SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

Upon request, BIS will initiate an investigation to determine the effects of imports of specific commodities on the national security and will make the findings known to the President for possible adjustments to imports through tariffs. The findings are made publicly available and are reported to Congress. The purpose of this collection is to account for the public burden associated with the surveys distributed to determine the impact on national security. These surveys are designed to gather information so that BIS can evaluate the impact of foreign imports of strategic commodities on the national security of the United States. Each Section 232 study is for a specific commodity or technology that is required for national security reasons (e.g., precision bearings, microprocessors, machine tools, etc). These surveys attempt to determine the size of the domestic U.S. industry, how the domestic U.S. industry has been effected by foreign imports, demand for the commodity during peacetime, demand during wartime, the ability of the U.S. domestic industry to meet a surge in demand during wartime, and the potential impact on U.S. national security if wartime demand cannot be met by domestic U.S. suppliers.

II. Method of Collection

BIS custom-designs unique instruments for each Section 232 survey. The method of collection could be via paper or electronic.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On November 29, 2023, Commerce published in the Federal Register its preliminary affirmative determination in this investigation, in which we also postponed the final determination until April 12, 2024.¹ We invited parties to comment on the Preliminary Determination.

A summary of the events that occurred since Commerce published the Preliminary Determination, as well as a full discussion of the issues raised by parties for this final determination, may be found in the Issues and Decision Memorandum.² The Issues and Decision Memorandum is a public document and is on file electronically via Enforcement and Compliance's Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System (ACCESS). ACCESS is available to registered users at <https://access.trade.gov>. In addition, a complete version of the Issues and Decision Memorandum can be accessed directly at <https://access.trade.gov/public/FRNoticesListLayout.aspx>.

Scope of the Investigation

The product covered by this investigation is boltless steel shelving from Malaysia. For a complete description of the scope of this investigation, see Appendix I.

Scope Comments

During the course of this investigation, Commerce received scope comments from interested parties. Commerce issued a Preliminary Scope Decision Memorandum to address these comments and set aside a period of time for parties to address scope issues in scope-specific case and rebuttal briefs.³ We received comments from interested parties on the Preliminary Scope Decision Memorandum, which we addressed in the Final Scope Decision Memorandum.⁴ We did not make any changes to the scope of the investigation from the scope published in the Preliminary Determination.

Verification

In the Preliminary Determination, Commerce stated that it intended to verify the information relied upon in making its final determination.⁵ However, due to circumstances discussed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum, Commerce declined to conduct any verifications in this investigation.⁶

Analysis of Comments Received

All issues raised in the case and rebuttal briefs by interested parties in this investigation are addressed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum. A list of the issues raised is attached to this notice as Appendix II.

Changes Since the Preliminary Determination

We have made certain changes since the Preliminary Determination. For a discussion of these changes, see the Issues and Decision Memorandum.

Use of Adverse Facts Available

As discussed in the Preliminary Determination, Commerce assigned to certain mandatory respondents in this investigation, Nanjing Chervon Industry Co., Ltd. (Nanjing Chervon) and Wuxi Bote Electrical Apparatus Co., Ltd. (Wuxi Bote), estimated weighted-average dumping margins on the basis of adverse facts available (AFA), pursuant to sections 776(a) and (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act).⁷ There is no new information on the record that would cause us to revisit our decision in the Preliminary Determination. Accordingly, for this final determination, we continue to find that the application of AFA pursuant to sections 776(a) and (b) of the Act is warranted with respect to Nanjing Chervon and Wuxi Bote.

Moreover, in the Preliminary Determination, Commerce calculated an estimated weighted-average dumping margin of zero for Eonmetall Industries Sdn. Bhd. (EMI).⁸ However, following the Preliminary Determination, we determined that information submitted by EMI in this investigation is unverifiable.⁹ Therefore, as explained in the Issues and Decision Memorandum, we find that EMI failed to provide verifiable information and did not cooperate to the best of its ability in this proceeding. As such, for this final determination, we determine it is also appropriate to apply a dumping margin based on AFA to EMI, in accordance with sections 776(a) and (b) of the Act. For further discussion, see the Issues and Decision Memorandum.
