SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

TRIA¹ requires participating insurers to make insurance available for losses resulting from acts of terrorism and provides a federal government backstop for the insurers' resulting financial exposure. TRIA established TRIP within Treasury, and TRIP is administered by the Secretary with the assistance of FIO. TRIA Section 104(h)(2) requires the Secretary to periodically prepare and submit a report to the Committee on Financial Services of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate on, among other things, the impact and effectiveness of TRIP (Effectiveness Report). TRIA was reauthorized in December 2019 with an additional requirement that Treasury's Effectiveness Reports analyze the availability and affordability of terrorism risk insurance, including specifically for houses of worship. The Effectiveness Report to be submitted by June 30, 2024 will include an analysis of information that is being collected by Treasury through the 2024 TRIP Data Call,² as well as data that Treasury collected in prior TRIP data calls. Treasury's data calls are conducted to obtain information to facilitate Treasury's analysis of the effectiveness of TRIP and the competitiveness of small insurers in the terrorism risk insurance marketplace,³ as well as to assist Treasury more generally in the administration of TRIP.

II. Solicitation for Comments

This request for comment will provide stakeholders the opportunity to provide qualitative feedback and analysis that may not be otherwise observable through the results of the TRIP data calls. Information and views of stakeholders on the factors listed above will assist Treasury in the formulation of the Effectiveness Report and provide a meaningful opportunity for stakeholder engagement. In addition, and more generally, such public input may assist the Secretary in the administration of TRIP.

Statutory Factors

Treasury seeks comments on each of the following factors, which Treasury is required under TRIA Section 104(h)(2) to consider in the Effectiveness Report:

1. The overall effectiveness of TRIP;
2. The availability and affordability of terrorism risk insurance, including specifically for places of worship;
3. Any changes or trends relating to the data Treasury collects in its annual TRIP data calls, and the implications of such observations with regard to the effectiveness of TRIP;
4. Whether any aspects of TRIP have the effect of discouraging or impeding insurers from providing one or more lines of commercial property and casualty insurance coverage or coverage for acts of terrorism; and
5. Any impact of TRIP on workers' compensation insurers in particular.

In addition to seeking comments on the above factors outlined in Section 104(h)(2) of TRIA, Treasury understands that other issues and factors in the insurance market relating to terrorism risk insurance, other than those factors specified in TRIA, could have an impact on the effectiveness of the Program, as well as FIO's administration of TRIP. Treasury accordingly also seeks comments on the following topics:

Additional Topics

1. Whether the lines of insurance currently subject to the Program properly identify those areas where TRIP is necessary to ensure the availability and affordability of terrorism risk insurance, or whether certain lines of insurance should either be deleted or added;
2. The availability of terrorism risk insurance coverage for losses arising from nuclear, biological, chemical, or radiological (NBCR) exposures, and the availability of reinsurance or capital markets support for terrorism risk insurance for such exposures;

3. Changes in the property, casualty, and reinsurance markets since the 2022 Program Effectiveness Report that may have affected the pricing, affordability, availability, and take up of terrorism risk insurance;

Cyber-Related Topics

4. Terrorism risk insurance issues presented by cyber-related losses, and the potential response of TRIP in connection with such exposures, including your views on the type of cyber-related terrorism losses that may be included within TRIP and those losses that may not be covered by TRIP;

5. Any potential changes to TRIA or TRIP that would encourage the take up of insurance for cyber-related losses arising from acts of terrorism as defined under TRIA, including, but not limited to the modification of the lines of insurance covered by TRIP and revisions to the current TRIP risk-sharing mechanisms for cyber-related losses, including how TRIP would respond to potential catastrophic cyber events;

6. The availability of reinsurance or capital markets support for cyber-related losses arising from acts of terrorism as defined under TRIA;

Other Topics

7. How captive insurers access TRIP, including the extent to which they provide coverage on a standalone versus embedded basis, or provide coverage for NBCR risks only;

8. The current status of terrorism risk modeling capabilities, and the use of those techniques in the placement of terrorism risk insurance;

9. Given the nature of terrorism risk, whether FIO should be seeking more granular information than state or metropolitan level information (such as ZIP code level or geocoded information) to assist in FIO's analysis of the terrorism risk insurance market and TRIP;

10. How and whether developments in Artificial Intelligence technologies will affect terrorism insurance underwriting, marketing, claims management, and perils;

11. In what ways, if any, small business clients face distinct challenges in the terrorism insurance market and whether small business have materially different exposures or take-up rates from the broader terrorism insurance market;

12. Given that FIO now chairs the International Forum of Terrorism (Re)Insurance Pools, any issues that FIO should consider in its engagement with international entities or authorities providing support for terrorism risk insurance or reinsurance; and

13. Any other issues relating to TRIP, terrorism risk insurance, or reinsurance that may be relevant to FIO's assessment of the effectiveness of TRIP in the report.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

TRIA¹ created the Program within the U.S. Department of the Treasury (Treasury) to address disruptions in the market for terrorism risk insurance, to help ensure the continued availability and affordability of commercial property and casualty insurance for terrorism risk, and to allow for the private market to stabilize and build insurance capacity to absorb any future losses for terrorism events. The Program has been reauthorized on a number of occasions, and was most recently extended until December 31, 2027.² TRIA requires the Secretary of the Treasury (Secretary) to collect certain insurance data and information from insurers on an annual basis regarding their participation in the Program.³ TRIA also requires the Secretary to prepare a biennial report on the effectiveness of the Program (Effectiveness Report).⁴ The Effectiveness Report must be submitted to Congress by June 30, 2024. The Federal Insurance Office (FIO) is authorized to assist the Secretary in the administration of the Program,⁵ including conducting the annual data call and preparing reports and studies required under TRIA.

II. Elements of the 2024 TRIP Data Call

For purposes of the 2024 TRIP Data Call, FIO, state insurance regulators, and the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) will again use the consolidated data call mechanism first developed for use in the 2018 TRIP Data Call. This approach relies on four joint reporting templates, to be
