agency's authority. This rulemaking is promulgated under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart I, Section 40103. Under that section, the FAA is charged with prescribing regulations to assign the use of the airspace necessary to ensure the safety of aircraft and the efficient use of airspace. This regulation is within the scope of that authority as it would establish Class E airspace to support IFR operations at Turlock Municipal Airport, Turlock, CA.

Comments Invited

The FAA invites interested persons to participate in this rulemaking by submitting written comments, data, or views. Comments are specifically invited on the overall regulatory, aeronautical, economic, environmental, and energy-related aspects of the proposal. The most helpful comments reference a specific portion of the proposal, explain the reason for any recommended change, and include supporting data. To ensure the docket does not contain duplicate comments, commenters should submit only one time if comments are filed electronically, or commenters should send only one copy of written comments if comments are filed in writing.

The FAA will file in the docket all comments it receives, as well as a report summarizing each substantive public contact with FAA personnel concerning this proposed rulemaking. Before acting on this proposal, the FAA will consider all comments it receives on or before the closing date for comments. The FAA will consider comments filed after the comment period has closed if it is possible to do so without incurring expense or delay. The FAA may change this proposal in light of the comments it receives.

public to better inform its rulemaking process. DOT posts these comments, without edit, including any personal information the commenter provides, to www.regulations.gov, as described in the system of records notice (DOT/ALL-14 FDMS), which can be reviewed at www.dot.gov/privacy.

Availability of Rulemaking Documents

An electronic copy of this document may be downloaded through the internet at www.regulations.gov. Recently published rulemaking documents can also be accessed through the FAA's web page at www.faa.gov/air_traffic/publications/airspace_amendments/.

You may review the public docket containing the proposal, any comments received and any final disposition in person in the Dockets Operations office (see ADDRESSES section for address, phone number, and hours of operations). An informal docket may also be examined during normal business hours at the Northwest Mountain Regional Office of the Federal Aviation Administration, Air Traffic Organization, Western Service Center, Operations Support Group, 2200 S. 216th Street, Des Moines, WA 98198.

Incorporation by Reference

Class E5 airspace designations are published in paragraph 6005 of FAA Order JO 7400.11, Airspace Designations and Reporting Points, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1 on an annual basis. This document proposes to amend the current version of that order, FAA Order JO 7400.11H, dated August 11, 2023 and effective September 15, 2023. These updates would be published in the next update to FAA Order JO 7400.11. That order is publicly available as listed in the ADDRESSES section of this document.

FAA Order JO 7400.11H lists Class A, B, C, D, and E airspace areas, air traffic service routes, and reporting points.

The Proposal

The FAA is proposing an amendment to 14 CFR part 71 that would establish Class E airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface at Turlock Municipal Airport, Turlock, CA. The airport is transitioning from VFR operations to IFR operations and will require Class E airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface to contain departing aircraft until reaching 1,200 feet above the surface and arriving aircraft below 1,500 feet above the surface. The proposed Class E airspace would be centered on the airport reference point with a 6.5-mile radius and would extend further to the north through the east of the airport to provide additional containment due to rising terrain.

Regulatory Notices and Analyses

The FAA has determined that this proposed regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. It, therefore: (1) is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a “significant rule” under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that will only affect air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this proposed rule, when promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Environmental Review

This proposal will be subject to an environmental analysis in accordance with FAA Order 1050.1F, “Environmental Impacts: Policies and Procedures” prior to any FAA final regulatory action.

Incorporation by Reference

Class D and E airspace is published in paragraphs 5000, 6002, and 6005 of FAA Order JO 7400.11, Airspace

Designations and Reporting Points, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1 on an annual basis. This document proposes to amend the current version of that order, FAA Order JO 7400.11H, dated August 11, 2023, and effective September 15, 2023. These updates would be published subsequently in the next update to FAA Order JO 7400.11. That order is publicly available as listed in the ADDRESSES section of this document.

FAA Order JO 7400.11H lists Class A, B, C, D, and E airspace areas, air traffic service routes, and reporting points.

The Proposal

The FAA is proposing an amendment to 14 CFR part 71 by:

Modifying the Class D airspace within a 4.3-mile (decreased from a 4.8-mile) radius of MBS International Airport, Saginaw, MI; and replacing the outdated terms "Notice to Airmen" and "Airport/Facility Directory" with "Notice to Air Missions" and "Chart Supplement";

Modifying the Class E surface airspace to within a 4.3-mile (decreased from a 4.8-mile) radius of MBS International Airport; updating the name (previously Tri City International Airport) and the geographic coordinates of the airport to coincide with the FAA's aeronautical database; and replacing the outdated terms "Notice to Airmen" and "Airport/Facility Directory" with "Notice to Air Missions" and "Chart Supplement";

And modifying the Class E airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface to within a 6.8-mile (decreased from a 7-mile) radius of MBS International Airport; removing the Saint Mary's Heliport and associated airspace as the instrument procedures to the heliport have been cancelled and the airspace is no longer required; updating the name of Saginaw County/H.W. Browne Airport (previously Saginaw County H.W. Browne Airport), Saginaw, MI, and the geographic coordinates of MBS International, Saginaw County/H.W. Browne Airport, and Jack Barstow Airport, Midland, MI, to coincide with the FAA's aeronautical database; and removing the cities associated with the airports in the airspace legal description to comply with changes to FAA Order JO 7400.2P, Procedures for Handling Airspace Matters.

This action is the result of airspace reviews conducted as part of the decommissioning of the Mount Pleasant VOR as part of the VOR MON Program and to support IFR procedures and operations at these airports.

Regulatory Notices and Analyses

The FAA has determined that this proposed regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. It, therefore: (1) is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a "significant rule" under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that will only affect air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this proposed rule, when promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Environmental Review

This proposal will be subject to an environmental analysis in accordance with FAA Order 1050.1F, "Environmental Impacts: Policies and Procedures" prior to any FAA final regulatory action.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Authority for This Rulemaking

The FAA's authority to issue rules regarding aviation safety is found in Title 49 of the United States Code.

Subtitle I, Section 106 describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the agency's authority. This rulemaking is promulgated under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart I, Section 40103. Under that section, the FAA is charged with prescribing regulations to assign the use of airspace necessary to ensure the safety of aircraft and the efficient use of airspace. This regulation is within the scope of that authority as it would amend the Class E airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface at Dixon Municipal Airport-Charles R. Walgreen Field, Dixon, IL, to support IFR operations at this airport.

Comments Invited

The FAA invites interested persons to participate in this rulemaking by submitting written comments, data, or views. Comments are specifically invited on the overall regulatory, aeronautical, economic, environmental, and energy-related aspects of the proposal. The most helpful comments reference a specific portion of the proposal, explain the reason for any recommended change, and include supporting data. To ensure the docket does not contain duplicate comments, commenters should submit only one time if comments are filed electronically, or commenters should send only one copy of written comments if comments are filed in writing.

The FAA will file in the docket all comments it receives, as well as a report summarizing each substantive public contact with FAA personnel concerning this proposed rulemaking. Before acting on this proposal, the FAA will consider all comments it received on or before the closing date for comments. The FAA will consider comments filed after the comment period has closed if it is possible to do so without incurring expense or delay. The FAA may change this proposal in light of the comments it receives.

Privacy: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 553(c), DOT solicits comments from the public to better inform its rulemaking process. DOT post these comments, without edit, including any personal information the commenter provides, to www.regulations.gov as described in the system of records notice (DOT/ALL-14FDMS), which can be reviewed at www.dot.gov/privacy.

Incorporation by Reference

Class E airspace is published in paragraph 6005 of FAA Order JO 7400.11, Airspace Designations and Reporting Points, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1 on an annual basis. This document proposes to amend the current version of that order, FAA Order JO 7400.11H, dated August 11, 2023, and effective September 15, 2023. These updates would be published subsequently in the next update to FAA Order JO 7400.11. That order is publicly available as listed in the ADDRESSES section of this document.

FAA Order JO 7400.11H lists Class A, B, C, D, and E airspace areas, air traffic service routes, and reporting points.

The Proposal

The FAA is proposing to amend 14 CFR part 71 by modifying the Class E airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface to within a 6.4-mile (decreased from a 6.5-mile) radius of Dixon Municipal Airport-Charles R. Walgreen Field, Dixon, IL; removing the Polo VORTAC and associated extensions from the airspace legal description; and updating the name of the airport (previously Dixon Municipal-Charles R. Walgreen Field) to coincide with the FAA's aeronautical database.

The FAA is proposing this action as the result of an airspace review conducted due to the decommissioning of the Polo VOR as part of the VOR MON Program and to support IFR operations.

Regulatory Notices and Analyses

The FAA has determined that this proposed regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. It, therefore: (1) is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a "significant rule" under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that will only affect air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this proposed rule, when promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Environmental Review

This proposal will be subject to an environmental analysis in accordance with FAA Order 1050.1F, "Environmental Impacts: Policies and Procedures" prior to any FAA final regulatory action.

ACTION: Notification of availability of fishery management plan amendment; request for comments.

SUMMARY: The North Pacific Fishery Management Council (Council) submitted Amendments 54 and 55 to the Fishery Management Plan for Bering Sea/Aleutian Islands King and Tanner Crabs (Crab FMP) to NMFS for review. These actions are intended to provide operators and crew greater flexibility in meeting CR Program participation requirements and to improve CR Program processor efficiency. This action is intended to promote the goals and objectives of the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act (Magnuson-Stevens Act), the Crab FMP, and other applicable laws.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Magnuson-Stevens Act requires that each regional fishery management council submit any fishery management plan amendment it prepares to NMFS for review and approval, disapproval, or partial approval by the Secretary of Commerce. The Magnuson-Stevens Act also requires that NMFS, upon receiving a fishery management plan amendment, immediately publish a notice in the Federal Register announcing that the amendment is available for public review and comment. This notice announces that proposed Amendments 54 and 55 to the Crab FMP are available for public review and comment.

NMFS manages the king and Tanner crab fisheries in the U.S. exclusive economic zone of the Bering Sea and Aleutian Islands (BSAI) under the Crab FMP. The Council prepared, and NMFS approved, the Crab FMP under the authority of the Magnuson-Stevens Act, 16 U.S.C. 1801 et seq. Regulations governing U.S. fisheries and implementing the Crab FMP appear at 50 CFR parts 600 and 680.

Background

NMFS implemented the CR Program as a limited access privilege program, also called a catch share program, for nine crab fisheries in the BSAI on March 2, 2005 (70 FR 10174). The CR Program FMP has been amended seventeen times since 2005. In this document, the phrases “crab fishery” and “crab fisheries”, quota share (QS)”, “individual fishing quota (IFQ)” refer to crab fisheries associated CR Program, unless otherwise specified.

Amendment 54 and 55 to the Crab FMP and this proposed rule would revise two provisions of the CR Program to do the following: (1) change active participation requirements for QS established for CR Program vessel operators and crew; and (2) expand exemptions for custom processing from processor use caps and remove the processor facility use caps.

The CR Program initially assigned QS to persons based on their historic participation in one or more of nine crab fisheries during a specific period. Under the CR Program, NMFS issued four types of QS: catcher vessel owner (CVO) QS was assigned to holders of License Limitation Program (LLP) licenses who delivered their catch to shoreside crab processors or to stationary floating crab processors; catcher/processor vessel owner (CPO) QS was assigned to LLP license holders who harvested and processed their catch at sea; catcher/processor crew (CPC) QS was issued to vessel operators and crew on board catcher/processor vessels; and catcher vessel crew (CVC) QS was issued to vessel operators and crew on board catcher vessels. CPC QS and CVC QS are also called C shares. Each crab fishing year, which is the period from July 1 of one calendar year through June 30 of the following calendar year, a person who holds QS may receive an exclusive harvest privilege for a portion of the annual total allowable catch (TAC), called individual fishing quota (IFQ).

Both in original CR Program design and reinforced through the subsequent Amendment 31 to the Crab FMP (80 FR 15891, March 26, 2015), the Council and NMFS intended that individuals holding CVC QS and CPC QS be active participants in crab fisheries so that QS is not held by inactive individuals for extended periods of time. Since June 2018 (3 years after implementation of Amendment 31), in order to receive an annual allocation of CVC QS or CPC QS IFQ, the regulations require a CVC QS and CPC QS holder to have either met one of the following:

(1) participated as crew in at least one delivery in a CR Program crab fishery in the three crab fishing years preceding the crab fishing year for which the holder is applying for IFQ; or

(2) if the individual was an initial recipient of CVC QS or CPC QS, participated as crew in at least 30 days of fishing in a commercial fishery managed by the State of Alaska or a U.S. commercial fishery in Federal waters off Alaska in the three crab fishing years preceding the crab fishing year for which the holder is applying for IFQ. Initial recipients of CVC QS and CPC QS can demonstrate active participation using either option while new entrants are limited to participating as crew in at least one delivery in a CR Program crab fishery.

NMFS also issued processor quota share (PQS) to processors based on their historic participation in one or more of the nine crab fisheries during a specific period. Each year, PQS yields an exclusive privilege to process a portion of the IFQ in each of the nine crab fisheries. This annual exclusive processing privilege is called individual processor quota (IPQ). A portion of the QS issued yields IFQ that is required to be delivered to a processor with IPQ. CVO QS is subject to designation as either Class A IFQ or Class B IFQ. Ninety percent of the IFQ derived from CVO QS is designated as Class A IFQ, and the remaining 10 percent is designated as Class B IFQ. Class A IFQ holders must be matched and delivered to a processor with IPQ that have available IPQ, also known as “share matching”. Class B IFQ is not required to be delivered to a processor holding IPQ for that fishery. Each year there is a one-to-one match of the total pounds of Class A IFQ with the total pounds of IPQ issued in each crab fishery.

When the Council recommended the CR Program, it expressed concern about the potential for excessive consolidation of QS and PQS, in which too few persons control all of the QS or PQS and the resulting annual IFQ and IPQ as well as concern for regional consolidation of processors. The Council determined that excessive consolidation could have adverse effects on crab markets, price setting negotiations between harvesters and processors, employment opportunities for harvesting and processing crew, tax revenue to communities in which crab are landed, exclusion of regional locations that had crab landing and processing history, and other factors considered and described in the Program EIS. To address these concerns, the CR Program limits the amount of QS that a person can hold (i.e., own), the amount of IFQ that a person can use (i.e., harvest crab), and the amount of IFQ that can be used on board a vessel (i.e., vessel harvest cap). Similarly, the CR Program limits the amount of PQS that a person can hold (i.e., own), the amount of IPQ that a person can use (i.e., process crab), and the amount of IPQ that can be processed or custom processed at a given CR Program crab processing facility (i.e., processor cap). These limits are commonly referred to as ownership caps and use caps. Additionally, regional landing designations were created for Class A QS based on the historic location that gave rise to the share.

Amendment 54 would modify participation requirements for all CVC QS and CPC QS holders by instituting the following: (1) restarting the 3- and 4-year rolling timeframes for meeting active participation requirements for all CVC QS and CPC QS holders; (2) authorizing NMFS to reissue QS that was revoked between July 1, 2019 and the effective date of a final rule implementing Amendment 54, (3) standardizing and expanding the requirements by expanding the type of activity that would qualify as participation by allowing all CVC QS and CPC QS holders to participate in 30 days of fishing in any commercial fishery off Alaska, including crew on a tender vessel, (4) clarifying that the requirement to participate as crew in one crab delivery also includes participating in the fishing trip that results in a crab landing, and (5) clarifying the exemption for CVC QS and CPC QS holders with QS exclusively in closed CR Program fisheries applies to a CVC QS or CPC QS holder with QS in more than just a single closed CR Program fishery.

The Council and NMFS established CVC QS and CPC QS, which are transferrable, with participation requirements as a mechanism to keep a portion of the crab QS in the hands of active fishery participants and provide opportunities for new entrants into the fishery. The Council recognized that some fishery participants struggled to maintain active participation during the COVID-19 pandemic and recent closures of crab fisheries due to low abundance, but the Council wanted to retain a participation requirement. Amendment 54 provides additional flexibility to existing CVC QS and CPC QS holders and continues to ensure that CVC QS and CPC QS is held by active fishery participants.

Amendment 55 would exempt custom processing of Bering sea snow crab (Chionoecetes opilio) (BSS) IPQ with a south region designation, Bristol Bay red king crab (BBR) IPQ, and Western Aleutian Island golden king crab (WAG) IPQ processed east of 174° W from being counted against a processor IPQ use cap. By exempting custom processing in these three crab fisheries, this action would align the application of the IPQ use caps across all crab fisheries. Further, Amendment 55 would also remove the 60 percent CR Program processor facility use cap applicable to the Eastern Aleutian Island golden king crab (Lithodes aequispinus) (EAG) and Western Aleutian Island red king crab (Paralithodes camtschaticus) (WAI) fisheries. The EAG and WAI crab fisheries are the only two crab fisheries subject to a cap on the amount of IPQ that can be used as a facility (as distinguished from the IPQ use caps, which are specific to the IPQ holder). By exempting custom processing in these three fisheries, this action would align the application of the IPQ custom processing use caps across all CR Program fisheries.

The Council and NMFS recognize that the existing facility and IPQ use caps were designed and implemented when crab TACs were at a much higher level than recent years. Without Amendment 55, four unaffiliated processing facilities would need to operate to fully process the crab fisheries. This is due to share matching requirements in order to custom process crab in the BBR, south designated BSS and WAG east of 174°

W longitude. Given the high costs of operating a processing facility in the BSAI, this is not economically viable when very low amounts of crab are available. Amendment 55 allows for more custom processing opportunities but also benefits the processing sector overall by not forcing more facilities than are needed to process relatively small TACs.

Amendment 55 is expected to improve processing efficiency in the fisheries. Additionally, the proposed action is expected to minimize costs and avoid unnecessary duplication by simplifying regulations and reducing resources needed to monitor and enforce the use caps. The proposed action would help CR Program harvesters by ensuring that all available IFQ have an opportunity to be processed rather than leaving a portion of the A share IFQ stranded if there are not enough processors operating, which could also benefit communities with processing facilities.

Public comments are solicited on proposed Amendments 54 and 55 to the Crab FMP through the end of the comment period (see DATES). NMFS intends to publish in the Federal Register and seek public comment on a proposed rule that would implement Amendments 54 and 55, following NMFS' evaluation of the proposed rule under the Magnuson-Stevens Act. Public comments on the proposed rule must be received by the end of the comment period on Amendments 54 and 55 to be considered in the approval/disapproval decision on Amendments 54 and 55. All comments received by the end of the comment period on Amendments 54 and 55, whether specifically directed to the amendments or the proposed rule, will be considered in the amendment approval/disapproval decision. Comments received after that date will not be considered in the approval/disapproval decision on the amendments. To be considered, comments must be received, not just postmarked or otherwise transmitted, by the last day of the comment period.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

The Economic Development Administration (EDA) leads the Federal economic development agenda by promoting innovation and competitiveness, preparing American regions for growth and success in the worldwide economy. Guided by the basic principle that sustainable economic development should be driven locally, EDA works directly with communities and regions to help them build the capacity for economic development based on local business conditions and needs. The Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965 (PWEDA) (42 U.S.C. 3121 et seq.) is EDA's organic authority and is the primary legal authority under which EDA awards financial assistance. Under PWEDA, EDA provides financial assistance to both rural and urban distressed communities by fostering entrepreneurship, innovation, and productivity through investments in infrastructure development, capacity building, and business development to attract private capital investments and new and better jobs to regions experiencing economic distress. Further information on EDA programs and financial assistance opportunities can be found at www.eda.gov.

To effectively administer and monitor its economic development assistance programs, EDA collects certain information from applications for, and recipients of, EDA investment assistance. The purpose of this notice is to seek comments from the public and other Federal agencies on a request for a revision to the information collected from recipients of awards under the EDA American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) Good Jobs Challenge. This is aligned with ensuring that Federal workforce investments are evidence-based and data-driven, and accountable to participants and the public. The original data collection instrument was filed under OMB 0610-0109. This request is to revise an existing question and add a new question to the current data collection instrument. The revised question will ask grantees to report participants' training status instead of asking if they have completed training, this will provide further disaggregated data. The new question will be asked of training providers to provide the total number of participants that completed the training program and have no plans to re-enroll in further training.

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) is initiating and issuing preliminary results of changed circumstances reviews (CCR) of the antidumping duty (AD) and countervailing duty (CVD) orders on certain metal lockers and parts thereof (metal lockers) from the People's Republic of China (China), to revoke the orders, in part, with respect to certain metal safes. Interested parties are invited to comment on these preliminary results.

DATES: Applicable February 27, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Matthew Palmer, AD/CVD Operations, Office III, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-1678.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On August 20, 2021, Commerce published the AD and CVD orders on metal lockers from China.¹ On January 16, 2024, SA Consumer Products (SA) and Academy, Ltd. (doing business as Academy Sports + Outdoors) (Academy), requested, through a CCR request, that Commerce amend the scope of, and retroactively revoke the Orders, in part, pursuant to section 751(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), 19 CFR 351.216, and 19 CFR 351.221(c)(3)(ii).² SA and Academy stated that they qualify as importers of certain metal safes currently subject to duties and, as such, are interested parties pursuant to section 771(9)(A) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.102(b)(29)(ii).³

On January 31, 2024, List Industries, Inc. (List) and Tenssco LLC (Tenssco) (collectively, petitioners), the petitioners in the original investigations leading to the Orders, filed comments in support of amending the scope of the Orders to exclude certain metal safes as defined in SA and Academy's proposed scope language.⁴ The petitioners otherwise oppose any amendment to the safe exclusion beyond the language proposed by SA and Academy.⁵ The Petitioners' Comments include additional letters of support from the domestic industry,⁶ and furthermore, demonstrate that the existing support represents substantially all of the production of the domestic like product.⁷

Scope of the Orders

The scope of the Orders covers certain metal lockers, with or without doors, and parts thereof (metal lockers). The subject metal lockers are secure metal storage devices less than 27 inches wide and less than 27 inches deep, whether floor standing, installed onto a base or wall-mounted. In a multiple locker assembly (whether a welded locker unit, otherwise assembled locker unit or knocked down unit or kit), the width measurement shall be based on the width of an individual locker not the overall unit dimensions. All measurements in this scope are based on actual measurements taken on the outside dimensions of the single-locker unit. The height is the vertical measurement from the bottom to the top of the unit. The width is the horizontal (side to side) measurement of the front of the unit, and the front of the unit is the face with the door or doors or the opening for internal access of the unit if configured without a door. The depth is the measurement from the front to the back of the unit. The subject certain metal lockers typically include the bodies (back, side, shelf, top and bottom panels), door frames with or without doors which can be integrated into the sides or made separately, and doors.

The subject metal lockers typically are made of flat-rolled metal, metal mesh and/or expanded metal, which includes but is not limited to alloy or non-alloy steel (whether or not galvanized or otherwise metallicly coated for corrosion resistance), stainless steel, or aluminum, but the doors may also include transparent polycarbonate, Plexiglas or similar transparent material or any combination thereof. Metal mesh refers to both wire mesh and expanded metal mesh. Wire mesh is a wire product in which the horizontal and transverse wires are welded at the cross-section in a grid pattern. Expanded metal mesh is made by slitting and stretching metal sheets to make a screen of diamond or other shaped openings.

⁷ See Petitioners' First Supplemental Response at 3 and Attachment 1; and Petitioner's Letter, "Petitioners' Submission of Amended Domestic Industry Form," dated February 13, 2024.

Where the product has doors, the doors are typically configured with or for a handle or other device or other means that permit the use of a mechanical or electronic lock or locking mechanism, including, but not limited to: a combination lock, a padlock, a key lock, (including cylinder type key locks) lever or knob lock, electronic key pad, other electronic or a wireless lock. The handle and locking mechanism, if included, need not be integrated into one another. The subject locker may or may not also enter with the lock or locking device included or installed. If entered with a lock, the lock itself is not in-scope merchandise. The doors or body panels may also include vents (including wire mesh or expanded metal mesh vents) or perforations. The bodies, body components and doors are typically powder coated, otherwise painted or epoxy coated or may be unpainted. The subject merchandise includes metal lockers imported either as welded or otherwise assembled units (ready for installation or use) or as knocked down units or kits (requiring assembly prior to installation or use).

The subject lockers may be shipped as individual or multiple locker units preassembled, welded, or combined into banks or tiers for ease of installation or as sets of component parts, bulk packed (i.e., all backs in one package, crate, rack, carton or container and sides in another package, crate, rack, carton or container) or any combination thereof. The knocked down lockers are shipped unassembled requiring a supplier, contractor or end-user to assemble the individual lockers and locker banks prior to installation.

The scope also includes all parts and components of lockers made from flat-rolled metal or expanded metal (e.g., doors, frames, shelves, tops, bottoms, backs, side panels, etc.) as well as accessories that are attached to the lockers when installed (including, but not limited to, slope tops, bases, expansion filler panels, dividers, recess trim, decorative end panels, and end caps) that may be imported together with lockers or other locker components or on their own. The particular accessories listed for illustrative purposes are defined as follows:

a. Slope tops: Slope tops are slanted metal panels or units that fit on the tops of the lockers and that slope from back to front to prevent the accumulation of dust and debris on top of the locker and to discourage the use of the tops of lockers as storage areas. Slope tops come in various configurations including, but not limited to, unit slope tops (in place of flat tops), slope hoods made of a back, top and end pieces which fit over multiple units and convert flat tops to a sloping tops, and slope top kits that convert flat tops to sloping tops and include tops, backs and ends.

b. Bases: Locker bases are panels made from flat-rolled metal that either conceal the legs of the locker unit, or for lockers without legs, provide a toe space in the front of the locker and conceal the flanges for floor anchoring.

c. Expansion filler panel: Expansion filler panels or fillers are metal panels that attach to locker units to cover columns, pipes or other obstacles in a row of lockers or fill in gaps between the locker and the wall. Fillers may also include metal panels that are used on the sides or the top of the lockers to fill gaps.

d. Dividers: Dividers are metal panels that divide the space within a locker unit into different storage areas.

e. Recess trim: Recess trim is a narrow metal trim that bridges the gap between lockers and walls or soffits when lockers are recessed into a wall.

f. Decorative end panels: End panels fit onto the exposed ends of locker units to cover holes, bolts, nuts, screws and other fasteners. They typically are painted to match the lockers.

g. End caps: End caps fit onto the exposed ends of locker units to cover holes, bolts, nuts, screws and other fasteners.

The scope also includes all hardware for assembly and installation of the lockers and locker banks that are imported with or shipped, invoiced, or sold with the imported locker or locker system except the lock.

Excluded from the scope are wire mesh lockers. Wire mesh lockers are those with each of the following characteristics:

- (1) at least three sides, including the door, made from wire mesh;
- (2) the width and depth each exceed 25 inches; and
- (3) the height exceeds 90 inches.

Also excluded are lockers with bodies made entirely of plastic, wood or any nonmetallic material.

Also excluded are exchange lockers with multiple individual locking doors mounted on one master locking door to access multiple units. Excluded exchange lockers have multiple individual storage spaces, typically arranged in tiers, with access doors for each of the multiple individual storage space mounted on a single frame that can be swung open to allow access to all of the individual storage spaces at once. For example, uniform or garment exchange lockers are designed for the distinct function of securely and hygienically exchanging clean and soiled uniforms. Thus, excluded exchange lockers are a multi-access point locker whereas covered lockers are a single access point locker for personal storage. The excluded exchange lockers include assembled exchange lockers and those that enter in 'knock down' form in which all of the parts and components to assemble a completed exchange locker unit are packaged together. Parts of exchange lockers are not excluded.

Also excluded are metal lockers that are imported with an installed electronic, internet-enabled locking device that permits communication or connection between the locker's locking device and other internet connected devices.

Also excluded are locks and hardware and accessories for assembly and installation of the lockers, locker banks and storage systems that are separately imported in bulk and are not incorporated into a locker, locker system or knocked down kit at the time of importation. Such excluded hardware and accessories include but are not limited to locks and bulk imported rivets, nuts, bolts, hinges, door handles, door/frame latching components, and coat hooks. Accessories of sheet metal, including but not limited to end panels, bases, dividers and sloping tops, are not excluded accessories.

Mobile tool chest attachments that meet the physical description above are covered by the scope of the Order, unless such attachments are covered by the scope of the ongoing proceedings on certain tool chests and cabinets from China. If the proceedings on certain tool chests and cabinets from China are terminated, the mobile tool chest attachments from China will be covered by the scope of this proceeding.

The scope also excludes metal safes with each of the following characteristics: (1) pry resistant, concealed hinges; (2) body walls and doors of steel that are at least 17 gauge (0.05625 inch or 1.42874 mm thick); and (3) an integrated locking mechanism that includes at least two round steel bolts 0.75 inch (19 mm) or larger in diameter; or three bolts 0.70 inch (17.78 mm) or more in diameter; or four or more bolts at least 0.60 inch (15.24 mm) or more in diameter, that project from the door into the body or frame of the safe when in the locked position.

The scope also excludes gun safes meeting each of the following requirements:

- (1) Shall be able to fully contain firearms and provide for their secure storage.
- (2) Shall have a locking system consisting of at minimum a mechanical or electronic combination lock. The mechanical or electronic combination lock utilized by the safe shall have at least 10,000 possible combinations consisting of a minimum three numbers, letters, or symbols. The lock shall be protected by a casehardened (Rc 60+) drill-resistant steel plate, or drill-resistant material of equivalent strength.

(3) Boltwork shall consist of a minimum of three steel locking bolts of at least 1/2-inch thickness that intrude from the door of the safe into the body of the safe or from the body of the safe into the door of the safe, which are operated by a separate handle and secured by the lock.

(4) The exterior walls shall be constructed of a minimum 12-gauge thick steel for a single-walled safe, or the sum of the steel walls shall add up to at least 0.100 inches for safes with walls made from two pieces of flat-rolled steel.

(5) Doors shall be constructed of a minimum one layer of 7-gauge steel plate reinforced construction or at least two layers of a minimum 12-gauge steel compound construction.

(6) Door hinges shall be protected to prevent the removal of the door. Protective features include, but are not limited to: hinges not exposed to the outside, interlocking door designs, dead bars, jeweler's lugs and active or inactive locking bolts.

The scope also excludes gun safes meeting each of the following requirements:

(1) Shall be able to fully contain firearms and provide for their secure storage.

(2) Shall have a locking system consisting of at minimum a mechanical or electronic combination lock with a lock body that is integrated into the door of the safe. (3) Bolt work shall consist of a minimum of three steel locking bolts of at least 1/2-inch diameter that intrude from the door of the safe into the body of the safe or from the body of the safe into the door of the safe, which are operated by a separate handle and secured by the lock.

(4) The exterior walls (inclusive of the floor and top) shall be constructed of a minimum 14-gauge thick steel and shall be lined with one or more layers of fire-retardant gypsum board bonded, affixed with brackets or otherwise securely attached to the exterior walls. The fire retardant gypsum board shall be at least 15 mm in thickness for a single layer or shall sum to at least 19 mm in thickness where multiple layers are combined together.

(5) Doors shall be constructed of a minimum of one layer of 14-gauge steel lined with a minimum of one layer of 15 mm thick, fire-retardant gypsum board bonded, affixed with brackets or otherwise securely attached to the door. The doors shall fit into jambs equipped with a fire seal fitted completely around the door frame consisting of a hydrated sodium silicate encapsulated in a plastic film or sleeve that, when heat-activated by temperatures of over 210 degrees, expands to cover the space between the jambs and door, providing a barrier to prevent the intrusion of flames, gas, or smoke into the safe.

(6) Door hinges shall be protected to prevent the removal of the door. Protective features include but are not limited to: hinges not exposed to the outside, interlocking door designs, dead bars, jeweler's lugs and active or inactive locking bolts.

The subject certain metal lockers are classified under Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS) subheading 9403.20.0078. Parts of subject certain metal lockers are classified under HTSUS subheading 9403.90.8041. In addition, subject certain metal lockers may also enter under HTSUS subheading 9403.20.0050. While HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and Customs purposes, the written description of the scope of this Order is dispositive.

Proposed Revocation of the Orders, in Part

SA and Academy requested that the Orders be revoked, in part, and retroactively,⁸ with respect to certain metal safes, specifically requesting that exclusion language be added to the scope, independent from the existing metal safe exclusion to further exclude other metal safes.⁹ Furthermore, SA and Academy requested that Commerce conduct an expedited CCR.¹⁰ SA/ Academy's CCR Request does not seek to amend or replace the existing exclusion for metal safes,¹¹ but instead proposes that Commerce adopt new exclusion language to be added to the scope of the Orders as follows:¹²

(4) made of a welded body construction and enter the United States fully assembled.

For a complete description of the proposed scope of these Orders, see the appendix to this notice.

Initiation of CCRs

Pursuant to section 751(b)(1) of the Act, Commerce will conduct a CCR upon receipt of a request from an interested party that shows changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review of the Orders. In accordance ⁸ See SA and Academy's CCR Request at 13 (requesting to apply the revocation retroactively to December 1, 2021).

¹¹ Id. at 10.

¹² Id. at 11–12 (We note that SA and Academy request that the proposed language be added between the existing metal safe and gun safe exclusion language in the existing scope of the Orders.)

with 19 CFR 351.216(d), Commerce determines that the information submitted by SA and Academy, along with substantially all of the domestic industry's support, shows changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review of the Orders.

Section 782(h)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(g)(1)(i) provide that Commerce may revoke an order (in whole or in part) if it determines that producers accounting for substantially all of the production of the domestic like product have expressed a lack of interest in the order, in whole or in part. In its administrative practice, Commerce has interpreted "substantially all" to mean producers accounting for at least 85 percent of the total U.S. production of the domestic like product covered by the order.¹³

Furthermore, section 751(b)(4)(B) of the Act states that, "in the absence of good cause shown," the Secretary of Commerce may not review a final determination less than 24 months after the date of publication of the notice of final determination or notice of suspension of an investigation. The final determinations in the less-than-fair-value investigation and CVD investigation of metal lockers from China published on July 7, 2021.¹⁴ Therefore, because we are initiating this review more than 24 months after July 7, 2021, it is not necessary to establish good cause for conducting this review.

Preliminary Results of CCRs and Intent To Revoke the Orders, in Part

Section 351.221(c)(3)(ii) of Commerce's regulations permits Commerce to combine the notice of initiation of a CCR and the notice of preliminary results if Commerce concludes that expedited action is warranted.¹⁵ In this instance, because the record contains information necessary to make a preliminary finding, we find that expedited action is warranted and have combined the notice of initiation and the notice of preliminary results.¹⁶

Pursuant to section 751(d)(1) of the Act, and 19 CFR 351.222(g), Commerce may revoke an AD or CVD order, in whole or in part, based on a review under section 751(b) of the Act (i.e., a CCR). Section 751(b)(1) of the Act requires a CCR to be conducted upon receipt of a request which shows changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review. Section 782(h)(2) of the Act gives Commerce the authority to revoke an order if producers accounting for substantially all of the production of the domestic like product have expressed a lack of interest in the order. Section 351.222(g) of Commerce's regulations provides that Commerce will conduct a CCR of an AD or CVD order under 19 CFR 351.216, and may revoke an order (in whole or in part), if it concludes that: (i) producers accounting for substantially all of the production of the domestic like product to which the order pertains have expressed a lack of interest in the relief provided by the order, in whole or in part; or (ii) if other changed circumstances sufficient to warrant revocation exist. Thus, both the Act and Commerce's regulations require that "substantially all" domestic producers express a lack of interest in the order for Commerce to revoke the order, in whole or in part.¹⁷ In its administrative practice, Commerce has interpreted "substantially all" to represent producers accounting for at least 85 percent of U.S. production of the domestic like product.¹⁸

As explained above, domestic locker producers accounting for greater than 85 percent of the domestic industry have expressed support for SA and Academy's CCR Request, which includes support from the original petitioners and other domestic locker producers.¹⁹ Substantially all of the domestic industry supports the request for the CCRs, or the addition of the specific exclusion language proposed by SA and Academy.²⁰ Furthermore, substantially all the domestic industry supported the application of the proposed exclusion language with retroactivity to December 1, 2021.²¹

In addition to attestations of support from substantially all the domestic industry,²² List and Tennsco state their support, explaining "that the scope of the order may be changed to add the new proposed safe exclusion language offered by SA and Academy to the scope,"²³ further stating that they support "the new metal safe scope exclusion retroactive to December 1, 2021."²⁴ In addition, in the Petitioners' Comments, the petitioners explain that they support the proposed metal safe exclusion language in addition to the existing metal safe exclusion, and not instead of it.²⁵ The petitioners request that SA and Academy's proposed exclusion language be inserted to the existing scope after the current metal safe exclusion, and before the existing gun safe exclusion language.²⁶

In light of the domestic producers' statements of support of modifying the Orders, in part, with respect to the addition of exclusion language for certain metal safes as described by SA and Academy, and in the absence of any other interested party comments addressing the issue of domestic industry support, we preliminarily conclude that producers accounting for substantially all of the production of the domestic like product to which the Orders pertain lack interest in the relief provided by the Orders with respect to certain metal safes that are the subject of SA and Academy's new proposed safe exclusion language. Thus, we preliminarily determine that changed circumstances warrant revocation of the Orders, in part, with respect to such metal safes as described in SA and Academy's new proposed exclusion language, with retroactivity of the revocation back to December 1, 2021. Accordingly, we are notifying the public of our intent to revoke the Orders, in part, with respect to certain metal safes described in the "Proposed Revocation of the Orders, in Part" section above, with retroactivity of the revocation applying back to December 1, 2021.

Appendix

Proposed Scope of the Orders

The scope of the Orders covers certain metal lockers, with or without doors, and parts thereof (metal lockers). The subject metal lockers are secure metal storage devices less than 27 inches wide and less than 27 inches deep, whether floor standing, installed onto a base or wall-mounted. In a multiple locker assembly (whether a welded locker unit, otherwise assembled locker unit or knocked down unit or kit), the width measurement shall be based on the width of an individual locker not the overall unit dimensions. All measurements in this scope are based on actual measurements taken on the outside dimensions of the single-locker unit. The height is the vertical measurement from the bottom to the top of the unit. The width is the horizontal (side to side) measurement of the front of the unit, and the front of the unit is the face with the door or doors or the opening for internal access of the unit if configured without a door. The depth is the measurement from the front to the back of the unit. The subject certain metal lockers typically include the bodies (back, side, shelf, top and bottom panels), door frames with or without doors which can be integrated into the sides or made separately, and doors.

