Notice of Intent To Repatriate Cultural Items Amendment: California State University, Sacramento, Sacramento, CA

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice; amendment.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), the California State University, Sacramento has amended a Notice of Intent to Repatriate Cultural Items published in the Federal Register on March 2, 2023. This notice amends the cultural affiliation in a collection removed from Amador County, CA.

DATES: Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice may occur on or after April 8, 2024.

ADDRESSES: Dr. Mark Wheeler, Chief of Staff to President Luke Wood, California State University, Sacramento, 6000 J Street, Sacramento, CA 95819, telephone (916) 460-0490, email mark.wheeler@csus.edu.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA. The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of the California State University, Sacramento. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice. Additional information on the amendments and determinations in this notice, including the results of consultation, can be found in the summary or related records held by the California State University, Sacramento.

Amendment

This notice amends the determinations published in a Notice of Intent to Repatriate Cultural Items in the Federal Register (88 FR 13146, March 2, 2023). Repatriation of the items in the original Notice of Intent to Repatriate Cultural Items has not occurred. This notice amends the Tribes listed in the determinations section. Additional information of cultural affiliation was provided to support the addition of the Ione Band of Miwok Indians of California.

Determinations (as Amended)

Pursuant to NAGPRA and its implementing regulations, and after consultation with the appropriate Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations, the California State University, Sacramento has determined that:

- The 108 cultural items described above have ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Native American group or culture itself, rather than property owned by an individual.
- There is a relationship of shared group identity that can be reasonably traced between the cultural items in this notice and the Buena Vista Rancheria of Me-Wuk Indians of California and the Ione Band of Miwok Indians of California.

Requests for Repatriation

Additional, written requests for repatriation of the cultural items in this notice must be sent to the Responsible Official identified in ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or a culturally affiliated Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after April 8, 2024. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the California State University, Sacramento must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the cultural items are considered a single request and not competing requests. The California State University, Sacramento is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice.

Authority: Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act, 25 U.S.C. 3004, and the implementing regulations, 43 CFR 10.9.

Dated: February 29, 2024.

Notice of Intent To Repatriate Cultural Items: California State University, Sacramento, Sacramento, CA, and East Bay Municipal Utility District, Oakland, CA

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), California State University, Sacramento and East Bay Municipal Utility District (EBMUD) intend to repatriate certain cultural items that meet the definition of objects of cultural patrimony and that have a cultural affiliation with the Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations in this notice.

DATES: Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice may occur on or after April 8, 2024.

ADDRESSES: Dr. Mark Wheeler, Chief of Staff to President Luke Wood, California State University, Sacramento, 6000 J Street, Sacramento, CA 95819, telephone (916) 460-0490, email mark.wheeler@csus.edu, and Chuck Beckman, Manager of Watershed and Recreation, East Bay Municipal Utility District, 15083 Camanche Parkway South, Valley Springs, CA 95252, telephone (209) 772-8203, email 1855harles.beckman@ebmud.com.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA. The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of California State University, Sacramento and EBMUD, and additional information on the determinations in this notice, including the results of consultation, can be found in the summary or related records. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice.

Abstract of Information Available

The 18,984 cultural items were removed from several sites in Amador County, CA. In the 1950s and 1960s, California State University, Sacramento conducted various surveys and excavations prior to the inundation of Camanche Reservoir, variously under the direction of William Beeson, Jerald Johnson, Louis Payen, William Hansen, and David Boloyan. These sites include AMA-04, AMA-05, AMA-08, AMA-45, AMA-50, and AMA-76. All collections were curated at California State University, Sacramento. The 18,984 objects of cultural patrimony include faunal and flora remains; flaked and ground stone objects; unmodified stones; historic objects; modified shell, stone and wood; baked clay; ash; ochre; soil and geologic samples; thermally altered rocks; other organic material; and unidentified material. Of this number, 978 objects are currently missing from the collections. California State University, Sacramento continues to look for these 978 missing objects.

Determinations

California State University, Sacramento and EBMUD have determined that:

- The 18,984 cultural items described above have ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Native American group or culture itself, including any constituent sub-group (such as a band, clan, lineage, ceremonial society, or other subdivision), according to the Native American traditional knowledge of an Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.
- There is a reasonable connection between the cultural items described in this notice and the Buena Vista Rancheria of Me-Wuk Indians of California and the Ione Band of Miwok Indians of California.

Requests for Repatriation

Additional, written requests for repatriation of the cultural items in this notice must be sent to the authorized representative identified in this notice under ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or a culturally affiliated Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after April 8, 2024. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the California State University, Sacramento and EBMUD must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the cultural items are considered a single request and not competing requests. The California State University, Sacramento and EBMUD is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribes identified in this notice.

Authority: Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act, 25 U.S.C. 3004 and the implementing regulations, 43 CFR 10.9.

Notice of Inventory Completion: William S. Webb Museum of Anthropology, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), the William S. Webb Museum of Anthropology, University of Kentucky (WSWM) has completed an inventory of human remains and associated funerary objects and has determined that there is a cultural affiliation between the human remains and associated funerary objects and Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations in this notice.

DATES: Repatriation of the human remains and associated funerary objects in this notice may occur on or after April 8, 2024.

ADDRESSES: Celise Chilcote-Fricker, William S. Webb Museum of Anthropology, University of Kentucky, 1020 Export St., Lexington, KY 40504, telephone (859) 257-5124, email celise.fricker@uky.edu.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA. The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of the WSWM, and additional information on the determinations in this notice, including the results of consultation, can be found in the inventory or related records. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice.

Abstract of Information Available

Based on the information available, human remains representing, at least, one individual have been reasonably identified. No associated funerary objects are present. The site 15BE06 (Petersburg) in Boone, KY was initially excavated by the University of Kentucky Program for Cultural Resource Assessment in 1990. A Fort Ancient determination for these human remains is based on the presence of shell-tempered ceramics and contact-period burial associations.

Based on the information available, human remains representing, at least, 42 individuals have been reasonably identified. The 31 associated funerary objects are one lot lithic, seven bone beads, one cannel coal pendant, one worked cannel coal, two lots ceramic, two lots charcoal, two lots faunal, two lots floatation, two limestone disks, seven projectile points, two lots shell, and two bifaces. Site 15BB12 (Buckner) in Bourbon, KY was first excavated in 1939 by the University of Kentucky Museum of Anthropology under contract to the Works Progress Administration, surface collections in 1977 by Turnbow and Hockensmith were later donated to the WSWM and then the site was excavated again in 1987 by the University of Kentucky Field School. A Fort Ancient determination for these human remains is based on the presence of wall-trench houses, and diagnostic limestone/shell-tempered ceramics and projectile points.

Based on the information available, human remains representing, at least, one individual have been reasonably identified. No associated funerary objects are present. Site 15BB45 (New Field) in Bourbon, KY was excavated in 1992 by the University of Kentucky Program for Cultural Resource Assessment. A Fort Ancient determination for these human remains is based on the presence of shell/limestone tempered ceramics characteristic of Fort Ancient occupations in eastern Kentucky and C14 dates.

Based on the information available, nine associated funerary objects are two lots faunal, two lots ceramic, two lots lithic, two lots charcoal, and one lot floatation. Site 15BK02 (Snag Creek/
