

III. Declaration of the Secretary of Health and Human Services

On April 19, 2013, pursuant to section 564(b)(1) of the FD&C Act and subject to the terms of any authorization issued under that section, former Secretary Sebelius declared that circumstances exist justifying the authorization of emergency use of in vitro diagnostics for detection of avian influenza A (H7N9) virus. That declaration remains in effect until that declaration is terminated in accordance with section 564 of the FD&C Act.

Xavier Becerra,

Secretary, Department of Health and Human Services.

The comments that are submitted will be summarized and included in the request for approval. All comments will become a matter of public record.

Overview of This Information Collection

Title: Entry of Articles for Exhibition.
OMB Number: 1651-0037.

Current Actions: CBP proposes to extend the expiration date of this information collection with no change to the burden hours or to the information collected.

Type of Review: Extension (without change).

Affected Public: Businesses.

Abstract: Goods entered for the purpose of exhibit at fairs, or for use in constructing, installing, or maintaining foreign exhibits at a fair may be free of duty under 19 U.S.C. 1752. In order to substantiate that goods qualify for duty-free treatment, the consignee of the merchandise must provide information to CBP about the imported goods, which is specified in 19 CFR 147.11(c).

Without the required information CBP will not be able to determine if the goods qualify for duty free treatment. A trade fair entry allows for duty-free entry of imported articles intended for exhibitions or for articles that will be used in the construction, installation or maintenance of foreign exhibits at trade fairs. These importations do not require the payment of any taxes or fees except for the Harbor Maintenance Fee (HMF). Trade Fair entries are not exempt from Harbor Maintenance Fee (HMF) pursuant to 19 CFR 24.24(c). "The collection of information is made upon arrival at the port of the fair on a special form of entry, 19 CFR 147.11(c)."

Type of Information Collection: Articles for Exhibition.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 50.

Estimated Number of Annual Responses per Respondent: 50.

Estimated Number of Total Annual Responses: 2,500.

Estimated Time per Response: 20 minutes.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 833.

Dated: July 19, 2024.

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

[Docket No. DHS-2024-0029]

Establishment of Independent Panel To Review Actions Relating to the Attempted Assassination of Former President Donald J. Trump AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Department of Homeland Security (DHS).

ACTION: Committee management; notice of committee establishment.

SUMMARY: In order to facilitate an effective review of the security provided by the U.S. Secret Service to Former President Donald J. Trump on July 13, 2024, the Department of Homeland Security (Department or DHS) is creating an Independent Review Panel (Panel). Pursuant to the Homeland Security Act of 2002, the Department is taking immediate measures to establish this independent panel of experts to inquire into the planning for and actions taken by the U.S. Secret Service and state and local authorities, before, during, and after the July 13, 2024, attempted assassination of Former President Donald J. Trump at a campaign rally in Butler, Pennsylvania. The Panel will also review the governing policies and procedures and provide findings and recommendations to the Secretary of Homeland Security.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Michael J. Miron, Committee Management Officer, Office of Partnership and Engagement, U.S. Department of Homeland Security at reviewpanel@hq.dhs.gov or (202) 343-1673.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

At the direction of the President, the Secretary of Homeland Security is establishing an independent review of the tragic events of July 13, 2024, when a now-deceased assailant attempted to assassinate former President Donald J. Trump at a campaign rally in Butler, Pennsylvania, injuring the former President, killing one person attending the rally, and injuring two others, as reported. The Panel will review the planning for and actions taken by U.S. Secret Service and state and local authorities before, during, and after the July 13, 2024 campaign rally, and the governing policies and procedures. The Panel will provide findings and recommendations to the Secretary of Homeland Security. This time-sensitive and important review will entail discussion of classified information.

The Department has recognized in the past that some highly critical issues cannot be discussed in public without jeopardizing the security and confidentiality of sensitive homeland security information. For example, in 2014, the Department established the United States Secret Service Protective Mission Panel (USSSPMP) to review security processes, procedures, and actions taken after a civilian scaled a fence and entered the White House compound on September 19, 2014. See 79 FR 63141 (Oct. 22, 2014). Discussions between the members of the 2014 Panel involved intelligence and law enforcement sensitive information and remain non-public to avoid disclosing protective mission sensitive information to criminals and our nation's enemies, including sensitive law enforcement techniques and