The subject metal lockers typically are made of flat-rolled metal, metal mesh and/or expanded metal, which includes but is not limited to alloy or non-alloy steel (whether or not galvanized or otherwise metallically coated for corrosion resistance), stainless steel, or aluminum, but the doors may also include transparent polycarbonate, Plexiglas or similar transparent material or any combination thereof. Metal mesh refers to both wire mesh and expanded metal mesh. Wire mesh is a wire product in which the horizontal and transverse wires are welded at the cross-section in a grid pattern. Expanded metal mesh is made by slitting and stretching metal sheets to make a screen of diamond or other shaped openings.

Where the product has doors, the doors are typically configured with or for a handle or other device or other means that permit the use of a mechanical or electronic lock or locking mechanism, including, but not limited to: A combination lock, a padlock, a key lock (including cylinder locks) lever or knob lock, electronic key pad, or other electronic or wireless lock. The handle and locking mechanism, if included, need not be integrated into one another. The subject locker may or may not also enter with the lock or locking device included or installed. The doors or body panels may also include vents (including wire mesh or expanded metal mesh vents) or perforations. The bodies, body components and doors are typically powder coated, otherwise painted or epoxy coated or may be unpainted. The subject merchandise includes metal lockers imported either as welded or otherwise assembled units (ready for installation or use) or as knocked down units or kits (requiring assembly prior to installation or use).

The subject lockers may be shipped as individual or multiple locker units preassembled, welded, or combined into banks or tiers for ease of installation or as sets of component parts, bulk packed (i.e., all backs in one package, crate, rack, carton or container and sides in another package, crate, rack, carton or container) or any combination thereof. The knocked down lockers are shipped unassembled requiring a supplier, contractor or end-user to assemble the individual lockers and locker banks prior to installation.

The scope also includes all parts and components of lockers made from flat-rolled metal or expanded metal (e.g., doors, frames, shelves, tops, bottoms, backs, side panels, etc.) as well as accessories that are attached to the lockers when installed (including, but not limited to, slope tops, bases, expansion filler panels, dividers, recess trim, decorative end panels, and end caps) that may be imported together with lockers or other locker components or on their own. The particular accessories listed for illustrative purposes are defined as follows:

a. Slope tops: Slope tops are slanted metal panels or units that fit on the tops of the lockers and that slope from back to front to prevent the accumulation of dust and debris on top of the locker and to discourage the use of the tops of lockers as storage areas. Slope tops come in various configurations including, but not limited to, unit slope tops (in place of flat tops), slope hoods made of a back, top and end pieces which fit over multiple units and convert flat tops to a sloping tops, and slope top kits that convert flat tops to sloping tops and include tops, backs and ends.

b. Bases: Locker bases are panels made from flat-rolled metal that either conceal the legs of the locker unit, or for lockers without legs, provide a toe space in the front of the locker and conceal the flanges for floor anchoring.

c. Expansion filler panel: Expansion filler panels or fillers are metal panels that attach to locker units to cover columns, pipes or other obstacles in a row of lockers or fill in gaps between the locker and the wall. Fillers may also include metal panels that are used on the sides or the top of the lockers to fill gaps.

d. Dividers: Dividers are metal panels that divide the space within a locker unit into different storage areas.

e. Recess trim: Recess trim is a narrow metal trim that bridges the gap between lockers and walls or soffits when lockers are recessed into a wall.

f. Decorative end panels: End panels fit onto the exposed ends of locker units to cover holes, bolts, nuts, screws and other fasteners. They typically are painted to match the lockers.

g. End caps: End caps fit onto the exposed ends of locker units to cover holes, bolts, nuts, screws and other fasteners.

The scope also includes all hardware for assembly and installation of the lockers and locker banks that are imported with or shipped, invoiced, or sold with the imported locker or locker system except the lock.

Excluded from the scope are wire mesh lockers. Wire mesh lockers are those with each of the following characteristics:

- (1) At least three sides, including the door, made from wire mesh;
- (2) the width and depth each exceed 25 inches; and
- (3) the height exceeds 90 inches.

Also excluded are lockers with bodies made entirely of plastic, wood, or any nonmetallic material.

Also excluded are exchange lockers with multiple individual locking doors mounted on one master locking door to access multiple units. Excluded exchange lockers have multiple individual storage spaces, typically arranged in tiers, with access doors for each of the multiple individual storage space mounted on a single frame that can be swung open to allow access to all of the individual storage spaces at once. For example, uniform or garment exchange lockers are designed for the distinct function of securely and hygienically exchanging clean and soiled uniforms. Thus, excluded exchange lockers are a multi-access point locker whereas covered lockers are a single access point locker for personal storage. The excluded exchange lockers include assembled exchange lockers and those that enter in 'knock down' form in which all of the parts and components to assemble a completed exchange locker unit are packaged together. Parts for exchange lockers that are imported separately from the exchange lockers in 'knock down' form are not excluded.

Also excluded are metal lockers that are imported with an installed electronic, internet-enabled locking device that permits communication or connection between the locker's locking device and other internet connected devices.

Also excluded are locks and hardware and accessories for assembly and installation of the lockers, locker banks and storage systems that are separately imported in bulk and are not incorporated into a locker, locker system or knocked down kit at the time of importation. Such excluded hardware and accessories include but are not limited to locks and bulk imported rivets, nuts, bolts, hinges, door handles, door/frame latching components, and coat hooks. Accessories of sheet metal, including but not limited to end panels, bases, dividers and sloping tops, are not excluded accessories.

Mobile tool chest attachments that meet the physical description above are covered by the scope of the Orders, unless such attachments are covered by the scope of the Orders on certain tool chests and cabinets from China. If the Orders on certain tool chests and cabinets from China are revoked, the mobile tool chest attachments from China will be covered by the scope of the Orders.

The scope also excludes metal safes with each of the following characteristics: (1) Pry resistant, concealed hinges; (2) body walls and doors of steel that are at least 17 gauge (0.05625 inch or 1.42874 mm thick); and (3) an integrated locking mechanism that includes at least two round steel bolts 0.75 inch (19 mm) or larger in diameter; or three bolts 0.70 inch (17.78 mm) or more in diameter; or four or more bolts at least 0.60 inch (15.24 mm) or more in diameter, that project from the door into the body or frame of the safe when in the locked position.

The scope also excludes metal safes with each of the following characteristics:

(1) Pry resistant hinges, whether concealed or external. External hinges must be accompanied by solid steel inactive bolts (minimum 0.75 inch (19 mm) diameter) or plates (minimum 0.177 inch (4.5 mm) thickness), welded or bolted to the door and protrude into the safe and into or behind the door frame by at least 0.39 inches (10 mm) to prevent the physical removal or opening of the door;

(2) body walls and doors made of steel that is at least 17 gauge (0.05625 inch or 1.42874 mm thick);

(3) an integrated locking mechanism that includes one of the following: (a) at least two round steel active bolts 0.75 inch (19 mm) or larger in diameter; (b) three or more steel active bolts 0.70 inch (17.78 mm) or more in diameter; (c) four or more steel active bolts at least 0.60 inch (15.24 mm) or more in diameter; or (d) four or more flat steel locking plates (at least two active and two inactive) of a minimum of 0.177 inch (4.5 mm) in thickness and minimum height of 1.57 inches (40 mm), that extend out from the door by at least 0.78 inches (20 mm). The bolts or plates must project from the door, into the safe, and into or behind the door frame by at least 0.39 inches (10 mm) to prevent the physical removal or opening of the door; and

(1) Shall be able to fully contain firearms and provide for their secure storage.

(2) Shall have a locking system consisting of at minimum a mechanical or electronic combination lock with a lock body that is integrated into the door of the safe. The mechanical or electronic combination lock utilized by the safe shall have at least 10,000 possible combinations consisting of a minimum three numbers, letters, or symbols.

(3) Bolt work shall consist of a minimum of three steel locking bolts of at least 1/2-inch diameter that intrude from the door of the safe into the body of the safe or from the body of the safe into the door of the safe, which are operated by a separate handle and secured by the lock.

(4) The exterior walls (inclusive of the floor and top) shall be constructed of a minimum 14-gauge thick steel and shall be lined with one or more layers of fire-retardant gypsum board bonded, affixed with brackets or otherwise securely attached to the exterior walls. (5) Doors shall be constructed of a minimum of one layer of 14-gauge steel lined with a minimum of one layer of 15 mm thick, fire-retardant gypsum board bonded, affixed with brackets or otherwise securely attached to the door. The doors shall fit into jambs equipped with a fire seal fitted completely around the door frame consisting of a hydrated sodium silicate encapsulated in a plastic film or sleeve that, when heat-activated by temperatures of over 210 degrees, expands to cover the space between the jambs and door, providing a barrier to prevent the intrusion of flames, gas, or smoke into the safe.

(6) Door hinges shall be protected to prevent the removal of the door. Protective features include but are not limited to: hinges not exposed to the outside, interlocking door designs, dead bars, jeweler's lugs and active or inactive locking bolts.

(7) The excluded safe must be imported in the fully assembled condition.

The scope also excludes metal storage devices that (1) have two or more exterior exposed drawers regardless of the height of the unit, or (2) are no more than 30 inches tall and have at least one exterior exposed drawer.

Also excluded from the scope are free standing metal cabinets less than 30 inches tall with a single opening, single door and an installed tabletop.

The scope also excludes metal storage devices less than 27 inches wide and deep that: (1) Have two doors hinged on the right and left side of the door frame respectively covering a single opening and that open from the middle toward the outer frame; or (2) are free standing or wall-mounted, single-opening units 20 inches or less high with a single door.

The subject certain metal lockers are classified under Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS) subheading 9403.20.0078. Parts of subject certain metal lockers are classified under HTS subheading 9403.90.8041. In addition, subject certain metal lockers may also enter under HTS subheading 9403.20.0050. While HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and Customs purposes, the written description of the scope of the Orders is dispositive.

Applications Received

Permit 1127-7R

The Shoshone-Bannock Tribes are seeking to renew a permit that for nearly three decades has allowed them to annually take listed SR steelhead and spr/sum Chinook salmon while conducting research designed to (1) monitor adult and juvenile fish in key upper SnkR subbasin watersheds; (2) assess the utility of hatchery Chinook salmon in increasing natural populations in the Salmon River; and (3) evaluate the genetic and ecological impacts hatchery Chinook salmon may have on natural populations. The fish would primarily benefit from the research in two ways. First, the research would broadly be used to help guide restoration and recovery efforts throughout the SnkR basin. Second, the research would be used to determine how hatchery supplementation can be used as a tool for salmon recovery. The research would also help the Tribes re-establish traditional fishing opportunities and connect with and protect cultural, ecological, and social values and rights.

The researchers would use screw traps, weirs, electrofishing, and hook-and-line angling gear to capture the listed fish. Once captured, the fish would undergo various sampling, tagging, and handling regimes; they would then be allowed to recover and released. Some tissue samples would be taken from adult fish carcasses, and the researchers would conduct some snorkeling surveys and redd counts. In all cases, trained crews would conduct the operations, no adult salmonids would be electrofished, and all activities would take place in the Salmon River subbasin. The researchers are not proposing to kill any of the fish they capture, but some may die as an unintended result of the research.

Permit 1410-14R

The Northwest Fisheries Science Center (NWFSC) is seeking to renew a research permit that currently allows them to take juvenile and adult CC, CVS, LCR, PS, SacR, SnkR fall-run, SnkR spr/sum, UCR, and UWR Chinook salmon; CR chum salmon; LCR, OC, and SONCC coho salmon; SnkR sockeye salmon; and LCR, MCR, SnkR, UCR, and UWR steelhead while conducting a study of the Columbia River plume and the surrounding ocean environment off the coasts of Oregon and Washington. The NWFSC research may also cause them to take SDPS eulachon, a species for which there are currently no ESA take prohibitions. This renewal would also allow the researchers to lethally sample a subset of adult salmon to allow for tissue and otolith collection. The purposes of the research are to (1) determine the abundance, distribution, growth, and condition of juvenile Columbia River salmonids in the river's plume and characterize its physical and biological features as they relate to salmonid survival; (2) determine the impact that predators and food supply have on survival among juvenile Columbia River Chinook and coho salmon as they migrate through the Columbia River estuary and plume; and (3) synthesize the early ocean ecology of juvenile Columbia River salmonids, test mechanisms that control salmonid growth and survival, and produce ecological indices that forecast salmonid survival.

The research would benefit the affected species by (1) providing data to improve understanding of how the ocean and Columbia River plume conditions affect juvenile salmonids; (2) helping predict how changing ocean conditions would affect salmonid growth and survival; and (3) helping improve salmon management actions in relation to river, plume, and ocean conditions. Information on adults would also help researchers better understand the relationship between older salmon individuals and predators such as Southern Resident Killer Whales (SRKWs). The NWFSC proposes to capture fish using a surface trawl, which can cause lethally crush and descale juvenile salmonids and eulachon. Juvenile salmonids would be identified to species, measured for length, and frozen for further analysis (i.e., weight, growth, genetics, diet (stomach contents), parasites, pathogens, and physiological condition). All juvenile salmon are lethally sampled, and a subset of adult salmon will be lethally sampled for tissue analyses including otoliths and stomach contents. The remaining adult salmonids that are not lethally sampled would be held in an aerated livewell, identified to species, measured for length, checked for tags and marks, and released. Eulachon would either be returned to the capture location or retained for further scientific research activities at the NWFSC.

The Washington Department of Natural Resources (WDNR) is seeking to renew for 5 years a permit that currently authorizes them to take juvenile CR chum salmon, LCR Chinook salmon, LCR coho salmon, and LCR and MCR steelhead in WDNR-managed forests in Washington State. The purpose of the study is to survey stream reaches above natural barriers to determine if fish are present. This information is needed to determine appropriate widths of riparian buffers to leave intact during timber harvest. This study would benefit listed species by documenting the need for increased riparian buffers, which better protect aquatic and riparian habitat where fish are present. In addition, data on the distribution of fish gained from this study would be used to inform land management decisions and thereby better protect listed species.

The WDNR proposes to capture juvenile fish using single-pass backpack electrofishing. The researchers would turn off the electricity as soon as a fish is seen. Fish would be identified regardless of whether they are netted; if fish are netted they would be held in the water only long enough to identify them and then released at the site of capture. The WDNR does not intend to kill any of the fish being captured, but a small number may die as an unintended consequence of the proposed activities.

The King County Department of Natural Resources and Parks (KCDNRP) is seeking to renew for 5 years a research permit that currently allows them to take juvenile PS Chinook salmon and PS steelhead. Sampling sites would be in four Puget Sound (Washington) sub-basins—Snoqualmie, Lake Washington, Duwamish, and Puyallup—and intertidal nearshore areas in the Puget Sound (King County, Washington). The purposes of the study are to (1) evaluate the effectiveness of restoration actions through biological monitoring; (2) understand how juvenile salmonids use specific riverine habitats in order to prioritize restoration projects and guide project design; (3) assess salmonid habitat status and trends in small streams with varying degrees of land use while monitoring current stream conditions; and (4) assess contaminant levels in various freshwater fish. The research would benefit the affected species by determining how restoration and recovery actions are contributing to listed species recovery, providing information on the extent of juvenile salmonid rearing in off-channel areas, guiding future restoration projects based upon monitoring results, providing information on habitat use by yearling fall-run Chinook salmon, and contributing to our knowledge of Chinook salmon life histories.

The KCDNRP proposes to capture fish using beach seines, fyke nets, gill nets, hook and line angling, minnow traps, and backpack and boat-operated electrofishing. Most of the captured fish would be anaesthetized, identified to species, allowed to recover, and released. A subset of the Chinook salmon would also be tagged (acoustic, passive integrated transponder (PIT), and elastomer), dyed (Bismark Brown), gastric lavaged, and have scales collected. The researchers do not intend to kill any listed fish, but some may die as an inadvertent result of the research.

The Amnis Opes Institute (AOI) is seeking to renew for 5 years a research permit that currently allows them to take juvenile and adult LCR, PS, SnkR fall-run, SnkR spr/sum, UCR, and UWR Chinook salmon; CR and HCS chum salmon; LCR, OC, and SONCC coho salmon; SnkR sockeye salmon; and LCR, MCR, PS, SnkR, UCR, and UWR steelhead throughout Idaho, Oregon, and Washington States. The purpose of the study is to develop baseline data of the physical and chemical habitat for rivers and streams throughout the United States. Research transects would be randomly determined and would take place on alternating sides of the sampled rivers and streams for a distance of 40 times the mean wetted channel width. The researchers would stop every five channel widths to process the fish. This research would benefit the affected species by characterizing the biological condition of rivers and thereby provide data that supports Clean Water Act implementation.

The AOI researchers propose to capture fish using raft-mounted and backpack electrofishing equipment; stunned fish would be placed in a livewell with a soft mesh dip-net. Fish would be identified to species, measured to length, searched for abnormalities, and returned to the water when recovered. ESA-listed species would be processed and released first. If adult salmonids are observed, electrofishing activities would immediately cease and the researchers would move to another location before resuming electrofishing activities. The researchers do not intend to kill any listed fish, but some may die as an inadvertent result of the research.

The Oregon State University is seeking to renew for 5 years a research permit that currently allows them to take juvenile listed hatchery SONCC coho in the Upper Klamath River. The purposes of this research are to (1) determine the effects of infection by the myxozoan parasite Ceratonova shasta on coho salmon; and (2) estimate disease effects for each study year on the wild coho population. The work would benefit fish by providing information on endemic C. shasta levels in the Klamath River and thereby help managers monitor and mitigate the parasite's effects on listed species.

Juvenile coho salmon from Iron Gate, Fall Creek and/or Trinity River hatcheries would be transported to selected locations on the Klamath River and monitored for disease after the exposure to C. shasta. Following exposure, all fish would be transported to the Oregon State University J. L. Fryer Aquatic Animal Health Laboratory where time to morbidity, overall morbidity and infection prevalence would be ascertained through microscopic and molecular analysis of intestinal tissues. Because all of the fish will be exposed to the parasite C. shasta, they cannot be released after the experiments. In addition, infection prevalence data are needed which requires euthanizing all fish surviving the exposures, since surviving fish may still be infected with the parasite.

The Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation (CTWS) is seeking to renew for 5 years a permit that currently authorizes them to take juvenile and adult LCR Chinook salmon, LCR coho salmon, and LCR and MCR steelhead. The purpose of the study is to describe abundance, habitat associations, spawning, distribution, migration patterns, harvest rates, and limiting factors for Pacific lamprey in Fifteen Mile Creek and Hood River and their tributaries (Oregon). The research would provide important basic ecological information about Pacific lamprey, which is not ESA-listed, but which is an important indicator species for characterizing watershed health. Although researchers are targeting juvenile and adult Pacific lamprey (Entosphenus tridentatus) for capture, other species may be taken during sampling activities. The research would benefit listed species by improving understanding of watershed condition and helping managers prioritize habitat restoration projects in the Fifteen Mile Creek and Hood River basins. The work would also help the CTWS people reconnect with, increase, and manage a traditional food source.

The CTWS proposes to collect fish from March through October using backpack electrofishing and hand, dip, fyke, and hoop nets. During electrofishing surveys, the researchers would use “lamprey settings” (i.e., very low voltage). The researchers would set hoop (0.8 meter (m) diameter with 1.9 centimeter (cm) mesh) and fyke (2.5 m high by 2.75 m wide with 1.9 cm mesh size) nets facing downstream in low velocity areas. They will modify the fyke net to deter adult steelhead from entering the hoop net by tying twine across the first throat of the net to create an effective mesh size across the opening of 7.5 cm. This modification has effectively deterred steelhead from entering fyke nets set in previous fieldwork. The researchers propose to measure and PIT- or radio-tag adult lamprey before releasing them. The researchers would immediately release any salmonids that are captured or briefly hold them in buckets of water before releasing them if they require time to recover from being captured. If salmonids are observed during electrofishing, the researchers would immediately turn off the electricity and allow fish to swim away. The CTWS does not propose to kill any listed salmonids, but a small number may die as an unintended result of the research activities.

Permit 18331–3R

The Wild Fish Conservancy (WFC) is seeking to renew for 5 years a research permit that currently allows them to take juvenile PS Chinook salmon and PS steelhead in selected stream channels and floodplain areas throughout the Kitsap and Snoqualmie sub-basins of Washington State. The purpose of the study is to classify existing channels by water type and thereby validate and update county, city, and WDNR stream classifications and hydrological maps. This research would benefit the affected species by filling data gaps regarding fish passage impediments (tidegates, culverts, etc.) and providing fish species composition and distribution—information needed to identify, prioritize, and implement restoration projects.

The WFC proposes to capture fish using backpack electrofishing. Fish would be identified to species, tissue sampled (caudal fin clip—steelhead only), and released. Once fish presence is established, either through visual observation or electrofishing, electrofishing would be discontinued. Surveyors would then proceed upstream until a change in habitat parameters is encountered and electrofishing would recommence. The researchers do not intend to kill any listed fish, but some may die as an inadvertent result of the research.

Permit 22003–2R

The KCDNRP is seeking to renew a 5-year research permit that currently allows them to annually take juvenile and adult PS Chinook salmon, PS steelhead, and PS/GB bocaccio and adult SDPS green sturgeon in the marine waters and shorelines of King County (Washington State). The KCDNRP research may also cause them to take juvenile and adult SDPS eulachon and PS/GB yelloweye rockfish—species for which there are currently no ESA take prohibitions. The purpose of the study is to capture English sole, brown rockfish (Sebastes auriculatus), copper rockfish (Sebastes caurinus), quillback rockfish (Sebastes maliger), and various forage fish to monitor tissue levels of toxic chemical contaminants. This research would benefit the affected species by (1) providing information on the types and concentrations of chemicals in fish; (2) helping managers understand the impact chemical exposures have on marine fish health; (3) filling data gaps to help managers make informed management decisions; and (4) informing a long-term program to evaluate changes in chemical body burdens in fish over time as environmental improvements are made (stormwater discharges reduced, contaminated sediments remediated, etc.).

The KCDNRP proposes to capture fish using bottom trawls, beach seines, cast nets, and hook and line (sabiki rigs). Captured ESA-listed fish would be identified to species and released. Listed rockfish would be released via rapid submergence to their capture depth to reduce adverse effects from barotrauma. Targeted species (and incidental mortalities) would be sacrificed, stored on ice, and analyzed for contaminants. The researchers do not intend to kill any listed fish, but some may die as an inadvertent result of the research.

Herrera Environmental Consultants (HEC) is seeking to renew a 5-year research permit that currently allows them to annually take juvenile PS Chinook salmon and PS steelhead while conducting a study in streams near Redmond, Washington. The purpose of the research is to conduct a paired watershed study monitoring stream health by collecting benthic macroinvertebrates in urban and nearby relatively pristine streams. Due to the collection methods, there is a possibility of capturing juvenile salmonids. The research would benefit listed fish by determining the effectiveness of stormwater management in urban streams which can lead directly to water quality and habitat improvement.

The HEC proposes to use a D-frame kick net to capture the fish. Any fish captured would be identified to species and released. The researchers do not intend to kill any of the fish being captured, but a small number may die as an unintended consequence of the proposed activities.

The United States Forest Service (USFS) is seeking to renew a permit that currently allows them to annually take juvenile UCR Chinook salmon, UCR steelhead, and MCR steelhead during research activities taking place at various points in the Yakima, Methow, Entiat, and Wenatchee River drainages in Washington State. The purpose of the research is to determine fish distribution in those subbasins. The research would benefit the fish by giving land managers information they need to design forest management activities (e.g., timber sales, grazing plans, road building) in a manner that would help them have the smallest possible effect on listed species.

Under the renewed permit, the USFS would use using minnow traps, hook-and-line angling, and electrofishing equipment to capture the fish. The fish would then be identified and immediately released whenever possible. The USFS does not intend to kill any of the listed fish being captured, but a small number may die as an unintended result of the research activities.

Permit 26300

The Fishery Foundation of California is seeking a new permit that would authorize them to take juvenile CVS Chinook salmon, CCV steelhead, and juvenile SDPS green sturgeon. The purpose of this study is to document the presence of native fish species in Snodgrass Slough, the Cosumnes River and Laguna Creek in Sacramento County, CA prior to a large floodplain restoration project. The study would benefit affected species by providing data on species presence, seasonal water conditions and migratory windows that will inform the restoration project.

Juveniles would be collected via beach seine and fyke net. Juvenile fish would be captured, handled, and released. The researchers are not proposing to kill any of the listed fish being captured, but a small number of fish may be killed as an inadvertent result of these activities.

The Lower Elwha Klallam Tribe (LEKT) is seeking a 5-year permit that would allow them to take juvenile HCS chum and PS Chinook and PS steelhead during the course of research designed to determine fish and shellfish presence and use in a 28-acre estuarine lagoon at the base of Ediz Hook in Port Angeles, WA. The study would benefit affected species by providing data on species presence, and that information, along with detailed habitat and water quality data, would be used to inform future restoration actions in the area. Those restoration actions, in turn, would help the LEKT people once again conduct traditional fishing and shellfishing activities in the lagoon.

The fish would be captured primarily by beach seining, but some may be captured in fukui and minnow traps. Once captured, the fish would simply be handled and released. The researchers are not proposing to kill any of the listed fish being captured, but a small number of fish may be killed as an inadvertent result of the proposed activities.

The Scott River Water Trust is seeking a new permit that would authorize them to take juvenile and adult SONCC coho salmon in the Scott River, CA. The purpose of this study is to assess fish passage at Youngs Dam to determine how and when juvenile and adult salmon utilize the fish ladder at Youngs Dam. The project seeks to determine an ideal flow target through the fish ladder in an effort to improve fish passage at the dam as well as the fish ladder. The study would benefit SONCC coho by providing data to identify and inform recommendations to improve volitional fish passage through Youngs Dam.

Juveniles would be collected via beach seines and observed during snorkel surveys. Juvenile coho would be captured, handled, and released. A subsample of captured juveniles would be anesthetized, tissue sampled and PIT-tagged prior to release. Adult coho would be observed at weirs, fish ladders, dam and during snorkel surveys. The researchers are not proposing to kill any of the listed fish being captured, but a small number of fish may be killed as an inadvertent result of these activities.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) is seeking a 5-year permit that would allow them to take juvenile HCS chum and PS Chinook and PS steelhead during the course of research designed to determine what effect the hatchery barriers have on the distribution of migratory sculpin (with considerations for how these barriers may also be affecting the distributions of strictly fluvial sculpin species). The research would benefit listed species by producing data on how hatchery weirs affect salmonid migrations in the areas being studied. That data could then be used to modify weir operations for the benefit of the migrating fish.

The fish would be largely be collected by electrofishing, but seining or dipnetting may also be employed. All listed fish would be immediately released without further handling. Sampling would cease and the activity would be moved if adult Chinook, chum, or steelhead (or their redds) are encountered at any time during a survey. The researchers are not proposing to kill any of the listed fish being captured, but a small number of fish may be killed as an inadvertent result of these activities.

The California Department of Fish and Wildlife (CDFW) is seeking a new permit that would authorize them to take juvenile and adult SDPS green sturgeon in the Sacramento and San Joaquin Rivers, CA. The purpose of this study is to develop an indices of white sturgeon abundance for use in species management. Though non-listed white sturgeon are the target species, green sturgeon might be encountered.

Juvenile and adult SDPS green sturgeon would be collected via long line and hook and line sampling and observed via camera and sonar. Juvenile and adult fish would be captured, handled, tagged, and released. The researchers are not proposing to kill any of the listed fish being captured, but a small number of fish may be killed as an inadvertent result of these activities.

The USFWS is seeking a 5-year permit that would allow them to take juvenile

LCR, UWR, PS, and CC Chinook; CR and HCS chum; LCR, PS, UWR, and NC steelhead; and LCR, OC, and SONCC coho. The fish would be taken during efforts to determine the uppermost ranges of several species of fish in more than 20 subbasins in Western Oregon and Washington and Northern California. The research would produce a large amount of presence/absence data on listed fish and thus help managers plan and carry out land management actions across a broad portion of three states.

The researchers would use backpack electrofishing units to capture the fish. Once captured, all listed salmonids would simply be identified and immediately released. In all cases, the researchers would be operating near what is already considered to be the upper limit of trout distribution, so they are unlikely to encounter many listed fish in any case. Regardless, the researchers are not proposing to kill any of the listed fish being captured, but a small number of fish may be killed as an inadvertent result of these activities.

This notice is provided pursuant to section 10(c) of the ESA. NMFS will evaluate the applications, associated documents, and comments submitted to determine whether the applications meet the requirements of section 10(a) of the ESA and Federal regulations. The final permit decisions will not be made until after the end of the 30-day comment period. NMFS will publish notice of its final action in the Federal Register.

Takes of Marine Mammals Incidental to Specified Activities; Taking Marine Mammals Incidental to the Empire Wind Project, Offshore of New York

AGENCY: National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS), National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), Commerce.

ACTION: Notice; issuance of Letter of Authorization.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Marine Mammal Protection Act

(MMPA) as amended, and implementing regulations, notification is hereby given that a Letter of Authorization (LOA) has been issued to Empire Offshore Wind, LLC (Empire Wind) for the taking of marine mammals incidental to the construction of the Empire Wind Project (hereafter known as the “Project”).

DATES: The LOA is effective from February 22, 2024 through February 21, 2029.

ADDRESSES: The LOA and supporting documentation are available online at: <https://www.fisheries.noaa.gov/permit/incidental-take-authorizations-under-marine-mammal-protection-act>. In case of problems accessing these documents, please call the contact listed below.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The MMPA prohibits the “take” of marine mammals, with certain exceptions. Sections 101(a)(5)(A) and (D) of the MMPA (16 U.S.C. 1361 et seq.) direct the Secretary of Commerce (as delegated to NMFS) to allow, upon request, the incidental, but not intentional, taking of small numbers of marine mammals by U.S. citizens who engage in a specified activity (other than commercial fishing) within a specified geographical region if certain findings are made, regulations are promulgated (when applicable), and public notice and an opportunity for public comment are provided.

An authorization for incidental taking shall be granted if NMFS finds that the taking will have a negligible impact on the species or stock(s) and will not have an unmitigable adverse impact on the availability of the species or stock(s) for taking for subsistence uses (where relevant). If such findings are made, NMFS must prescribe the permissible methods of taking; “other means of effecting the least practicable adverse impact” on the affected species or stocks and their habitat, paying particular attention to rookeries, mating grounds, and areas of similar significance, and on the availability of the species or stocks for taking for certain subsistence uses (referred to as “mitigation”); and requirements pertaining to the monitoring and reporting of such takings. The MMPA defines “take” to mean harass, hunt, capture, or kill, or attempt to harass, hunt, capture, or kill any marine mammal (16 U.S.C. 1362(13); 50 CFR 216.103). Level A harassment is defined as any act of pursuit, torment, or annoyance which has the potential to injure a marine mammal or marine mammal stock in the wild (16 U.S.C. 1362(18); 50 CFR 216.3). Level B harassment is defined as any act of pursuit, torment, or annoyance which has the potential to disturb a marine mammal or marine mammal stock in the wild by causing disruption of behavioral patterns, including, but not limited to, migration, breathing, nursing, breeding, feeding, or sheltering (16 U.S.C. 1362(18); 50 CFR 216.3). Section 101(a)(5)(A) of the MMPA and the implementing regulations at 50 CFR part 216, subpart I authorize NMFS to propose and, if appropriate, promulgate regulations and issue an associated LOA(s). NMFS promulgated regulations on February 14, 2024 (89 FR 11342) for the taking of marine mammals incidental to the construction of the Empire Wind Project offshore of New York. The LOA authorizes Empire Wind and those persons it authorizes or funds to conduct activities on its behalf to take marine mammals incidental to specified activities during the construction of the Project and requires them to implement mitigation, monitoring, and reporting requirements.

On February 14, 2024, NMFS promulgated a final rule (89 FR 11342) responding to a request from Empire Wind for authorization to take small numbers of marine mammals (17 species comprising 18 stocks) by Level B harassment (all 17 stocks) and by Level A harassment (2 of the 17 stocks) incidental to construction activities occurring in Federal and State waters off of New York, specifically within and around the Bureau of Ocean Energy Management (BOEM) Commercial Lease of Submerged Lands for Renewable Energy Development on the Outer Continental Shelf (OCS) Lease Area OCS–A 0512 (Lease Area) and along 2 export cable routes to sea-to-shore transition points (collectively referred to as the “Project Area”), over the course of 5 years (February 22, 2024 through February 21, 2029). The activities covered under the final rule include the installation of 147 wind turbine generators (WTGs) on monopile foundations and 2 offshore substations (OSSs) on jacket foundations using pin piles by impact pile driving; nearshore cable landfall work comprising of the installation and subsequent removal of nearshore temporary cofferdams by vibratory pile driving or the installation and subsequent removal of casing pipes supported by goal posts by impact pile driving at the sea-to-shore transition points located on Long Island and Brooklyn, New York; removal of berthing piles and installation of marine bulkheads inshore of Long Island, New York; high-resolution geophysical (HRG) marine site characterization surveys using active acoustic sources; fishery and ecological monitoring surveys; the placement of scour protection; the installation of the export cable route from OSSs to shore-based converter stations and inter-array cables between turbines by trenching, laying, and burial activities; vessel transit within the specified geographical region to transport crew, supplies, and materials; and WTG operation.

Marine mammals exposed to elevated noise levels during foundation pile driving, may be taken by Level A harassment (limited to fin whales and minke whale), and marine mammals exposed to elevated noise levels during impact and vibratory pile driving during cable landfall and marina construction activities and/or site characterization surveys may be taken by Level B harassment. No mortality or serious injury of any marine mammal is anticipated to occur or has been authorized.

Authorization

In accordance with the final rule (89 FR 11342, February 14, 2024, see 50 CFR 217.286), we have issued a LOA to Empire Wind authorizing the take, by harassment, of marine mammals incidental to specified construction activities within the specified geographical region. As previously stated, no mortality or serious injury of any marine mammal species is anticipated to occur or has been authorized. The incidental takes authorized herein are the same as those analyzed and authorized in the final rule (89 FR 11342, February 14, 2024). Takes of marine mammals will be minimized through the following planned mitigation and monitoring measures, as applicable for each specified activity: (1) implementation of spatio-temporal seasonal/time of day work restrictions; (2) use of multiple NMFS-approved Protected Species Observers (PSOs) to visually observe for marine mammals (with any detection within specifically designated zones triggering a delay or shutdown, as applicable); (3) use of NMFS-approved passive acoustic monitoring (PAM) operators to acoustically detect marine mammals, with a focus on detecting baleen whales (with any detection within designated zones triggering a delay or shutdown, as applicable); (4) implementation of clearance and shutdown zones; (5) use of soft-start prior to the start of foundation pile driving; (6) use of noise attenuation technology during foundation pile driving; (7) use of situational awareness monitoring for marine mammal presence; (8) use of sound field verification monitoring; (9) use of ramp-up acoustic sources during HRG surveys; (10) implementation of vessel separation zones between marine mammals and project vessels; (11) use of PAM within the vessel transit corridor for Project vessels to travel over 10 knots (11.5 miles per hour); and (12) implementation of additional Vessel Strike Avoidance measures to reduce the risk of a vessel collision with a marine mammal. Additionally, NMFS may modify the LOA's mitigation, monitoring, or reporting measures, based on new information, when appropriate (see also 50 CFR 217.287(c)). Empire Wind is also required to submit reports, as specified in the final rule.

Based on the findings and information discussed in the preamble of the final rule, the take authorized in the LOA will have a negligible impact on marine mammal stocks, will not have an unmitigable adverse impact on the availability of the affected marine mammal stock for subsistence uses, and the mitigation measures provide a means of affecting the least practicable adverse impact on the affected stocks and their habitat.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

This is a request for extension of an approved collection of information under the Paperwork Reduction Act, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq. and implementing regulations at 5 CFR part 1320. This information collection assists NOAA in the development of funding and financing coastal resilience learning products and tools in support of the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 (CZMA), 16 U.S.C. 1451 et seq. NOAA’s Office for Coastal Management (OCM) and its regional, State, Federal, and non-profit partners have worked closely with coastal managers across the country to increase the resilience of our coastal communities, economies and ecosystems. Under the CZMA, OCM provides financial and technical assistance to states and territories, including that which helps its customers (coastal managers) develop hazard mitigation and climate adaptation plans that include strategies for short-term responses to immediate threats (e.g., flooding, hurricanes) as well as long-term responses to gradual changes (e.g., sea level rise, drought). Services are provided through outreach, training, funding, resource, and tool development.

Solutions to these resilience challenges are often complex and cross-sectoral. Therefore, coastal decision-makers regularly point to the need for more substantial, coordinated, sustained and creative funding opportunities to support these efforts. The results of an initial review of more than 200 resources that NOAA conducted in support of this effort, and informal conversations with NOAA customers and other stakeholders indicate that there is no comprehensive inventory or guide to understanding and selecting appropriate funding options or financing strategies. These findings have been further confirmed in subsequent informal discussions with coastal resilience and finance practitioners at national venues such as the National Adaptation Forum and Social Coast Forum, as well as through the original needs assessment using this information collection instrument. NOAA's coastal management partners continue to request support on this topic.

The financing world is one that is constantly evolving new products and retiring others. The range of funding and financing options, from grants and low-interest loans to more innovative private-public partnerships and emerging bonds, presents an ever-changing and complex array of choices. In initial internal communications and informal discussions conducted between June 2018 and February 2020, NOAA customers indicated that these opportunities and mechanisms are not well understood, and are generally inaccessible to coastal managers, particularly in small to mid-sized communities, rural areas, and tribal communities. The initial information gathered via this collection supported this.

In many coastal communities, investment in mitigation and resilience measures remains either limited or reactive in response to a catastrophic event. While there is no data on the number of adaptation plans that have been implemented, lack of funding is a frequently cited barrier to implementation. At the same time, it has been estimated that investing in mitigation can save communities $6 for every $1 spent through mitigation grants from agencies including the Federal Emergency Management Agency, Department of Housing and Urban Development, and Economic Development Administration (according to the National Institute of Building Sciences' October 2018 report, Natural Hazard Mitigation Saves: Utilities and Transportation Infrastructure). Understanding the suite of funding and financing options available at the time resilience planning is undertaken, and then incorporating financial strategies into the planning process and recommendations, will help ensure that these plans are implemented. Section 310 of the Coastal Zone Management Act allows for technical assistance and management-oriented research to develop and implement state coastal management program amendments.

NOAA uses the information collected to develop needs assessments defining the types of funding, financing mechanisms, and associated resources that its state and local coastal manager customers need for coastal resilience activities and a market analysis of existing funding and financing programs and mechanisms. Simultaneously, NOAA is identifying existing resources and partnership opportunities for State and local coastal managers and NOAA's non-profit, academic, and other customers. Information collected to date has helped inform the development of new NOAA funding and financing products and services and future collection efforts will help NOAA better understand the impacts these products and services have had on coastal managers' barriers.

This request is for a set of related interviews to facilitate this research. NOAA will perform interviews with state and local coastal managers, as well as representatives from non-profit organizations, academia, the Federal Government, and the finance industry. The interviews will collect relevant information from interviewees on their experiences with coastal resilience funding and financing mechanisms, challenges and opportunities related to funding and financing coastal resilience, and technical support needs and opportunities that NOAA can address.

The information provided by interviewees will be synthesized into the needs assessment, which will address needs and information gaps partitioned by region, financial scale, time scale, and scope/sector. The information provided by interviewees will also be used to help inform an inventory of existing entities providing resources for resilience funding, as well as a summary of existing and emerging funding sources and financial tools and mechanisms for coastal resilience. Finally, the interviews will inform recommendations on NOAA's potential niche in addressing the identified needs and gaps.

The resulting research (and any subsequent resources or tools developed by NOAA to address identified gaps) will provide much needed information to NOAA's customers on funding and financing coastal resilience efforts, including available resources and mechanisms, best practices and strategies, real world success stories, and opportunities for technical and financial partnerships with private and public entities.

II. Method of Collection

Information will be collected during structured telephone interviews.

Updated Guidance for Making a Proper Determination of Obviousness

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO or Office) is publishing this updated guidance to provide a review of the flexible approach to determining obviousness that is required by KSR Int'l Co. v. Teleflex Inc. (KSR). The focus of this document is on post-KSR precedential cases of the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (Federal Circuit), to provide further clarification for decision-makers on how the Supreme Court's directives should be applied. While highlighting the requirement for a flexible approach to the obviousness determination, this updated guidance also emphasizes the need for a reasoned explanation when reaching a conclusion that a claimed invention would have been obvious. This updated guidance, together with the direction provided in the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure (MPEP), serves as operable guidance for USPTO personnel when applying the law of obviousness.

DATES: This guidance is effective on February 27, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Kathleen Kahler Fonda, Senior Legal Advisor, Office of Patent Legal Administration, Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Patents, at Kathleen.Fonda@uspto.gov or 571-272-7754; or Steven J. Fulk, Legal Advisor, Office of Patent Legal Administration, Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Patents, at Steven.Fulk@uspto.gov or 571-270-0072.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: More than 15 years have passed since the Supreme Court's unanimous decision regarding the obviousness of a claimed invention under 35 U.S.C. 103 rendered in KSR Int'l Co. v. Teleflex Inc., 550 U.S. 398, 127 S. Ct. 1727 (2007). Since then, the Federal Circuit has helped to refine the contours of the obviousness inquiry. This updated guidance serves as a reminder for USPTO personnel of the flexible approach to obviousness that is required under KSR and Federal Circuit precedent.

This guidance does not constitute substantive rulemaking and hence does not have the force and effect of law. It has been developed as a matter of internal Office management and is not intended to create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable by any party against the Office. Rejections will continue to be based on the substantive law, and it is these rejections that are appealable. Consequently, any failure by Office personnel to follow this guidance is neither appealable nor petitionable.

The Office does not intend to announce any new Office practice or procedure by way of this updated guidance. This guidance is based on the Office's current understanding of the law and is believed to comport with the binding precedent of the Supreme Court and the Federal Circuit. Furthermore, it is meant to be consistent with the Office's present examination policy. However, if any earlier guidance from the Office, including any section of the current MPEP (9th Edition, Rev. 07.2022, February 2023), is inconsistent with the updated guidance set forth in this notice, Office personnel are to follow this guidance. This updated guidance will be incorporated into the MPEP in due course.¹

I. The America Invents Act Impacted the Time Focus of the KSR Inquiry

As a preliminary matter, it is noted that KSR was decided prior to the March 16, 2013, effective date of the prior art provisions of the Leahy-Smith America Invents Act, Public Law 112–29, 125 Stat. 284 (2011) (codified as amended at 35 U.S.C. 1–390 (2012)) (AIA). In keeping with the shift from a first-to-invent statutory scheme to one based on a first-inventor-to-file approach, Congress amended 35 U.S.C. 103 to change the time focus of the obviousness inquiry from “at the time the invention was made” to “before the effective filing date of the claimed invention.”² When determining obviousness in a case governed by the AIA, Office personnel should interpret references to “at the time of invention” in KSR (see, for example, 550 U.S. at 420, 127 S. Ct. at 1742) as if they referred to the statutory time focus under the AIA, which is “before the effective filing date of the claimed invention.” See MPEP 2158.³

II. The Graham Inquiries Continue To Control Obviousness Determinations After KSR

The Supreme Court’s decision in KSR clearly reaffirmed the approach to obviousness announced in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 86 S. Ct. 684 (1966) (Graham). At the outset of the KSR decision, Justice Kennedy, writing for a unanimous Court, quoted the Court’s decades-earlier obviousness decision in Graham:

Under § 103, the scope and content of the prior art are to be determined; differences between the prior art and the claims at issue are to be ascertained; and the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art resolved. Against this background, the obviousness or nonobviousness of the subject matter is determined. Such secondary considerations as commercial success, long felt but unsolved needs, failure of others, etc., might be utilized to give light to the circumstances surrounding the origin of the subject matter sought to be patented.

KSR, 550 U.S. at 406, 127 S. Ct. at 1734 (quoting Graham). Referring to this analysis as “objective,” the Court then unambiguously stated that Graham remained the law of the land: “While the sequence of these questions might be reordered in any particular case, the factors continue to define the inquiry that controls.” Id. at 406–07, 127 S. Ct. at 1734. Since KSR, the Federal Circuit has frequently emphasized the centrality of the Graham inquiries. See, for example, Novartis Pharms. Corp. v. West-Ward Pharms. Int’l Ltd., 923 F.3d 1051, 1059 (Fed. Cir. 2019); Apple Inc. v. Samsung Elecs. Co., 839 F.3d 1034, 1047–48 (Fed. Cir. 2016); and Aventis Pharma S.A. v. Hospira, Inc., 675 F.3d 1324, 1332 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Thus, USPTO personnel continue to ground obviousness determinations in the objective inquiries announced in Graham. See MPEP 2141, subsections I and II.

III. The Federal Circuit’s Implementation of KSR Has Reiterated a Flexible Approach to Obviousness

A hallmark of the KSR approach to obviousness, for which the Supreme Court found basis in Graham, is flexibility. KSR, 550 U.S. at 415, 127 S. Ct. at 1739. The KSR court mandated flexibility in at least two respects: first with regard to the proper understanding of the scope of the prior art, and second with regard to appropriate reasons to modify the prior art. In its cases decided since KSR, the Federal Circuit has reiterated these two aspects of flexibility, which are important to a proper determination of obviousness. These aspects are discussed in subsections III.A and III.B of this notice. Subsection III.C concludes the discussion with the important concept, evident in post-KSR Federal Circuit decisions, that the flexible approach does not relieve the decision-maker of the need to provide articulated reasoning that is grounded in fact.

A. Flexible Approach To Understanding the Scope of Prior Art

The Supreme Court’s directive to employ a flexible approach to understanding the scope of prior art is reflected in the frequently quoted sentence, “A person of ordinary skill is also a person of ordinary creativity, not an automaton.” Id. at 421, 127 S. Ct. at 1742. In this section of the KSR decision, the Supreme Court instructed the Federal Circuit that persons having ordinary skill in the art (PHOSITAS) also have common sense, which may be used to glean suggestions from the prior art that go beyond the primary purpose for which that prior art was produced. Id. at 421–22, 127 S. Ct. at 1742. Thus, the Supreme Court taught that a proper understanding of the prior art extends to all that the art reasonably suggests, and is not limited to its articulated teachings regarding how to solve the particular technological problem with which the art was primarily concerned. Id. at 418, 127 S. Ct. at 1741 (“As our precedents make clear, however, the analysis need not seek out precise teachings directed to the specific subject matter of the challenged claim, for a court can take account of the inferences and creative steps that a person of ordinary skill in the art would employ.”). “The obviousness analysis cannot be confined . . . by overemphasis on the importance of published articles and the explicit content of issued patents.” Id. at 419, 127 S. Ct. at 1741.

Federal Circuit case law since KSR follows the mandate of the Supreme Court to understand the prior art—including combinations of the prior art—in a flexible manner that credits the common sense and common knowledge of a PHOSITA. The Federal Circuit has made it clear that a narrow or rigid reading of prior art that does not recognize reasonable inferences that a PHOSITA would have drawn is inappropriate. An argument that the prior art lacks a specific teaching will not be sufficient to overcome an obviousness rejection when the allegedly missing teaching would have been understood by a PHOSITA—by way of common sense, common knowledge generally, or common knowledge in the relevant art.

For example, in Randall Mfg. v. Rea, 733 F.3d 1355 (Fed. Cir. 2013), the Federal Circuit vacated a determination of nonobviousness by the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB or Board) because it had not properly considered a PHOSITA’s perspective on the prior art. Id. at 1364. The Randall court recalled KSR’s criticism of an overly rigid approach to obviousness that has “little recourse to the knowledge, creativity, and common sense that an ordinarily skilled artisan would have brought to bear when considering combinations or modifications.” Id. at 1362, citing KSR, 550 U.S. at 415–22, 127 S. Ct. at 1727. In reaching its decision to vacate, the Federal Circuit stated that by ignoring evidence showing “the knowledge and perspective of one of ordinary skill in the art, the Board failed to account for critical background information that could easily explain why an ordinarily skilled artisan would have been motivated to combine or modify the cited references to arrive at the claimed inventions.” Id.

¹ This notice does not address the impact, if any, of artificial intelligence on the obviousness inquiry. The Office continues to seek input from the public on that question and will issue additional notices as warranted.

² Although the AIA made several other changes to § 103 (for example, “subject matter sought to be patented” was replaced with “claimed invention”), none of these additional changes is believed to impact the obviousness inquiry.

³ See also Adapt Pharma Operations Ltd. v. Teva Pharms. USA, Inc., 25 F.4th 1354, 1365 (Fed. Cir. 2022) (applying KSR to claims governed by the AIA); Dmitry Karshedt, Nonobviousness: Before and After, 106 Iowa L.R. 1609, 1636 n.199 (2021): “Although the anchoring date has since changed from the invention date to the effective filing date, the substantive reasoning of KSR is fully applicable to the AIA’s first-to-file regime.”

Consistent with its directive in Randall to focus on a PHOSITA’s perspective on the prior art, the Federal Circuit in Zup, LLC v. Nash Mfg., Inc., 896 F.3d 1365 (Fed. Cir. 2018) held that there would have been a reason to combine prior art elements known to aid in stability for riders of water recreational devices, even without an express teaching of simultaneous use of those elements. Id. at 1372–73. The Federal Circuit drew attention to what a PHOSITA in the field of water recreational devices would have known: “Given the consistent focus on rider stability in this industry, it would have been obvious to one of skill in the art to have a rider use both the handles and the foot bindings at the same time while maneuvering between riding positions.” Id. at 1373 n.2. Thus, the Federal Circuit credited a PHOSITA with knowledge of the industry’s concern for rider stability—a matter that could be viewed as common sense.

The Federal Circuit has made it clear that the flexible approach to understanding prior art as mandated by the Supreme Court also extends to the issue of whether a prior art disclosure is analogous art to the claimed invention. To be used in an obviousness rejection, a prior art disclosure must be analogous art to the claimed invention. In re Klein, 647 F.3d 1343, 1348 (Fed. Cir. 2004). The Federal Circuit reads KSR as “direct[ing] us to construe the scope of analogous art broadly” because “familiar items may have obvious uses beyond their primary purposes, and a person of ordinary skill often will be able to fit the teachings of multiple patents together like pieces of a puzzle.” Wyers v. Master Lock Co., 616 F.3d 1231, 1238 (Fed. Cir. 2010), quoting KSR, 550 U.S. at 402, 127 S. Ct. at 1727. Consistently, in Airbus S.A.S. v. Firepass Corp., 941 F.3d 1374 (Fed. Cir. 2019), the Federal Circuit recalled the alternative “same field of endeavor” and “reasonably pertinent” tests for analogous art, and stated that “an analysis of whether an asserted reference is analogous art should take into account any relevant evidence in the record cited by the parties to demonstrate the knowledge and perspective of a person of ordinary skill in the art.” Id. at 1379, 1383–84. More recently in Netflix, Inc. v. DivX, LLC, 80 F.4th 1352 (Fed. Cir. 2023), the Federal Circuit noted the flexible approach under KSR as applied to the “same field of endeavor” test: “We have affirmed findings of analogous art where the references shared a general field of endeavor.” Id. at 1359, citing Unwired Planet, LLC v. Google Inc., 841 F.3d 995, 1001 (Fed. Cir. 2016); and In re Mettke, 570 F.3d 1356, 1359 (Fed. Cir. 2009).

The flexible approach to understanding the prior art is reflected in USPTO guidance provided at MPEP 2141, subsection III: “Prior art is not limited just to the references being applied, but includes the understanding of one of ordinary skill in the art.” MPEP 2141, subsection II.C, and MPEP 2141.03 provide guidance regarding the level of ordinary skill in the art. Office personnel are directed to MPEP 2141.01(a) for guidance on analogous art. Consistent with KSR and subsequent Federal Circuit case law, when evaluating the prior art from the perspective of a PHOSITA, Office personnel must take that person’s “ordinary creativity” into account.

B. Flexible Approach to Providing a Reason To Modify the Prior Art

Federal Circuit case law since KSR confirms that the flexible approach to obviousness encompasses not only how to understand the scope of prior art, but also how to provide a reasoned explanation to support a conclusion that claims would have been obvious. Consistent with KSR, the Federal Circuit makes it clear that the obviousness analysis is not “confined by a formalistic conception of the words teaching, suggestion, and motivation.” Intel Corp. v. Qualcomm Inc., 21 F.4th 784, 795 (Fed. Cir. 2021), quoting KSR, 550 U.S. at 419, 127 S. Ct. at 1741. To be sure, the Federal Circuit continues to use the word “motivation” in its obviousness jurisprudence. However, it is evident that the term is no longer understood in a rigid or formalistic way. See, for example, Norgren Inc. v. Int’l Trade Comm’n, 699 F.3d 1317, 1322 (Fed. Cir. 2012) (“A flexible teaching, suggestion, or motivation test can be useful to prevent hindsight when determining whether a combination of elements known in the art would have been obvious.”); Outdry Techs. Corp. v. Geox S.p.A., 859 F.3d 1364, 1370–71 (Fed. Cir. 2017) (“Any motivation to combine references, whether articulated in the references themselves or supported by evidence of the knowledge of a skilled artisan, is sufficient to combine those references to arrive at the claimed process.”)

In keeping with this flexible approach to providing a rationale for obviousness, the Federal Circuit has echoed KSR in identifying numerous possible sources that may, either implicitly or explicitly, provide reasons to combine or modify the prior art to determine that a claimed invention would have been obvious. These include “market forces; design incentives; the ‘interrelated teachings of multiple patents’; ‘any need or problem known in the field of endeavor at the time of invention and addressed by the patent’; and the background knowledge, creativity, and common sense of the person of ordinary skill.” Plantronics, Inc. v. Aliph, Inc., 724 F.3d 1343, 1354 (Fed. Cir. 2013), quoting KSR, 550 U.S. at 418–21, 127 S. Ct. at 1741–42. Furthermore, the Federal Circuit has explained that a reason to optimize prior art parameters may be found in a PHOSITA’s desire to improve on the prior art. In re Ethicon, Inc., 844 F.3d 1344, 1351 (Fed. Cir. 2017) (“The normal desire of artisans to improve upon what is already generally known can provide the motivation to optimize variables such as the percentage of a known polymer for use in a known device.”). The Federal Circuit has also clarified that a proposed reason to combine the teachings of prior art disclosures may be proper, even when the problem addressed by the combination might have been more advantageously addressed in another way. PAR Pharm., Inc. v. TWI Pharms., Inc., 773 F.3d 1186, 1197–98 (Fed. Cir. 2014) (“Our precedent, however, does not require that the motivation be the best option, only that it be a suitable option from which the prior art did not teach away.”) (emphasis in original).

One aspect of the flexible approach to explaining a reason to modify the prior art is demonstrated in the Federal Circuit’s decision in Intel Corp. v. Qualcomm Inc., 21 F.4th 784, 796 (Fed. Cir. 2021), which confirms that a proposed reason is not insufficient simply because it has broad applicability. Patent challenger Intel had argued in an inter partes review before the Board that some of Qualcomm’s claims were unpatentable because a PHOSITA would have been able to modify the prior art, with a reasonable expectation of success, for the purpose of increasing energy efficiency. Id. at 796–97. The Board had disagreed with Intel, in part because it viewed Intel’s energy efficiency rationale as “no more than a generic concern that exists in many, if not all, electronic devices” (emphasis in original). Id. at 797. Citing KSR and reversing the Board on this point, the Federal Circuit explained that “[s]uch a rationale is not inherently suspect merely because it’s generic in the sense of having broad applicability or appeal.” Id. The Federal Circuit further pointed out its pre-KSR holding “that because such improvements are ‘technology-independent,’ ‘universal,’ and ‘even common-sensical,’ ‘there exists in these situations a motivation to combine prior art references even absent any hint of suggestion in the references themselves.’” Id., quoting DyStar Textilfarben GmbH v. C.H. Patrick Co., 464 F.3d 1356, 1368 (Fed. Cir. 2006) (emphasis added by the Federal Circuit in Intel). However, the Federal Circuit was also quick to point out that a generally applicable rationale would not be legally sufficient if it were asserted without explanation and in a merely conclusive way. Id.

When formulating an obviousness rejection, Office personnel may use any clearly articulated line of reasoning that would have allowed a PHOSITA to draw the conclusion that a claimed invention would have been obvious in view of the facts. MPEP 2143, subsection I, and MPEP 2144. Acknowledging that, in view of KSR, there are “many potential rationales that could make a modification or combination of prior art references obvious to a skilled artisan,” the Federal Circuit has also pointed to MPEP 2143, which provides several examples of rationales gleaned from KSR. Unwired Planet, 841 F.3d at 1003.

C. Flexible Approach to Obviousness Does Not Negate the Need for Articulated Reasoning and Evidentiary Support

As discussed above, KSR’s flexible approach to the obviousness inquiry disallows “[r]igid preventative rules that deny factfinders recourse to common sense.” 550 U.S. at 421, 127 S. Ct. at 1742. Nevertheless, “[t]he key to supporting any rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103 is the clear articulation of the reason(s) why the claimed invention would have been obvious.” MPEP 2142. Although this approach is flexible, a proper obviousness rejection still requires the decision-maker to provide adequate analysis based on evidentiary support. This theme is a frequent one in post-KSR Federal Circuit jurisprudence. See, for example, Perfect Web Techs., Inc. v. InfoUSA, Inc., 587 F.3d 1324, 1330 (Fed. Cir. 2009) (“We reiterate that, on summary judgment, to invoke ‘common sense’ or any other basis for extrapolating from prior art to a conclusion of obviousness, a district court must articulate its reasoning with sufficient clarity for review.”); Mintz v. Dietz & Watson, Inc., 679 F.3d 1372, 1377 (Fed. Cir. 2012) (“The mere recitation of the words ‘common sense’ without any support adds nothing to the obviousness equation.”); Arendi S.A.R.L. v. Apple Inc., 832 F.3d 1355, 1362 (Fed. Cir. 2016) (“[R]eferences to ‘common sense’—whether to supply a motivation to combine or a missing limitation—cannot be used as a wholesale substitute for reasoned analysis and evidentiary support, especially when dealing with a limitation missing from the prior art references specified.”); In re Van Os, 844 F.3d 1359, 1361 (Fed. Cir. 2017) (“[T]he flexibility afforded by KSR did not extinguish the factfinder’s obligation to provide reasoned analysis.”). The Federal Circuit has itself called attention to its own repeated emphasis on this requirement since KSR. See Van Os, 844 F.3d at 1361, quoting Plantronics, Inc. v. Aliph, Inc., 724 F.3d 1343, 1354 (Fed. Cir. 2013) (“Since KSR, we have repeatedly explained that obviousness findings ‘grounded in “common sense” must contain explicit and clear reasoning providing some rational underpinning why common sense compels a finding of obviousness.’”); Arendi S.A.R.L., 832 F.3d at 1362 (“[O]ur cases repeatedly warn” that common sense cannot substitute for reasoned analysis and evidentiary support.).

This updated guidance reinforces the directive that Office personnel are required to provide a clear articulation of their reasoning, grounded in relevant facts, when making a determination that a claim would have been obvious under 35 U.S.C. 103. As has been discussed, precedential case law requires such an analysis. Furthermore, “[t]he goal of examination is to clearly articulate any rejection early in the prosecution process so that the applicant has the opportunity to provide evidence of patentability and otherwise reply completely at the earliest opportunity.” MPEP 706. Thus, clearly articulated obviousness rejections serve the goal of compact prosecution and allow patent practitioners and Office personnel to conclude patent examination or other USPTO proceedings at the earliest possible time.

IV. All Evidence Relevant to the Question of Obviousness That Is Properly Before the Decision-Maker Must Be Considered

When reaching a determination of obviousness in view of KSR’s flexible approach as discussed above, decision-makers must consider all relevant evidence that is properly before them. An important theme in the law of obviousness is that the inquiry under Graham and KSR is not limited to the first three Graham factors (i.e., scope and content of the prior art, differences between the prior art and the claims at issue, and the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art). Rather, when the so-called secondary considerations of the fourth factor (also known as objective indicia of nonobviousness) have been made an issue in the case, the decision-maker is not free to ignore them. In re Huai-Hung Kao, 639 F.3d 1057, 1067 (Fed. Cir. 2011) (“[W]hen secondary considerations are present, though they are not always dispositive, it is error not to consider them.”); Kinetic Concepts, Inc. v. Smith & Nephew, Inc., 688 F.3d 1342, 1360 (Fed. Cir. 2012) (“This court has explained, moreover, that the obviousness inquiry requires examination of all four Graham factors.”).⁴

The requirement to consider all relevant evidence is part of the establishment of a prima facie case of obviousness. In the context of patent examination and reexamination, MPEP 2142 explains that “[t]he legal concept of prima facie obviousness is a procedural tool” that “allocates who has the burden of going forward with production of evidence in each step of the examination process.” At the outset of examination, the patent examiner who issues an obviousness rejection bears the burden of explaining how a preponderance of the evidence supports the conclusion that the claims would have been obvious. Id. If objective indicia of nonobviousness are properly before the examiner, such as by way of incorporation into the written description as filed or submission of an evidentiary declaration after the filing date, the examiner must consider those indicia, even before the issuance of a first Office action. A decision-maker “must always consider any objective evidence of nonobviousness presented in a case.” Transocean Offshore Deepwater Drilling, Inc. v. Maersk Contractors USA, Inc., 617 F.3d 1296, 1305 (Fed. Cir. 2010) (referring to a district court as the decision-maker, but also applicable to USPTO decision-makers) (internal citations omitted). “Whether before the Board or a court, this court has emphasized that consideration of the objective indicia is part of the whole obviousness analysis, not just an afterthought.” Leo Pharm. Prod., Ltd. v. Rea, 726 F.3d 1346, 1357 (Fed. Cir. 2013) (emphasis in original).

At each stage of USPTO proceedings, Office personnel must reweigh all evidence that is relevant and properly of record at that time. Newly submitted evidence in rebuttal of an obviousness rejection must not be considered merely for its knockdown value against any previously-established prima facie case. See MPEP 2145, and in particular, the cases cited in examples 1–3. Evidence submitted to rebut a determination of obviousness is important because it may constitute “independent evidence of nonobviousness.” Pressure Prods. Med. Supplies, Inc. v. Greatbatch Ltd., 599 F.3d 1308, 1319 (Fed. Cir. 2010), quoting Ortho-McNeil Pharm., Inc. v. Mylan Labs., Inc., 520 F.3d 1358, 1365 (Fed. Cir. 2008). Such evidence “may often be the most probative and cogent evidence of nonobviousness in the record.” Ortho-McNeil, 520 F.3d at 1365, quoting Catalina Lighting, Inc. v. Lamps Plus, Inc., 295 F.3d 1277, 1288 (Fed. Cir. 2002).

It follows from the directive to consider all relevant evidence that the mere existence of a reason to modify the teachings of the prior art may not necessarily lead to a conclusion that a claimed invention would have been legally obvious. Intercontinental Great Brands LLC v. Kellogg N. Am. Co., 869 F.3d 1336, 1346–47 (Fed. Cir. 2017). When stepping into the shoes of a PHOSITA, the decision-maker should seek to understand the “complete picture” regarding the PHOSITA’s perspective on obviousness, having due regard for additional evidence that may weigh against any prima facie case. Id. at 1346. In determining whether a claimed invention would have been obvious, Office personnel are charged with weighing all the evidence of record, including evidence of obviousness and evidence of nonobviousness. “If this weighing shows obviousness by a preponderance of the evidence, then the claims at issue were unpatentable.” ACCO Brands Corp. v. Fellowes, Inc., 813 F.3d 1361, 1366 (Fed. Cir. 2016).

Without diminishing the need to consider all relevant evidence when making a determination about obviousness, the Federal Circuit has made it clear that an expert’s conclusory opinion about a matter relevant to the obviousness inquiry may be unavailing unless accompanied by factual support. See, for example, Ethicon, 844 F.3d at 1352 (concluding in the context of an ex parte appeal that the Board properly gave little weight to conclusory expert testimony regarding objective indicia); Quanergy Sys., Inc. v. Velodyne Lidar USA, Inc., 24 F.4th 1406, 1417 (Fed. Cir. 2022) (agreeing with the Board, in the context of an inter partes review proceeding, that the proffered expert testimony was “incomplete, unspecific, and ultimately conclusory” and therefore not entitled to controlling weight). Consistently, in the context of proceedings before the PTAB, Office regulations provide that “[e]xpert testimony that does not disclose the underlying facts or data on which the opinion is based is entitled to little or no weight.” 37 CFR 42.65(a); see also Xerox Corp. v. Bytemark, Inc., No. IPR2022–00624, 2022 WL 3648989, at *6 (PTAB 2022) (precedential) (The USPTO Director affirmed that because “the cited declaration testimony is conclusory and unsupported, [it] adds little to the conclusory assertion for which it is offered to support, and is entitled to little weight.”). Further, during the examination of an application or the reexamination of a patent, any objective evidence of nonobviousness must be submitted by way of an affidavit or declaration; attorney arguments alone cannot take the place of such evidence in the record where the evidence is necessary. See 37 CFR 1.132; MPEP 716.01(c) and MPEP 2145, subsection I.

Consistent with Federal Circuit precedent, Office personnel are directed to consider all objective evidence that has been properly made of record and is relevant to the issue of obviousness at MPEP 2141, subsection II.

V. Office Personnel Will Continue To Apply Reasoning to Facts in Order To Reach a Proper Legal Determination of Obviousness

Any legally proper obviousness rejection must identify facts and then articulate sound reasoning that leads to the conclusion that the claims would have been obvious to a PHOSITA. “Obviousness is a question of law based on underlying facts. . . .” Henny Penny Corp. v. Frymaster LLC, 938 F.3d 1324, 1331 (Fed. Cir. 2019). During patent examination, making factual findings concerning the content of the prior art is often the first step when considering whether or not a claimed invention would have been obvious. As discussed above, the obviousness determination may also involve other facts, such as those presented in an evidentiary declaration. After making appropriate findings of fact, Office personnel must use reasoning in accordance with Graham and KSR to determine whether a claimed invention would have been obvious in view of all relevant facts. Office personnel must explain on the record how the conclusion of obviousness was reached. See MPEP 2141, subsection II: “Once the findings of fact are articulated, Office personnel must provide an explanation to support an obviousness rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103.” See also MPEP 2142.

In keeping with the flexible approach to obviousness in KSR and Graham, there is no one-size-fits-all approach to crafting an obviousness rejection. See KSR, 550 U.S. at 415, 127 S. Ct. at 1739. Different technologies or different factual situations may lend themselves to different formats for presentation of the relevant facts, or to different lines of reasoning to explain the legal conclusion of obviousness. Office personnel are called on to use their legal and technological expertise to determine how best to explain an obviousness rejection. See Hyatt v. Kappos, 625 F.3d 1320, 1343 (Fed. Cir. 2010), aff’d and remanded, 566 U.S. 431, 132 S. Ct. 1690 (2012). Any legally proper obviousness rejection will be characterized by findings of fact and a reasoned explanation showing why the claimed invention would have been obvious to a PHOSITA. See, for example, In re Biedermann, 733 F.3d 329, 335–36 (Fed. Cir. 2013); Arctic Cat Inc. v. Bombardier Recreational Prod. Inc., 876 F.3d 1350, 1360–61 (Fed. Cir. 2017).

Number of Respondents: 60,295.
Responses per Respondent: 2.

Annual Responses: 120,590.

Average Burden per Response: 20 minutes.

Annual Burden Hours: 40,197.

Needs and Uses: SOS is an Army-wide program that provides dedicated and comprehensive support services to all family members of soldiers who die while on active duty, including Regular Army, United States Army National Guard and Reserves patrons. SOS Support Coordinators serve as the main Survivor advocate. They facilitate support groups, provide life skills education, assist survivors in managing applicable life-long benefit transition milestones, connect survivors with counseling resources, and represent the command in contacts with community organizations. SOS Financial Counselors help survivors by assisting with budget counseling, debt management, education, and higher education needs. SOS staff members are required to make periodic communication with Survivors—at a minimum of one contact annually—to conduct well-being checks and milestone management reviews or determine the level of support Survivors desire. Information gathered in these meetings is input into the SOS application collection instrument by SOS staff members. No customers have access to the collection instrument. SOS staff members collect the information from the survivors and document the information as a direct contact within the SOS application case notes. The successful result of the information collection is an organized and up-to-date database of essential information on survivors that allows SOS to better provide the support they deserve.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title; Associated Form; and OMB Number: Fast Track Generic Clearance for the Collection of Qualitative Feedback on Agency Service Delivery—the Interactive Customer Evaluation System; OMB Control Number: 0704-0420.

Needs and Uses: The proposed information collection activity provides a means to garner qualitative customer and stakeholder feedback in an efficient, timely manner, in accordance with the Administration's commitment to improving service delivery. By qualitative feedback we mean information that provides useful insights on perceptions and opinions but are not statistical surveys that yield quantitative results that can be generalized to the population of study. This feedback will provide insights into customer or stakeholder perceptions, experiences, and expectations, provide an early warning of issues with service, or focus attention on areas where communication, training or changes in operations might improve delivery of products or services. These collections will allow for ongoing, collaborative, and actionable communications between the Agency and its customers and stakeholders. It will also allow feedback to contribute directly to the improvement of program management.

The solicitation of feedback will target areas such as: Timeliness, appropriateness, accuracy of information, courtesy, efficiency of service delivery, and resolution of issues with service delivery. Responses will be assessed to plan and inform efforts to improve or maintain the quality of service offered to the public. If this information is not collected, vital feedback from customers and stakeholders on the Agency's services will be unavailable. The Agency will only submit a collection for approval under this generic clearance if it meets the following conditions:

- The collections are voluntary.
- The collections are low-burden for respondents (based on considerations of total burden hours, total number of respondents, or burden-hours per respondent) and are low-cost for both the respondents and the Federal Government.

- The collections are non-controversial and do not raise issues of concern to other Federal agencies.

- Any collection is targeted to the solicitation of opinions from respondents who have experience with the program or may have experience with the program in the near future.

- Personally identifiable information is collected only to the extent necessary and is not retained.

- Information gathered will be used only internally for general service improvement and program management purposes and is not intended for release outside of the agency.

- Information gathered will not be used for the purpose of substantially informing influential policy decisions; and

- Information gathered will yield qualitative information; the collections will not be designed or expected to yield statistically reliable results or used as though the results are generalizable to the population of study.

Feedback collected under this generic clearance provides useful information, but it does not yield data that can be generalized to the overall population. This type of generic clearance for qualitative information will not be used for quantitative information collections that are designed to yield reliably actionable results, such as monitoring trends over time or documenting program performance. Such data uses require more rigorous designs that address: The target population to which generalizations will be made, the sampling frame, the sample design (including stratification and clustering), the precision requirements or power calculations that justify the proposed sample size, the expected response rate, methods for assessing potential non-response bias, the protocols for data collection, and any testing procedures that were or will be undertaken prior to fielding the study. Depending on the degree of influence the results are likely to have, such collections may still be eligible for submission for other generic mechanisms that are designed to yield quantitative results.

As a general matter, information collections will not result in any new system of records containing privacy information and will not ask questions of a sensitive nature, such as sexual behavior and attitudes, religious beliefs, and other matters that are commonly considered private.

The Acting Under Secretary of Defense (Policy), in consultation with the DoD FACA Attorney, has determined in writing that this meeting be closed to the public because the discussions fall under the purview of 5 U.S.C. 552b(c)(1) and are so inextricably intertwined with unclassified material that they cannot reasonably be segregated into separate discussions without disclosing classified material.

Written Statements: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 1009(a)(3) and 41 CFR 102-3.105(j) and 102-3.140(c), the public or interested organizations may submit written statements to the membership of the DPB at any time regarding its mission or in response to the stated agenda of a planned meeting. Written statements should be submitted to the DPB’s DFO, which is listed in this notice or can be obtained from the GSA’s FACA Database—<http://www.facadatabase.gov/>. Written statements that do not pertain to a scheduled meeting of the DPB may be submitted at any time. However, if individual comments pertain to a specific topic being discussed at a planned meeting, then these statements must be submitted no later than five business days prior to the meeting in question. The DFO will review all submitted written statements and provide copies to all members.

Responses per Respondent: 1.
Annual Responses: 20,000.

Average Burden per Response: 20 minutes.

Annual Burden Hours: 6,667.

Needs and Uses: The Navy Health of the Force Survey is a strategic level engagement survey of the Navy Active Duty population that addresses core measures relating to the health of the force. It is conducted on behalf of the Chief of Navy Personnel and under the authority of 5 U.S.C. 301, Departmental Regulations; 10 U.S.C. 8031 and 8032, Office of the Chief of Naval Operations; and OPNAV Instruction 5300.8C, "Coordination and Control of Personnel Surveys." The core survey questions support trend analysis on Sailor job satisfaction, retention plans, and influences to stay or leave; Health of the Force Metrics of connectedness, cohesion, organizational commitment, job satisfaction, trust and inclusion; and diversity, equity and inclusion in the Navy.

The 2024 Health of the Force—Personal (HOF-P) Survey addresses Sailors' personal lives and the programs and policies that impact them. It includes questions about housing for single Sailors, access to healthcare, pregnancy and support for pregnant Sailors, childcare, parental leave, post birth return to work policies and support for work/life balance. Navy management uses the results to evaluate the effectiveness of important programs and policies. Insights from the survey are included in the Navy's HOF Report to Congress and congressional testimony. By consolidating questions about related programs and policies into a single survey, we minimize the burden on Sailors, reducing multiple potentially overlapping single issue or program focused surveys to a single data collection event.

Background: The Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian populations experience disparities in college access and completion. A 2018 report found that degree attainment for Alaska Native adults at the associate's degree level and higher was 11 percent, compared to over 43 percent for White adults in Alaska.¹ In three-year American Community Survey data (2011–2013), the bachelor's degree attainment rate for Native Hawaiians was 20.5 percent, and the national bachelor's degree attainment rate was 29.1 percent.² The degree attainment gap between Native Hawaiians and White adults was 21 percentage points, according to a 2018 report.³ In addition, according to U.S. Census Bureau data, 53% of Native Hawaiians had not enrolled in any postsecondary education, as compared to 54.9% of the total U.S. population who had attended college.⁴ To increase access to, and success in, postsecondary education by Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian students, the Department, through the FY 2024 ANNH competitive preference priorities, encourages projects that are designed to reduce these disparities by addressing students' social, emotional, and academic needs, as well as projects designed to increase access and success in postsecondary education.

Through the first invitational priority in this competition, the Department seeks to encourage Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian-serving institutions to support Native language revitalization and preservation. There are more than 200 Tribal communities without living speakers of their native language.⁵ Prior to the Native American Languages Act of 1990, Native languages were excluded from classrooms, and the Federal Indian boarding school system "discouraged and prevented" the use of Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian languages.⁶ Furthermore, the COVID-19 pandemic had a devastating impact on Native language communities, especially among the elderly population, who are often fluent Native language speakers.⁷

Through the second invitational priority, the Department encourages projects to support Native Hawaiian-serving institutions impacted by the wildfires that occurred in August 2023 on the island of Maui. According to the National Fire Protection Association, the 2023 Maui wildfire ranked among the top 10 deadliest wildfires on record since 1871.⁸ The disaster has had a devastating impact on the State's economy.⁹

Priorities: This notice contains two competitive preference priorities and two invitational priorities. The competitive preference priorities are from the Secretary's Supplemental Priorities and Definitions for Discretionary Grants Programs, published in the Federal Register on Competitive Preference Priorities: For FY 2024 and any subsequent year in which we make awards from the list of unfunded applicants from this competition, these priorities are competitive preference priorities. Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(2)(i), we award up to an additional 4 to 8 points to an application for each priority, depending on how well the application meets the priorities. Applicants may respond to one or both priorities, for a total of up to 12 additional points.

These priorities are:

Competitive Preference Priority 1: Meeting Student Social, Emotional, and Academic Needs (up to 4 points).

(a) Fostering a sense of belonging and inclusion for underserved students. (up to 2 points)

(b) Implementing evidence-based practices for advancing student success for underserved students. (up to 2 points)

Competitive Preference Priority 2: Increasing Postsecondary Education Access, Affordability, Completion, and Post-Enrollment Success (up to 8 points).

Projects that are designed to increase postsecondary education access, affordability, completion, and success for underserved students by addressing one or more of the following priority areas:

(a) Increasing the number and proportion of underserved students who enroll in and complete postsecondary education programs, which may include strategies related to college preparation, awareness, application, selection, advising, counseling, and enrollment. (up to 2 points)

(b) Supporting the development and implementation of student success programs that integrate multiple comprehensive and evidence-based services or initiatives, such as academic advising, structured/guided pathways, career services, credit-bearing academic undergraduate courses focused on career, and programs to meet basic needs, such as housing, childcare and transportation, student financial aid, and access to technological devices. (up to 2 points)

Note: Under 34 CFR 607.10(c)(13), grantees may not use funds awarded under this program to pay directly for childcare and transportation expenses.

Grantees also may not use funds awarded under this program for student financial aid.

(c) Supporting the development and implementation of high-quality and accessible learning opportunities, including learning opportunities that are accelerated or hybrid online; credit-bearing; work-based; and flexible for working students. (up to 2 points)

(d) Providing secondary school students with access to career exploration and advising opportunities to help students make informed decisions about their postsecondary enrollment decisions and to place them on a career path. (up to 2 points)

Invitational Priorities: For FY 2024 and any subsequent year in which we make awards from the list of unfunded applications from this competition, these priorities are invitational priorities. Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(1), we do not give an application that meets these invitational priorities a competitive or absolute preference over other applicants.

These priorities are:

Invitational Priority 1.

Projects that support activities to strengthen and institutionalize Native language preservation and revitalization.

Invitational Priority 2.

In the case of Native Hawaiian-serving institutions, projects that address the challenges related to the national wildfire emergency.

Note: Applicants must include in the one-page abstract submitted with the application a statement indicating whether they are addressing Competitive Preference Priority 1, Competitive Preference Priority 2, Invitational Priority 1, Invitational Priority 2, any combination of these priorities, or all of these priorities. If the applicant has addressed the priorities, this information also must be listed on the ANNH Program Profile form in the application booklet.

Definitions: The definitions below apply to this competition and are from 20 U.S.C. 1059d, 20 U.S.C. 7517, 20 U.S.C. 7546, 43 U.S.C. 1602, 34 CFR 77.1, and the Final Priorities and Definitions—Secretary's Supplemental Priorities and Definitions for Discretionary Grants Programs (86 FR 70612).

(1) Is an eligible institution under section 1058(b) of title 20; and

Demonstrates a rationale means a key project component included in the project's logic model is informed by research or evaluation findings that suggest the project component is likely to improve relevant outcomes. (34 CFR 77.1)

Evidence Based means the proposed project component is supported by one or more of strong evidence, moderate evidence, promising evidence, or evidence that demonstrates a rationale.

Grantee means the legal entity to which a grant is awarded and that is accountable to the Federal Government for the use of the funds provided. For example, a GAN may name as the grantee one school or campus of a university. In this case, the granting agency usually intends, or actually intends, that the named component assume primary or sole responsibility for administering the grant-assisted project or program. Nevertheless, the naming of a component of a legal entity as the grantee in a grant award document shall not be construed as relieving the whole legal entity from accountability to the Federal Government for the use of the funds provided. (This definition is not intended to affect the eligibility provision of grant programs in which eligibility is limited to organizations that may be only components of a legal entity.) The term “grantee” does not include any secondary recipients, such as subgrantees and contractors, that may receive funds from a grantee pursuant to a subgrant or contract. (34 CFR 77.1)

Logic model (also referred to as theory of action) means a framework that identifies key project components of the proposed project (i.e., the active “ingredients” that are hypothesized to be critical to achieving the relevant outcomes) and describes the theoretical and operational relationships among the key project components and relevant outcomes. (34 CFR 77.1)

Note: A cooperative arrangement is an arrangement to carry out allowable grant activities between an institution eligible to receive a grant under this part and one or more other eligible or ineligible IHEs, under which the resources of the cooperating institutions are combined and shared to better achieve the purposes of this part and avoid costly duplication of effort.

Estimated Available Funds: The Administration has requested $25,044,000 for ANNH in FY 2024, of which we intend to use an estimated $17,299,105 for new awards. The actual level of funding, if any, depends on final congressional action. However, we are inviting applications to allow enough time to complete the grant process if Congress appropriates funds for this program.

Contingent upon the availability of funds and the quality of applications, we may make additional awards in subsequent years from the list of unfunded applications from this competition.

III. Eligibility Information

1.a. Eligible Applicants: This program is authorized by title III, part A, of the HEA. At the time of submission of their applications, applicants must certify that an Alaska Native-serving institution has an enrollment of undergraduate students that are at least 20 percent Alaska Native students or that a Native Hawaiian-serving institution has an enrollment of undergraduate students that is at least 10 percent Native Hawaiian students. An assurance form, which is included in the application materials for this competition, must be signed by an official for the applicant and submitted with this application.

To qualify as an eligible institution under the ANNH Program, an institution also must—

(i) Be accredited or preaccredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or association that the Secretary has determined to be a reliable authority as to the quality of education or training offered;

(ii) Be legally authorized by the State in which it is located to be a junior or community college or to provide an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's degree;

(iii) Demonstrate that it (1) has an enrollment of needy students as described in 34 CFR 607.3; and (2) has low average education and general expenditures per full-time equivalent (FTE) undergraduate student as described in 34 CFR 607.4.

b. Relationship between the Title III, Part A Programs and the Developing Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSI) Program: A grantee under the HSI Program, which is authorized under title V of the HEA, may not receive a grant under any HEA, title III, part A program. 20 U.S.C. 1101d. The title III, part A programs are the Strengthening Institutions Program, the ANNH program, the Tribally Controlled Colleges and Universities Program, the Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander-Serving Institutions Program, the Predominantly Black Institutions Program, and the Native American-Serving Nontribal Institutions Program. Furthermore, a current title III, Part A or title V program grantee may not give up its grant to receive a grant under ANNH, as described in 34 CFR 607.2(g)(1).

An eligible IHE that is not a current grantee under the above-cited programs may apply for a FY 2024 grant under all title III, part A programs for which it is eligible, as well as receive consideration for a grant under the HSI program. However, a successful applicant may receive only one grant, as described in 34 CFR 607.2(g)(1).

c. Individual Development and Cooperative Arrangement Grants: An eligible IHE that submits applications for an Individual Development Grant and a Cooperative Arrangement Development Grant in this competition may be awarded both in the same fiscal year. However, we will not award a second Cooperative Arrangement Development Grant to an otherwise eligible IHE as the lead institution for an award year for which the IHE already has a Cooperative Arrangement Development Grant as the lead institution under the ANNH Program. A grantee with an Individual Development Grant or a Cooperative Arrangement Development Grant may be a partner in one or more Cooperative Arrangement Development Grants. The lead institution in a Cooperative Arrangement Development Grant must be an eligible institution. Partners are not required to be eligible institutions.

2. a. Cost Sharing or Matching: This program does not require cost sharing or matching.

b. Supplement-Not-Supplant: This program involves supplement-not-supplant funding requirements. Grant funds must be used so that they supplement and, to the extent practical, increase the funds that would otherwise be available for the activities to be carried out under the grant and in no case supplant those funds (34 CFR 607.30(b)).

c. Administrative Cost Limitation: This program does not include any program-specific limitation on administrative expenses. All administrative expenses must be reasonable and necessary and conform to Cost Principles described in 2 CFR part 200 subpart E of the Uniform Guidance.

3. Subgrantees: A grantee under this competition may not award subgrants to entities to directly carry out project activities described in its application.

We recommend that you (1) limit the application narrative to no more than 55 pages for Individual Development Grants and to no more than 75 pages for Cooperative Arrangement Development Grants and (2) use the following standards below. If you are addressing one or more priorities, we recommend that you limit your response to no more than an additional 20 pages total, 5 additional pages for Competitive Preference Priority 1, 5 additional pages for Competitive Preference Priority 2, 5 additional pages for Invitational Priority 1, and 5 additional pages for Invitational Priority 2. Please include a separate heading when responding to one or more competitive or invitational priorities.

- A “page” is 8.5” x 11”, on one side only, with 1” margins at the top, bottom, and both sides.

The Secretary may also consider whether the applicant failed to submit a timely performance report or submitted a report of unacceptable quality.

In addition, in making a competitive grant award, the Secretary requires various assurances, including those applicable to Federal civil rights laws that prohibit discrimination in programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance from the Department (34 CFR 100.4, 104.5, 106.4, 108.8, and 110.23).

A panel of three non-Federal reviewers will review and score each application in accordance with the selection criteria and the competitive preference priorities. A rank order funding slate will be made from this review. Awards will be made in rank order according to the average score received from the peer review.

In tie-breaking situations for development grants, under 34 CFR 607.23(b), we must award additional points in the following three areas. We award one additional point to an application from an IHE that has an endowment fund of which the current market value, per full-time equivalent enrolled student, is less than the average current market value of the endowment funds, per FTE enrolled student, at comparable type institutions that offer similar instruction. We award one additional point to an application from an IHE that has expenditures for library materials per FTE enrolled student that are less than the average expenditure for library materials per FTE enrolled student at similar type institutions. We also add one additional point to an application from an IHE that proposes to carry out one or more of the following activities—

- (1) Faculty development;
- (2) Funds and administrative management;
- (3) Development and improvement of academic programs;

(4) Acquisition of equipment for use in strengthening management and academic programs;

(5) Joint use of facilities; and

(6) Student services.

For the purpose of these funding considerations, we use 2021–2022 data.

If a tie remains after applying the tie-breaker mechanism above, priority will be given to applicants that have the lowest endowment values per FTE enrolled student.

3. Risk Assessment and Specific Conditions: Consistent with 2 CFR 200.206, before awarding grants under this program the Department conducts a review of the risks posed by applicants. Under 2 CFR 200.208, the Secretary may impose specific conditions and, under 2 CFR 3474.10, in appropriate circumstances, high-risk conditions on a grant if the applicant or grantee is not financially stable; has a history of unsatisfactory performance; has a financial or other management system that does not meet the standards in 2 CFR part 200, subpart D; has not fulfilled the conditions of a prior grant; or is otherwise not responsible.

4. Integrity and Performance System: If you are selected under this competition to receive an award that over the course of the project period may exceed the simplified acquisition threshold (currently $250,000), under 2 CFR 200.206(a)(2), we must make a judgment about your integrity, business ethics, and record of performance under Federal awards—that is, the risk posed by you as an applicant—before we make an award. In doing so, we must consider any information about you that is in the integrity and performance system (currently referred to as the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System (FAPIIS)), accessible through the System for Award Management. You may review and comment on any information about yourself that a Federal agency previously entered and that is currently in FAPIIS.

Please note that, if the total value of your currently active grants, cooperative agreements, and procurement contracts from the Federal Government exceeds $10,000,000, the reporting requirements in 2 CFR part 200, appendix XII, require you to report certain integrity information to FAPIIS semiannually. Please review the requirements in 2 CFR part 200, appendix XII, if this grant plus all the other Federal funds you receive exceed $10,000,000.

5. In General: In accordance with the Office of Management and Budget's guidance located at 2 CFR part 200, all applicable Federal laws, and relevant Executive guidance, the Department will review and consider applications for funding pursuant to this notice inviting applications in accordance with:

(a) Selecting recipients most likely to be successful in delivering results based on the program objectives through an objective process of evaluating Federal award applications (2 CFR 200.205);

(b) Prohibiting the purchase of certain telecommunication and video surveillance services or equipment in alignment with section 889 of the National Defense Authorization Act of 2019 (Pub. L. 115–232) (2 CFR 200.216);

(c) Providing a preference, to the extent permitted by law, to maximize use of goods, products, and materials produced in the United States (2 CFR 200.322); and

(d) Terminating agreements in whole or in part to the greatest extent authorized by law if an award no longer effectuates the program goals or agency priorities (2 CFR 200.340).

VI. Award Administration Information

1. Award Notices: If your application is successful, we notify your U.S. Representative and U.S. Senators and send you a Grant Award Notification (GAN); or we may send you an email containing a link to access an electronic version of your GAN. We may notify you informally, also.

If your application is not evaluated or not selected for funding, we notify you.

2. Administrative and National Policy Requirements: We identify administrative and national policy requirements in the application package and reference these and other requirements in the Applicable Regulations section of this notice.

We reference the regulations outlining the terms and conditions of an award in the Applicable Regulations section of this notice and include these and other specific conditions in the GAN. The GAN also incorporates your approved application as part of your binding commitments under the grant.

3. Open Licensing Requirements: Unless an exception applies, if you are awarded a grant under this competition, you will be required to openly license to the public grant deliverables created in whole, or in part, with Department grant funds. When the deliverable consists of modifications to pre-existing works, the license extends only to those modifications that can be separately identified and only to the extent that open licensing is permitted under the terms of any licenses or other legal restrictions on the use of pre-existing works. Additionally, a grantee or subgrantee that is awarded competitive grant funds must have a plan to disseminate these public grant deliverables. This dissemination plan can be developed and submitted after your application has been reviewed and selected for funding. For additional information on the open licensing requirements please refer to 2 CFR 3474.20.

4. Reporting: (a) If you apply for a grant under this competition, you must ensure that you have in place the necessary processes and systems to comply with the reporting requirements in 2 CFR part 170 should you receive funding under the competition. This does not apply if you have an exception under 2 CFR 170.110(b).

(b) At the end of your project period, you must submit a final performance report, including financial information, as directed by the Secretary. If you receive a multiyear award, you must submit an annual performance report that provides the most current performance and financial expenditure information as directed by the Secretary under 34 CFR 75.118. The Secretary may also require more frequent performance reports under 34 CFR 75.720(c). For specific requirements on reporting, please go to www.ed.gov/fund/grant/apply/appforms/appforms.html.

5. Performance Measures: The Secretary has established the following key performance measures for the purpose of Department reporting under 34 CFR 75.110.

(a) The percentage change, over the 5-year period, of the number of full-time degree-seeking undergraduates enrolled at Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian-Serving Institutions (Note: This is a long-term measure, which will be used to periodically gauge performance);

(b) The percentage of first-time, full-time degree-seeking undergraduate students at 4-year Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian-Serving Institutions who were in their first year of postsecondary enrollment in the previous year and are enrolled in the current year at the same Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian-Serving Institution;

(c) The percentage of first-time, full-time degree-seeking undergraduate students at 2-year Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian-Serving Institutions who were in their first year of postsecondary enrollment in the previous year and are enrolled in the current year at the same Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian-Serving Institution;

(d) The percentage of first-time, full-time degree-seeking undergraduate students enrolled at 4-year Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian-Serving

Institutions who graduate within 6 years of enrollment; and

(e) The percentage of first-time, full-time degree-seeking undergraduate students enrolled at 2-year Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian-Serving Institutions who graduate within 3 years of enrollment.

6. Continuation Awards: In making a continuation award under 34 CFR 75.253, the Secretary considers, among other things: whether a grantee has made substantial progress in achieving the goals and objectives of the project; whether the grantee has expended funds in a manner that is consistent with its approved application and budget; and, if the Secretary has established performance measurement requirements, whether the grantee has made substantial progress in achieving the performance targets in the grantee's approved application.

In making a continuation award, the Secretary also considers whether the grantee is operating in compliance with the assurances in its approved application, including those applicable to Federal civil rights laws that prohibit discrimination in programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance from the Department (34 CFR 100.4, 104.5, 106.4, 108.8, and 110.23).

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

[GDO Docket No. EA-145-G]

Application for Renewal of Authorization To Export Electric Energy; Powerex Corp

AGENCY: Grid Deployment Office, Department of Energy.

ACTION: Notice of application.

SUMMARY: Powerex Corp. (the Applicant or Powerex) has applied for renewed authorization to transmit electric energy from the United States to Mexico pursuant to the Federal Power Act.

DATES: Comments, protests, or motions to intervene must be submitted on or before March 28, 2024.

ADDRESSES: Comments, protests, motions to intervene, or requests for more information should be addressed by electronic mail to Electricity.Exports@hq.doe.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Christina Gomer, (240) 474-2403, Electricity.Exports@hq.doe.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The United States Department of Energy (DOE) regulates electricity exports from the United States to foreign countries in accordance with section 202(e) of the Federal Power Act (FPA) (16 U.S.C. 824a(e)) and regulations thereunder (10 CFR 205.300 et seq.). Sections 301(b) and 402(f) of the DOE Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7151(b) and 7172(f)) transferred this regulatory authority, previously exercised by the now-defunct Federal Power Commission, to DOE.

Section 202(e) of the FPA provides that an entity which seeks to export electricity must obtain an order from DOE authorizing that export. (16 U.S.C. 824a(e)). On April 10, 2023, the authority to issue such orders was delegated to the DOE's Grid Deployment Office (GDO) by Delegation Order No. S1-DEL-S3-2023 and Redelegation Order No. S3-DEL-GD1-2023.

On May 30, 1997, DOE issued Order No. EA-145 authorizing Powerex to transmit electric energy from the United States to Mexico as a power marketer. Such authority was renewed in 1999 (Order No. EA-145-A), 2001 (Order No. EA-145-B), 2004 (Order No. EA-145-

C), 2009 (Order No. EA-145-D), 2014 (Order No. EA-145-E), and 2019 (Order No. EA-145-F). On January 25, 2024, Powerex filed an application with DOE (Application or App.) for renewal of their export authority for an additional five-year term. App. at 1.

According to the Application, Powerex is a British Columbia corporation that is a wholly owned subsidiary of British Columbia Hydro and Power Authority (BC Hydro) a provincial Crown Corporation owned by the Government of British Columbia, Powerex is an instrumentality of a foreign state under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act. Id. at 2. Powerex is a power marketer authorized to sell wholesale electric energy, capacity, and ancillary services at market-based rates pursuant to authority granted by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) under a wholesale power sales tariff currently on file. Powerex states that it “does not own any electric generation or transmission facilities and, as a power marketer, does not hold a franchise or service territory or native load obligation.” Id. at 5. Further, Powerex represents that “none of [its] affiliates own electric transmission facilities that constitute part of the electricity delivery system in the U.S. and Powerex is not affiliated with an entity that holds a franchise or service territory in the contiguous U.S.” Id. The Applicant asserts that it “. . . has no transmission ‘system’ of its own on which its exports of power could have a reliability or stability impact.” Id. at 5–6.

The existing international transmission facilities to be utilized by the Applicant have been previously authorized by Presidential permits issued pursuant to Executive Order 10485, as amended, and are appropriate for open access transmission by third parties. See App. at Exhibit C.

Procedural Matters: Any person desiring to be heard in this proceeding should file a comment or protest to the Application at Electricity.Exports@hq.doe.gov. Protests should be filed in accordance with Rule 211 of FERC’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211). Any person desiring to become a party to this proceeding should file a motion to intervene at Electricity.Exports@hq.doe.gov in accordance with FERC Rule 214 (18 CFR 385.214).

Comments and other filings concerning Powerex’s Application should be clearly marked with GDO Docket No. EA-145-G. Additional copies are to be provided directly to Powerex Connor Curson, Powerex Corp., 666 Burrard Street, Suite 1300, Vancouver, British Columbia Canada, V6C 2X8, connor.curson@powerex.com, Deanna E. King, Bracewell LLP, 111 Congress Avenue, Suite 2300, Austin, Texas 78701, deanna.king@bracewell.com, and Tracey L. Bradley, Bracewell LLP, 2001 M Street NW, Suite 900, Washington, DC 20036, tracey.bradley@bracewell.com.

A final decision will be made on the requested authorization after the environmental impacts have been evaluated pursuant to DOE’s National Environmental Policy Act Implementing Procedures (10 CFR part 1021) and after DOE evaluates whether the proposed action will have an adverse impact on the sufficiency of supply or reliability of the United States electric power supply system.

Copies of this Application will be made available, upon request, by accessing the program website at www.energy.gov/gdo/pending-applications-0 or by emailing Electricity.Exports@hq.doe.gov.

Signing Authority: This document of the Department of Energy was signed on February 16, 2024, by Maria Robinson, Director, Grid Deployment Office, pursuant to delegated authority from the Secretary of Energy. That document with the original signature and date is maintained by DOE. For administrative purposes only, and in compliance with requirements of the Office of the Federal Register, the undersigned DOE Federal Register Liaison Officer has been authorized to sign and submit the document in electronic format for publication, as an official document of the Department of Energy. This administrative process in no way alters the legal effect of this document upon publication in the Federal Register.

Consumers Energy Company; Notice of Availability of Environmental Assessment

In accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 and the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's (Commission or FERC) regulations, 18 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) part 380, Commission staff reviewed Consumer Energy Company's application for a non-capacity amendment of the license for the Hardy Hydroelectric Project No. 2452 (project) and have prepared an Environmental Assessment (EA). The licensee proposes amending the license to upgrade project features and improve dam safety. As proposed, the licensee would improve dam safety by: (1) temporarily drawing down the project reservoir to facilitate construction; (2) replacing the auxiliary spillway; (3) widening the road that traverses the dam crest; and (4) replacing the dam's existing splash wall. The 30.0-megawatt project is on the Muskegon River in Newaygo and Mecosta counties, Michigan. The project does not occupy federal lands.

The EA contains Commission staff's analysis of the potential environmental effects of the proposed amendment and concludes that it would not constitute a major federal action that would significantly affect the quality of the human environment.

The Commission provides all interested persons with an opportunity to view and/or print the EA via the internet through the Commission's Home Page (<https://www.ferc.gov>) using the "eLibrary" link. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. CARB's Authorization Request

CARB's November 7, 2023, letter to the EPA Administrator notified the EPA that CARB had finalized its In-Use Locomotive Regulation.¹ The In-Use Locomotive Regulation, adopted by the Board on April 27, 2023, (approved by California's Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on October 27, 2023, and becoming effective on January 1, 2024) contains several provisions that apply to any locomotive operator that operates a locomotive in the State of California or to a delegate of that operator and applies only to locomotives and locomotive engines placed into service in California and only to an operator or delegate's operations inside California.² The explanation of the In-Use Locomotive Regulation provided below is based on CARB's description of its regulation and is not an exhaustive list of the requirements (interested parties are encouraged to review CARB's rulemaking record contained in its authorization request and found in the EPA's docket associated with the review of the authorization request).

The In-Use Locomotive Regulation includes a "Spending Account" provision, whereby annually, for each locomotive operated in California, locomotive operators are required to deposit funds into a Spending Account. The account operates as a restricted trust, held by the locomotive operator, with the funds able to be withdrawn for specific uses described within the regulation.³

The In-Use Locomotive Regulation also includes an "In-Use Locomotive Operational Requirement" that according to CARB starts January 1, 2030, and allows only locomotives with an original engine build date less than 23 years old to operate in California excepting locomotives that meet the current cleanest EPA Tier (currently Tier 4) of emission standards for a locomotive of its type, that are operated in a Zero Emission (ZE) configuration while in California,⁴ or that satisfy other specified conditions. CARB's authorization request notes that if a locomotive has been remanufactured or repowered to a Tier 4 or cleaner emissions standard prior to January 1, 2030, the original engine build date will be based on the first year the locomotive was remanufactured to the Tier 4 or cleaner standard.⁵

As an alternative to the spending account and the operational requirements, the In-Use Locomotive Regulation includes an "Alternative Compliance Plan (ACP)" provision that allows regulated locomotive operators to comply with the Spending Account and/or In-Use Operational Requirements using a project or projects that achieve equivalent emissions reductions within three miles of the operators' locomotive activities within California.⁶

The In-Use Locomotive Regulation includes an idling requirement. According to CARB, locomotive "operators must ensure that an Automatic Engine Stop Start (AESS) equipped locomotive is shut off no more than 30 minutes after the locomotive becomes stationary. A locomotive may only exceed 30 minutes of idling for the following reasons: to prevent engine damage such as to prevent the engine coolant from freezing; to maintain air pressure for brakes or starter system, or to recharge the locomotive battery; to perform necessary maintenance; or to otherwise comply with federal or state regulations."⁷

CARB's regulation also imposes registration, reporting and recordkeeping requirements on locomotive operators for all locomotive activity in California. Locomotive operators are required to register all locomotives operating within the State by July 1, 2026.⁸

CARB's authorization request also includes a description of compliance exemptions and extensions that are provided to locomotive operators for enhanced flexibility to comply with the Spending Account and In-Use Operational Requirements.⁹

II. Scope of Preemption and Criteria for an Authorization Under the Clean Air Act

Section 209(e)(1) of the CAA prohibits all states and local governments from adopting or attempting to enforce any standard or other requirement relating to the control of emissions from certain types of new nonroad engines or nonroad vehicles, including both "(A) New engines which are used in construction equipment or vehicles or used in farm equipment or vehicles and which are smaller than 175 horsepower" and "(B) New locomotives or new engines used in locomotives."¹⁰ Section 209(e)(2)(A) of the CAA, however, requires the Administrator, after notice and opportunity for public hearing, to authorize California to adopt and enforce standards and other requirements relating to the control of emissions from nonroad engines and vehicles otherwise not prohibited under section 209(e)(1) if California determines that California standards will be, in the aggregate, at least as protective of public health and welfare as are applicable Federal standards. However, the EPA shall not grant such authorization if it finds that (1) the determination of California is arbitrary and capricious; (2) California does not need such California standards to meet compelling and extraordinary conditions; or (3) California standards and accompanying enforcement procedures are not consistent with [CAA section 209].¹¹

On July 20, 1994, the EPA promulgated a rule that sets forth, among other things, regulations providing the criteria, as found in section 209(e)(2)(A), that the EPA must consider before granting any California authorization request for nonroad engine or vehicle emission standards.¹² The EPA revised these regulations in 1997.¹³ As stated in the preamble to the 1994 rule, the EPA has historically interpreted the section 209(e)(2)(A)(iii) "consistency" inquiry to require, at minimum, that California standards and enforcement procedures be consistent with section 209(a), section 209(e)(1), and section 209(b)(1)(C) (as the EPA has interpreted that subsection in the context of section 209(b) motor vehicle waivers).¹⁴ In addition, on November 8, 2023, the EPA revised the regulatory language regarding the scope of

³ CARB's Authorization Support Document at 4-5.

preemption pertaining to locomotives within section 209(e)(1)(B).¹⁵ The action taken in the rulemaking was to align the scope of preemption applicable to new locomotives and new engines used in locomotives to be the same as the scope of preemption for other new nonroad engines and vehicles preempted within section 209(e)(1)(A). The scope of preemption applicable to new locomotives can be found at 40 CFR 1074.10, and the criteria for granting California authorization requests can be found at 40 CFR 1074.105. Provisions pertaining to the adoption of California nonroad standards by other states can be found at 40 CFR 1074.110.

In order to be consistent with section 209(a), California's nonroad standards and enforcement procedures must not apply to new motor vehicles or new motor vehicle engines. To be consistent with section 209(e)(1), California's nonroad standards and enforcement procedures must not attempt to regulate engine categories that are permanently preempted from state regulation (such as ". . . any standard or other requirement relation to the control of emissions from . . . (B) New locomotives or new engines used in locomotives."). To determine consistency with section 209(b)(1)(C), EPA typically reviews nonroad authorization requests under the same "consistency" criteria that are applied to motor vehicle waiver requests. Pursuant to section 209(b)(1)(C), the Administrator shall not grant California a motor vehicle waiver if she finds that California "standards and accompanying enforcement procedures are not consistent with section 202(a)" of the Act. Previous decisions granting waivers and authorizations have noted that state standards and enforcement procedures are inconsistent with section 202(a) if: (1) there is inadequate lead time to permit the development of the necessary technology giving appropriate consideration to the cost of compliance within that time, or (2) the federal and state testing procedures impose inconsistent certification requirements.¹⁶

III. EPA's Request for Comments

We request comment on whether California's In-Use Locomotive Regulation meets the criteria for an EPA authorization. Specifically, we request comment on: (a) whether CARB's determination that its standards, in the aggregate, are at least as protective of public health and welfare as applicable federal standards is arbitrary and capricious, (b) whether California needs such standards to meet compelling and extraordinary conditions, and (c) whether California's standards and accompanying enforcement procedures are consistent with section 209 of the Act. As explained above, the EPA considers several provisions with regard to the consistency with section 209 of the Act criterion.

¹⁵ 88 FR 77004 (November 8, 2023). In this authorization action, the EPA is not reopening the locomotive preemption rulemaking from November 8, 2023. Any public comments on the rulemaking that are not germane to this authorization action may not be addressed in the EPA's final decision regarding CARB's authorization request.

¹⁶ 78 FR 58090, 58092 (September 20, 2013).

IV. Procedures for Public Participation

The virtual public hearing will be held on March 20, 2024. The hearing will begin at 10 a.m. eastern daylight time. All hearing attendees (including those who do not intend to provide testimony and merely listen) should register for the public hearing at: <https://www.epa.gov/regulations-emissions-vehicles-and-engines/virtual-public-hearing-californias-use-locomotive>.

SYSTEM NAME AND NUMBER:

System Name: EXIM Emergency Notification System.

System Number: N/A.

SECURITY CLASSIFICATION:

Unclassified.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

This electronic system will be used via a web interface and mobile application by the Export Import Bank of the United States, 811 Vermont Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20571. The physical location and technical operation of the system is at the FedRAMP Authorized Amazon Web Services (AWS) US East/West cloud services facility at 410 Terry Ave N, Seattle, WA 98109-5210.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S):

Selma Hamilton, Director, Security Services, EXIM Bank, 811 Vermont Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20571, Selma.Hamilton@exim.gov, 202-565-3313.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Export-Import Bank Act of 1945, as amended (12 U.S.C. 635 et seq.).¹ 5 U.S.C. 301.

PURPOSE(S) OF THE SYSTEM:

The purpose of this system of records is to facilitate and enable EXIM to communicate with its employees and contractors ("Contacts") in a quick and efficient manner in critical events. EXIM utilizes EXIM Emergency Notification System to ensure employee safety and business continuity, as well as swift disaster recovery during critical events. EXIM uses contact information of its employees and contractors (typically name, telephone number, email addresses and/or physical address, which is stored within OnSolve Platform for Critical Event Management (PCEM)) and use the system to communicate alerts using multiple modalities (including SMS, email, and voice collectively referred to herein as "alerts") to the Contacts at scale.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

The EXIM Emergency Notification System will contain information on EXIM current employees and contractors.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

The EXIM Emergency Notification System will contain Personally Identifiable Information (PII) of EXIM current employees and contractors typically including, but not limited to name, telephone number, email addresses and/or physical address/location, and travel data such as dates and locations of travel captured through manual entry or an API (Application Programming Interface) from EXIM Travel Reservation Management system (Concur). This information will be necessary to enable EXIM to identify and communicate with EXIM staff and other persons having connections with EXIM ("Contacts" or "Recipients") in a quick and efficient manner to ensure employee safety and business continuity, as well as swift recovery during critical events.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

The information in the system is obtained using one of three methods: (1) Active Directory (AD) user data will be used as the initial source of information for the database to create users, (2) additional user information will be entered by the user via the user account "opt-in" portal, and (3) data captured through manual entry or an API (Application Programming Interface) from EXIM Travel Reservation Management system (Concur). User accounts are created individually within the OnSolve portal or uploaded via SFTP from an Active Directory export using System Center Orchestrator (SCOrch).

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

In addition to those disclosures that are generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b) of the Privacy Act, all or a portion of the records or information contained in this system may be disclosed to authorized entities, as is determined to be relevant and necessary, outside EXIM as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3) as follows:

1. Appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (a) the Bank suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records; (b) the Bank has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, the Bank (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (c) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the Bank's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

2. Another Federal agency or Federal entity, when the Bank determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (a) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (b) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.

3. Congressional offices in response to an inquiry made at the request of the individual to whom the record pertains.

4. Contractors or other authorized individuals performing work on a contract, service, cooperative agreement, job, or other activity on behalf of the Bank or Federal Government and who have a need to access the information in the performance of their duties or activities.

5. The U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) for its use in providing legal advice to the Bank or in representing the Bank in a proceeding before a court, adjudicative body, or other administrative body, where the use of such information by the DOJ is deemed by the Bank to be relevant and necessary to the advice or proceeding, and in the case of a proceeding, such proceeding names as a party in interest: (a) The Bank; (b) Any employee of the Bank in his or her official capacity; (c) Any employee of the Bank in his or her individual capacity where DOJ has agreed to represent the employee; or (d) The United States, where the Bank determines that litigation is likely to affect the Bank or any of its components.

6. A court, magistrate, or administrative tribunal during an administrative proceeding or judicial proceeding, including disclosures to opposing counsel or witnesses (including expert witnesses) during discovery or other pre-hearing exchanges of information, litigation, or settlement negotiations, where relevant and necessary to a proceeding, or in connection with criminal law proceedings.

7. Appropriate Federal, State, local, foreign, Tribal, or self-regulatory organizations or agencies responsible for investigating, prosecuting, enforcing, implementing, issuing, or carrying out a statute, rule, regulation, order, policy, or license if the record indicates a violation or a potential violation of civil or criminal law, rule, regulation, order, policy, or license.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

The records are stored digitally in encrypted format in the OnSolve PCEM Amazon Web Services (AWS) FedRAMP authorized cloud environment. OnSolve PCEM encrypts EXIM's sensitive information (such as current employee or contractor first name, last name, and email address) at rest and stores it in the databases leveraging native AWS encryption including Database (DB) clusters, snapshots, underlying structure for DB clusters. Automated database backups are in place along with read replica. Native AWS encryption on storage level with an encrypted Elastic Block Storage (EBS) volume using Advanced Encryption Standard (AES)—256. For live data (not in a backup file) Elastic File System (EFS) is used. EXIM Emergency Notification System complies with EXIM policy which stipulates that sensitive data (such as routine reports) generated from EXIM Emergency Notification System must be stored on EXIM's storage system that is managed and protected by EXIM's Infrastructure General Support System administrative, technical, and physical controls.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

Records may be retrieved by the system administrator using Contact's (EXIM employee and contractor) first name, last name, work email address, as well as non-key attributes such as location (e.g., Headquarters or Regional Offices), to identify lists of potentially impacted contacts with a nexus to a critical event. Information may additionally be retrieved by other personal identifiers by user account maintenance programs within the application. The administrator runs routine reports and reviews analytics that include user unique identifiers such as name and phone number, etc. Reports can be filtered using a personal identifier (i.e., reports can be generated to indicate who responded to a notification message).

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS:

Records are archived/disposed of during the routine data sync for individuals who are no longer employees or contractors of EXIM. Otherwise, records are maintained and destroyed in accordance with the National Archives and Record Administration's ("NARA") Basic Laws and Authorities (44 U.S.C. 3301, et seq.) or an EXIM Bank records disposition schedule approved by NARA.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

Information will be stored in electronic format within the OnSolve PCEM Cloud Service Provider (CSP) Amazon Web Service (AWS). EXIM Emergency Notification System has configurable, layered user accounts and permissions features to ensure users have only the amount of access necessary to perform their duties. Access to EXIM Emergency Notification System is restricted to EXIM current employees and contractors for emergency notification, information technology alerting, and disaster recovery to support effective communication. OnSolve PCEM users use HTTPS through CloudFlare DNS to access the application using an internet Browser. EXIM AD Data daily sync is performed using SFTP one direction initiated from EXIM only.

OnSolve PCEM personnel access the AWS US East/West OnSolve Platform CEM environment via VPN to meet FIPS 140-2 Cryptographic Module Validation Program requirements at <https://csrc.nist.gov/projects/cryptographic-module-validation-program>. Multi-factor authentication is implemented on personal mobile devices (only) for CSP administrators to authenticate. VPN Authentication occurs at the VPN located in the public subnet in the authorization boundary. After establishing the VPN connection, the administrator establishes an SSH connection to remote desktop into a Jump Host, within the Jump Host subnet. Personnel must supply their username and password provided by a dedicated Active Directory, specifically used for this AWS environment (i.e., not the corporate Active Directory). If someone were to leave the organization or no longer require access, that individual's jump host can be deleted. Jump Hosts authenticate against Vault (within a management services subnet in the OnSolve AWS cloud environment) to establish access. Vault checks Active Directory to validate the login information that has been provided by the user and returns an SSH-signed certificate token/key that expires after 12 hours. Vault also stores "secrets" to the environment. For example, all the database passwords for database users are stored in Vault. The Jump Host is allowed access into all other subnets for administrative purposes just as if the 12-hours token has not expired.

OnSolve PCEM, which is hosted in AWS as a Software-as-a-Service application, inherits all the administrative, technical, and physical controls offered by AWS and the EXIM Infrastructure General Support System.

OnSolve PCEM CSP is compliant with the Federal Risk and Authorization Management Program (FedRAMP). The PII information EXIM Emergency Notification System is encrypted and stored in AWS, and the Hypertext Transfer Protocol Secure (HTTPS) protocol and Security Assertion Markup Language (SAML) authentication is used to access EXIM Emergency Notification System.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Requests to access records under the Privacy Act must be submitted in writing and must be signed by the requestor. Title: Sections 1.1411, 1.1412, 1.1415, and 1.1416 Pole Attachment Access and Dispute Resolution Requirements.

Form Number: FCC Form 5653.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently-approved collection.

Respondents: Business or other for-profit.

Number of Respondents and Responses: 1,380 respondents; 165,009 responses.

Estimated Time per Response: 0.25-5 hours.

Frequency of Response: On-occasion reporting requirement, recordkeeping requirement, and third-party disclosure requirement.

Obligation to Respond: Mandatory or required to obtain or retain benefits. Statutory authority for this information collection is contained in 47 U.S.C. 224.

Total Annual Burden: 120,980 hours.

Total Annual Cost: $1,800.

Needs and Uses: The Commission is requesting Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approval for a revision to a currently approved information collection. In Accelerating Wireline Broadband Deployment by Removing Barriers to Infrastructure Investment, WC Docket No. 17-84, Fourth Report and Order, FCC 23-109 (rel. December 15, 2023) (Order), the Commission adopted rules that implement the pole attachment requirements in section 224 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended. The Order substantially revised 47 CFR 1.1411, redesignated existing 47 CFR 1.1415 as 47 CFR 1.1416, and added a new 47 CFR 1.1415.

Section 1.1411. In the Order, the Commission adopted regulations requiring utilities to share information about their poles with prospective telecommunications and cable attachers. The Commission created this requirement to help improve the attachment process and potentially reduce disputes, thus facilitating broadband deployment. Specifically, the Order requires utilities to provide to potential attachers, upon request, the information contained in their most recent cyclical pole inspection reports, or any intervening, periodic reports created before the next cyclical inspection, for the poles covered by a submitted attachment application, including whether any of the affected poles have been "red tagged" by the utility for replacement and the scheduled replacement date or timeframe (if any). For the purposes of this new transparency requirement, a cyclical pole inspection report is any report that a utility creates in the normal course of its business that sets forth the results of the routine inspection of its poles during the utility's normal pole inspection cycle, while a periodic pole inspection report is any report that a utility creates in the normal course of its business that sets forth the results of the inspection of any of its poles outside the utility's normal pole inspection cycle.

When asking for information about the status of a utility's poles for a planned buildout, the attacher must submit its information request no earlier than contemporaneously with an attachment application. The utility will have ten business days to respond to the request. Where an attacher amends its application based on the information it receives from the utility, the utility will have the option to restart the 45-day period for responding to the application on the merits and conducting the required make-ready survey. Regardless of whether the utility elects to restart the 45-day response period, any additional survey costs necessitated by the amended application, such as a second survey after a survey for the original application has been completed, will be borne by the new attacher consistent with the new attacher's obligation to pay for make-ready costs associated with its application.

The Commission also required utilities to retain copies, in whatever form they were created, of any such cyclical or periodic pole inspection reports they conduct in the normal course of business, until such time as the utility completes a superseding cyclical pole inspection report covering the poles included in the attachment application. The Commission reiterated that utilities are required to provide only the information they already possess and track in the normal course of conducting pole inspections at the time of the attacher's request for data. The Commission did not require utilities to collect or create new information for the purpose of responding to such requests or to provide all information they may possess on the affected poles outside their pole inspection reports. The Commission found that adopting this limited requirement achieves a balance between a potential attacher's need for more information about the poles that it plans to use as part of a broadband buildout and the utility's interest in minimizing the burden of mandatory disclosures.

Section 1.1415. To expedite the resolution of pole attachment disputes that impede or delay active broadband deployment projects, the Commission established the Rapid Broadband Assessment Team (RBAT), which will consist of one or more staff from the Commission's Enforcement Bureau and one or more staff from the Commission's Wireline Competition Bureau. The Commission created the RBAT in an effort to make the Commission's pole attachment dispute resolution process more responsive and adaptable with the goal of facilitating broadband deployment. The Order charged the RBAT with expediting the resolution of such disputes by swiftly engaging key stakeholders, gathering relevant information, distilling issues in dispute, and recommending to the parties, where appropriate, an abbreviated mediation process, placement of a complaint (or portion of a complaint) on the Commission's Accelerated Docket based on consideration of specified criteria, and/or any other action that the RBAT determines will help the parties resolve their dispute.

To request RBAT review and assessment of a dispute that a party to the dispute contends is impeding or delaying deployment of broadband facilities, the party must first notify the Chief of the Enforcement Bureau's Market Disputes Resolution Division (MDRD) of the request by phone and in writing. The MDRD Chief will direct the party to FCC Form 5653—Request for RBAT Review and Assessment—on the MDRD website and to instructions for completing and electronically transmitting the form to the RBAT. The form will elicit information relevant to the scope and nature of the dispute, and to whether the dispute is appropriate for expedited mediation and/or placement on the Accelerated Docket. The information submitted by a party on the FCC Form 5653 will assist the RBAT in efficiently reviewing and assessing the party's dispute and in providing guidance on the most effective means of resolving it. The RBAT also may request that one or both parties provide the RBAT with documentation or other information relevant to the dispute. After reviewing the parties' submissions, the RBAT will provide guidance and advice to the parties on the most effective means of resolving their dispute, including staff-supervised mediation, use of the Accelerated Docket, and/or other action.

Should the RBAT recommend staff-supervised mediation, it shall be conducted pursuant to 47 CFR 1.737, the requirements of which may be modified or waived as appropriate in this context or as needed in light of the facts or circumstances of a particular case. In the event that the parties are unable to settle their dispute, and a prospective complainant seeks placement of its complaint on the Accelerated Docket, the RBAT will decide whether the complaint or a portion of the complaint is suitable for inclusion on the Accelerated Docket based on a totality of the factors listed in 47 CFR 1.1415(e).

Title: Communications Disaster Information Reporting System (DIRS).

Form Number: N/A.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Business or other for-profit; Not-for-profit institutions; State, Local or Tribal Government; Federal Government.

Number of Respondents and Responses: 400 respondents; 104,000 responses.

Estimated Time per Response: 1 hour–1.5 hours (average per response).

Frequency of Response: On occasion and Annual Reporting Requirements and Recordkeeping Requirements.

Obligation to Respond: Voluntary. Statutory authority for this collection is contained in sections 1, 4(i), 4(j), 4(o), 251(e)(3), 254, 301, 303(b), 303(g), 303(r), 307, 309(a), 309(j), 316, 332, and 403 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 706 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, 47 U.S.C. 151, 154(i)–(j) & (o), 251(e)(3), 254, 301, 303(b), 303(g), 303(r), 332, 403, and 1302.

Total Annual Burden: 16,320 hours.

Total Annual Cost: No Cost.

Needs and Uses: The Commission launched the Disaster Information Reporting System (DIRS) in 2007 pursuant to its mandate to promote the safety of life and property through the use of wire and radio communication as required by the Communications Act of 1934, as amended. DIRS is a voluntary, efficient, and web-based system that communications companies may use to report their infrastructure status during times of crisis (e.g., related to a disaster). DIRS uses a number of template forms tailored to different communications sectors (i.e., wireless, wireline, broadcast, and cable) to facilitate the entry of this information. To use DIRS, a company first inputs its emergency contact information. After this, they submit information using the template form appropriate for their communications sector. In a Second Report and Order adopted on March 18, 2021, as FCC 21–34, the Commission adopted rules allowing certain federal, state, and Tribal Nation agencies (Participating Agencies) to access to certain geographically relevant reports filed in the Commission's Disaster Information Reporting System (DIRS). The information collections and record keeping provisions adopted will allow Participating Agencies to apply for, and receive access to, DIRS report in the areas where they have jurisdiction. The collection will further enable these Participating Agencies, at their election, to share DIRS reports with qualified local agencies whose jurisdiction is affected by a disaster, while still maintaining the confidentiality of the substantive data. The changes to the data collections fields in the DIRS filings made by service providers will further facilitate the ability of Participating Agencies to access those reports relevant to their specific geographies. Finally, the changes to the information collection and associated recordkeeping requirements, including retention by participating agencies of qualification forms submitted by local agency seeking access to DIRS data, as well as a list of which local agencies receive information from the Participating Agency, training materials setting clear parameters for the use of DIRS data, and a list of those persons granted DIRS account access, will enable auditing functions to ensure accountability in the use of DIRS information and immediate reporting of breaches of access or confidentiality protocols.

The Commission notes that the information sharing framework established in the Second Report and Order allows for access to be granted not only for DIRS, but also to the Commission's Network Outage Reporting System (NORS). We note that the process and requirements for Participating Agencies under this framework is identical, regardless of whether they seek access to NORS, DIRS, or both. Because the Commission anticipates that NORS and DIRS access will be requested together in most cases, it believes that the estimated burden hours and costs for Participating Agencies associated with DIRS access are fully included in the estimates that it has separately submitted as part of its collection on Part 4 of the Commission's Rules Concerning Disruptions to Communications, OMB Control No. 3060–0484. To avoid double-counting the estimated burden hours and costs associated with both collections, the Commission estimates the marginal cost of the Participating Agency aspect of this collection to be zero.

BILLING CODE 6712-01-P

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

[Docket No. FMC-2024-0005]

Controlled Carriers Under the Shipping Act of 1984

AGENCY: Federal Maritime Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Federal Maritime Commission is publishing an updated list of controlled carriers, i.e., ocean common carriers operating in U.S.-foreign trades that are, or whose operating assets are, directly or indirectly owned or controlled by foreign governments. Such carriers are subject to increased regulatory oversight by the Commission.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David Eng, Secretary; Phone: (202) 523-5725; Email: secretary@fmc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Federal Maritime Commission is updating the list of controlled carriers to add an entity that qualifies as a controlled carrier, and to remove an entity that no longer qualifies as a controlled carrier. The Shipping Act of 1984, as amended (Shipping Act), defines a "controlled carrier" as an ocean common carrier that is, or whose operating assets are, directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a government. 46 U.S.C. 40102(9). Ownership or control by a government is deemed to exist for a carrier if (1) a majority of the interest in the carrier is owned or controlled in any manner by that government, an agency of that government, or a public or private person controlled by that government, or (2) that government has the right to appoint or disapprove the appointment of a majority of the directors, the chief operating officer, or the chief executive officer of the carrier. Id.; 46 CFR 565.2(a).

As required by the Shipping Act, controlled carriers are subject to enhanced oversight by the Commission. For example, 46 U.S.C. 40701(b) provides that the Commission may, after providing notice and opportunity for a hearing, prohibit the publication or use of a rate, charge, classification, rule, or regulation that a controlled carrier has failed to demonstrate is just and reasonable. See 46 U.S.C. 40701(b). In addition, 46 U.S.C. 40502(f) provides that in an action for a breach of a service contract, the dispute resolution forum cannot in any way be controlled by or affiliated with a controlled carrier or by the government that owns or controls the carrier. See 46 U.S.C. 40502(f). Congress enacted these protections to ensure that controlled carriers, whose marketplace decision making can be influenced by foreign governmental priorities or by their access to non-market sources of capital, do not engage in unreasonable below-market pricing practices which could disrupt trade or harm privately-owned shipping companies.

The controlled carrier list is not a comprehensive list of foreign-owned or controlled ships or ship owners; rather, it is only a list of ocean common carriers that are controlled by governments. See 46 U.S.C. 40102(9). Thus, tramp operators and other non-common carriers are not included, nor are non-vessel-operating common carriers, regardless of their ownership or control.

The controlled carrier list was last updated on April 30, 2019. See 84 FR 18284. This notice revises the list to add Hede (HONGKONG) International Shipping Limited as a controlled carrier. This notice also revises the list to reflect that COSCO Shipping Lines (Europe) GmbH is no longer providing common carriage in the United States trades and is therefore no longer a controlled carrier. There are no changes to report with respect to the remaining controlled carriers.

It is requested that any other information regarding possible omissions or inaccuracies in this list be provided to the Commission's Office of the General Counsel at generalcounsel@fmc.gov. See 46 CFR 501.12.

The amended list of currently classified controlled carriers and their corresponding Commission-issued Registered Persons Index numbers is set forth below:

(1) COSCO SHIPPING Lines Co., Ltd. (RPI No. 015614)—People's Republic of China;

(2) Orient Overseas Container Line Limited (RPI No. 011398)—People's Republic of China;

(3) OOCL (Europe) Limited (RPI No. 024786)—People's Republic of China;

(4) Hede (HONGKONG) International Shipping Limited (RPI No. 033332)—People's Republic of China.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

Notice is given that a complaint has been filed with the Federal Maritime Commission (the "Commission") by 20230930-DK-BUTTERFLY-1, Inc. formerly known as Bed Bath & Beyond Inc. Complainant is a corporation existing under the laws of New York that was formerly known as Bed Bath & Beyond Inc. and a "shipper," as this term is defined by 46 U.S.C. 40102(23), for the purposes of the allegations of the complaint.

Complainant identifies Respondent Evergreen Line Joint Service Agreement (FMC #011982) as a vessel-operating ocean common carrier consisting of Evergreen Marine Corp. (Taiwan) Ltd., Evergreen Marine (UK) Limited, Italia Marittima SpA, Evergreen Marine (Hong Kong) Ltd., Evergreen Marine (Singapore) Pte. Ltd., and Evergreen Marine (Asia) Pte. Ltd.

Complainant identifies Respondent Evergreen Marine Corp. (Taiwan) Ltd. as a company existing under the laws of Taiwan with a principal place of business in Taipei City and as a vessel-operating ocean common carrier.

Complainant identifies Respondent Evergreen Marine (UK) Limited as a company existing under the laws of the United Kingdom with a principal place of business located in London, England and as a vessel-operating ocean common carrier.

Complainant identifies Respondent Evergreen Marine (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. as a company existing under the laws of Singapore with a principal place of business in Southpoint, Singapore and as a vessel-operating ocean common carrier.

Complainant alleges that Respondents violated 46 U.S.C. 41102(c), 41104(a)(2), and 41104(a)(10) and 46 CFR 545.5. Complainant alleges these violations arose from a practice of systematically failing to meet service commitments, a requirement that extracontractual surcharges be paid prior to performance of service commitments, and an unreasonable assessment of demurrage and detention charges and the acts or omissions of the Respondents that led to this assessment.

An answer to the complaint must be filed with the Commission within 25 days after the date of service.

The full text of the complaint can be found in the Commission's electronic Reading Room at <https://www2.fmc.gov/readingroom/proceeding/24-11/>. This proceeding has been assigned to the Office of Administrative Law Judges. The initial decision of the presiding judge shall be issued by February 21, 2025, and the final decision of the Commission shall be issued by September 5, 2025.

B. Need and Uses

This clearance covers the information that offerors and contractors must submit to comply with the following Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) requirements:

52.222-50, Combating Trafficking in Persons

Notification. Paragraph (d) of this clause requires contractors to notify the contracting officer and the agency Inspector General of—

- Any credible information they receive from any source that alleges a contractor employee, subcontractor, or subcontractor employee, or their agent has engaged in conduct that violates the policy in paragraph (b) of the clause 52.222-50; and

- Any actions taken against a contractor employee, subcontractor, subcontractor employee, or their agent pursuant to this clause.

Compliance Plan and Annual Certification. Paragraph (h) of the clause contains an additional requirement for contracts for supplies (other than commercially available off-the-shelf (COTS) items) to be acquired outside the United States and contracts for services to be performed outside the United States, with an estimated value exceeding $550,000, where the contractor is to maintain a compliance plan during the performance of the contract. This compliance plan must include an awareness program, a process for employees to report activity inconsistent with the zero-tolerance policy, a recruitment and wage plan, a housing plan, and procedures to prevent subcontractors from engaging in trafficking in persons.

- Contractors are required to provide the compliance plan to the contracting officer upon request.

- Contractors are required to submit a certification to the contracting officer annually after receiving an award, asserting that they have the required compliance plan in place and that there have been no abuses, or that appropriate actions have been taken if abuses have been found.

- For those subcontractors required to submit a certification (see next bullet on flow down), contractors shall require that submission prior to award of the subcontract and annually thereafter.

Portions of this clause flows down to all subcontractors. The requirements related to the compliance plan only flow down to subcontracts exceeding $550,000 for supplies (other than COTS items) acquired and services performed outside the United States.

This clause applies to commercial acquisitions, except the portions related to the compliance plan do not apply to acquisitions of COTS items.

52.222-56, Certification Regarding Trafficking in Persons Compliance Plan

This provision requires apparently successful offerors to submit a certification, prior to award, that they have implemented a compliance plan and that there have been no abuses, or that appropriate actions have been taken if abuses have been found.

The provision requires this certification for the portion of contracts exceeding $550,000 for supplies (other than COTS items) acquired and services performed outside the United States.

This provision applies to commercial acquisitions, except acquisitions of COTS items.

FAR 52.222-50, paragraph (d)—Notification. The Government uses this notification of potential violations of trafficking in persons requirements to investigate and take appropriate action if a violation has occurred.

The Government uses the compliance plan to ascertain compliance with the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (22 U.S.C. 7104), Executive Order 13627, Strengthening Protections Against Trafficking in Persons in Federal Contracts dated September 25, 2012 (77 FR 60029, October 2, 2012) and title XVII of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2013 (Pub. L. 112-239, enacted January 2, 2013) or any other applicable law or regulation.

FAR 52.222-50, paragraph (h) and FAR 52.222-56—Certification. The

Proposed Project

Promoting Adolescent Health through School-Based HIV/STD Prevention Reporting Templates (OMB Control No. 0920-1329, Exp. 3/31/2024)—Revision—National Center for HIV, Viral Hepatitis, STD, and TB Prevention (NCHHSTP), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Background and Brief Description

PS18-1807 Promoting Adolescent Health through School-Based HIV/STD Prevention was awarded August 1, 2018 with a five year project period. It has been extended into a sixth year, and is funded through the Division of Adolescent and School Health (DASH). Health behaviors during adolescence set the stage for behaviors and health into adulthood. In 2017, 40% of high school students in the U.S. had ever had sexual intercourse and 29% were currently sexually active. Among currently sexually active students, 46% did not use a condom, and 14% did not use any method to prevent pregnancy the last time they had sexual intercourse. In 2016, young people aged 13–24 accounted for an estimated 21% of all new HIV diagnoses in the United States. Half of the nearly 20 million new STDs reported each year were among young people aged 15–24. Schools have direct contact with over 50 million students for at least six hours a day over 13 key years of their social, physical, and intellectual development. Schools can help understand and prevent adolescent risk for HIV, STD and teen pregnancy. Schools play an important role in HIV/STD prevention, and can influence students’ risk for HIV infection and other STD through parental engagement, health education, connection to physical and mental health services, and connecting youth to each other and important adults.

The PS18-1807 award supports implementation of activities at multiple levels of the education system to achieve health goals. School curricula, policies, and services are generally locally determined by local education agencies (LEA), or local school districts, with guidance from state education agencies (SEA). LEA and SEA both provide training, resources, and technical assistance to schools. SEA establish supportive state environments for local decision making about school policies and practices. LEA support implementation of school-based strategies through district level actions and decisions. Recognizing the importance of locally tailoring approaches, PS18-1807 uses priority schools within a district, or LEA, as a natural laboratory for working through program implementation details before scaling up—or diffusing—activities to all schools in a district. This approach supports close connections with decision-makers responsible for educational options and school environments at each of these levels. Additional support from organizations with specialized expertise and capacity for national reach will be used to increase the impact of SEA and LEA strategies. They provide a range of highly trained experts for professional development and technical assistance to advance HIV/STD prevention work.

CDC requests OMB approval for an Extension of one year to conduct three information collections titled, Promoting Adolescent Health through School-Based HIV/STD Prevention Reporting Templates. There are separate reporting templates and work plan templates for Component 1 reporting and for Component 2 reporting. Eighty (80) sites will be filling out the Component 1 reporting template and work plan template; 25 sites will be filling out the Component 2 reporting template and the work plan template.

The Component 1 information collection uses a self-administered reporting template to assess surveillance activities conducted by recipient education and health agencies funded by the CDC/DASH under Component 1 of PS18–1807 Promoting Adolescent Health through School-Based HIV/STD Prevention. This data collection will provide DASH with data to generate internal reports that will identify successful and problematic surveillance areas. In addition, the information collection will allow DASH to determine if recipient agencies are completing the required activities of the NOFO on time, as well as identifying problems in implementation. With this information, DASH can ascertain if additional technical assistance is needed to help recipients improve their surveillance implementation if necessary. The reporting template will include questions on the following topics: Youth Risk Behavior Survey completion and School Health Profiles (Profiles) completion. No personally identifiable information will be collected.

The Component 2 information collection uses a self-administered reporting template to assess HIV and STD prevention efforts conducted by local education agencies (LEA) funded by the CDC/DASH under Component 2 of PS18–1807 Promoting Adolescent Health through School-Based HIV/STD Prevention. This data collection will provide DASH with data to generate internal reports that will identify successful and problematic programmatic areas. In addition, both information collections will allow DASH to determine if recipient agencies are completing the required activities of the NOFO on time, as well as identifying problems in implementation. With this information, DASH can ascertain if additional technical assistance is needed to help recipients improve their program implementation, if necessary. In addition, the findings will allow CDC to determine the potential impact of currently recommended strategies and make changes to those recommendations. The reporting template will include sections on the following topics: sexual health education (SHE), sexual health services (SHS), safe and supportive environments (SSE), and additional activities. No personally identifiable information will be collected.

The estimated burden per response ranges from eight hours for Component 1 to 14 hours for Component 2. Recipients will complete the reporting templates every six months and the work plan templates once a year under this approval. Annualizing the collection over one year results in an estimated annualized burden of 3,320 hours for respondents. There are no costs to respondents other than their time.

Proposed Project

Heat-related Changes in Cognitive Performance (OMB Control No. 0920-1331, Exp. 3/31/2024)—Revision—National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Background and Brief Description

NIOSH, under Public Law 91-173 as amended by Public Law 95-164 (Federal Mine Safety and Health Act of 1977), and Public Law 109-236 (Mine Improvement and New Emergency Response Act of 2006) has the responsibility to conduct research to improve working conditions and to prevent accidents and occupational diseases in U.S. mines. Heat strain is one of these occupational diseases and is an increasing problem among many industries, including mining. As mines expand into deeper and hotter environments, and as heat waves occur with increasing frequency and severity, heat strain among underground and surface miners is likely to increase. Not only can heat strain lead to heat illness, but studies have demonstrated associations between heat exposure and work injuries. Although the underlying mechanism between heat exposure and injury is not known, reduced cognitive function is likely contributory.

Despite the increasing importance of heat strain in mining, few studies have focused on heat strain among U.S. miners. The few studies that are available have demonstrated that miners often exceed a core body temperature of 38 °C during work activities, which is above the recommended threshold, but more information on frequency, duration, and intensity of elevated core body temperatures is needed in order to focus future heat strain research to better serve the mining industry.

In addition to determining the patterns of duration and intensity of heat strain among U.S. miners, investigating the additional effects of heat strain beyond the risk of heat illness is an important step in improving miner health and safety. Studies have demonstrated associations between heat stress and cognitive deficits, but substantial inter- and intra-individual variability exists in the physiologic and cognitive responses to heat exposure. More information is needed about the most important factors (e.g., age, sex, chronic disease, fitness level, hydration) contributing to individual variability as well as interactions between these factors, because individual variability likely affects the usefulness of one-size-fits-all heat stress indices that are currently used in mining. Additionally, it is unclear which characteristics of core body temperature (e.g., absolute temperature thresholds vs. rising or falling temperatures vs rate of temperature change) are most associated with cognitive dysfunction. A better understanding of how individual variability and core body temperature relate to cognitive deficits would assist in developing strategies for screening and monitoring miners to mitigate or prevent heat strain. Therefore, this study aims to assess the following objectives: (1) Whether a core body temperature threshold exists at which cognitive performance begins to decline; (2) What factors most contribute to individual variability in cognitive and physiologic responses to heat; and (3) What patterns of duration and intensity of heat strain are most common among U.S. surface and underground miners.

To study these objectives, a dual-arm field and laboratory study will be conducted. The field study will be conducted at surface and underground mines. Data will be collected from miners working in warm or hot areas of participating mines. Participants will swallow temperature pills to measure core body temperature and will wear bio-harnesses to measure heart rate. Two 6-minute assessments will be taken during each shift. The assessments include questions on sleepiness and work tasks and a Psychomotor Vigilance Test (PVT) to assess vigilant attention and reaction time. An initial screening questionnaire as well as pre- and post-shift questionnaires will be used to obtain information on risk factors for heat strain and cognitive deficits. The purpose of collecting data at the field sites is to evaluate the frequency, duration, and intensity of heat strain by monitoring core body temperature and heart rate throughout two complete shifts, as well as to assess associations between core body temperature and cognitive deficits.

The laboratory study will be conducted in an environmental chamber, in which environmental conditions can be highly controlled. Data will be collected from miners, construction workers, and firefighters. These three groups were chosen because of their risk of heat exposure and their proximity to the NIOSH laboratory where the study will be conducted. Participants will perform alternating resistance and aerobic exercises followed by brief surveys to evaluate sleepiness (Karolinska Sleepiness Scale), affect (Positive and Negative Affect Schedule), and fatigue. Following these surveys, two cognitive tests (PVT and N-back, which measures vigilance, working memory, and complex tracking) will be administered. Testing will occur at room temperature and in hot conditions to compare cognitive test results between conditions. Participants will swallow temperature pills and wear bio-harnesses to enable the collection of real-time core body temperature and heart rate data. An initial health screening questionnaire as well as additional questionnaires administered prior to each test will be used to ensure that participants are able to withstand the physical demands of testing and to provide information on factors that affect individual variability to heat tolerance. Additionally, a physical examination and fingerstick blood tests will be used for health screening. The purpose of collecting data in the environmental chamber is to compare physiologic and cognitive measurements at different core body temperatures to evaluate factors contributing to individual variability in cognitive and physiologic responses to heat and to evaluate whether core body temperature thresholds exist above which cognitive deficits are observed.

We are requesting an extension for this study, because the COVID pandemic substantially delayed the ability to begin data collection. Additionally, we are requesting a Revision because of minor changes to the wording or order of questions in several data collection instruments. These questions were revised to improve flow and clarity, which will likely decrease the amount of time spent on questionnaires and decrease the interruptions required of field participants.

All data collection activities will be conducted in full compliance with the CDC regulations to maintain the privacy of data obtained on persons and to protect the rights and welfare of human subjects. Consistent with Section 301(d) of the Public Health Service Act, a Certificate of Confidentiality (CoC) applies to this research. The total estimated burden hours are 109 for the field study and 77 for the environmental chamber study. There are no costs to respondents other than their time.

Proposed Project

Emerging Infections Program (EIP) (OMB Control No. 0920–0978, Exp. 2/28/2026)—Revision—National Center for Emerging and Zoonotic Infectious Diseases (NCEZID), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Background and Brief Description

The Emerging Infections Programs (EIPs) are population-based centers of excellence established through a network of state health departments collaborating with academic institutions; local health departments; public health and clinical laboratories; infection control professionals; and healthcare providers. EIPs assist in local, state, and national efforts to prevent, control, and monitor the public health impact of infectious diseases. Activities of the EIPs fall into the following general categories: (1) active surveillance; (2) applied public health epidemiologic and laboratory activities; (3) implementation and evaluation of pilot prevention/intervention projects; and (4) flexible response to public health emergencies. Activities of the EIPs are designed to: (1) address issues that the EIP network is particularly suited to investigate; (2) maintain sufficient flexibility for emergency response and new problems as they arise; (3) develop and evaluate public health policy and treatment guidelines; (4) incorporate training as a key function; and (5) prioritize projects that lead directly to the prevention of disease.

A Revision is being submitted to make existing collection instruments clearer, consolidate forms and to add new forms. These forms will allow the EIP to better detect, identify, track changes in laboratory testing methodology, gather information about laboratory utilization in the EIP catchment area to ensure that all cases are being captured, and survey EIP staff to evaluate program quality.

CDC requests OMB approval for an estimated 42,440 annual burden hours. There is no cost to respondents other than their time.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

[60Day–24–24DD; Docket No. CDC–2024–0012]

Proposed Data Collection Submitted for Public Comment and Recommendations

AGENCY: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

ACTION: Notice with comment period.

SUMMARY: The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), as part of its continuing effort to reduce public burden and maximize the utility of government information, invites the general public and other Federal agencies the opportunity to comment on a proposed information collection, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. This notice invites comment on a proposed information collection project titled Project Confianza to Identify Medical Mistrust Drivers among Hispanic/Latino Gay, Bisexual, and Other Men Who Have Sex With Men (HLMSM). The data collection is designed to identify the root causes of medical mistrust and opportunities to implement interventions that can make HIV-related services trusted and acceptable for HLMSM to increase access to, and utilization of, HIV prevention and care services, as well as contribute toward achieving Ending the HIV Epidemic in the U.S. (EHE) goals and National HIV Strategic Plan health disparities goals.

DATES: CDC must receive written comments on or before April 29, 2024.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments, identified by Docket No. CDC–2024–0012 by either of the following methods:

Federal eRulemaking Portal:

www.regulations.gov. Follow the instructions for submitting comments.

Mail: Jeffrey M. Zirger, Information Collection Review Office, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 1600 Clifton Road NE, MS H21–8, Atlanta, Georgia 30329.

Instructions: All submissions received must include the agency name and Docket Number. CDC will post, without change, all relevant comments to www.regulations.gov. Please note: Submit all comments through the Federal eRulemaking portal (www.regulations.gov) or by U.S. mail to the address listed above.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: To request more information on the proposed project or to obtain a copy of the information collection plan and instruments, contact Jeffrey M. Zirger, Information Collection Review Office, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 1600 Clifton Road NE, MS H21–8, Atlanta, Georgia 30329; Telephone: 404–639–7118; Email: omb@cdc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA) (44 U.S.C. 3501–3520), Federal agencies must obtain approval from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for each collection of information they conduct or sponsor. In addition, the PRA also requires Federal agencies to provide a 60-day notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information, including each new proposed collection, each proposed extension of existing collection of information, and each reinstatement of previously approved information collection before submitting the collection to the OMB for approval. To comply with this requirement, we are publishing this notice of a proposed data collection as described below.

The OMB is particularly interested in comments that will help:

1. Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

2. Evaluate the accuracy of the agency’s estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

3. Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;

4. Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses; and

5. Assess information collection costs.

Proposed Project

Project Confianza to Identify Medical Mistrust Drivers among Hispanic/Latino Gay, Bisexual, and Other Men Who Have Sex With Men (HLMSM)—New—National Center for HIV, Viral Hepatitis, STD, and TB Prevention (NCHHSTP), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Background and Brief Description

Although the HIV diagnosis rate among Hispanic/Latino Americans (H/L) has decreased in the United States (from 17.6/100,000 in 2014 to 11.0/100,000 in 2019), H/L continue to be disproportionately affected by HIV. H/L account for 18.7% of the US population and in 2019 they accounted for 29% of new HIV diagnoses, the majority (85%) of which were among H/L gay, bisexual and other men who have sex with men (HLMSM). Medical mistrust (MM) is a social determinant of health associated with HIV disparities (e.g., low PrEP willingness and adherence) among HLMSM that prevents and delays access and engagement in HIV prevention and care services (e.g., PrEP, ART). To date, most MM studies in the United States have focused on Black/African American persons. The few studies that have examined MM among H/L are mostly in non-HIV fields (e.g., reproductive health and chronic diseases, such as cancer screening). The literature highlights the need for research about MM among HLMSM.

Because its root causes in this priority group are unknown, the goals of this collection are to understand pathways that lead to MM in HLMSM, and to capture variations in MM drivers among different H/L subgroups (e.g., Indigenous, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Salvadoran, Columbian). Methods used to collect data during this project include (1) In-depth interviews, focus groups, and quantitative surveys with HLMSM and (2) key informant interviews and focus groups with health care providers and H/L leaders/gatekeepers. Projects collecting information under this request should:

(1) identify the root causes of MM and opportunities to implement interventions that can make HIV-related services trusted and acceptable for HLMSM to help increase HLMSM access to, and utilization of, HIV prevention and care services; (2) contribute toward achieving Ending the HIV Epidemic in the U.S. (EHE) goals; and (3) respond to the National HIV Strategic Plan health disparities goals.

CDC awarded a research cooperative agreement to three academic institutions (Johns Hopkins University [JHU]; the University of California, San Francisco [UCSF]; and Wake Forest University [WFU]) through a Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) PS23-006. The total estimated annualized burden hours requested are 2,580. There is no cost to respondents other than their time to participate.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Administration for Children and Families

Submission for Office of Management and Budget Review; Tribal Child Support Enforcement Direct Funding Requests: (Office of Management and Budget #0970-0218)

AGENCY: Office of Child Support Services, Administration for Children and Families, United States Department of Health and Human Services.

ACTION: Request for public comments.

SUMMARY: The Office of Child Support Services (OCSS), Administration for Children and Families (ACF) is requesting to extend approval of revisions to an approved information collection the Tribal Child Support Enforcement Direct Funding Requests (Office of Management and Budget (OMB) #0970-0218). These revisions were approved under an emergency approval for 6-months and included a new requirement for Tribes or Tribal organizations to provide that charging fees and recovering costs will not be permitted.

DATES: Comments due within 30 days of publication. OMB must make a decision about the collection of information between 30 and 60 days after publication of this document in the Federal Register. Therefore, a comment is best assured of having its full effect if OMB receives it within 30 days of publication.

ADDRESSES: Written comments and recommendations for the proposed information collection should be sent within 30 days of publication of this notice to www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain. Find this particular information collection by selecting “Currently under 30-day Review-Open for Public Comments” or by using the search function. You can also obtain copies of the proposed collection of information by emailing infocollection@acf.hhs.gov. Identify all emailed requests by the title of the information collection.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Description: The final rule within 45 CFR part 309, published in the Federal Register on March 30, 2004 at 69 FR 16638, contains a regulatory reporting requirement that, in order to receive funding for a Tribal IV–D program, a Tribe or Tribal organization must submit a plan describing how the Tribe or Tribal organization meets or plans to meet the objectives of section 455(f) of the Social Security Act, including establishing paternity; establishing, modifying, and enforcing support orders; and locating noncustodial parents. The plan is required for all Tribes requesting funding; however, once a Tribe has met the requirements to operate a comprehensive program, a new plan is not required annually unless a Tribe makes changes to its title IV–D program. If a Tribe or Tribal organization intends to make any substantial or material changes, a Tribal IV–D plan amendment must be submitted for approval. Tribes and Tribal organizations must have an approved plan and submit any required plan amendments in order to receive funding to operate a Tribal IV–D program. Through an emergency approval request, OCSS included a new requirement for Tribes and Tribal organizations to provide that charging fees and recovering costs will not be permitted. This is due to the Final Rule on the Elimination of the Non-Federal Share published on February 12, 2024 (see 89 FR 9784). Tribes and Tribal organizations that charge fees and recover cost must submit a plan amendment demonstrating compliance with the proposed new requirement, in accordance with 45 CFR 309.35(d). This is a one-time submission. Only three Tribal child support programs report data on the collection of fees and recovered costs. This request is to extend approval with no changes.

Respondents: Tribes and Tribal Organizations.

Burden Estimates

The following burden estimates include new burden associated with the change in requirement, as well as existing burden under OMB #: 0970–0218.

Instrument	Total number of respondents	Total number of responses per respondent (over three years)	Burden hours per response	Total burden hours (over three years)	Annual burden hours
45 CFR 309—New Plan	10	3	480	14,400	4,800
45 CFR 309—Plan Amendment	60	* 2	105	18,900	6,300
45 CFR 309—Plan Amendment—Charging fees and recovering	3	1	3	9	3
Estimated Burden Hours and Costs	33,309	11,103

* This estimate is based on an average number of about 2 amendments submitted per year per Tribe, but that does vary annually and by Tribe.

Authority: Title IV–D of the Social Security Act; 45 CFR 309.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Drug Price Competition and Patent Term Restoration Act of 1984 (Pub. L. 98-417) and the Generic Animal Drug and Patent Term Restoration Act (Pub. L. 100-670) generally provide that a patent may be extended for a period of up to 5 years so long as the patented item (human drug or biologic product, animal drug product, medical device, food additive, or color additive) was subject to regulatory review by FDA before the item was marketed. Under these acts, a product's regulatory review period forms the basis for determining the amount of extension an applicant may receive.

A regulatory review period consists of two periods of time: a testing phase and an approval phase. For human biological products, the testing phase begins when the exemption to permit the clinical investigations of the biological product becomes effective and runs until the approval phase begins. The approval phase starts with the initial submission of an application to market the human biological product and continues until FDA grants permission to market the biological product. Although only a portion of a regulatory review period may count toward the actual amount of extension that the Director of USPTO may award (for example, half the testing phase must be subtracted as well as any time that may have occurred before the patent was issued), FDA's determination of the length of a regulatory review period for a human biological product will include all of the testing phase and approval phase as specified in 35 U.S.C. 156(g)(1)(B).

FDA has approved for marketing the human biologic product Rybrevant (amivantamab-vmjw). Rybrevant is indicated for the treatment of adult patients with locally advanced or metastatic non-small cell lung cancer with epidermal growth factor receptor exon 20 insertion mutations, as detected by an FDA-approved test, whose disease has progressed on or after platinum-based chemotherapy. Subsequent to this approval, the USPTO received a patent term restoration application for Rybrevant (U.S. Patent No. 9,593,164) from Janssen Biotech, Inc., and the USPTO requested FDA's assistance in determining this patent's eligibility for patent term restoration. In a letter dated September 21, 2022, FDA advised the USPTO that this human biological product had undergone a regulatory review period and that the approval of Rybrevant represented the first permitted commercial marketing or use of the product. Thereafter, the USPTO requested that FDA determine the product's regulatory review period.

II. Determination of Regulatory Review Period

FDA has determined that the applicable regulatory review period for Rybrevant is 1,284 days. Of this time, 1,105 days occurred during the testing phase of the regulatory review period, while 179 days occurred during the approval phase. These periods of time were derived from the following dates:

1. The date an exemption under section 505(i) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 355(i)) became effective: November 16, 2017. The applicant claims November 19, 2017, as the date the investigational new drug application (IND) became effective. However, FDA records indicate that the IND effective date was November 16, 2017, which was the first date after receipt of the IND that the investigational studies were allowed to proceed.

2. The date the application was initially submitted with respect to the human biological product under section 351 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 262): November 24, 2020. FDA has verified the applicant's claim that the biologics license application (BLA) for Rybrevant (BLA B761210) was initially submitted on November 24, 2020.

3. The date the application was approved: May 21, 2021. FDA has verified the applicant's claim that BLA B761210 was approved on May 21, 2021.

This determination of the regulatory review period establishes the maximum potential length of a patent extension. However, the USPTO applies several statutory limitations in its calculations of the actual period for patent extension. In its application for patent extension, this applicant seeks 546 days of patent term extension.

III. Petitions

Anyone with knowledge that any of the dates as published are incorrect may submit either electronic or written comments and, under 21 CFR 60.24, ask for a redetermination (see DATES). Furthermore, as specified in § 60.30 (21 CFR 60.30), any interested person may petition FDA for a determination regarding whether the applicant for extension acted with due diligence during the regulatory review period. To meet its burden, the petition must comply with all the requirements of § 60.30, including but not limited to: must be timely (see DATES), must be filed in accordance with § 10.20, must contain sufficient facts to merit an FDA investigation, and must certify that a true and complete copy of the petition has been served upon the patent applicant. (See H. Rept. 857, part 1, 98th Cong., 2d sess., pp. 41–42, 1984.) Petitions should be in the format specified in 21 CFR 10.30.

Submit petitions electronically to <https://www.regulations.gov> at Docket No. FDA–2013–S–0610. Submit written petitions (two copies are required) to the Dockets Management Staff (HFA–305), Food and Drug Administration, 5630 Fishers Lane, Rm. 1061, Rockville, MD 20852.

Dated: February 22, 2024.

Lauren K. Roth,

Associate Commissioner for Policy.

Information Collection Request Title: Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program Core Medical Services Waiver Form, OMB No. 0915–0065—Revision

Abstract: In accordance with sections 2604(c), 2612(b), and 2651(c) of the Public Health Service Act, recipients are required to spend not less than 75 percent of funds on core medical services for individuals with HIV identified and eligible under the statute, after reserving permissible amounts for administrative and clinical quality management (CQM) costs. The statute also grants the Secretary of Health and Human Services authority to waive this requirement for a Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program (RWHAP) Part A, B, or C recipient if certain requirements are met, and a waiver request is submitted to HRSA for approval.

As currently implemented by HRSA, to be approved, (1) core medical services must be available and accessible to all individuals identified and eligible for the RWHAP in the recipient's service area within 30 days. This access must be without regard to payer source, and without the need to spend at least 75 percent of funds remaining from the recipient's RWHAP award after statutorily permissible amounts for administrative and CQM costs are reserved; (2) the recipient must ensure there are no AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP) waiting lists in their service area; and (3) a public process to obtain input on the waiver request must have occurred. This process must seek input from impacted communities including clients and RWHAP-funded core medical services providers on the availability of core medical services, and the decision to request the waiver. The public process may be a part of the same one used by recipients to seek input on community needs as part of the annual priority setting and resource allocation, comprehensive planning, statewide coordinated statement of need, public planning, and/or needs assessment processes. RWHAP Parts A, B, and C core medical services waiver requests must include funds awarded under the Minority AIDS Initiative. Core medical services waivers are effective for a 1-year period.

The process for RWHAP Parts A, B, and C grant recipients to request a waiver of the minimum expenditure amount requirements for core medical services is outlined in Policy Notice 21–01, Waiver of the Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program Core Medical Services Expenditure Requirement.

HRSA proposes to modify the one-page form to include the proposed percentages of HIV service dollars allocated to core medical and support services. Under the proposed changes, a field will be added to the form to capture the proposed percentages. This information will inform HRSA whether recipients are able to meet the statutory requirements in sections 2604(c), 2612(b), and 2651(c) of the Public Health Service Act and will clarify what proposed portion of funds will be allocated to core medical and support services. Minor changes will also be made to the form to increase readability.

Summary of Proposed Changes: Sections 2604(c), 2612(b), and 2651(c) of the Public Health Service Act requires recipients to spend not less than 75 percent of funds on core medical services after reserving statutorily permissible amounts for administrative and CQM costs. However, on the prior version of the form, the portion of HIV service dollars to be allocated to core medical and support services was sometimes unclear. The suggested change adds a requirement to include the proposed percentages of HIV service dollars allocated to core medical and support services on the form. The table on the prior form is expanded to allow for the insertion of the proposed percentages for core medical and support services. Instructions at the top of the new form are updated to indicate where to insert the proposed percentages. Language within the table is also updated to increase readability.

The proposed changes do not modify the underlying requirements necessary to obtain a waiver: all core medical services are available and accessible within 30 days in the jurisdiction or service area; ensuring that the state ADAP has no waiting lists; and that the recipient has used a public process to determine the need for a waiver. Recipients may still need to provide supportive evidence to HRSA upon request.

Need and Proposed Use of the Information: HRSA uses the documentation submitted in core medical services waiver requests to determine if the RWHAP Parts A, B, and C grant applicant or recipient meets the statutory requirements for waiver eligibility including: (1) no waiting lists for ADAP services; and (2) evidence of core medical services availability within the grant recipient’s jurisdiction, state, or service area to all persons with HIV identified and eligible under Title XXVI of the Public Health Service Act.¹

Likely Respondents: HRSA expects responses from RWHAP Parts A, B, and C grant applicants and recipients. The number of grant recipients requesting waivers has fluctuated annually and ranged up to 23 per year since its implementation in fiscal year 2007. In light of recent trends, HRSA anticipates receiving possibly up to 23 applications in a given year.

Burden Statement: Burden in this context means the time expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, disclose, or provide the information requested. This includes the time needed to review instructions; to develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purpose of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; to train personnel and to be able to respond to a collection of information; to search data sources; to complete and review the collection of information; and to transmit or otherwise disclose the information. The total annual burden hours estimated for this ICR are summarized in the table below.

Total Estimated Annualized Burden Hours:

Form name	Number of respondents	Number of responses per respondent	Total responses	Average burden per response (in hours)	Total burden hours
RWHAP Core Medical Services Waiver Request Attestation Form	23	1	23	0.49	11.27
Total	23	1	23	0.49	11.27

HRSA specifically requests comments on (1) the necessity and utility of the proposed information collection for the proper performance of the agency’s functions, (2) the accuracy of the estimated burden, (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected, and (4) the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology to minimize the information collection burden.

Director, Executive Secretariat.

BILLING CODE 9110-9P-P

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

[Docket No. FR-6338-N-02]

Notice of Expansion and Proposed Restructuring of the Digital Opportunity Demonstration ProgramAGENCY: Office of Public and Indian Housing, HUD.ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: On October 17, 2023, HUD issued a Notice of Expansion and Proposed Restructuring of the Digital Demonstration Program (ConnectHomeUSA). ConnectHomeUSA is designed to further the collaborative efforts by HUD-assisted housing organizations, government, industry, and nonprofit organizations to accelerate broadband internet adoption and use in HUD-assisted homes. This Notice extends eligible applicants to now include Continuum of Care Program and Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS Program grantees. This Notice also extends the application deadline for all applicants.

DATES: Applications are due April 12, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dina Lehmann-Kim, Program Manager, Public and Indian Housing, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 7th Street SW, Room 4130, Washington, DC 20024; telephone number 202-402-2430; email: Dina.Lehmann-Kim@hud.gov. HUD welcomes and is prepared to receive calls from individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing, as well as individuals with speech or communication disabilities. To learn more about how to make an accessible telephone call, please visit <https://www.fcc.gov/consumers/guides/telecommunications-relay-service-trs>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:I. Notice

This Notice further expands eligibility of CHUSA to Continuum of Care (CoC) and Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA) grantees. Under the prior Notice, only Public Housing Authorities, Tribes, and Multifamily owners/operators were eligible to apply (88 FR 55693, October 17, 2023). HUD is committed to advancing digital opportunities in HUD-assisted communities by expanding its ConnectHomeUSA (CHUSA) initiative to between 50 and 100 new communities as Tier 1 CHUSA communities.

HUD's goal is to identify new communities from urban, rural, and Tribal locations with both small and large populations that have the capacity to effectively narrow the digital divide, including expanding programs and capabilities over time. HUD seeks communities where state, local or Tribal leadership has already taken steps to support the goals of CHUSA, as measured by both the community's participation in other complementary Federal initiatives such as the Affordable Connectivity Program¹ which enhance internet access in communities and/or by local broadband plans and strategies for implementation. HUD seeks to partner with new communities, as well as existing CHUSA communities that wish to continue their work, and provide technical assistance to these communities to identify financial, in-kind and other resources to accomplish the goals of CHUSA. In this vein, HUD encourages applicants to familiarize themselves with other Federal programs that are funding broadband, such as the Broadband Equity, Access and Deployment grant ($42.45 billion) and the Digital Equity Act grant program ($2.75 billion) by going to this comprehensive website: www.internetforall.gov.

Through this Notice, HUD is expanding eligible applicants to include CoC and HOPWA grantees. Grantees of these programs, especially those using assistance tied to a particular housing site, such as project-based rental assistance, may benefit from the technical assistance and structure of CHUSA to begin designing digital inclusion programs that will support residents connecting to free or low-cost internet, provide internet accessible devices, provide education to help maintain housing, strengthen health and well-being, and build self-sufficiency.

The number of communities served by CHUSA will depend on the number of communities that commit to narrowing the digital divide and that meet the criteria outlined in the prior Notice (88 FR 71586). Applicants should review Appendix A in the prior Notice which outlines: the Restructuring of CHUSA into a tiered model; the goals of CHUSA; HUD support and recognition of sites' achievements; application requirements; and participation requirements of selected communities. CoC and HOPWA grantees interested in applying to join CHUSA, must submit a Letter of Intent to join as a Tier 1 CHUSA community. To be considered eligible, the Letter of Intent must thoroughly address the Required Levels of Engagement for Tier 1 as outlined in the prior Notice.

There is no Congressional funding for CHUSA; the program implementation is contingent upon HUD resources such as staffing and technical assistance. As this expansion proceeds, HUD will continue to assess community interest and the availability of HUD staffing resources to support participation by additional communities. HUD will also assess the effectiveness of the selection criteria within the three tiers on an ongoing basis. Such assessment may expand the number of participating communities, revise the selection criteria, or both to reflect HUD's experience in implementing CHUSA.

II. Support for Applicants

A webinar explaining the application process can be viewed at <https://www.hudexchange.info/trainings/courses/steps-for-applying-to-join-the-connecthomeusa-expansion/>. A Frequently Asked Questions document and other guidance is also available on HUD's ConnectHomeUSA at <https://hud.gov/connecthomeusa>. If applicants have additional questions, the HUD CHUSA team is available to assist. Questions can be addressed to: ConnectHome@hud.gov.

Agency Information Collection Activities; Submission to the Office of Management and Budget; Online Program Management System for Carbon Dioxide-Carp

AGENCY: Fish and Wildlife Service, Interior.ACTION: Notice of information collection; request for comment.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, we, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (Service), are proposing to renew an information collection, without change.

DATES: Interested persons are invited to submit comments on or before March 28, 2024.

ADDRESSES: Written comments and recommendations for the proposed information collection should be submitted within 30 days of publication of this notice at <https://www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain>. Find this particular information collection by selecting “Currently under Review—Open for Public Comments” or by using the search function. Please provide a copy of your comments to the Service Information Collection Clearance Officer, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, MS: PRB (JAO/3W), 5275 Leesburg Pike, Falls Church, VA 22041–3803 (mail); or by email to Info_Coll@fws.gov. Please reference “1018–0182” in the subject line of your comments.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Madonna Baucum, Service Information Collection Clearance Officer, by email at Info_Coll@fws.gov, or by telephone at (703) 358–2503. Individuals in the United States who are deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability may dial 711 (TTY, TDD, or TeleBraille) to access telecommunications relay services. Individuals outside the United States should use the relay services offered within their country to make international calls to the point-of-contact in the United States.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) and 5 CFR 1320.8(d)(1), we provide the general public and other Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on new, proposed, revised, and continuing collections of information. This helps us assess the impact of our information collection requirements and minimize the public’s reporting burden. It also helps the public understand our information collection requirements and provide the requested data in the desired format.

On October 30, 2023, we published in the Federal Register (88 FR 74204) a notice of our intent to request that OMB approve this information collection. In that notice, we solicited comments for 60 days, ending on December 29, 2023. We also published the Federal Register notice on Regulations.gov (Docket No. FWS–R3–FAC–2023–0204). We received two comments in response to that notice. However, neither comment addressed the information collections. Therefore, no response is required.

As part of our continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burdens, we are again soliciting comments from the public and other Federal agencies on the proposed information collection request that is described below.

We are especially interested in public comment addressing the following:

- (1) Whether or not the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether or not the information will have practical utility;
- (2) The accuracy of our estimate of the burden for this collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- (3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- (4) How might the agency minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of response.

Comments that you submit in response to this notice are a matter of public record. Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Abstract: The Lacey Act (Act, 18 U.S.C. 42) prohibits the importation of any animal deemed to be and prescribed by regulation to be injurious to:

- Human beings;
- The interests of agriculture, horticulture, and forestry; or
- Wildlife or the wildlife resources of the United States.

Implementation and enforcement of the Act is the responsibility of the Department of the Interior. The Service, in concert with our diverse partners, works to conserve, restore, and maintain the nation’s fishery resources and aquatic ecosystems for the benefit of the American people, to include managing and controlling four invasive species of carp—bighead, black, grass, and silver—native to Asia. Under the authority of the Act, the Service listed bighead, black, and silver carp species as injurious wildlife to protect humans, native wildlife, and wildlife resources from the purposeful or accidental introduction of invasive carp into the nation’s aquatic ecosystems.

The Service takes part in a broad, partner-driven approach to strategically control the movement of invasive carp. The spread of these invasive species in the nation’s river systems threatens the conservation efforts conducted by our agency, our State partners, and other stakeholders, to promote self-sustaining aquatic resources and healthy aquatic ecosystems. In addition to widespread and longstanding ecological consequences, aquatic invasive species often result in significant economic losses and cost our nation’s economy billions of dollars per year.

To effectively carry out our responsibilities under the Act and protect the aquatic resources of the United States, the Service, in collaboration with the U.S. Geological Survey, proposes to administer applications of Carbon Dioxide-Carp by registered management partners (applicators) and to collect information regarding the usage of Carbon Dioxide-Carp, an Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) registered product #6704–95, to control invasive carp. Carbon Dioxide-Carp is approved for use only by the Service, U.S. Geological Survey, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, State natural resource managers, or persons under their direct supervision.

The Service will use the information collected to document the label requests, maintain inventory, and document application results of Carbon Dioxide-Carp as an EPA registered product. The Service proposes to collect information from applicators using the following five forms:

- Form 3–2130: Report on Receipt of Label—Applicators must apply for a label to attach to a treatment container of Carbon Dioxide-Carp prior to being able to legally apply it as an invasive carp deterrent or as an under-ice lethal control for aquatic nuisance species. This form collects the following information:

- Applicant’s information, to include address, date of birth, contact number(s), email address, and relevant business information (if application is on behalf of a business, corporation, public agency, Tribe, or institution);
- Date of label receipt;
- Site of application, to include GPS location, approximate number of surface acres, and date of application;
- Label number; and
- Name and address of applicator.

• Form 3–2163: Inventory Form for Use with Carbon Dioxide-Carp—Registered applicators must maintain an accurate inventory of Carbon Dioxide-Carp for the duration of possession of the product label. This form collects the following information:

- Applicant’s information, to include address, date of birth, contact number(s), email address, and relevant business information (if application is on behalf of a business, corporation, public agency, Tribe, or institution);
- Date of application;
- Amount of Carbon Dioxide-Carp applied (pounds);
- Label number;
- Label return date;
- Any adverse incident; and
- Name of applicator and affiliation.

• Form 3–2164: Worksheet for Field Application Locations—Applicators must complete Form 3–2164 for each application of Carbon Dioxide-Carp before the actual application. This form collects the following information:

- Applicant’s information, to include address, date of birth, contact number(s), email address, and relevant business information (if application is on behalf of a business, corporation, public agency, Tribe, or institution);
- Site information, to include the name and address of the location; applicator name, address, telephone number, and email address; and the applicator’s certification number; and
- Carbon Dioxide-Carp use information, to include estimated pounds of Carbon Dioxide-Carp needed, estimated dates of use, purpose, and a list of obtained permits.

• Form 3–2191: Results Report Form—Investigator must submit application results to the Service to document efficacy of the treatment and any possible adverse effects, as this data is required by the EPA to maintain product registration. This form collects the following information:

- Applicant’s information, to include address, date of birth, contact number(s), email address, and relevant business information (if application is on behalf of a business, corporation, public agency, Tribe, or institution);
- Site information (to include GPS coordinates and city/county/state) and reporting individual; and
- Application information, to include total amount of Carbon Dioxide-Carp used (pounds), application date(s), adverse incident information (to include date reported to the U.S. Geological Survey), applicator name and label number, National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System Permit number, and other required permits and permit numbers.

• Form 3–2541: 6(a)(2) Adverse Incident Report—Investigator must submit application adverse results to the Service to document any irregularities in the application circumstances or adverse effects on non-target organisms. This form collects the following information:

- Administrative data, to include reporting and contact individual (if different), address and phone number, incident status, location and date of incident, when registrant became aware of incident, and whether incident was part of a larger study;
- Pesticide data, to include whether exposure was to concentrate prior to dilution;
- Incident circumstances, to include whether there is evidence that label directions were not followed, whether applicator is a certified pest control operator, type of exposure, incident site, situation, and brief description of habitat and incident circumstances; and
- Information involving fish, wildlife, plants, or other non-target organisms; species; symptoms or adverse effects; magnitude of the effects; and any explanatory or qualifying information surrounding the incident.

ePermits Initiative

We are exploring the feasibility of using the Service’s new “ePermits” initiative, an automated permit application system that will allow the agency to move towards a streamlined permitting process to reduce public burden. The ePermits platform would automate the five forms associated with this proposed information collection. Public burden reduction is a priority for the Service, the Assistant Secretary for Fish and Wildlife and Parks, and senior leadership at the Department of the Interior. The intent of the ePermits initiative is to fully automate the permitting and reporting process to improve the customer experience and to reduce time burden on respondents. This system enhances the user experience by allowing users to enter data from any device that has internet access, including personal computers, tablets, and smartphones. It will also link the permit applicant to the Pay.gov system for payment of any associated fees.

Invasive Species Advisory Committee; Request for Nominations

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of the Interior, on behalf of the interdepartmental National Invasive Species Council (NISC), proposes to appoint new members to the Invasive Species Advisory Committee (ISAC). The Secretary of the Interior, acting as administrative lead, is requesting nominations for qualified persons to serve as members of the ISAC.

DATES: Nominations must be postmarked by April 29, 2024.

ADDRESSES: Electronic nominations packages are preferred and should be sent to invasive_species@ios.doi.gov. As necessary, hard copy nominations can be sent to Stanley W. Burgiel, Executive Director, National Invasive Species Council (OS/NISC), Regular/Express Mail: 1849 C Street NW, (Mailstop 3530), Washington, DC 20240.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Kelsey Brantley, NISC Operations Director, at (202) 208–4122, or by email at Kelsey_Brantley@ios.doi.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Advisory Committee Scope and Objectives:

Executive Order (E.O.) 13112 authorized the National Invasive Species Council (NISC) to provide interdepartmental coordination, planning, and leadership for the Federal Government on the prevention, eradication, and control of invasive species. This authorization was reiterated in E.O. 13751. NISC is currently comprised of the senior-most leadership of thirteen Federal Departments/Agencies and three Executive Offices of the President. The Co-chairs of NISC are the Secretaries of the Interior, Agriculture, and Commerce. The Invasive Species Advisory Committee (ISAC) advises NISC. NISC is requesting nominations for individuals to serve on the ISAC.

NISC provides high-level interdepartmental coordination of Federal invasive species actions and works with other Federal and non-Federal groups to address invasive species issues at the national level. NISC duties, consistent with E.O. 13751, are to provide national leadership necessary to coordinate, sustain and expand efforts to safeguard the interest of the United States through the prevention, eradication and control of invasive species through the restoration of ecosystems and other assets impacted by invasive species. These duties and work priorities are further identified and outlined in NISC's annual Work Plans.

The Invasive Species Advisory Committee (ISAC) advises NISC. ISAC is chartered under the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA; 5 U.S.C. ch. 10).

At the request of NISC, ISAC provides advice to NISC members on topics related to NISC's duties as described above, and emerging issues prioritized by the Administration. As a multi-stakeholder advisory committee, ISAC is intended to play a key role in recommending plans and actions to be taken in different sectors, geographies, and/or scales to accomplish the activities set forth in NISC Work Plans. It is hoped that, collectively, ISAC will represent the views of the broad range of individuals and communities knowledgeable of and affected by invasive species. NISC is requesting nominations for individuals to serve on the ISAC.

Membership Criteria:

Prospective members of ISAC should meet the following criteria:

1. knowledge related to the prevention, eradication, and/or control of invasive species;
2. familiarity with relevant Federal government programs and policy making procedures, as well as their interface with non-Federal entities;
3. experience in advising individuals in leadership positions;
4. demonstrated ability to network with and/or represent interests of their peer-community of interest; and
5. teamwork, project management, and communication skills.

ISAC members need not be scientists. Membership from a wide range of disciplines and professional sectors is encouraged. At this time, we are particularly interested in applications from representatives of: Non-Federal government agencies (e.g., State, Territorial, Tribal, local); academia, research institutions, and scientific societies; the private sector and industry/trade associations; landowners, farmers, ranchers, foresters and other resource users; public health specialists; regional organizations and citizen scientists, recreationists, and other public interest groups. Additionally, ISAC will include one representative from each of the following organizations, serving in a non-voting, "adviser" capacity: The Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies (AFWA); the National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD); the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture (NASDA); the National Plant Board (NPB); The Native American Fish and Wildlife Society (NAFWS); and the North American Invasive Species Management Association (NAISMA).

After consultation with the other members of NISC, the Secretary of the Interior will appoint members to ISAC. Members will be selected based on their individual qualifications as detailed in their nomination package, as well as the overall need to achieve a balanced representation of viewpoints, subject matter expertise, regional knowledge, and representation of communities of interest. ISAC member terms are limited to two (2) years from their date of appointment to ISAC. Following completion of their first term, an ISAC member may request consideration for reappointment (see How to Nominate section below); however, reappointment is NOT guaranteed.

ISAC will hold approximately one or two in-person or virtual meetings per year. Between meetings, ISAC members are expected to participate in committee work via web-based meetings, teleconferences, and email exchanges. Members of the ISAC and its subcommittees serve without pay. However, while away from their homes or regular places of business in the performance of services of the ISAC, members may be reimbursed for travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, in the same manner as persons employed intermittently in the government service, as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 5703. Employees of the Federal Government ARE NOT eligible for nomination or appointment to ISAC.

Individuals who are federally registered lobbyists are ineligible to serve on all FACA and non-FACA boards, committees, or councils in an individual capacity. The term "individual capacity" refers to individuals who are appointed to exercise their own individual best judgment on behalf of the government, such as when they are designated Special Government Employees, rather than being appointed to represent a particular interest.

As appropriate, certain ISAC members may be appointed as special Government employees (SGEs). Please be aware that applicants selected to serve as SGEs will be required, prior to appointment, to file a Confidential Financial Disclosure Report, to avoid involvement in real or apparent conflicts of interest. Applicants can access a copy of the Confidential Financial Disclosure Report at: https://www.oge.gov/Web/OGEnsf/0/2026049D943E0C34852585B6005A23CE/\$FILE/OGForm%20Form%20450%20Sep%202023%20accessible.pdf?open.

Additionally, after appointment, members appointed as SGEs will be required to meet applicable financial disclosure and ethics training requirements. Please contact (202) 208-7960 or DOI_Ethics@sol.doi.gov with any questions about the ethics requirements for members appointed as SGEs.

How to Nominate:

Nomination packets should include a resume that provides an adequate description of the nominee's qualifications, which specifically relate to the criteria stated in this notice (see Membership Criteria section, para. 1). Included content should enable the Department of the Interior to evaluate the nominee's potential to meet the membership requirements of the Committee. To enable the Department of the Interior to contact a potential member, all nomination packets must include, at a minimum, the nominee's name and a valid email address. Nominees are strongly encouraged to include supporting letters from employers, associations, professional organizations, and/or other organizations that indicate support for the nominee by a meaningful constituency. Nomination packets should be no more than twelve pages.

In addition to submitting the nomination packet as described, current ISAC members seeking reappointment must also provide details of their accomplishments and contributions which support their selection for a second term. Again, reappointment is NOT guaranteed.

All nominations must designate which stakeholder group or community the nominee will represent (see Membership Criteria above, for stakeholder groups and required qualifications). All required documents and any letters of support must be submitted in a SINGLE nomination package. Incomplete packages, packages missing the nominee's contact information, or those with documents submitted separately WILL NOT be considered.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The CPS has been the principal source of official Government statistics on employment and unemployment since 1940 (75 years). Collection of labor force data through the CPS is necessary to meet the requirements in Title 29, United States Code, Sections 1 and 2. The Veterans Supplement provides information on the labor force status of veterans with a service-connected disability, combat veterans, past or present National Guard and Reserve members, and recently discharged veterans. Afghanistan, Iraq, and Vietnam veterans are identified by location of service. Also, questions include items about veterans’ transition from Active Duty to civilian employment, details about working with service-connected disabilities, awareness of VA benefits, and work duties while in the Armed Forces. Data are provided by period of service and a range of demographic characteristics. The supplement also provides information on veterans’ participation in various transition and employment and training programs. The data collected through this supplement will be used by the U.S. Department of Labor’s Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS) and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to determine policies that better meet the needs of our Nation’s veteran population.

II. Current Action

Office of Management and Budget clearance is being sought for the Veterans Supplement to the CPS.

An extension without change of a currently approved collection is needed to continue to provide the Nation with timely information about the labor force status of veterans with a service-connected disability, combat veterans, past or present National Guard and Reserve members, recently discharged veterans, and veterans who have served in Afghanistan, Iraq, or Vietnam. In addition, the Veterans Supplement will provide information to assist VA and VETS to develop programs and policies that smooth veterans' transition into civilian employment, including for veterans with service-connected disabilities.

III. Desired Focus of Comments

The Bureau of Labor Statistics is particularly interested in comments that:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility.
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used.
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected.
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

Title of Collection: Veterans Supplement to the CPS.

OMB Number: 1220-0102.

Type of Review: Extension.

Affected Public: Households and individuals.

Total Respondents: 5,500.

Frequency: Annually.

Total Responses: 5,500.

Average Time per Response: 4.25 minutes.

Estimated Total Burden Hours: 390 hours.

Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and/or included in the request for Office of Management and Budget approval of the information collection request; they also will become a matter of public record.

Signed at Washington, DC, on February 20, 2024.

OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET

Office of Federal Procurement Policy

Cost Accounting Standards Board Meeting Agenda

AGENCY: Cost Accounting Standards Board, Office Federal Procurement Policy, Office of Management and Budget.

ACTION: Notice of agenda for Closed Cost Accounting Standards Board meetings.

SUMMARY: The Office of Federal Procurement Policy (OFPP), Cost Accounting Standards Board (CAS Board) is publishing this notice to advise the public of its recent and upcoming meetings. The meetings are closed to the public.

ADDRESSES: New Executive Office Building, 725 17th Street NW, Washington, DC 20503.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John L. McClung, Manager, Cost Accounting Standards Board (telephone: 202-881-9758; email: john.l.mcclung2@omb.eop.gov).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The CAS Board is issuing this notice to inform the public of the discussion topics for recent meetings held on January 17, 2024 and February 20, 2024, and for a meeting scheduled March 11, 2024. The list of agenda items for these meetings is set forth below. While CAS Board meetings are closed to the public, the Board welcomes comments and inquiries, which may be directed to the manager using the contact information provided above. The Board is interested in specific comments on the prioritization of cases on the open docket and on any additional issues that the Board should consider.

Agenda for CAS Board Meetings During the Second Quarter, Fiscal Year 2024

1. Conformance of CAS to Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). 41 U.S.C. 1501(c)(2) requires the CAS Board to review and conform CAS, where practicable, to GAAP. In furtherance of section 1501(c)(2), the CAS Board will consider the following: (1) issuance of a Notice of Proposed Rule Making addressing the impact of GAAP changes to operating revenue and lease accounting based on the public comments received in response to the Advanced Notice of Proposed Rule Making (ANPRM) (85 FR 70572, November 5, 2020); (2) issuance of an ANPRM addressing conformance of CAS 408, Accounting for costs of compensated personal absence, and CAS 409, Cost accounting standard depreciation of tangible capital assets, to GAAP based on public comments received in response to the Staff Discussion Paper (84 FR 9143, March 2019); (3) whether and what type of accounting change conformance of CAS to GAAP might trigger and the associated implications.

2. Application of CAS to Indefinite Delivery Vehicle (IDVs) contracts. The Board will discuss a draft notice seeking public comment on application of CAS monetary thresholds to IDV contracts.

3. Pension Harmonization for Extraordinary Events. The Board will discuss an ANPRM to modify CAS 412 and CAS 413. The ANPRM would be a follow-on to a rulemaking issued in 2011 required by the Pension Protection Act (PPA) of 2006. The purpose of the ANPRM is to reconcile the application of the PPA and the CAS adjustment of pension costs for extraordinary events (i.e., curtailment of pension plan benefits, termination of plans, and the accounting of pension plan assets or liabilities following the sale or closing of a corporate segment).

4. Waivers. Section 820 of the National Defense Authorization Act for FY 2017, amended section 1502(b)(3)(A) of title 41 of the United States Code to raise the threshold under which CAS may be waived if the business unit of the contractor or subcontractor that will perform the work is primarily engaged in the sale of commercial items and would not otherwise be subject to CAS. Section 820 raised the threshold from $15 million to $100 million. The Board will discuss a rulemaking to amend the CAS to reflect this statutory threshold change.

5. Public input. The Board will reserve time to discuss suggestions received from the public in response to this notice.

The notice is published pursuant to 41 U.S.C. 1501(d), which requires the CAS Board to publish agendas of its meetings in the Federal Register.

Christine J. Harada,

Senior Advisor, Office of Federal Procurement Policy, and Chair, Cost Accounting Standards Board, Performing, by Delegation, the Duties of the Administrator for Federal Procurement Policy.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

These records are stored online within the Passport backend management system, Operator Management or "OpsMan". All functions and features are password protected. The physical security of the Passport Inc. data center is managed by Amazon AWS data centers and physical access to the Passport office is restricted using employee ID badges.

Passport has a completely separate cardholder data environment that is subject to PCI compliance were all credit card data is processed and stored. Credit card numbers are encrypted with AES-256 with a rotating encryption key. All information is stored in an isolated card storage database per best practices. POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

The Passport records system may only be accessed by the Presidio Trust's Transportation and the parking enforcement. Each individual staff member receives a unique account. The login requires a multi-factor authentication.

The Passport system keeps an audit trail of all actions within. This records the action performed, date, and user. The system will also record reports run, searches performed (With search parameters) from a CSR perspective as well. Passport gives the Presidio Trust full discretion as to how to manage its system and can limit access by the individual user or their role within the Presidio Trust's administration.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS:

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Order Regarding Review of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Support Fee for 2024 Under Section 109 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 ("SOX" or the "Act") provides that the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") may recognize, as generally accepted for purposes of the securities laws, any accounting principles established by a standard-setting body that meets certain criteria.¹ Section 109 of SOX provides that all of the budget of such a standard-setting body shall be payable from an annual accounting support fee assessed and collected against each issuer, as may be necessary or appropriate to pay for the budget and provide for the expenses of the standard-setting body, and to provide for an independent, stable source of funding, subject to review by the Commission. Under Section 109(f) of the Act, the amount of fees collected for a fiscal year shall not exceed the "recoverable budget expenses" of the standard-setting body. Section 109(i) of SOX amends Section 13(b)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to require issuers to pay the allocable share of a reasonable annual accounting support fee or fees, determined in accordance with Section 109 of the Act.

On April 25, 2003, the Commission issued a policy statement concluding that the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") and its parent organization, the Financial Accounting Foundation ("FAF"), satisfied the criteria for an accounting standard-setting body under the Act, and recognizing the FASB's financial accounting and reporting standards as "generally accepted" under Section 108 of the Act.² Accordingly, the Commission undertook a review of the FASB's accounting support fee for calendar year 2024.³ In connection with its review, the Commission also reviewed the budget for the FAF and the FASB for calendar year 2024.

Section 109 of SOX provides that, in addition to the accounting support fee, the standard-setting body can have additional sources of revenue for its activities, such as earnings from sales of publications, provided that each additional source of revenue shall not jeopardize, in the judgment of the Commission, the actual or perceived independence of the standard setter. In this regard, the Commission also considered the interrelation of the operating budgets of the FAF, the FASB, and the Governmental Accounting Standards Board ("GASB"), the FASB's sister organization, which sets accounting standards used by state and local government entities. The Commission has been advised by the FAF that neither the FAF, the FASB, nor the GASB accept contributions from the accounting profession.

The Commission understands that the Office of Management and Budget ("OMB") has determined the FASB's spending of the 2024 accounting support fee is sequestrable under the Budget Control Act of 2011.⁴ So long as sequestration is applicable, we anticipate that the FAF will work with the Commission and Commission staff as appropriate regarding its implementation of sequestration.

After its review, the Commission determined that the 2024 annual accounting support fee for the FASB is consistent with Section 109 of the Act. Accordingly,

It is ordered, pursuant to Section 109 of SOX, that the FASB may act in accordance with this determination of the Commission.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[Release No. 34-99570; File No. SR-CboeBZX-2024-017]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Cboe BZX Exchange, Inc.; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of a Proposed Rule Change To Amend Its Fees Schedule Related to Physical Port Fees

February 21, 2024.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on February 9, 2024, Cboe BZX Exchange, Inc. (the “Exchange” or “BZX”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

Cboe BZX Exchange, Inc. (the “Exchange” or “BZX Options”) proposes to amend its Fees Schedule. The text of the proposed rule change is provided in Exhibit 5.

The text of the proposed rule change is also available on the Exchange’s website (http://markets.cboe.com/us/equities/regulation/rule_filings/BZX/), at the Exchange’s Office of the Secretary, and at the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange proposes to amend its fee schedule for its equity options platform (“BZX Options”) relating to physical connectivity fees.³

By way of background, a physical port is utilized by a Member or non-Member to connect to the Exchange at the data centers where the Exchange’s servers are located. The Exchange currently assesses the following physical connectivity fees for Members and non-Members on a monthly basis: $2,500 per physical port for a 1 gigabit (“Gb”) circuit and $7,500 per physical port for a 10 Gb circuit. The Exchange proposes to increase the monthly fee for 10 Gb physical ports from $7,500 to $8,500 per port. The Exchange notes the proposed fee change better enables it to continue to maintain and improve its market technology and services and also notes that the proposed fee amount, even as amended, continues to be in line with, or even lower than, amounts assessed by other exchanges for similar connections.⁴ The physical ports may also be used to access the Systems for the following affiliate exchanges and only one monthly fee currently (and will continue) to apply per port: the Exchange’s equities platform (BZX Equities), Cboe EDGX Exchange, Inc. (options and equities platforms), Cboe BYX Exchange, Inc., Cboe EDGA Exchange, Inc., and Cboe C2 Exchange, Inc. (“Affiliate Exchanges”).⁵

³ The Exchange initially filed the proposed fee changes on July 3, 2023 (SR-CboeBZX-2023-047). On September 1, 2023, the Exchange withdrew that filing and submitted SR-CboeBZX-2023-068. On September 29, 2023, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued a Suspension of and Order Instituting Proceedings to Determine whether to Approve or Disapprove a Proposed Rule Change to Amend its Fees Schedule Related to Physical Port Fees (the “OIP”). On September 29, 2023, the Exchange filed the proposed fee change (SR-CboeBZX-2023-79). On October 13, 2023, the Exchange withdrew that filing and submitted SR-CboeBZX-2023-083. On December 12, 2023 the Exchange withdrew that filing and submitted SR-CboeBZX-2023-104. On February 9, 2024, the Exchange withdrew that filing and submitted this filing.

Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Act”) and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to the Exchange and, in particular, the requirements of Section 6(b) of the Act.⁶ Specifically, the Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5)⁷ requirements that the rules of an exchange be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in regulating, clearing, settling, processing information with respect to, and facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. Additionally, the Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5)⁸ requirement that the rules of an exchange not be designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers. The Exchange also believes the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b)(4)⁹ of the Act, which requires that Exchange rules provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among its Members and other persons using its facilities.

The Exchange believes the proposed fee change is reasonable as it reflects a moderate increase in physical connectivity fees for 10 Gb physical ports. Further, the current 10 Gb

Exchange, Nasdaq and its affiliated exchanges charge a monthly fee of $15,000 for each 10 Gb Ultra fiber connection to the respective exchange, which is analogous to the Exchange’s 10 Gb physical port. See also New York Stock Exchange LLC, NYSE American LLC, NYSE Arca, Inc., NYSE Chicago Inc., NYSE National, Inc. Connectivity Fee Schedule, which provides that 10 Gb LX LCN Circuits (which are analogous to the Exchange’s 10 Gb physical port) are assessed $22,000 per month, per port.

physical port fee has remained unchanged since June 2018.¹⁰ Since its last increase over 5 years ago however, there has been notable inflation. Particularly, the dollar has had an average inflation rate of 3.9% per year between 2018 and today, producing a cumulative price increase of approximately 21.1% inflation since the fee for the 10 Gb physical port was last modified.¹¹ Moreover, the Exchange historically does not increase fees every year, notwithstanding inflation. Accordingly, the Exchange believes the proposed fee is reasonable as it represents only an approximate 13% increase from the rates adopted five years ago, notwithstanding the cumulative rate of 21.1%. The Exchange is also unaware of any standard that suggests any fee proposal that exceeds a certain yearly or cumulative inflation rate is unreasonable, and in any event, in this instance the increase is well below the cumulative rate.

Additionally, the Exchange believes the proposed fee increase is reasonable in light of recent and anticipated connectivity-related upgrades and changes. For example, the Exchange recently performed switch hardware upgrades. Particularly, the Exchange replaced existing customer access switches with newer models, which the Exchange believes contributes to increased determinism. Additionally, effective April 1, 2024, firms will be able to connect to a new data center (i.e., Secaucus NY6 Data Center (“NY6”)), in addition the current data centers at NY4 and NY5. The Exchange is adding connectivity at NY6 in response to Customer demand and requests for additional space and capacity.

The Exchange also believes the proposed fee is reasonable as it is still in line with, or even lower than, amounts assessed by other exchanges for similar connections.¹² Indeed, the Exchange believes assessing fees that are a lower rate than fees assessed by other exchanges for analogous connectivity (which were similarly adopted via the rule filing process and filed with the Commission) is reasonable. As noted above, the proposed fee is also the same as is concurrently being proposed for its Affiliate Exchanges. Further, Members are able to utilize a single port to connect to any of the Affiliate Exchanges with no additional fee assessed for that same physical port. Particularly, the Exchange believes the proposed monthly per port fee is reasonable, equitable and not unfairly discriminatory as it is assessed only once, even if it connects with another affiliate exchange since only one port is being used and the Exchange does not wish to charge multiple fees for the same port. Indeed, the Exchange notes that several ports are in fact purchased and utilized across one or more of the Exchange’s affiliated Exchanges (and charged only once).

The Exchange also believes that the proposed fee change is not unfairly discriminatory because it would be assessed uniformly across all market participants that purchase the physical ports. The Exchange believes increasing the fee for 10 Gb physical ports and charging a higher fee as compared to the 1 Gb physical port is equitable as the 1 Gb physical port is 1/10th the size of the 10 Gb physical port and therefore does not offer access to many of the products and services offered by the Exchange (e.g., ability to receive certain market data products). Thus, the value of the 1 Gb alternative is lower than the value of the 10 Gb alternative, when measured based on the type of Exchange access it offers. Moreover, market participants that purchase 10 Gb physical ports utilize the most bandwidth and therefore consume the most resources from the network. As such, the Exchange believes the proposed fee change for 10 Gb physical ports is reasonable and appropriately allocated.

The Exchange also notes Members and non-Members will continue to choose the method of connectivity based on their specific needs and no broker-dealer is required to become a Member of, let alone connect directly to, the Exchange. There is also no regulatory requirement that any market participant connect to any one particular exchange. Moreover, direct connectivity is not a requirement to participate on the Exchange. The Exchange also believes substitutable products and services are available to market participants, including, among other things, other options exchanges that a market participant may connect to in lieu of the Exchange, indirect connectivity to the Exchange via a third-party reseller of connectivity, and/or trading of any options product, such as within the Over-the-Counter (OTC) markets which do not require connectivity to the Exchange. Indeed, there are currently 17 registered options exchanges that trade options (13 of which are not affiliated with Cboe), some of which have similar or lower connectivity fees.¹³ Based on publicly available information, no single options exchange has more than approximately 20% of the market share.¹⁴ Further, low barriers to entry mean that new exchanges may rapidly enter the market and offer additional substitute platforms to further compete with the Exchange and the products it offers. For example, there are 3 exchanges that have been added in the U.S. options markets in the last 5 years (i.e., Nasdaq MRX, LLC, MIAAX Pearl, LLC, MIAAX Emerald LLC, and most recently, MEMX LLC).

As noted above, there is no regulatory requirement that any market participant connect to any one options exchange, nor that any market participant connect at a particular connection speed or act in a particular capacity on the Exchange, or trade any particular product offered on an exchange. Moreover, membership is not a requirement to participate on the Exchange. Indeed, the Exchange is unaware of any one options exchange whose membership includes every registered broker-dealer. By way of example, while the Exchange has 61 members that trade options, Cboe EDGX has 51 members that trade options, and Cboe C2 has 52 Trading Permit Holders (“TPHs”) (i.e., members). There is also no firm that is a Member of BZX Options only. Further, based on publicly available information regarding a sample of the Exchange’s competitors, NYSE American Options has 71 members,¹⁵ and NYSE Arca Options has 69 members,¹⁶ MIAAX Options has 46 members¹⁷ and MIAAX Pearl Options has 40 members.¹⁸ connectivity is another viable alternative for market participants to trade on the Exchange without connecting directly to the Exchange (and thus not pay the Exchange connectivity fees), which alternative is already being used by non-Members and further constrains the price that the Exchange is able to charge for connectivity to its Exchange.¹⁹ The Exchange notes that it could, but chooses not to, preclude market participants from reselling its connectivity. Unlike other exchanges, the Exchange also chooses not to adopt fees that would be assessed to third-party resellers on a per customer basis (i.e., fee based on number of Members that connect to the Exchange indirectly via the third-party).²⁰ Particularly, these third-party resellers may purchase the Exchange's physical ports and resell access to such ports either alone or as part of a package of services. The Exchange notes that multiple Members are able to share a single physical port (and corresponding bandwidth) with other non-affiliated Members if purchased through a third-party reseller.²¹ This allows resellers to mutualize the costs of the ports for market participants and provide such ports at a price that may be lower than the Exchange charges due to this mutualized connectivity. These third-party sellers may also provide an additional value to market participants in addition to the physical port itself as they may also manage and monitor these connections, and clients of these third-parties may also be able to connect

A market participant may submit orders to the Exchange via a Member broker or a third-party reseller of connectivity. The Exchange notes that third-party non-Members also resell exchange connectivity. This indirect

¹⁹ Third-party resellers of connectivity play an important role in the capital markets infrastructure ecosystem. For example, third-party resellers can help unify access for customers who want exposure to multiple financial markets that are geographically dispersed by establishing connectivity to all of the different exchanges, so the customers themselves do not have to. Many of the third-party connectivity resellers also act as distribution agents for all of the market data generated by the exchanges as they can use their established connectivity to subscribe to, and redistribute, data over their networks. This may remove barriers that infrastructure requirements may otherwise pose for customers looking to access multiple markets and real-time data feeds. This facilitation of overall access to the marketplace is ultimately beneficial for the entire capital markets ecosystem, including the Exchange, on which such firms transact business.

from the same colocation facility either from their own racks or using the third-party's managed racks and infrastructure which may provide further cost-savings. The Exchange believes such third-party resellers may also use the Exchange's connectivity as an incentive for market participants to purchase further services such as hosting services. That is, even firms that wish to utilize a single, dedicated 10 Gb port (i.e., use one single 10 Gb port themselves instead of sharing a port with other firms), may still realize cost savings via a third-party reseller as it relates to a physical port because such reseller may be providing a discount on the physical port to incentivize the purchase of additional services and infrastructure support alongside the physical port offering (e.g., providing space, hosting, power, and other long-haul connectivity options). This is similar to cell phone carriers offering a new iPhone at a discount (or even at no cost) if purchased in connection with a new monthly phone plan. These services may reevaluate reselling or offering Cboe's direct connectivity if they deem the fees to be excessive. Further, as noted above, the Exchange does not receive any connectivity revenue when connectivity is resold by a third-party, which often is resold to multiple customers, some of whom are agency broker-dealers that have numerous customers of their own. For example, there are approximately 12 third parties who resell Exchange connectivity across the 7 Affiliated Exchanges, which are all accessible on the same network. These third-party resellers collectively maintain approximately 48 physical ports from the Exchange, but have collectively almost 200 unique customers downstream, connected through these multi-Exchange ports. Therefore, given the availability of third-party providers that also offer connectivity solutions, the Exchange believes participation on the Exchange remains affordable (notwithstanding the proposed fee change) for all market participants, including trading firms that may be able to take advantage of lower costs that result from mutualized connectivity and/or from other services provided alongside the physical port offerings. Because third-party resellers also act as a viable alternative to direct connectivity to the Exchange, the price that the Exchange is able to charge for direct connectivity to its Exchange is constrained. Moreover, if the Exchange were to assess supracompetitive rates, members and non-members (such as third-party resellers) alike, may decide not to purchase, or to reduce its use of, the Exchange's direct connectivity. Disincentivizing market participants from purchasing Exchange connectivity would only serve to discourage participation on the Exchange which ultimately does not benefit the Exchange. Further, the Exchange believes its offerings are more affordable as compared to similar offerings at competitor exchanges.²² Accordingly, the vigorous competition among national securities exchanges provides many alternatives for firms to voluntarily decide whether direct connectivity to the Exchange is appropriate and worthwhile, and as noted above, no broker-dealer is required to become a Member of the Exchange, let alone connect directly to it. In the event that a market participant views the Exchange's proposed fee change as more or less attractive than the competition, that market participant can choose to connect to the Exchange indirectly or may choose not to connect to that exchange and connect instead to one or more of the other 13 non-Cboe affiliated options markets. Indeed, market participants are free to choose which exchange or reseller to use to satisfy their business needs. Moreover, if the Exchange charges excessive fees, it may stand to lose not only connectivity revenues but also revenues associated with the execution of orders routed to it, and, to the extent applicable, market data revenues. The Exchange believes that this competitive dynamic imposes powerful restraints on the ability of any exchange to charge unreasonable fees for connectivity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Exchange still believes that the proposed fee increase is reasonable, equitably allocated and not unfairly discriminatory, even for market participants that determine to connect directly to the Exchange for business purposes, as those business reasons should presumably result in revenue capable of covering the proposed fee.

The Exchange lastly notes that it is not required by the Exchange Act, nor any other rule or regulation, to undertake a cost-of-service or rate-making approach with respect to fee

²² See e.g., See e.g., The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq"), General 8, Connectivity to the Exchange. Nasdaq and its affiliated exchanges charge a monthly fee of $15,000 for each 10 Gbps Ultra fiber connection to the respective exchange, which is analogous to the Exchange's 10 Gbps physical port. See also New York Stock Exchange LLC, NYSE American LLC, NYSE Arca, Inc., NYSE Chicago Inc., NYSE National, Inc. proposals. Moreover, Congress's intent in enacting the 1975 Amendments to the Act was to enable competition—rather than government order—to determine prices. The principal purpose of the amendments was to facilitate the creation of a national market system for the trading of securities. Congress intended that this “national market system evolve through the interplay of competitive forces as unnecessary regulatory restrictions are removed.”²³ Other provisions of the Act confirm that intent. For example, the Act provides that an exchange must design its rules “to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.”²⁴ Likewise, the Act grants the Commission authority to amend or repeal “[t]he rules of [an] exchange [that] impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of this chapter.”²⁵ In short, the promotion of free and open competition was a core congressional objective in creating the national market system.²⁶ Indeed, the Commission has historically interpreted that mandate to promote competitive forces to determine prices whenever compatible with a national market system. Accordingly, the Exchange believes it has met its burden to demonstrate that its proposed fee change is reasonable and consistent with the immediate filing process chosen by Congress, which created a system whereby market forces determine access fees in the vast majority of cases, subject to oversight only in particular cases of abuse or market failure. Lastly, and importantly, the Exchange believes that, even if it were possible as a matter of economic theory, cost-based pricing for the proposed fee would be so complicated that it could not be done practically.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The proposed fee change will not impact intramarket competition because it will apply to all similarly situated Members equally (i.e., all market participants that choose to purchase the 10 Gb physical port). Additionally, the Exchange does not believe its proposed pricing will impose a barrier to entry to smaller participants and notes that its proposed connectivity pricing is associated with relative usage of the various market participants. For example, market participants with modest capacity needs can continue to buy the less expensive 1 Gb physical port (which cost is not changing) or may choose to obtain access via a third-party re-seller. While pricing may be increased for the larger capacity physical ports, such options provide far more capacity and are purchased by those that consume more resources from the network. Accordingly, the proposed connectivity fees do not favor certain categories of market participants in a manner that would impose a burden on competition; rather, the allocation reflects the network resources consumed by the various size of market participants—lowest bandwidth consuming members pay the least, and highest bandwidth consuming members pays the most.

The Exchange’s proposed fee is also still lower than some fees for similar connectivity on other exchanges and therefore may stimulate intermarket competition by attracting additional firms to connect to the Exchange or at least should not deter interested participants from connecting directly to the Exchange. Further, if the changes proposed herein are unattractive to market participants, the Exchange can, and likely will, see a decline in connectivity via 10 Gb physical ports as a result. The Exchange operates in a highly competitive market in which market participants can determine whether or not to connect directly to the Exchange based on the value received compared to the cost of doing so. Indeed, market participants have numerous alternative venues that they may participate on and direct their order flow, including 13 non-Cboe affiliated options markets, as well as off-exchange venues, where competitive products are available for trading. Moreover, the Commission has repeatedly expressed its preference for competition over regulatory intervention in determining prices, products, and services in the securities markets. Specifically, in Regulation NMS, the Commission highlighted the importance of market forces in determining prices and SRO revenues and, also, recognized that current regulation of the market system “has been remarkably successful in promoting market competition in its broader forms that are most important to investors and listed companies.”²⁷ The fact that this market is competitive has also long been recognized by the courts. In NetCoalition v. Securities and Exchange Commission, the D.C. Circuit stated as follows: “[n]o one disputes that competition for order flow is ‘fierce.’ . . . As the SEC explained, ‘[i]n the U.S. national market system, buyers and sellers of securities, and the broker-dealers that act as their order-routing agents, have a wide range of choices of where to route orders for execution’; [and] ‘no exchange can afford to take its market share percentages for granted’ because ‘no exchange possesses a monopoly, regulatory or otherwise, in the execution of order flow from broker dealers’. . . .”²⁸ Accordingly, the Exchange does not believe its proposed change imposes any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

The Exchange neither solicited nor received comments on the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange proposes to amend its fee schedule relating to physical connectivity fees.³

By way of background, a physical port is utilized by a Member or non-Member to connect to the Exchange at the data centers where the Exchange's servers are located. The Exchange currently assesses the following physical connectivity fees for Trading Permit Holders ("TPHs") and non-TPHs on a monthly basis: $2,500 per physical port for a 1 gigabit ("Gbps") circuit and $7,500 per physical port for a 10 Gbps circuit. The Exchange proposes to increase the monthly fee for 10 Gbps physical ports from $7,500 to $8,500 per port. The Exchange notes the proposed fee change better enables it to continue to maintain and improve its market technology and services and also notes that the proposed fee amount, even as amended, continues to be in line with, or even lower than, amounts assessed by other exchanges for similar connections.⁴ The physical ports may also be used to access the Systems for the following affiliate exchanges and only one monthly fee currently (and will continue) to apply per port: Cboe BZX Exchange, Inc. (options and equities platforms), Cboe EDGX Exchange, Inc. (options and equities platforms), Cboe BYX Exchange, Inc., and Cboe EDGA Exchange, Inc. ("Affiliate Exchanges").⁵

⁴ See e.g., The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq"), General 8, Connectivity to the Exchange. Nasdaq and its affiliated exchanges charge a monthly fee of $15,000 for each 10 Gbps Ultra fiber connection to the respective exchange, which is analogous to the Exchange's 10 Gbps

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act") and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to the Exchange and, in particular, the requirements of Section 6(b) of the Act.⁶ Specifically, the Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5)⁷ requirements that the rules of an exchange be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in regulating, clearing, settling, processing information with respect to, and facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. Additionally, the Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5)⁸ requirement that the rules of an exchange not be designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers. The Exchange also believes the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b)(4)⁹ of the Act, which requires that Exchange rules provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among its TPHs and other persons using its facilities.

The Exchange believes the proposed fee change is reasonable as it reflects a moderate increase in physical connectivity fees for 10 Gbps physical ports. Further, the current 10 Gbps physical port fee has remained physical port. See also New York Stock Exchange LLC, NYSE American LLC, NYSE Arca, Inc., NYSE Chicago Inc., NYSE National, Inc. Connectivity Fee Schedule, which provides that 10 Gbps LX LCN Circuits (which are analogous to the Exchange's 10 Gbps physical port) are assessed $22,000 per month, per port.

unchanged since June 2018.¹⁰ Since its last increase over 5 years ago however, there has been notable inflation. Particularly, the dollar has had an average inflation rate of 3.9% per year between 2018 and today, producing a cumulative price increase of approximately 21.1% inflation since the fee for the 10 Gbps physical port was last modified.¹¹ Moreover, the Exchange historically does not increase fees every year, notwithstanding inflation. Accordingly, the Exchange believes the proposed fee is reasonable as it represents only an approximate 13% increase from the rates adopted five years ago, notwithstanding the cumulative rate of 21.1%. The Exchange is also unaware of any standard that suggests any fee proposal that exceeds a certain yearly or cumulative inflation rate is unreasonable, and in any event, in this instance the increase is well below the cumulative rate.

Additionally, the Exchange believes the proposed fee increase is reasonable in light of recent and anticipated connectivity-related upgrades and changes. For example, the Exchange recently performed switch hardware upgrades. Particularly, the Exchange replaced existing customer access switches with newer models, which the Exchange believes contributes to increased determinism. Additionally, effective April 1, 2024, firms will be able to connect to a new data center (i.e., Secaucus NY6 Data Center ("NY6")), in addition the current data centers at NY4 and NY5. The Exchange is adding connectivity at NY6 in response to Customer demand and requests for additional space and capacity.

The Exchange also believes the proposed fee is reasonable as it is still in line with, or even lower than, amounts assessed by other exchanges for similar connections.¹² Indeed, the Exchange believes assessing fees that are a lower rate than fees assessed by other exchanges for analogous connectivity (which were similarly adopted via the rule filing process and filed with the Commission) is reasonable. As noted above, the proposed fee is also the same as is concurrently being proposed for its Affiliate Exchanges. Further, TPHs are able to utilize a single port to connect to any of the Affiliate Exchanges with no additional fee assessed for that same physical port. Particularly, the Exchange believes the proposed monthly per port fee is reasonable, equitable and not unfairly discriminatory as it is assessed only once, even if it connects with another affiliate exchange since only one port is being used and the Exchange does not wish to charge multiple fees for the same port. Indeed, the Exchange notes that several ports are in fact purchased and utilized across one or more of the Exchange's affiliated Exchanges (and charged only once).

The Exchange also believes that the proposed fee change is not unfairly discriminatory because it would be assessed uniformly across all market participants that purchase the physical ports. The Exchange believes increasing the fee for 10 Gbps physical ports and charging a higher fee as compared to the 1 Gbps physical port is equitable as the 1 Gbps physical port is 1/10th the size of the 10 Gbps physical port and therefore does not offer access to many of the products and services offered by the Exchange (e.g., ability to receive certain market data products). Thus, the value of the 1 Gbps alternative is lower than the value of the 10 Gbps alternative, when measured based on the type of Exchange access it offers. Moreover, market participants that purchase 10 Gbps physical ports utilize the most bandwidth and therefore consume the most resources from the network. As such, the Exchange believes the proposed fee change for 10 Gbps physical ports is reasonably and appropriately allocated.

The Exchange also notes TPHs and non-TPHs will continue to choose the method of connectivity based on their specific needs and no broker-dealer is required to become a TPH of, let alone connect directly to, the Exchange. There is also no regulatory requirement that any market participant connect to any one particular exchange. Moreover, direct connectivity is not a requirement to participate on the Exchange. The Exchange also believes substitutable products and services are available to market participants, including, among other things, other options exchanges that a market participant may connect to in lieu of the Exchange, indirect connectivity to the Exchange via a third-party reseller of connectivity, and/or trading of any options product, such as within the Over-the-Counter (OTC) markets which do not require connectivity to the Exchange. Indeed, there are currently 17 registered options exchanges that trade options (13 of which are not affiliated with Cboe), some of which have similar or lower connectivity fees.¹³ Based on publicly available information, no single options exchange has more than approximately 20% of the market share.¹⁴ Further, low barriers to entry mean that new exchanges may rapidly enter the market and offer additional substitute platforms to further compete with the Exchange and the products it offers. For example, there are 4 exchanges that have been added in the U.S. options markets in the last 5 years (i.e., Nasdaq MRX, LLC, MIAAX Pearl, LLC, MIAAX Emerald LLC, and most recently, MEMX LLC).

As noted above, there is no regulatory requirement that any market participant connect to any one options exchange, nor that any market participant connect at a particular connection speed or act in a particular capacity on the Exchange, or trade any particular product offered on an exchange. Moreover, membership is not a requirement to participate on the Exchange. Indeed, the Exchange is unaware of any one options exchange whose membership includes every registered broker-dealer. By way of example, while the Exchange has 52 TPHs, Cboe BZX has 61 members that trade options, and Cboe EDGX has 51 members that trade options. There is also no firm that is a Member of C2 Options only. Further, based on publicly available information regarding a sample of the Exchange's competitors, NYSE American Options has 71 members,¹⁵ and NYSE Arca Options has 69 members,¹⁶ MIAAX Options has 46 members¹⁷ and MIAAX Pearl Options has 40 members.¹⁸

A market participant may also submit orders to the Exchange via a Member broker or a third-party reseller of connectivity. The Exchange notes that third-party non-TPHs also resell exchange connectivity. This indirect connectivity is another viable alternative for market participants to trade on the Exchange without connecting directly to the Exchange (and thus not pay the Exchange connectivity fees), which alternative is already being used by non-TPHs and further constrains the price that the Exchange is able to charge for connectivity to its Exchange.¹⁹ The Exchange notes that it could, but chooses not to, preclude market participants from reselling its connectivity. Unlike other exchanges, the Exchange also chooses not to adopt fees that would be assessed to third-party resellers on a per customer basis (i.e., fee based on number of TPHs that connect to the Exchange indirectly via the third-party).²⁰ Particularly, these third-party resellers may purchase the Exchange's physical ports and resell access to such ports either alone or as part of a package of services. The Exchange notes that multiple TPHs are able to share a single physical port (and corresponding bandwidth) with other non-affiliated TPHs if purchased through a third-party reseller.²¹ This allows resellers to mutualize the costs of the ports for market participants and provide such ports at a price that may be lower than the Exchange charges due to this mutualized connectivity. These third-party sellers may also provide an additional value to market participants in addition to the physical port itself as they may also manage and monitor these connections, and clients of these third-parties may also be able to connect from the same colocation facility either from their own racks or using the third-party's managed racks and infrastructure which may provide further cost-savings. The Exchange believes such third-party resellers may also use the Exchange's connectivity as an incentive for market participants to purchase further services such as hosting services. That is, even firms that wish to utilize a single, dedicated 10 Gb port (i.e., use one single 10 Gb port themselves instead of sharing a port with other firms), may still realize cost savings via a third-party reseller as it relates to a physical port because such reseller may be providing a discount on the physical port to incentivize the purchase of additional services and infrastructure support alongside the physical port offering (e.g., providing space, hosting, power, and other long-haul connectivity options). This is similar to cell phone carriers offering a new iPhone at a discount (or even at no cost) if purchased in connection with a new monthly phone plan. These services may reevaluate reselling or offering Cboe's direct connectivity if they deem the fees to be excessive. Further, as noted above, the Exchange does not receive any connectivity revenue when connectivity is resold by a third-party, which often is resold to multiple customers, some of whom are agency broker-dealers that have numerous customers of their own. For example, there are approximately 12 third parties who resell Exchange connectivity across the 7 Affiliated Exchanges, which are all accessible on the same network. These third-party resellers collectively maintain approximately 48 physical ports from the Exchange, but have collectively almost 200 unique customers downstream, connected through these multi-Exchange ports. Therefore, given the availability of third-party providers that also offer connectivity solutions, the Exchange believes participation on the Exchange remains affordable (notwithstanding the proposed fee change) for all market participants, including trading firms that may be able to take advantage of lower costs that result from mutualized connectivity and/or from other services provided alongside the physical port offerings. Because third-party resellers also act as a viable alternative to direct connectivity to the Exchange, the price that the Exchange is able to charge for direct connectivity to its Exchange is constrained. Moreover, if the Exchange were to assess supracompetitive rates, members and non-members (such as third-party resellers) alike, may decide not to purchase, or to reduce its use of, the Exchange's direct connectivity. Disincentivizing market participants from purchasing Exchange connectivity would only serve to discourage participation on the Exchange which ultimately does not benefit the Exchange. Further, the Exchange believes its offerings are more affordable as compared to similar offerings at competitor exchanges.²²

¹⁹ Third-party resellers of connectivity play an important role in the capital markets infrastructure ecosystem. For example, third-party resellers can help unify access for customers who want exposure to multiple financial markets that are geographically dispersed by establishing connectivity to all of the different exchanges, so the customers themselves do not have to. Many of the third-party connectivity resellers also act as distribution agents for all of the market data generated by the exchanges as they can use their established connectivity to subscribe to, and redistribute, data over their networks. This may remove barriers that infrastructure requirements may otherwise pose for customers looking to access multiple markets and real-time data feeds. This facilitation of overall access to the marketplace is ultimately beneficial for the entire capital markets ecosystem, including the Exchange, on which such firms transact business.

²¹ For example, a third-party reseller may purchase one 10 Gbps physical port from the Exchange and resell that connectivity to three different market participants who may only need 3 Gbps each and leverage the same single port.

Accordingly, the vigorous competition among national securities exchanges provides many alternatives for firms to voluntarily decide whether direct connectivity to the Exchange is appropriate and worthwhile, and as noted above, no broker-dealer is required to become a Member of the Exchange, let alone connect directly to it. In the event that a market participant views the Exchange's proposed fee change as more or less attractive than the competition, that market participant can choose to connect to the Exchange indirectly or may choose not to connect to that exchange and connect instead to one or more of the other 13 non-Cboe affiliated options markets. Indeed, market participants are free to choose which exchange or reseller to use to satisfy their business needs. Moreover, if the Exchange charges excessive fees, it may stand to lose not only connectivity revenues but also revenues associated with the execution of orders routed to it, and, to the extent applicable, market data revenues. The Exchange believes that this competitive dynamic imposes powerful restraints on the ability of any exchange to charge unreasonable fees for connectivity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Exchange still believes that the proposed fee increase is reasonable, equitably allocated and not unfairly discriminatory, even for market participants that determine to connect directly to the Exchange for business purposes, as those business reasons should presumably result in revenue capable of covering the proposed fee.

The Exchange lastly notes that it is not required by the Exchange Act, nor any other rule or regulation, to undertake a cost-of-service or rate-making approach with respect to fee proposals. Moreover, Congress's intent in enacting the 1975 Amendments to the Act was to enable competition—rather than government order—to determine ²² See e.g., The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq"), General 8, Connectivity to the Exchange. Nasdaq and its affiliated exchanges charge a monthly fee of $15,000 for each 10 Gbps Ultra fiber connection to the respective exchange, which is analogous to the Exchange's 10 Gbps physical port. See also New York Stock Exchange LLC, NYSE American LLC, NYSE Arca, Inc., NYSE Chicago Inc., NYSE National, Inc. prices. The principal purpose of the amendments was to facilitate the creation of a national market system for the trading of securities. Congress intended that this "national market system evolve through the interplay of competitive forces as unnecessary regulatory restrictions are removed."²³ Other provisions of the Act confirm that intent. For example, the Act provides that an exchange must design its rules "to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest."²⁴ Likewise, the Act grants the Commission authority to amend or repeal "[t]he rules of [an] exchange [that] impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of this chapter."²⁵ In short, the promotion of free and open competition was a core congressional objective in creating the national market system.²⁶ Indeed, the Commission has historically interpreted that mandate to promote competitive forces to determine prices whenever compatible with a national market system. Accordingly, the Exchange believes it has met its burden to demonstrate that its proposed fee change is reasonable and consistent with the immediate filing process chosen by Congress, which created a system whereby market forces determine access fees in the vast majority of cases, subject to oversight only in particular cases of abuse or market failure. Lastly, and importantly, the Exchange believes that, even if it were possible as a matter of economic theory, cost-based pricing for the proposed fee would be so complicated that it could not be done practically.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The proposed fee change will not impact intramarket competition because it will apply to all similarly situated TPHs equally (i.e., all market participants that choose to purchase the 10 Gbps physical port). Additionally, the Exchange does not believe its proposed pricing will impose a barrier to entry to smaller participants and notes that its proposed connectivity pricing is associated with relative usage of the various market participants. For example, market participants with modest capacity needs can continue to buy the less expensive 1 Gbps physical port (which cost is not changing) or may choose to obtain access via a third-party reseller. While pricing may be increased for the larger capacity physical ports, such options provide far more capacity and are purchased by those that consume more resources from the network. Accordingly, the proposed connectivity fees do not favor certain categories of market participants in a manner that would impose a burden on competition; rather, the allocation reflects the network resources consumed by the various size of market participants—lowest bandwidth consuming members pay the least, and highest bandwidth consuming members pay the most.

²⁶ See also 15 U.S.C. 78k-1(a)(1)(C)(ii) (purposes of Exchange Act include to promote "fair competition among brokers and dealers, among exchange markets, and between exchange markets and markets other than exchange markets"); Order, 73 FR at 74781 ("The Exchange Act and its legislative history strongly support the Commission's reliance on competition, whenever possible, in meeting its regulatory responsibilities for overseeing the SROs and the national market system.").

The Exchange's proposed fee is also still lower than some fees for similar connectivity on other exchanges and therefore may stimulate intermarket competition by attracting additional firms to connect to the Exchange or at least should not deter interested participants from connecting directly to the Exchange. Further, if the changes proposed herein are unattractive to market participants, the Exchange can, and likely will, see a decline in connectivity via 10 Gbps physical ports as a result. The Exchange operates in a highly competitive market in which market participants can determine whether or not to connect directly to the Exchange based on the value received compared to the cost of doing so. Indeed, market participants have numerous alternative venues that they may participate on and direct their order flow, including 13 non-Cboe affiliated options markets, as well as off-exchange venues, where competitive products are available for trading. Moreover, the Commission has repeatedly expressed its preference for competition over regulatory intervention in determining prices, products, and services in the securities markets. Specifically, in Regulation NMS, the Commission highlighted the importance of market forces in determining prices and SRO revenues and, also, recognized that current regulation of the market system "has been remarkably successful in promoting market competition in its broader forms that are most important to investors and listed companies."²⁷ The fact that this market is competitive has also long been recognized by the courts. In NetCoalition v. Securities and Exchange Commission, the D.C. Circuit stated as follows: "[n]o one disputes that competition for order flow is 'fierce.' . . . As the SEC explained, '[i]n the U.S. national market system, buyers and sellers of securities, and the broker-dealers that act as their order-routing agents, have a wide range of choices of where to route orders for execution'; [and] 'no exchange can afford to take its market share percentages for granted' because 'no exchange possesses a monopoly, regulatory or otherwise, in the execution of order flow from broker dealers'. . .".²⁸ Accordingly, the Exchange does not believe its proposed change imposes any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Cboe EDGX Exchange, Inc.; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of a Proposed Rule Change To Amend Its Fees Schedule Related to Physical Port Fees

February 21, 2024.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on February 12, 2024, Cboe EDGX Exchange, Inc. (the “Exchange” or “EDGX”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

Cboe EDGX Exchange, Inc. (the “Exchange” or “EDGX Options”) proposes to amend its Fees Schedule. The text of the proposed rule change is provided in Exhibit 5.

The text of the proposed rule change is available on the Exchange’s website (http://markets.cboe.com/us/options/regulation/rule_filings/edgx/), at the Exchange’s Office of the Secretary, and at the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange proposes to amend its fee schedule for its equity options platform (“EDGX Options”) relating to physical connectivity fees.³

By way of background, a physical port is utilized by a Member or non-Member to connect to the Exchange at the data centers where the Exchange’s servers are located. The Exchange currently assesses the following physical connectivity fees for Members and non-Members on a monthly basis: $2,500 per physical port for a 1 gigabit (“Gb”) circuit and $7,500 per physical port for a 10 Gb circuit. The Exchange proposes to increase the monthly fee for 10 Gb physical ports from $7,500 to $8,500 per port. The Exchange notes the proposed fee change better enables it to continue to maintain and improve its market technology and services and also notes that the proposed fee amount, even as amended, continues to be in line with, or even lower than, amounts assessed by other exchanges for similar connections.⁴ The physical ports may also be used to access the Systems for the following affiliate exchanges and only one monthly fee currently (and will continue) to apply per port: the Exchange’s equities platform (EDGX Equities), Cboe BZX Exchange, Inc. (options and equities platforms), Cboe BYX Exchange, Inc., Cboe EDGA

³ The Exchange initially filed the proposed fee changes on July 3, 2023 (SR-CboeEDGX-2023-045). On September 1, 2023, the Exchange withdrew that filing and submitted SR-CboeEDGX-2023-058. On September 29, 2023, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued a Suspension of and Order Instituting Proceedings to Determine whether to Approve or Disapprove a Proposed Rule Change to Amend its Fees Schedule Related to Physical Port Fees (the “OIP”). On September 29, 2023, the Exchange filed the proposed fee change (SR-CboeEDGX-2023-063). On October 13, 2023, the Exchange withdrew that filing and submitted SR-CboeEDGX-2023-064. On December 12, 2023, the Exchange withdrew that filing and submitted SR-CboeEDGX-2023-080. On February 9, 2024, the Exchange withdrew that filing and submitted this filing.

Exchange, Inc., and Cboe C2 Exchange, Inc. (“Affiliate Exchanges”).⁵

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Act”) and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to the Exchange and, in particular, the requirements of Section 6(b) of the Act.⁶ Specifically, the Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5)⁷ requirements that the rules of an exchange be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in regulating, clearing, settling, processing information with respect to, and facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. Additionally, the Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5)⁸ requirement that the rules of an exchange not be designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers. The Exchange also believes the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b)(4)⁹ of the Act, which requires that Exchange rules provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among its Members and other persons using its facilities.

The Exchange believes the proposed fee change is reasonable as it reflects a moderate increase in physical connectivity fees for 10 Gb physical ports. Further, the current 10 Gb physical port fee has remained unchanged since June 2018.¹⁰ Since its last increase over 5 years ago however, there has been notable inflation. Particularly, the dollar has had an average inflation rate of 3.9% per year between 2018 and today, producing a cumulative price increase of approximately 21.1% inflation since the fee for the 10 Gb physical port was last modified.¹¹ Moreover, the Exchange historically does not increase fees every year, notwithstanding inflation. Accordingly, the Exchange believes the proposed fee is reasonable as it represents only an approximate 13% increase from the rates adopted five years ago, notwithstanding the cumulative rate of 21.1%. The Exchange is also unaware of any standard that suggests any fee proposal that exceeds a certain yearly or cumulative inflation rate is unreasonable, and in any event, in this instance the increase is well below the cumulative rate.

Additionally, the Exchange believes the proposed fee increase is reasonable in light of recent and anticipated connectivity-related upgrades and changes. For example, the Exchange recently performed switch hardware upgrades. Particularly, the Exchange replaced existing customer access switches with newer models, which the Exchange believes contributes to increased determinism. Additionally, effective April 1, 2024, firms will be able to connect to a new data center (i.e., Secaucus NY6 Data Center (“NY6”)), in addition the current data centers at NY4 and NY5. The Exchange is adding connectivity at NY6 in response to Customer demand and requests for additional space and capacity.

The Exchange also believes the proposed fee is reasonable as it is still in line with, or even lower than, amounts assessed by other exchanges for similar connections.¹² Indeed, the Exchange believes assessing fees that are a lower rate than fees assessed by other exchanges for analogous connectivity (which were similarly adopted via the rule filing process and filed with the Commission) is reasonable. As noted above, the proposed fee is also the same as is concurrently being proposed for its Affiliate Exchanges. Further, Members are able to utilize a single port to connect to any of the Affiliate Exchanges with no additional fee assessed for that same physical port. Particularly, the Exchange believes the proposed monthly per port fee is reasonable, equitable and not unfairly discriminatory as it is assessed only once, even if it connects with another affiliate exchange since only one port is being used and the Exchange does not wish to charge multiple fees for the same port. Indeed, the Exchange notes that several ports are in fact purchased and utilized across one or more of the Exchange’s affiliated Exchanges (and charged only once).

The Exchange also believes that the proposed fee change is not unfairly discriminatory because it would be assessed uniformly across all market participants that purchase the physical ports. The Exchange believes increasing the fee for 10 Gb physical ports and charging a higher fee as compared to the 1 Gb physical port is equitable as the 1 Gb physical port is 1/10th the size of the 10 Gb physical port and therefore does not offer access to many of the products and services offered by the Exchange (e.g., ability to receive certain market data products). Thus, the value of the 1 Gb alternative is lower than the value of the 10 Gb alternative, when measured based on the type of Exchange access it offers. Moreover, market participants that purchase 10 Gb physical ports utilize the most bandwidth and therefore consume the most resources from the network. As such, the Exchange believes the proposed fee change for 10 Gb physical ports is reasonable and appropriately allocated.

The Exchange also notes Members and non-Members will continue to choose the method of connectivity based on their specific needs and no broker-dealer is required to become a Member of, let alone connect directly to, the Exchange. There is also no regulatory requirement that any market participant connect to any one particular exchange. Moreover, direct connectivity is not a requirement to participate on the Exchange. The Exchange also believes substitutable products and services are available to market participants, including, among other things, other options exchanges that a market participant may connect to in lieu of the Exchange, indirect connectivity to the Exchange via a third-party reseller of connectivity, and/or trading of any options product, such as within the Over-the-Counter (OTC) markets which do not require connectivity to the Exchange. Indeed, there are currently 17 registered options exchanges that trade options (13 of which are not affiliated with Cboe), some of which have similar or lower connectivity fees.¹³ Based on publicly available information, no single options exchange has more than approximately 20% of the market share.¹⁴ Further, low

¹⁴ See Cboe Global Markets U.S. Options Market Volume Summary (October 13, 2023), available at barriers to entry mean that new exchanges may rapidly enter the market and offer additional substitute platforms to further compete with the Exchange and the products it offers. For example, there are 3 exchanges that have been added in the U.S. options markets in the last 5 years (i.e., Nasdaq MRX, LLC, MIAAX Pearl, LLC, MIAAX Emerald LLC, and most recently MEMX LLC).

As noted above, there is no regulatory requirement that any market participant connect to any one options exchange, nor that any market participant connect at a particular connection speed or act in a particular capacity on the Exchange, or trade any particular product offered on an exchange. Moreover, membership is not a requirement to participate on the Exchange. Indeed, the Exchange is unaware of any one options exchange whose membership includes every registered broker-dealer. By way of example, while the Exchange has 51 members that trade options, Cboe BZX has 61 members that trade options, and Cboe C2 has 52 Trading Permit Holders (“TPHs”) (i.e., members). There is also no firm that is a Member of EDGX Options only. Further, based on publicly available information regarding a sample of the Exchange’s competitors, NYSE American Options has 71 members,¹⁵ and NYSE Arca Options has 69 members,¹⁶ MIAAX Options has 46 members¹⁷ and MIAAX Pearl Options has 40 members.¹⁸

A market participant may submit orders to the Exchange via a Member broker or a third-party reseller of connectivity. The Exchange notes that third-party non-Members also resell exchange connectivity. This indirect connectivity is another viable alternative for market participants to trade on the Exchange without connecting directly to the Exchange (and thus not pay the Exchange connectivity fees), which alternative is already being used by non-Members and further constrains the price that the Exchange is able to charge for connectivity to its Exchange.¹⁹ The Exchange notes that it could, but chooses not to, preclude market participants from reselling its connectivity. Unlike other exchanges, the Exchange also chooses not to adopt fees that would be assessed to third-party resellers on a per customer basis (i.e., fee based on number of Members that connect to the Exchange indirectly via the third-party).²⁰ Particularly, these third-party resellers may purchase the Exchange's physical ports and resell access to such ports either alone or as part of a package of services. The Exchange notes that multiple Members are able to share a single physical port (and corresponding bandwidth) with other non-affiliated Members if purchased through a third-party reseller.²¹ This allows resellers to mutualize the costs of the ports for market participants and provide such ports at a price that may be lower than the Exchange charges due to this mutualized connectivity. These third-party sellers may also provide an additional value to market participants in addition to the physical port itself as they may also manage and monitor these connections, and clients of these third-parties may also be able to connect from the same colocation facility either from their own racks or using the third-party's managed racks and infrastructure which may provide further cost-savings. The Exchange believes such third-party resellers may also use the Exchange's connectivity as an incentive for market participants to purchase further services such as hosting services. That is, even firms that wish to utilize a single, dedicated 10 Gb port (i.e., use one single 10 Gb port themselves instead of sharing a port to multiple financial markets that are geographically dispersed by establishing connectivity to all of the different exchanges, so the customers themselves do not have to. Many of the third-party connectivity resellers also act as distribution agents for all of the market data generated by the exchanges as they can use their established connectivity to subscribe to, and redistribute, data over their networks. This may remove barriers that infrastructure requirements may otherwise pose for customers looking to access multiple markets and real-time data feeds. This facilitation of overall access to the marketplace is ultimately beneficial for the entire capital markets ecosystem, including the Exchange, on which such firms transact business.

²⁰ See, e.g., Nasdaq Price List—U.S. Direct Connection and Extranet Fees, available at, US Direct-Extranet Connection (nasdaqtrader.com); and Securities Exchange Act Release Nos. 74077 (January 16, 2022), 80 FR 3683 (January 23, 2022) (SR-NASDAQ-2015-002); and 82037 (November 8, 2022), 82 FR 52953 (November 15, 2022) (SR-NASDAQ-2017-114).

with other firms), may still realize cost savings via a third-party reseller as it relates to a physical port because such reseller may be providing a discount on the physical port to incentivize the purchase of additional services and infrastructure support alongside the physical port offering (e.g., providing space, hosting, power, and other long-haul connectivity options). Further, as noted above, the Exchange does not receive any connectivity revenue when connectivity is resold by a third-party, which often is resold to multiple customers, some of whom are agency broker-dealers that have numerous customers of their own. For example, there are approximately 12 third parties who resell Exchange connectivity across the 7 Affiliated Exchanges, which are all accessible on the same network. These third-party resellers collectively maintain approximately 48 physical ports from the Exchange, but have collectively almost 200 unique customers downstream, connected through these multi-Exchange ports. Therefore given the availability of third-party providers that also offer connectivity solutions, the Exchange believes participation on the Exchange remains affordable (notwithstanding the proposed fee change) for all market participants, including trading firms that may be able to take advantage of lower costs that result from mutualized connectivity and/or from other services provided alongside the physical port offerings. Because third-party resellers also act as a viable alternative to direct connectivity to the Exchange, the price that the Exchange is able to charge for direct connectivity to its Exchange is constrained. Moreover, if the Exchange were to assess supracompetitive rates, members and non-members (such as third-party resellers) alike, may decide not to purchase, or to reduce its use of, the Exchange's direct connectivity. Disincentivizing market participants from purchasing Exchange connectivity would only serve to discourage participation on the Exchange which ultimately does not benefit the Exchange. Further, the Exchange believes its offerings are more affordable as compared to similar offerings at competitor exchanges.²²

Accordingly, the vigorous competition among national securities exchanges provides many alternatives for firms to voluntarily decide whether direct connectivity to the Exchange is appropriate and worthwhile, and as noted above, no broker-dealer is required to become a Member of the Exchange, let alone connect directly to it. In the event that a market participant views the Exchange's proposed fee change as more or less attractive than the competition, that market participant can choose to connect to the Exchange indirectly or may choose not to connect to that exchange and connect instead to one or more of the other 13 non-Cboe affiliated options markets. Indeed, market participants are free to choose which exchange or reseller to use to satisfy their business needs. Moreover, if the Exchange charges excessive fees, it may stand to lose not only connectivity revenues but also revenues associated with the execution of orders routed to it, and, to the extent applicable, market data revenues. The Exchange believes that this competitive dynamic imposes powerful restraints on the ability of any exchange to charge unreasonable fees for connectivity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Exchange still believes that the proposed fee increase is reasonable, equitably allocated and not unfairly discriminatory, even for market participants that determine to connect directly to the Exchange for business purposes, as those business reasons should presumably result in revenue capable of covering the proposed fee.

The Exchange lastly notes that it is not required by the Exchange Act, nor any other rule or regulation, to undertake a cost-of-service or rate-making approach with respect to fee proposals. Moreover, Congress's intent in enacting the 1975 Amendments to the Act was to enable competition—rather than government order—to determine prices. The principal purpose of the amendments was to facilitate the creation of a national market system for the trading of securities. Congress intended that this “national market system evolve through the interplay of competitive forces as unnecessary regulatory restrictions are removed.”²³ Other provisions of the Act confirm that intent. For example, the Act provides that an exchange must design its rules “to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.”²⁴ Likewise, the Act grants the Commission authority to amend or repeal “[t]he rules of [an] exchange [that] impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of this chapter.”²⁵ In short, the promotion of free and open competition was a core congressional objective in creating the national market system.²⁶ Indeed, the Commission has historically interpreted that mandate to promote competitive forces to determine prices whenever compatible with a national market system. Accordingly, the Exchange believes it has met its burden to demonstrate that its proposed fee change is reasonable and consistent with the immediate filing process chosen by Congress, which created a system whereby market forces determine access fees in the vast majority of cases, subject to oversight only in particular cases of abuse or market failure. Lastly, and importantly, the Exchange believes that, even if it were possible as a matter of economic theory, cost-based pricing for the proposed fee would be so complicated that it could not be done practically.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The proposed fee change will not impact intramarket competition because it will apply to all similarly situated Members equally (i.e., all market participants that choose to purchase the 10 Gb physical port). Additionally, the Exchange does not believe its proposed pricing will impose a barrier to entry to smaller participants and notes that its proposed connectivity pricing is associated with relative usage of the various market participants. For example, market participants with modest capacity needs can continue to buy the less expensive 1 Gb physical port (which cost is not changing) or may choose to obtain access via a third-party re-seller. While pricing may be increased for the larger capacity physical ports, such options provide far more capacity and are purchased by those that consume more resources from the network. Accordingly, the proposed connectivity fees do not favor certain categories of market participants in a manner that would impose a burden on competition; rather, the allocation reflects the network resources consumed by the various size of market participants—lowest bandwidth consuming members pay the least, and highest bandwidth consuming members pay the most.

The Exchange’s proposed fee is also still lower than some fees for similar connectivity on other exchanges and therefore may stimulate intermarket competition by attracting additional firms to connect to the Exchange or at least should not deter interested participants from connecting directly to the Exchange. Further, if the changes proposed herein are unattractive to market participants, the Exchange can, and likely will, see a decline in connectivity via 10 Gb physical ports as a result. The Exchange operates in a highly competitive market in which market participants can determine whether or not to connect directly to the Exchange based on the value received compared to the cost of doing so. Indeed, market participants have numerous alternative venues that they may participate on and direct their order flow, including 13 non-Cboe affiliated options markets, as well as off-exchange venues, where competitive products are available for trading. Moreover, the Commission has repeatedly expressed its preference for competition over regulatory intervention in determining prices, products, and services in the securities markets. Specifically, in Regulation NMS, the Commission highlighted the importance of market forces in determining prices and SRO revenues and, also, recognized that current regulation of the market system “has been remarkably successful in promoting market competition in its broader forms that are most important to investors and listed companies.”²⁷ The fact that this market is competitive has also long been recognized by the courts. In NetCoalition v. Securities and Exchange Commission, the D.C. Circuit stated as follows: “[n]o one disputes that competition for order flow is ‘fierce.’ . . . As the SEC explained, ‘[i]n the U.S. national market system, buyers and sellers of securities, and the broker-dealers that act as their order-routing agents, have a wide range of choices of where to route orders for execution’; [and] ‘no exchange can afford to take its market share percentages for granted’ because ‘no exchange possesses a monopoly, regulatory or otherwise, in the execution of order flow from broker dealers’. . . .”²⁸ Accordingly, the Exchange does not believe its proposed change imposes any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

The Exchange neither solicited nor received comments on the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act²⁹ and paragraph (f) of Rule 19b-4³⁰ thereunder. At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission will institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-99581; File No. SR-MEMX-2024-05]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; MEMX LLC; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of a Proposed Rule Change To Amend the Exchange's Fee Schedule

February 21, 2024.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Act”),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on February 8, 2024, MEMX LLC (“MEMX” or the “Exchange”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

(a) The Exchange is filing with the Commission a proposed rule change to amend the Exchange's fee schedule (the “Fee Schedule”) pursuant to Exchange Rules 15.1(a) and (c). The Exchange proposes to: (i) extend the waiver (“Membership Fee Waiver”) of membership fees (“Membership Fees”) which is currently in place for all new Members³ of the Exchange, for an additional month beyond the program's current expiration on January 31, 2024; and (ii) extend the waiver of Connectivity and Application Session Fees solely related to participation on the Exchange's platform for trading equity options on MEMX Options (“Options Connectivity Fee Waiver”), which is currently in place for all new Members and non-Members⁴ of the Exchange, for an additional month beyond the program's current expiration on January 31, 2024. The Exchange will continue to implement both the Membership Fee Waiver (as defined above) for all new Members who join the Exchange and the Options Connectivity Fee Waiver (as defined above) for all Members and non-Members of the Exchange prior to and including February 29, 2024. The text of the proposed rule change is provided in Exhibit 5.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The purpose of the proposed rule change is to amend the Fee Schedule to: (i) extend the waiver (“Membership Fee Waiver”) of membership fees (“Membership Fees”) which is currently in place for all new Members⁵ of the Exchange, for an additional month beyond the program's current expiration on January 31, 2024; and (ii) extend the waiver of Connectivity and Application Session Fees solely related to participation on the Exchange's platform for trading equity options on MEMX Options (“Options Connectivity Fee Waiver”), which is currently in place for all new Members and non-Members⁶ of the Exchange, for an additional month beyond the program's current expiration on January 31, 2024.⁷ The Exchange will continue to implement both the Membership Fee Waiver (as defined above) for all new Members who join the Exchange and the Options Connectivity Fee Waiver (as defined above) for all Members and non-Members of the Exchange prior to and including February 29, 2024. The Exchange notes that the proposed change does not amend any existing fee or rebate for equities or options transactions, market data or connectivity fees. The sole change proposed herein is to extend the timeframe during which the Exchange will waive Membership Fees and Options Connectivity Fees for new Members and non-Members of the Exchange.

Membership Fee Waiver

Currently, MEMX applies a Membership Fee Waiver to all new ⁵ See Exchange Rule 1.5(p).

⁶ Types of market participants that obtain connectivity services from the Exchange but are not Members include service bureaus and extranets. Service bureaus offer technology-based services to other companies for a fee, including order entry services to Members, and thus, may access application sessions on behalf of one or more Members. Extranets offer physical connectivity services to Members and non-Members.

⁷ The Exchange initially filed the proposed changes on January 31, 2024 (SR-MEMX-2024-03). On February 8, 2024, the Exchange withdrew that filing and submitted this filing.

⁴ Types of market participants that obtain connectivity services from the Exchange but are not Members include service bureaus and extranets. Service bureaus offer technology-based services to other companies for a fee, including order entry services to Members, and thus, may access application sessions on behalf of one or more Members. Extranets offer physical connectivity services to Members and non-Members.

Members of the Exchange, which is set to expire on January 31, 2024. Under the current Membership Fee Waiver, new Members who join the Exchange after January 31, 2024, would be assessed Membership Fees of $200 per month to maintain active membership, and new Members whose Membership Fees were waived during the Waiver Period would be assessed Membership Fees of $200 per month beginning February 1, 2024. In addition, in September of 2023 the Exchange adopted specific fees applicable to participation on the Exchange's platform for trading equity options ("MEMX Options").⁸ The current Membership Fee Waiver has also been applied to new Members of MEMX Options, and thus such fees have not been imposed on such Members to date.

The Exchange believes that the existing Membership Fee Waiver has been effective in incentivizing options market participants to join MEMX Options. MEMX Options launched in September of 2023, and has been conducting a staged rollout of options available for trading on the Exchange since that time. The Exchange believes that its rollout will be complete in February of 2024 and would like to extend the Membership Fee Waiver until after its rollout is complete in the event there are options firms that are waiting to join the Exchange until after such rollout is complete. In addition, the Exchange believes the Membership Fee Waiver is a proper incentive for new participants on MEMX Options to continue to increase their participation as they become accustomed to the new trading platform.

Accordingly, the Exchange proposes to extend the time period of the Membership Fee Waiver to expire on February 29, 2024. The Exchange proposes to continue to waive Membership Fees for all new Members who join the exchange on or before February 29, 2024. Under the proposed Membership Fee Waiver, new Members who join the Exchange after February 29, 2024, will be assessed Membership Fees to maintain active membership and if applicable, Members who participate on MEMX Options will be assessed the specific Additional Fees⁹ applicable to such participation. Similarly, new Members whose Membership Fees have been waived since joining the Exchange will be assessed Membership Fees, including Additional Fees applicable to participation on MEMX Options, if applicable, beginning March 1, 2024. In addition, new Members of MEMX Options who join after February 29, 2024, will be assessed Membership Fees of $200 per month to maintain active membership, and new Members whose Membership Fees were waived will be assessed Membership Fees of $200 per month beginning March 1, 2024. Specifically, the Exchange is proposing to amend the Exchange's Membership Fee Schedule to provide that Membership Fees will be waived for new Members of the Exchange until March 1, 2024.

Options Connectivity Fee Waiver

Currently, MEMX applies an Options Connectivity Fee Waiver to all Members and non-Members of the Exchange, which is set to expire on January 31, 2024. Under the current Options Connectivity Fee Waiver, fees charged to Members and Non-Members for physical connectivity to MEMX Options¹⁰ and for application sessions (otherwise known as "logical ports") that a Member utilizes in connection with their participation on MEMX Options would not be assessed until February 1, 2024. Specifically, the physical connectivity fees are $6,000 per month for a physical connection in the data center where the Exchange primarily operates under normal market conditions ("Primary Data Center"), and $3,000 per month for a physical connection at the geographically diverse data center, which is operated for backup and disaster recovery purposes ("Secondary Data Center"), and the application session fees are $450 per month for an application session used for order entry ("Order Entry Port") and $450 per month for an application session for receipt of drop copies ("Drop Copy Port"), to the extent such ports are in the Primary Data Center.¹¹

The Exchange believes that the existing Options Connectivity Waiver has been effective in incentivizing options market participants to join MEMX Options. As noted above, MEMX Options launched in September of 2023, and has been conducting a staged rollout of options available for trading on the Exchange since that time. The Exchange believes that its rollout will be complete in February of 2024 and would like to extend the Options Connectivity Fee Waiver until after its rollout is complete in the event there are options firms that are waiting to join the Exchange until after such rollout is complete. In addition, the Exchange believes the Options Connectivity Fee Waiver is a proper incentive for new participants on MEMX Options to continue to increase their participation as they become accustomed to the new trading platform.

Accordingly, the Exchange proposes to extend the time period of the Options Connectivity Fee Waiver to expire on February 29, 2024. The Exchange proposes to continue to waive Options Connectivity Fees for all Members and non-Members of exchange on or before February 29, 2024. Under the proposed Membership Fee Waiver, applicable Options Connectivity Fees of $6,000 per month for each physical connection in the Primary Data Center and $3,000 per month for each physical connection in the Secondary Center, and $450 per month for each Order Entry Port and Drop Copy Port in the Exchange's Primary Data Center will be assessed to Members and non-Members beginning March 1, 2024. Specifically, the Exchange is proposing to amend the Exchange's Connectivity Fee Schedule to provide that all Connectivity and Application Sessions fees solely related to participation on MEMX Options shall be waived until March 1, 2024.

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 6 of the Act,¹² in general, and furthers the objectives of Sections 6(b)(4) and 6(b)(5) of the Act,¹³ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among members and issuers and other persons using its facilities and does not unfairly discriminate between customers, issuers, brokers or dealers.

The Exchange believes it is reasonable to extend the timeframe of the Membership Fee Waiver for new Members of the Exchange, primarily to continue to provide an incentive for options trading firms to continue to apply for Exchange membership during the current phase of the rollout of MEMX Options. The options markets are quote-driven markets and are dependent on liquidity providers for liquidity and price discovery. Extending the timeframe of the Membership Fee

⁸ See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 98648 (September 29, 2023), 88 FR 68762 (October 4, 2023) (SR-MEMX-2023-26).

⁹ Additional Fees applicable to Options Members, per the Exchange's Fee Schedule, include monthly fees specifically applicable to Options Order Entry Firms or Options Market Makers, both as defined in the Fee Schedule.

¹⁰ Physical connections may be used to access both MEMX equities and options platforms, as such, the Exchange internally verifies whether new connections are being used solely for Options connections in order to determine whether such connection qualifies for the Options Connectivity Fee Waiver.

¹³ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(4) and (5).

Waiver will continue to encourage additional liquidity providers to become members of the Exchange, which may result in more trading opportunities, enhanced competition, and improved overall market quality on the Exchange. Although the proposed extension of the Membership Fee Waiver timeframe is intended primarily to encourage new participants to join the Exchange in order to participate on the MEMX Options market and the Exchange believes the participants that will benefit from this waiver are firms that will do so, the Exchange also believes that it is reasonable to continue applying the Membership Fee Waiver broadly to all new participants on the Exchange during the timeframe extension, including firms that would trade only on the Exchange's market for equity securities or on both the Exchange's market for equity securities and MEMX Options.

In addition, the Exchange believes that the proposed extension of the Membership Fee Waiver is equitable and not unfairly discriminatory in that it will apply uniformly to all new Members of the Exchange. Further, the Exchange believes that the proposed extension of the waiver is reasonable, equitable and not unfairly discriminatory to current Members of the Exchange because the majority of the Exchange's existing Members joined at a time when the Exchange did not impose membership fees (also to incentivize such participants to join), and thus have already received this benefit.

The Exchange believes it is reasonable to extend the timeframe of the Options Connectivity Fee Waiver for new and existing Members and non-Members of the Exchange, primarily to continue to provide an incentive for options trading firms to continue to apply for Exchange membership during the current phase of the rollout of MEMX Options. The options markets are quote-driven markets and are dependent on liquidity providers for liquidity and price discovery. Extending the timeframe of the Options Connectivity Fee Waiver will continue to encourage additional liquidity providers to become members of the Exchange, which may result in more trading opportunities, enhanced competition, and improved overall market quality on the Exchange.

In addition, the Exchange believes that the proposed extension of the Options Connectivity Fee Waiver is equitable and not unfairly discriminatory in that it will apply uniformly to all Members and non-Members of the Exchange.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. Instead, as discussed above, the Exchange believes that the proposed change would encourage market participants who have not already done so to join the Exchange. As a result, if such participants do join the Exchange and route their orders to the Exchange or support other Members that route orders (i.e., clearing firms) the Exchange believes the proposal would further enhance its competitiveness as a market. Encouraging additional participants to join the Exchange will enable a greater number of participants to participate on MEMX Options during the continued rollout of the platform. Further, the Exchange believes that by continuing to make the Membership Fee Waiver applicable to both the Exchange's options platform and the Exchange's equity platform for an extended time period, the proposal will enhance the competitiveness of both platforms. Attracting a greater number of participants will foster greater competition on the Exchange, particularly in the case of MEMX Options which is a quote-driven market. For these reasons, the Exchange believes that the proposal furthers the Commission's goal in adopting Regulation NMS of fostering competition among orders, which promotes "more efficient pricing of individual stocks for all types of orders, large and small."¹⁴

Intramarket Competition

As discussed above, the Exchange believes that the proposal would encourage new participants to apply for Exchange membership, thereby enhancing liquidity and market quality on the Exchange, as well as enhancing the attractiveness of the Exchange as a trading venue, which the Exchange believes, in turn, would continue to encourage market participants to direct additional order flow to the Exchange.

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed changes would impose any burden on intramarket competition because such changes will incentivize new participants to join the Exchange and the majority of the Exchange's current members joined at a time when the Exchange did not impose membership fees (also to incentivize such participants to join), and thus have already received this benefit. The options markets are quote-driven markets and are dependent on liquidity providers for liquidity and price discovery. The proposal will be of particular importance in encouraging additional liquidity providers to become members of the Exchange, which may result in more trading opportunities, enhanced competition, and improved overall market quality on the Exchange. Similarly, the Exchange believes that extending the timeframe of the Options Connectivity Fee Waiver will continue to provide an incentive for options trading firms to continue to participate on the Exchange during the current phase of the rollout of MEMX Options. For the foregoing reasons, the Exchange believes the proposed changes would not impose any burden on intramarket competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

Intermarket Competition

As described above, the proposed extension of the Membership Fee Waiver and Options Connectivity Fee Waiver timeframes will incent market participants to join the Exchange during the extended Waiver periods. Accordingly, the Exchange believes the proposal would not burden, but rather promote, intermarket competition by enabling it to better compete with other options exchanges during the continued rollout of MEMX Options. In addition, as noted above, the Exchange has intentionally proposed to apply the Membership Fee Waiver broadly so that it continues to be applicable to new Members that will participate on the Exchange's market for equity securities or that will participate on such market as well as MEMX Options, and thus, the proposal may also better enable the Exchange to compete with other options exchanges and equities exchanges.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

The Exchange neither solicited nor received comments on the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section

¹⁴ Securities Exchange Act Release No. 51808 (June 9, 2005), 70 FR 37496, 37499 (June 29, 2005) ("Regulation NMS Adopting Release").

19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act¹⁵ and Rule 19b-4(f)(2)¹⁶ thereunder.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved.

The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The purpose of the proposed rule change is to waive certain entry fees (including the application fee) and All-Inclusive Annual fees for Ukrainian Companies listing on Nasdaq for a time period until December 31, 2028.³ This fee waiver will be applicable to Ukrainian Companies listed on or after the effective date of this rule change.

On February 24, 2022, Russia invaded Ukraine causing a humanitarian crisis that has left tens of thousands of dead, displaced millions and sown economic turmoil in Ukraine. Ukraine's economy has been crippled and some cities have faced massive devastation from the fighting. Ukraine's economy contracted by 30% in 2022 and was forecast to grow by of 1% to 3% in 2023, according to the International Monetary Fund.⁴

The White House supports Ukrainian efforts to stop the aggression and is also focused on reconstruction efforts. In this regard, President Biden recently stated that:

The United States will continue our work, together with partners all around the world, to support Ukraine's ability to defend itself against Russia's aggression, to uphold the foundational principles of the UN Charter, and to help the Ukrainian people build the secure, prosperous, and independent future they deserve.⁵

Further, according to USAID, a United States Agency that leads the U.S. government's international development and humanitarian efforts:

³ As of the date of this filing, there are no Ukrainian Companies listed on Nasdaq.

¹⁵ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A)(ii).

¹⁶ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(2).

Since Putin's full-scale war against Ukraine on February 24, 2022, the United States, through USAID, has surged support to rapidly address urgent humanitarian needs, while also investing in Ukraine's economy and building resilient infrastructure and institutions to help Ukraine recover from Putin's ruthless attacks and sustain a lasting peace.⁶

Nasdaq notes that the Government of the United States has identified the private sector as one of key factors for the successful Ukraine reconstruction efforts and is encouraging investment in Ukraine.

Similarly, Nasdaq also believes that reconstruction of Ukrainian infrastructure damaged or destroyed during the invasion and creation of a new European economic model for Ukraine will be based on free enterprise, attraction of international capital, the best international experience and market practices, and a fair and attractive business climate. As such, Nasdaq proposes to temporarily waive entry and annual fees for Ukrainian Companies listing on Nasdaq. Specifically, Nasdaq proposes to waive the entry fee (including the application fee) and the All-Inclusive Annual Listing Fee described in Rule 5910 (with respect to the Nasdaq Global Market, including the Nasdaq Global Select Market) and Rule 5920 (with respect to the Nasdaq Capital Market) for Ukrainian Companies until December 31, 2028.⁷ Nasdaq believes that this temporary waiver will ease the listing of Ukrainian companies on Nasdaq and thereby help those companies to attract international capital, facilitating capital formation and creating opportunities for economic growth both for these companies and the Ukrainian economy overall.

Nasdaq proposes to define a Ukrainian Company for purposes of this fee waiver to mean a Company⁸ incorporated in Ukraine or a Company whose business is principally administered in Ukraine. A Company's business will be considered to be principally administered in Ukraine if: (i) at least 50% of the Company's assets are located in that jurisdiction; or (ii) at least 50% of the Company's revenues are derived from that jurisdiction. The proposed definition of a Ukrainian Company is based in part on Rule 5005(a)(37) which defines when a company is from a Restrictive Market.⁹ Nasdaq believes the proposed definition of a Ukrainian Company is appropriate given the significant connection it requires to Ukraine and the Exchange's experience in applying the similar definition.¹⁰

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act,¹¹ in general, and furthers the objectives of Sections 6(b)(4) and 6(b)(5) of the Act,¹² in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among members and issuers and other persons using any facility, and is not designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers.

Specifically, Nasdaq believes that the proposed fee waivers are equitable and not unfairly discriminatory as they are being implemented to support companies that are incorporated in or whose business is principally administered in Ukraine—a country operating under conditions unprecedented during this century caused by a full scale military invasion, as described above. Nasdaq believes that Ukraine stands in unique circumstances, facing an almost two-year long invasion by a member of the United Nations Security Council, while the United Nations, in just its eleventh emergency special session ever, overwhelmingly adopted a resolution demanding the Russian Federation immediately end its invasion and unconditionally withdraw.¹³ Nasdaq believes that waiving these fees will facilitate the listing of Ukrainian companies on Nasdaq in the United States, providing them access to a deep pool of liquidity to raise capital to use in the rebuilding of the Ukrainian economy, consistent with the goals of the United States government and Nasdaq's interest in speeding the recovery of the Ukraine economy in these unique circumstances. Finally, Nasdaq believes that it will also allow these companies to reinvest the money that otherwise would be paid to Nasdaq into those reconstruction efforts.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The proposed waiver will be available to all similarly situated issuers on the same basis. Moreover, the companies eligible for the waiver will be faced with operating under conditions unprecedented during this century caused by a full scale military invasion, as described above—conditions not generally experienced by other companies that are not eligible for the waiver. As such, the Exchange does not believe that the proposed temporary waivers will have any meaningful effect on the competition among issuers listed on the Exchange.

The Exchange operates in a highly competitive market in which issuers can readily choose to list new securities on other exchanges and transfer listings to other exchanges if they deem fee levels at those other venues to be more favorable. Because competitors are free to modify their own fees in response, and because issuers may change their listing venue, the Exchange does not believe its proposed fee change will impose any burden on intermarket competition.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act.¹⁴

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is: (i) necessary or appropriate in ⁹ Rule 5005(a)(37) defines Restrictive Market as a jurisdiction that does not provide the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board with access to conduct inspections of public accounting firms that audit Nasdaq-listed companies. A Company's business will be considered to be principally administered in a Restrictive Market if: (i) the Company's books and records are located in that jurisdiction; (ii) at least 50% of the Company's assets are located in such jurisdiction; or (iii) at least 50% of the Company's revenues are derived from such jurisdiction. While the location of the Company's books and records were a factor in determining whether a company was in a Restrictive Market because of the inability of the PCAOB to inspect those books and records, Nasdaq does not believe that element is appropriate as a sole determination as to whether a company is principally administered in Ukraine.

Title: Aging Aircraft Program (Widespread Fatigue Damage).

Form Numbers: There are no FAA forms associated with this collection.

Type of Review: Renewal of an information collection.

Background: The Federal Register Notice with a 60-day comment period soliciting comments on the following collection of information was published May 30, 2023 (88 FR 34556). Title: Funds Transfers to Other Agencies and Among Title 23 Programs.
OMB Control: 2125-0620.

Background: The Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (IIJA), Public Law 117-58, continues the ability of States to transfer highway funds to other States and agencies and among programs/projects. These authorities are codified in sections 104 and 126 of title 23, United States Code, as amended by the IIJA. Transferability under the IIJA is generally similar to that allowed under previous authorization acts such as the Fixing America's Surface Transportation (FAST) Act, Moving Ahead for Progress in the 21st Century Act (MAP-21), and the Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient Transportation Equity Act: A Legacy for Users (SAFETEA-LU). This notice establishes requirements for initiating the transfer of apportioned funds (funds distributed among States and programs by statutory formula) to carry out these provisions of law. The types of transfers affected by this notice are:

a. Transfer of funds from a State to the FHWA pursuant to U.S.C. Title 23, § 104(f)(3).

b. Transfer of funds from a State to a Federal Agency other than FHWA.

c. Transfer of funds from a State to another State.

d. Transfer of funds from FHWA to Federal Transit Administration pursuant to 23 U.S.C. 104(f)(1).

e. Transfer of funds between programs pursuant to 23 U.S.C. 126; and,

f. Transfer of funds between projects.

The State initiating the fund transfer must fill out a FHWA Funds Transfer Request form. This form is either filled out manually via the currently approved paper-based transfer form (FHWA-1575C) or electronically via the FHWA Funds Control Module in the Fiscal Management Information System (FMIS). The information required in the FMIS Funds Control Module is equivalent to the information required in the paper-based transfer form and over ninety percent of the transfers are now required to be submitted electronically. These transfers are routed electronically after State DOT approval, from the State DOT to the FHWA Division Office; after Division Office concurrence, from the Division Office to the FHWA Budget Office; and finally, the FHWA Budget Office processes the request. Automating in the FMIS Funds Control Module allowed the transfer request process to be streamlined by incorporating system validations to limit errors and by automating the flow of the approval process. Information required to fill out a transfer form includes the requester's contact information; a description of the program/project the transfer will come from and go to, the fiscal year, the program code, a demo ID, or an urban area when applicable, and the amount to be transferred.

Respondents: 50 State Transportation Departments, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

Estimated Average Burden per Response: 15 minutes.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: It is estimated that a total of 2,000 responses will be received annually, which would equal a total annual burden of 500 hours.

Public Comments Invited: You are asked to comment on any aspect of this information collection, including: (1) Whether the proposed collection is necessary for the FHWA's performance; (2) the accuracy of the estimated burdens; (3) ways for the FHWA to enhance the quality, usefulness, and clarity of the collected information; and (4) ways that the burden could be minimized, including the use of electronic technology, without reducing the quality of the collected information. The agency will summarize and/or

Authority: The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995; 44 U.S.C. chapter 35, as amended; and 49 CFR 1.48.

Issued on: February 22, 2024.

Title: Annual Tank Car Survey

Background: On December 4, 2015, President Barack Obama signed legislation entitled “Fixing America’s Surface Transportation Act of 2015,” or the “FAST Act.” See Public Law 114-94. The FAST Act includes the “Hazardous Materials Transportation Safety Improvement Act of 2015” (see sections 7001 through 7311) and instructs the Secretary of Transportation to make specific regulatory amendments to the Hazardous Materials Regulations (HMR; 49 CFR parts 171-180), including requirements for rail tank car manufacturers to report their progress toward modifying rail tank cars used for the transportation of Class 3 flammable liquids in accordance with the timeline established in section 7304 of the FAST Act.

This notice is applicable to section 7308(c) of the FAST Act which directs the Secretary to conduct an annual survey of tank car shops to acquire projections of the number of tank cars to be built or manufactured to the new safer specifications. This includes new tank cars built to the DOT Specification 117, or equivalent, as well as tank cars modified to the DOT Specification 117R. Tank cars will include, but may not be limited to, those originally built to Specifications: DOT105, DOT109, DOT111, DOT112, DOT114, DOT115, and DOT120.

Respondents: There are approximately 400 tank car facilities that are currently registered or certified to build or modify tank cars. However, the majority of these do not have the capacity to modify or build to the 117 or 117R Specifications. At most, an estimated 140 tank car shops have the capacity to build or modify to these new safety standards.

Estimated Average Burden per Response: An estimated 140 facilities will provide a response to this request for information on an annual basis. It will take approximately 30 minutes to complete, including record keeping and reporting. This notice is intended to accurately account for the annual burden.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: The estimated burden is equal to 70 annual burden hours (i.e., 140 responses per year × 0.5 hour per response). The total burden cost is estimated at $4,765 (i.e., 70 burden hours × $68.07, which is the per hour wage of $52.36 for a manager in Transportation, Storage, and Distribution plus 30% to account for benefits).

Frequency: The survey frequency is prescribed by Section 7308(d) of the FAST Act. Specifically, the Secretary is required to conduct the survey annually until May 1, 2029 under Section 7308(c).

Response to comments: BTS published a 60-day notice for public comment for this information collection to the Federal Register on December 14, 2023 (88 FR 86728). The notice can be found at: <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2023/12/14/2023-27497/request-for-clearance-for-information-collection-annual-tank-car-survey>. One comment was received from the National Propane Gas Association expressing the agency’s support for such a program. No changes are planned in response to this comment.

Public Comments Invited: Interested parties are invited to send comments regarding any aspect of this information collection, including, but not limited to: (1) the necessity and utility of the information collection for the proper performance of the functions of the DOT; (2) the accuracy of the estimated burden; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, clarity and content of the collected information; and (4) ways to minimize the collection burden without reducing the quality of the collected information. Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and/or included in the request for OMB’s clearance of this information collection.

Issued in Washington, DC, on the 22nd of February 2024.

Director, Office of Data Development and Standards, Bureau of Transportation Statistics, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Research and Technology.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Camille Edwards Bennehoff at (202) 317-6855 (not a toll-free number).

Request To Add Substance to the List

(a) Overview. A petition was filed pursuant to Rev. Proc. 2022-26 (2022-29 I.R.B. 90), as modified by Rev. Proc. 2023-20 (2023-15 I.R.B. 636), requesting that iso-butanol be added to the list of taxable substances under section 4672(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (List). The petition requesting the addition of iso-butanol to the List is based on weight and contains the information detailed in paragraph (b) of this document. The information is provided for public notice and comment pursuant to section 9 of Rev. Proc. 2022-26. The publication of petition information in this notice of filing is not a determination and does not constitute Treasury Department or IRS confirmation of the accuracy of the information published.

(b) Petition Content.(1) Substance name: Iso-butanol.

The substance is also known as isobutanol, iso butyl alcohol, 2-methyl propan-1-ol, or 2-methyl-1-propanol.

(2) Petitioner: OQ Chemicals

(3) Proposed classification numbers:

(i) HTSUS number: 2905.14.50.10.

(ii) Schedule B number: 2905.14.5010.

(iii) CAS number: 78–83–1.

(4) Petition filing dates:

(i) Petition filing date for purposes of making a determination: January 25, 2024.

(ii) Petition filing date for purposes of section 11.02 of Rev. Proc. 2022–26, as modified by section 3 of Rev. Proc. 2023–20: April 1, 2023.

(5) Description from petition:

According to the petition, iso-butanol is an isomer of n-butanol. Iso-butanol is a four carbon branched aliphatic alcohol. It is used as a solvent or in the manufacture of esters, such as isobutyl acetate, isobutyl acrylate, and isobutyl methacrylate.

Iso-butanol is made from methane and propylene. Taxable chemicals constitute 78.41 percent by weight of the materials used to produce this substance.

(6) Process identified in petition as predominant method of production of substance: Iso-butanol is co-produced by hydroformylation of propylene to produce both iso-butyraldehyde and n-butyraldehyde followed by hydrogenation of the aldehyde intermediates to the corresponding iso-butanol and n-butanol.

An explanation of the predominant method of production:

a. Partial oxidation of methane with oxygen to produce synthesis gas, a mixture of carbon monoxide and hydrogen. OQ uses a Partial Oxidation (POX) process that is non catalytic but operates at >1300 deg C and >40 atm pressure. Thus, synthesis gas is produced from methane and oxygen:

b. Oxo process: Hydroformylation of propylene with carbon monoxide and hydrogen over a catalyst to produce iso-butyraldehyde. (Reaction also produces normal butyraldehyde simultaneously not shown for simplification; stoichiometry is the same for either the iso or the normal aldehyde.) Thus, iso-butyraldehyde is produced from propylene and syngas.

c. Iso-butyraldehyde is hydrogenated with hydrogen over a catalyst. Thus, iso-butanol is produced from iso-butyraldehyde and hydrogen.

(7) Stoichiometric material consumption equation, based on process identified as predominant method of production:

(8) Tax rate calculated by Petitioner, based on Petitioner's conversion factors for taxable chemicals used in production of substance:

(i) Tax rate: $7.07 per ton.

(ii) Conversion factors: 0.22 for methane, 0.57 for propylene.

(9) Public docket number: IRS–2024–0007.
